

Resolution of
The Board of Supervisors of Ventura County
Congratulating
California State University of Channel Islands
Upon the Launch of
The Henry L. "Hank" Lacayo Institute of Workforce & Community Services

Whereas, the California State University of Channel Islands and President Richard R. Rush will officially launch The Henry L. "Hank" Lacayo Institute of Workforce & Community Studies program on the 15th of November 2010; and

Whereas, the institute is named after Henry L. "Hank" Lacayo, whose legacy of a lifetime of active dedication to the nation's workforce and community developments has been an inspiration to many; and

Whereas, as a non-partisan, public organization, the institute will conduct research and issue publications with a commitment to enlighten policy makers at a regional, state and national level with the best current information and politically unbiased insights on the complexity of sustainable workforce issues that face us today and have an impact in the future; and

Whereas, the institute will be a "living laboratory". The University and the community provides an ideal environment for students to assess the challenges and issues that are faced by large cities, agriculture, the service sector, light industry, the United States Military, and international business; and

Whereas, the institute will be a vital resource for students and the nation at large by providing essential and much needed education, information, and training that would best fit the unique nature of each workforce and community issue that arises.

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the Ventura County Board of Supervisors does hereby celebrate with California State University of Channel Islands the launch of The Henry L. "Hank" Lacayo Institute and extends sincere congratulations on this outstanding educational vision. The Board also offers best wishes and many fulfilling years of student research and study opportunities for the Institute and University.

Presented on this 15th day of November 2010
