Benefit - continued from Page 2

- HOSTESSES (thank you for handling staggering logistics so smoothly; Smith would be proud!): Nelle Curtis and Helen Jennings from Palos Verdes; Phoebe Wood, Anne Marie Barry and Clara Lopez '84; Leslie Forbes, Cora Kameran and Linda Strohl; Nancy DeNero 'borrowed' from Pasadena - all on the team of Hospitality/Hostess chairman Emily Daniels who spent hours with me at the Music Center working out "the plan" (What if Perlman's concert and "Waltz" got out simultaneously? How fast could the elevators carry up our group? Etc. Thank you, Emily!)
- THE EVENING'S PUBLICITY handled so perfectly by Vivian Forbes (with typewriter help from Leslie)...Thank you!!! On top of all the stories that came out of our June kickoff and December mailing, our "Jan. 21" story will be in the Times, Daily (Valley) News, Santa Monica Outlook, Pasadena Star News, Palisadian/Brentwood Post and the Palos Verdes paper (thanks, Nelle).
- RESERVATIONS: For 45 days straight, right through the holidays, wonderful Mary Holmes (and patient Russ!) handled every reservation and phone call. For all of us, Thank you, Mary. No one could have been fairer or more gracious.

With apologies for names not here (remember, 110 made it all happen), with appreciation for every single seat and giant group you sold, with the special joy that comes from sharing a project with Mabel,

Mrs. James L. Stewart
10045 Valley Spring Lane
Toluca Lake, California 91602

Dear Mrs. Stewart:

It was a pleasure to receive your very warm note, and the lovely Christmas poinsettia. My husband and I appreciate your kind thoughts and good wishes. I am also happy to know you have been such a supportive Smith alumna.

We send our best wishes for good health and much happiness in 1981.

Sincerely,

Nancy Reagan

NANCY REAGAN

Dear Sally Stewart --

Thank you for your beautiful roses and your charming letter. I hope the play lives up to your enthusiasm to say nothing of my own. Earl Holliman must have been so pleased with your card purchase -- good for you. I hope that Smith will not regret. Fran Rich, a good friend of mine, is a graduate. Nice that you all work so hard for your alma mater.

LATE BREAKING NEWS -

An invitation has been extended to Smith Club members and their guests by the L.A. County Museum of Art to attend a lecture and slide presentation by Gertrude Grace Sill (Smith '48) of Connecticut.

Gertrude is an art historian, writer and lecturer, who will speak on the "Flora and Fauna of Tapestry" on Monday, February 23rd at 2 p.m. in the Bing Auditorium at the L.A. County Museum of Art. The brochure describes her discussion: "Medieval works of mille fleurs designed, explored and explained with detailed slides, comparing actual flowers from the medieval garden with those in these tapestries."

A tea will follow the lecture. For questions or reservations, please call Mabel Pollak at 476-1334. Admission is $3.00
