

11. American Government and Institutions (3)

Meets the United States Constitution requirement for general education; federal, California state and local government. Not open to freshmen or to students with credit in Pol Sc 1A-B or 101. Government within the context of society; relevant studies in economics, sociology, anthropology, history, psychology organized around a set of governmental questions.

101. American Constitution, Institutions and Ideals (3)

Meets the United States Constitution requirement for general education. Not open to students below second semester sophomore or with credit in Pol Sc 1A-B, 11, or equivalent. Executive, legislative, and judicial functions of our government under the constitution; federal, California state and local governmental relationships.

102. California Government and Institutions (1)

Not open to students with credit in Pol Sc 1A-B, 11, 101, or equivalent. Open only to students who have satisfied United States Constitution requirement but have not satisfied California state and local government requirement. Examination of legislative, executive, judicial, and local government problems in California.

112A-B. History of Political Thought (3-3)

Pol Sc 112A is not prerequisite to 112B. Prerequisite: Pol Sc 1A-B or permission of instructor. (A) Development of political thought from Plato to Machiavelli with readings and discussions. (B) Development of political thought from Machiavelli to the present.

114. American Political Thought (3)

Prerequisite: Pol Sc 1A-B or permission of instructor. Development of American political philosophy from its European foundation to the present; geographic, economic, social and cultural influences on American political ideas; effect on governmental policies and political institutions.

124. Foundations of National Power (2)

Not open to majors or minors in political science. Prerequisite: upper division standing. Major factors underlying international tensions—nationalism, imperialism, and communism; attempts to alleviate these tensions; balance of power concepts; the superpowers United States and the USSR.

126. International Organizations (3)

Prerequisite: Pol Sc 127 or permission of instructor. Developing role of international organizations; historical roots of organized cooperation; League of Nations, United Nations, regional pacts; political and organizational issues confronting the United Nations.

127. International Relations (3)

Prerequisite: Pol Sc 1A-B or permission of instructor. Analytical introduction to international relations; nationalism; imperialism; racial, population, and economic factors; war; settlement of international disputes by methods other than war; foreign policies of the major powers.

128. Contemporary World Politics, 1914 to the Present (3)

Prerequisite: Pol Sc 1A-B or permission of instructor. World affairs from 1914 to the present; present foreign policies of the major powers from historical, political, and economic viewpoints; events leading to World War II and United Nations organization.