President's Message

San Jose State College
SAN JOSE 14, CALIFORNIA

JOHN T. WAHLQUIST
PRESIDENT

THE HERITAGE OF SPARTA

Many qualities of the heritage of Sparta commend themselves to our emulation. The Spartans were brave, disciplined, and patriotic. They led lives of proverbial simplicity, dedicated to the defense of their fatherland. But this is not the heritage of most significance today. We should rather be moved to admiration of their concept of life under law, expressed in their ancient and democratic constitution, written by Lycurgus nine centuries before the Christian era, and in force during all the period of Spartan independence.

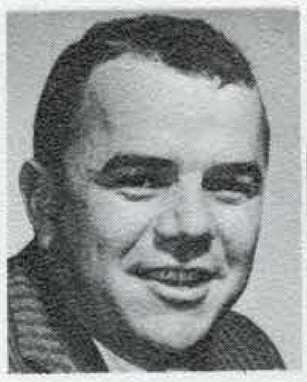

Individuals as well as nations still settle disputes by force rather than by law and justice. It is precisely here that the next generations can learn most from the heritage of Sparta: To be ready at a moment's notice to defend our liberty against armed attack, but to work untiringly to substitute the rule of law for the tyranny of arms.

Editor's Message

Nineteen hundred and sixty-three was a year like most years at State. New students arrived on campus and old ones graduated. There was the rush at registration, the walk to class, and the tears of heartbreak and joy which could be felt and seen after each football game. The Tower bells continued to chime away the hours, days and months. Throughout all this daily activity, the erection of a new era began. State became an educational pillar of the West Coast, and its athletic program was consistent with the best in the nation. Students all over the country were arriving on campus, and the enthusiasm of the student body resounded the cry that this institution be given the title of University.

Threats of destruction still hovered over Tower Hall. But though buildings have been built and later torn down on campus, the hearts of the college continued to beat, for as the generations of students have passed by through the century, they have become the life blood of this institution — they have become San Jose State College. The Graduating Class of 1963 will long be remembered for helping to establish this institution in the perspective it is known today; therefore, the yearbook is dedicated to them. This was a year like most years at State, students came by the thousands, and like those before them, they too, fell in line, and joined the procession, which would lead them through the City of Sparta.

President's Message

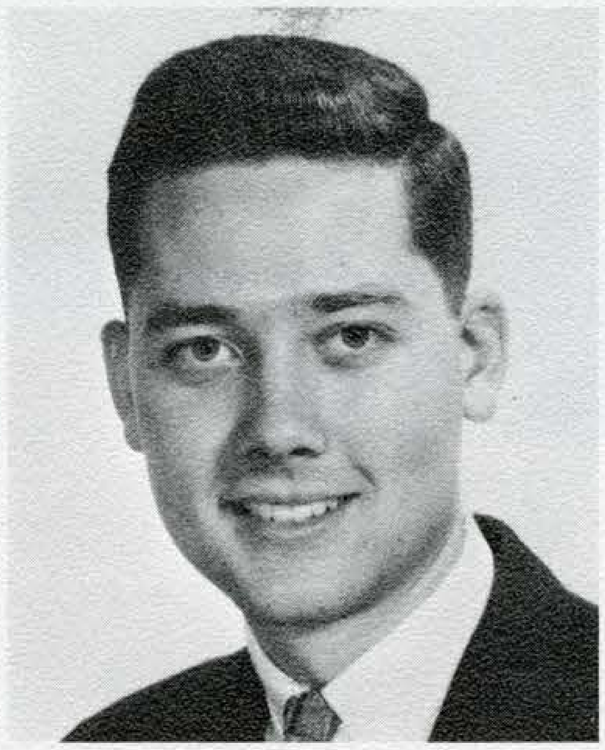

To the students and graduates of San Jose State College: In looking to the future, one thought is foremost at San Jose State College, the achievement of excellence in all endeavors. For only in so doing will San Jose State and then hopefully, the California State College system, develop national and even international repute for academic excellence. The size of the college or system of colleges, no matter how large, cannot begin to compensate for lack of high academic achievement and standards. All students and graduates of San Jose State, if they are truly interested in a quality education for California's future young people, should remain ever mindful of existent problems in California higher education. But more important, they must be aware of its goals so that they may be ever ready to criticize and by so doing, contribute to the quality of the California State Colleges and particularly San Jose State. Be proud of your degree from San Jose State and make every attempt to prove in your daily routine that the education you received at San Jose State was one of excellence. The reputation and image which San Jose State reflects is largely determined by the competence of its graduates. Your responsibility is a large one, strive to fulfill it to the best of your ability as you accept and cope with the challenges ahead.

OWEN GRANDE
Class Officer

"The name of this organization shall be the graduating class of 1963 of San Jose State College," reads the class constitution, adopted in 1959. Now, as the graduated Class of 1963, we look back upon the past year's accomplishments and events. In the fall, the class scheduled the traditional Friday Flicks. As the year progressed, the Program Committee presented Professor Jack Holland, head of the Business Management Department, who spoke to the class on "Placement Opportunities for the Graduating Senior." The Junior-Senior Ball, in conjunction with the Class of '64, was held on Saturday, March 23, at the Hotel Mark Hopkins in San Francisco. Also in March, however, Student Council voted in favor of the abolition of class government. Now, with graduation over and sheepskins in hand, the class officers say, "Congratulations Class of 1963, for you will now have the honored burden of carrying on the tradition which marks every Spartan graduate as a fine example for the rest of society to follow."

Senior Memories

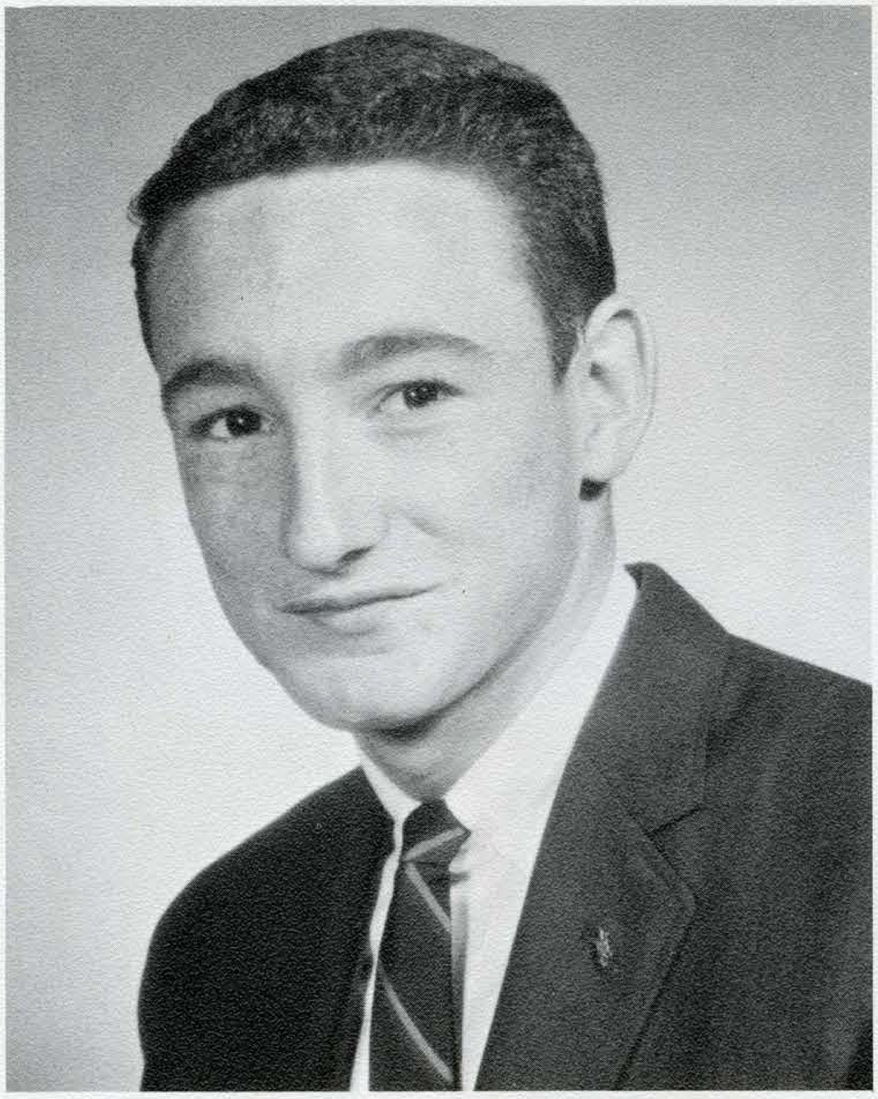

Juniors

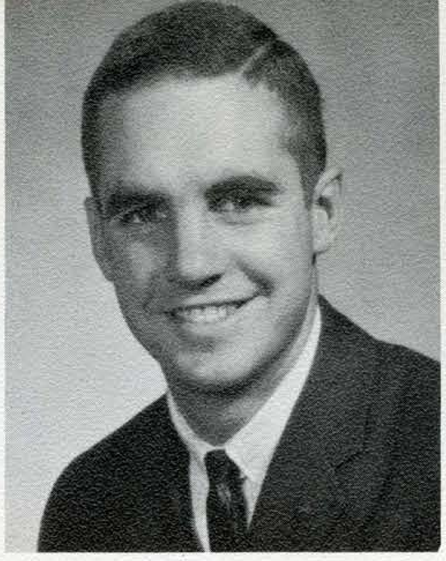

The march was coming to an end. They had walked for some distance, and they were in need of food and drink. Their suit of armor had become heavy; They took rest among the trees.

The Class of 1964 is the Junior Class this year and as such is responsible, as all other classes are responsible, for certain traditional projects and activities. The class sponsors the Ugly-Man Contest and co-sponsors the Junior-Senior Ball. It has adopted as an annual project the Orphan's Picnic held each spring. The Class of 1964 will look in the future, as it has in the past, for projects that will be of useful service to the class, the college, and community.

Sophomores

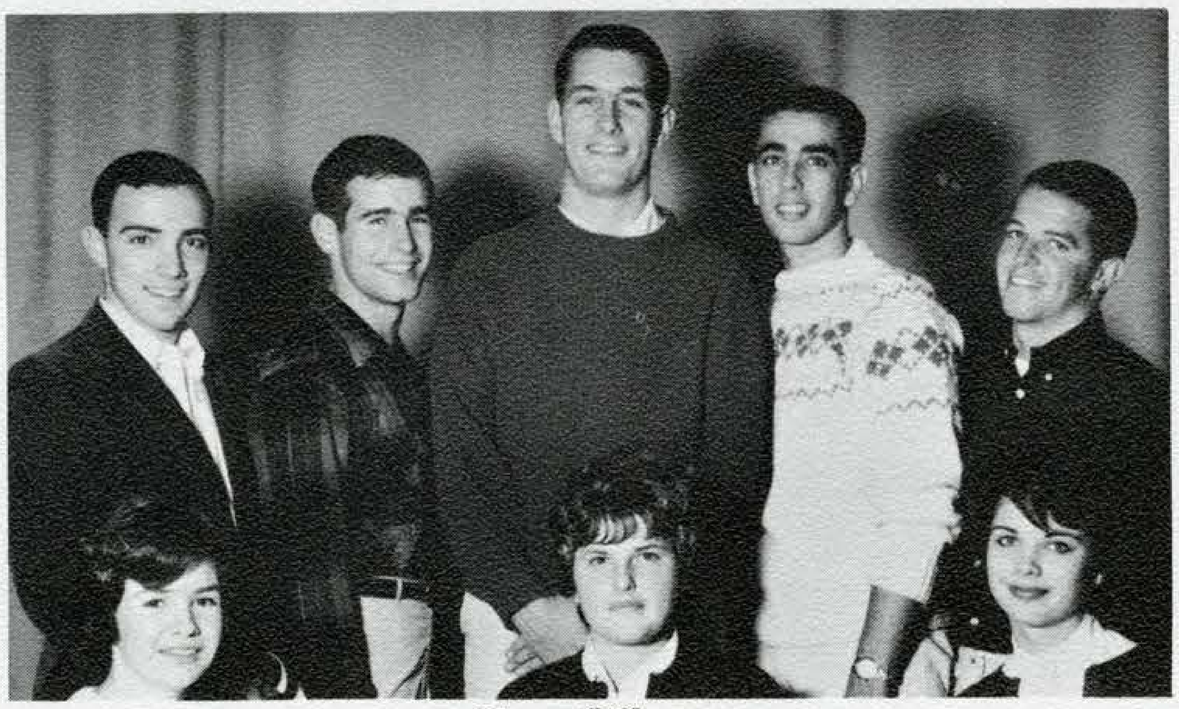

As they walked they became more mature, their eyes had opened, and the fear they had once known, left them.

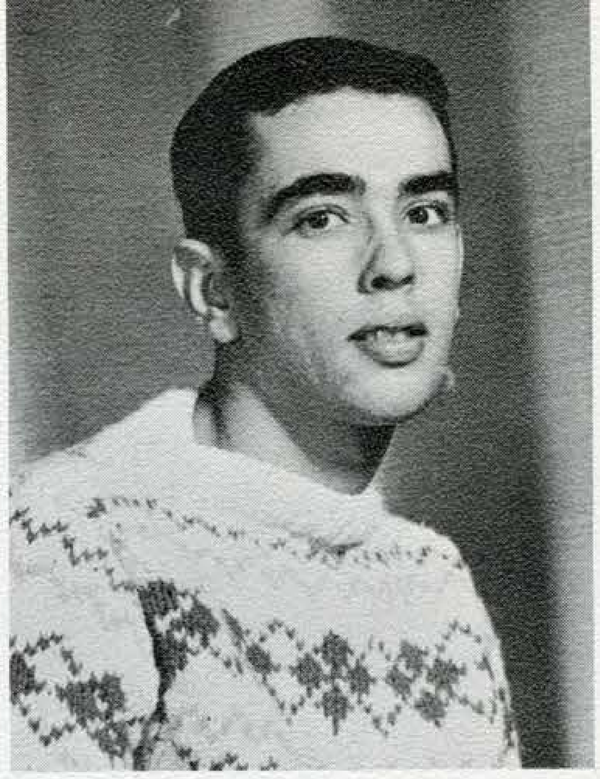

The Sophomore Class' functions are divided into three sections, service, social, and legislative. The Sophomore Class sponsored a party for under privileged children as their service project this year. Their social calendar included the Sophomore Doll Contest and the Joe-College—Betty-Co-ed Contest and Dance. The legislative area was covered when the Sophomore Class attempted to make changes in the Associated Student Body Constitution covering class representation in Student Council. The Sophomore Class will continue, as it has in the past, to perform in a manner which is beneficial to the college and community.

Freshmen

They marched through the streets of the city. The sights were new to them, and though fear was present, they moved onward.

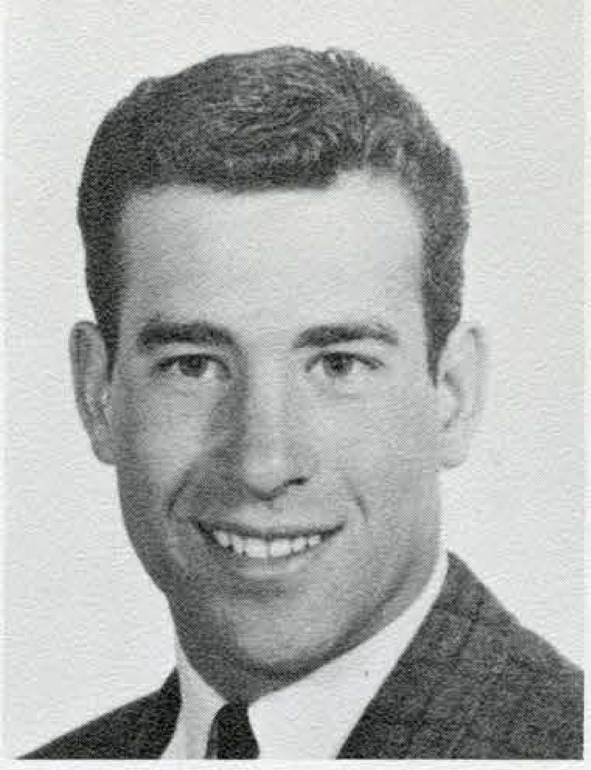

Our Freshman Class is the largest that San Jose State has ever seen. The enthusiasm of this group illustrates the high calibre of individuals drawn to this institution. Activities and meetings together with scholastic achievement are all necessary in producing the well rounded individual. It is my sincere desire that the enthusiasm and traditions inherent in this, the class of 1966, will set a format for freshman classes of the future. But even more important, let us never forget that San Jose State is our school. We must be loyal to her and uphold her traditions. Let's remain Spartans to the end!

The preceding class sections show a small segment of the San Jose State Student Body. They represent nearly 17,000 students of populus Sparta. These pages are an innovation in La Torre, and it is hoped that the class sections will be enlarged and continue to be pictured in this annual for years to come.

Buildings of Sparta

Sparta's populace walked freely among their buildings.
They stood watch along the streets as the structures
Gave them shade; it was the sound of trumpets that
They were listening for; it was the March of Spartans
That they wanted to see.

The College Tower Speaks

I stand four-square upon this ancient earth

And keep my hold upon the solid real;

Yet, like a soul that seeks a new birth,

I climb in joy unto the high ideal.

My guardian walls shut lurking evil out,

lying and hatred, and the hidden sin;

And cheer and grace encompass me about;

My doors are open to let honor in.

I am not one of those who only seem,

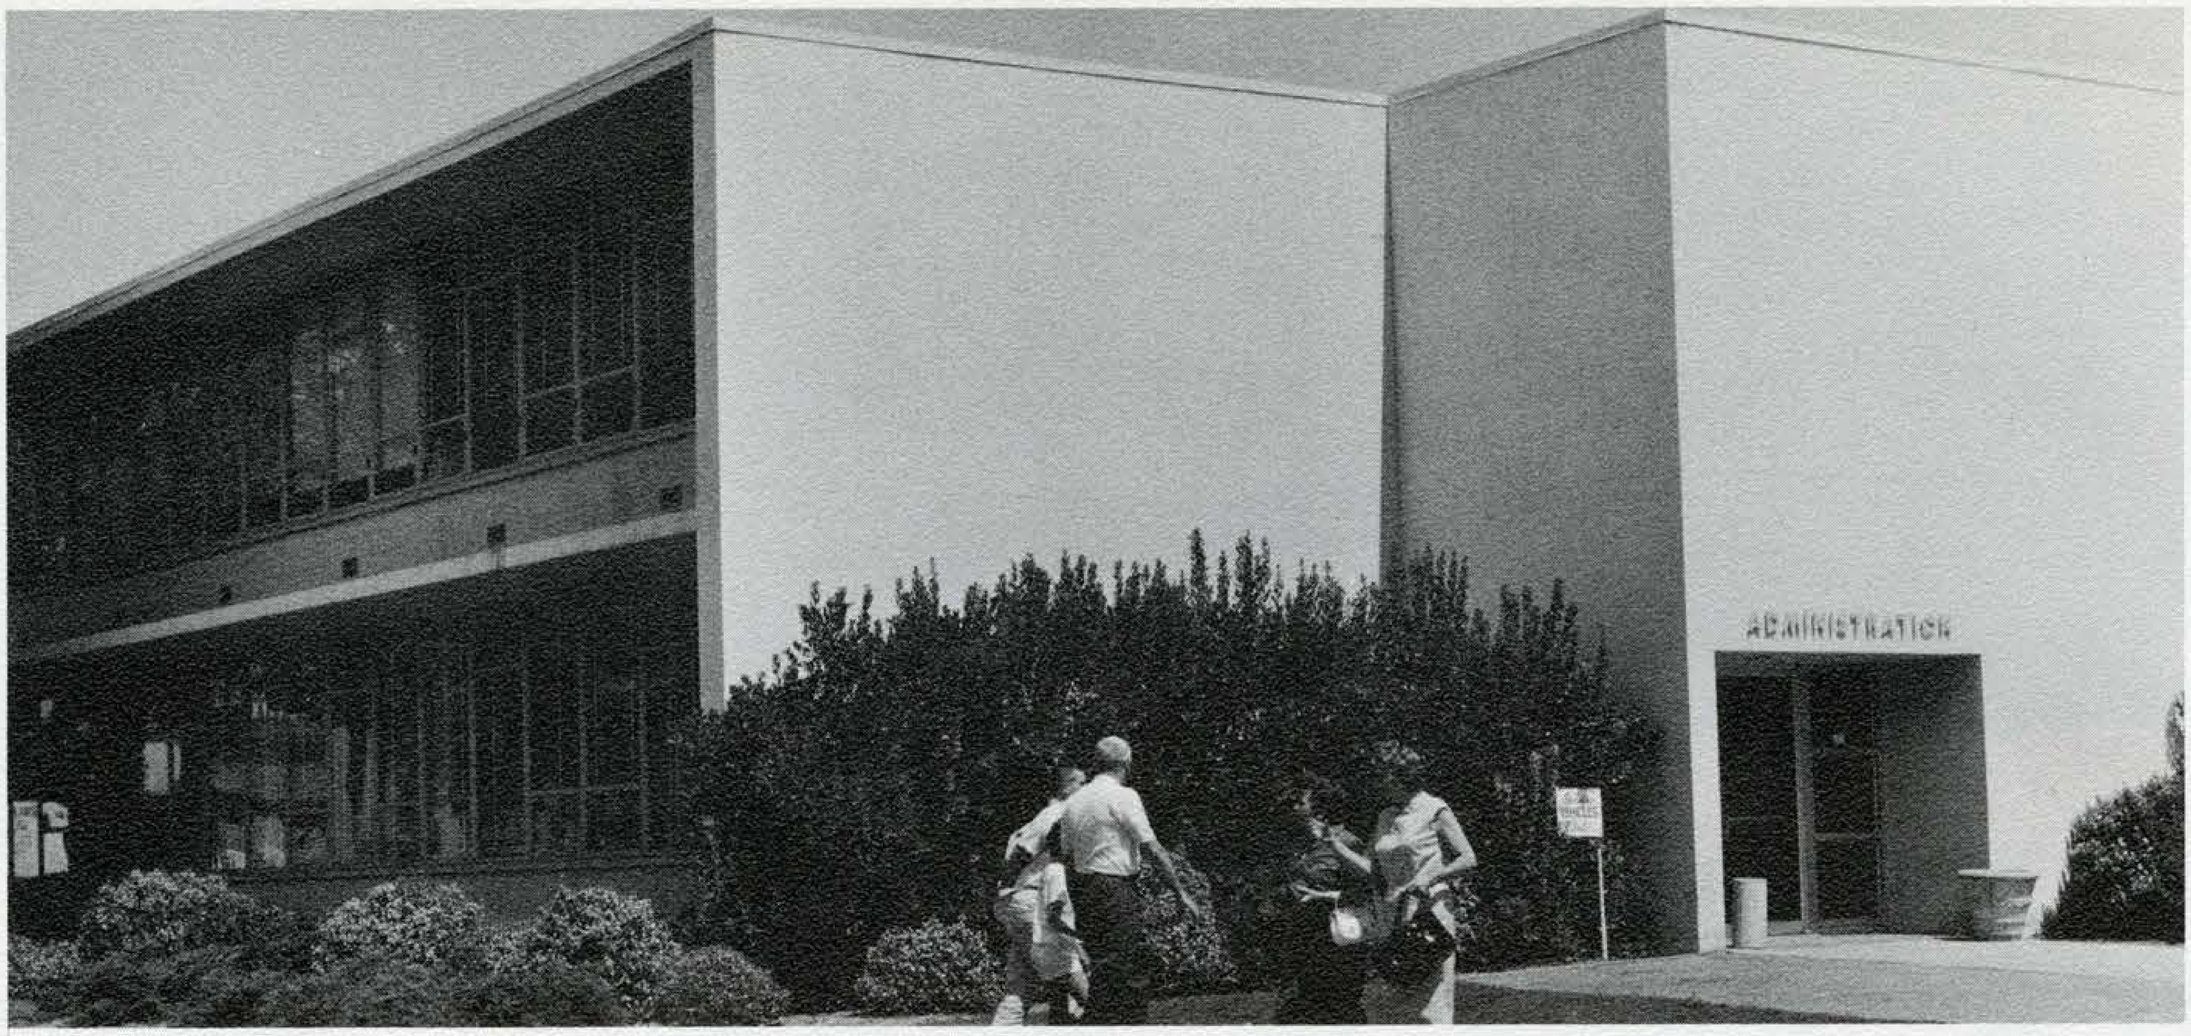

Steadfast am I, and destined to endure;

And yet my greatest glory is to dream—

Dream of the youth who seeks the true and

Pure.

—Henry Meade Bland

The buildings which appear in this section visually exemplify nearly a century of building blocks for knowledge. They have throughout the years sheltered the learned, and guided the inquisitive. Though they have been taken for granted, they stand steadfast and hide within their walls new and exciting worlds. These buildings cast their shadows today as they did decades before. They are today, as they were for generations of Spartans, pillars for knowledge. Long may they stand.

Sports

Victory was their cry
As they ran in all their glory across the Fields. The crowd knew they would win,
For the Olympics was their challenge and
Their destiny.

Administration

WALT McPHERSON
Department Head

A great deal of credit is due to the fine and outstanding achievement accomplished by the administration and staff of the Physical Education Division. Walt McPherson, Department Head, along with twenty-five coaches, has helped to develop San Jose State's Physical Education Department into what is now recognized as one of the leading Athletic Departments in the nation. San Jose State is now going through the stages of turning big time in Athletics. Under the direction of Bob Bronzan, they have proved themselves again and again.

San Jose State's Track Team, under the supervision of "Bud" Winters, has developed into one of the big powers nationally in track and field. The Cross Country Team, under the direction of Dean Miller, is annually considered one of the best in the nation. Plans are now in the making for a new football stadium, basketball pavillion, and track and field stadium. A steady growth in the fourteen varsity and freshmen sports is giving San Jose State a substantial name in athletics.

These are the coaches who are now helping to mold San Jose State College into a top name institution. It is known that one of the best ways to build a name for a college and have it come to the attention of people throughout the country, or world, is through the college's sports activities. Already San Jose State is recognized for its renown track and cross country team, known by many people in the sporting field as the "finest in the world." San Jose State is in the process of creating a top football team and is now able to draw top talent from many parts of the United States. Our waterpolo, wrestling, judo, gymnastics, baseball and basketball teams are among the finest and are climbing rapidly. Other sports such as golf, tennis and volleyball are all helping to mold this college's "image." San Jose State is proud of its coaches and the fine and dedicated job they are doing to give this college of over 17,000 students a great name it justly deserves.

Football

ssssssState . . . was the cry from the crowd at Spartan Stadium as the first pigskin was kicked against the Utah State Aggies to open the 1962 football season. Even though the Spartans gave the fans many thrills during the game, the Aggies managed to consistently pound out sufficient yardage for a 29 to 18 win. Utah intercepted a pass from the Spartans and went 36 yards in six plays for the first TD of the game. At the start of the second half, SJS's Walt Roberts made the longest run of the night as he took Turner's punt on his own five and ran 63 yards to the Utah 32. On the first play, Roberts went left end for 32 yards which sent the Spartan fans to their feet and the team to the score board. Utah returned the fire and stomped 67 yards for a TD. The Utah kick was taken by Jerry Colletto on the goal line and two plays later he went 43 yards for a Spartan TD. In the fourth quarter, Utah drove for a touchdown on a 19 yard pass play from Turner to Darrel Roberts and the point after was accomplished by the famous Turner "PAT." Utah scored its last TD in the fourth quarter to win over SJS when Darrel Roberts went around left end for two points. The Spartans put up a good air and ground fight, but just not enough to come out the victor.

Halfback Tom Doslak gains some territory for the Spartans.

A dazzling display of offensive power combined with a rock ribbed defense enabled WSU to record a 49-8 win over the Spartans. Led by their All-American candidate, Hugh Cambell, the Cougars racked up 290 yards to San Jose's 180, out-gaining the hapless Spartans both in the air and on the ground. The Cougars scored in the first quarter when WSU fullback George Reed intercepted Bob Kanes pass on Washington's 49 yard line. WSU went for the TD in 10 plays to go ahead 7-0. With the first quarter drawing to a close the Cougars intercepted a pass once again and three plays later brought the score to 14. By the time the halftime gun had sounded the tally was 20-0. The only bright spot in the game for SJS came in the form of halfback Jerry Colletto. The 160 pound back moved the ball for a total of 110 yards. He also took a punt return for 16 yards and gained 15 yards in three plays from scrimmage. In the second half it was the same story, fumbles and interceptions allowed the Cougars to place 15 markers on the board in the third quarter after they recovered a fumble on the Washington 18 yard line. Quarterback Dave Bonnillas fired a pass to Chuck Elder for the TD. Johnny Johnston bulled over for the final two points.

Larry Hansen, Tackle (75) and Dave Johnson, End (86) of the Spartans seem to show satisfaction after downing an Aggie.

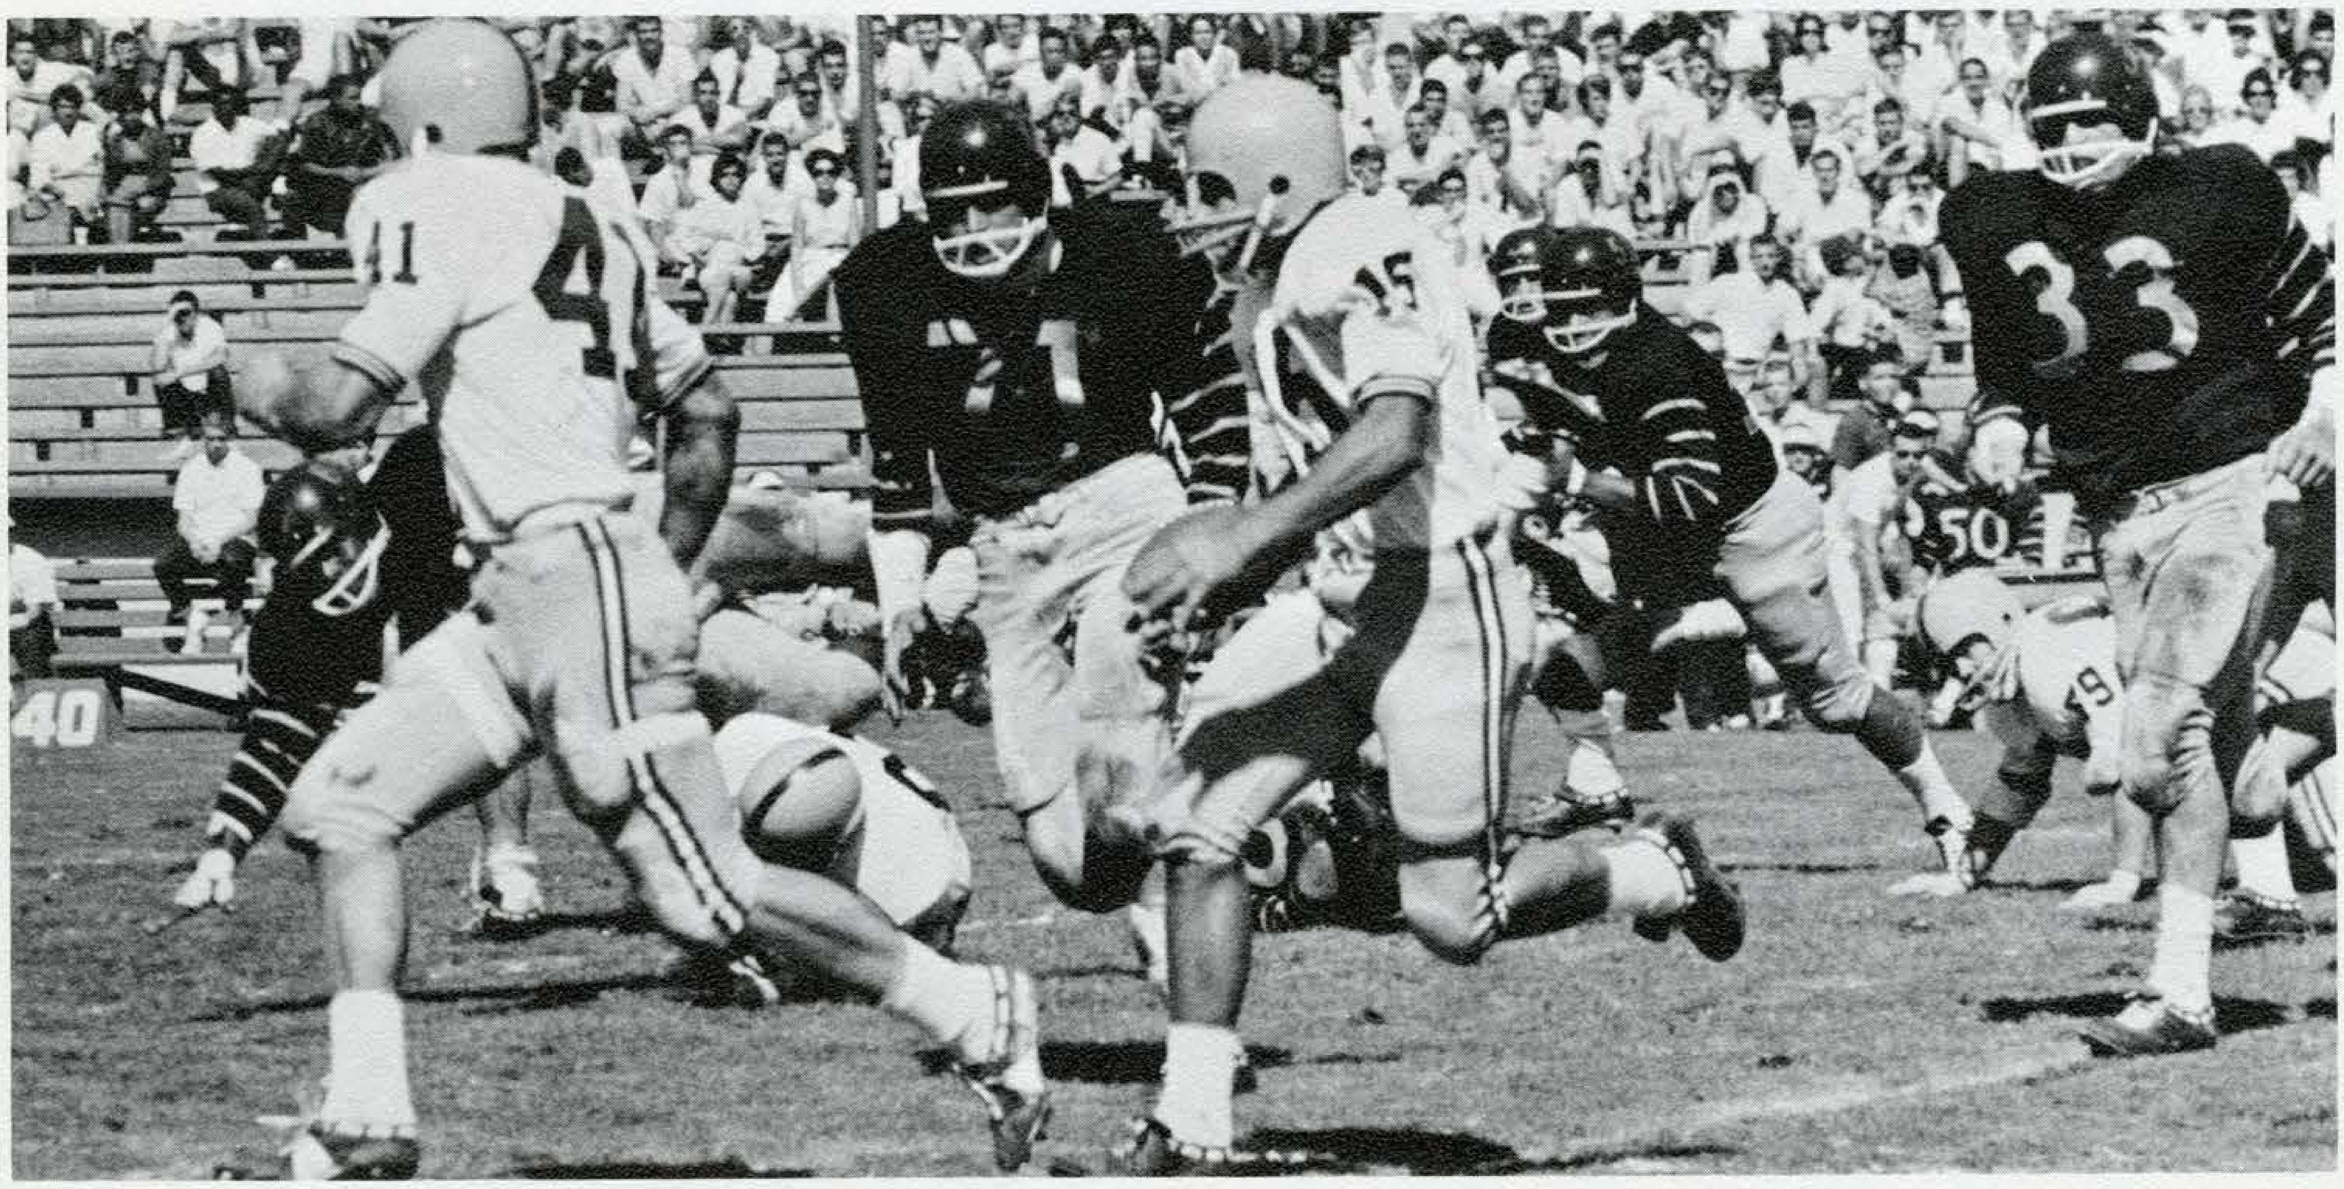

Tom Doslak (41) attempts to help Dave Johnson move out with the ball as the Spartans drive forward during the fourth period of the game.

San Jose State 8
University of Cal 25

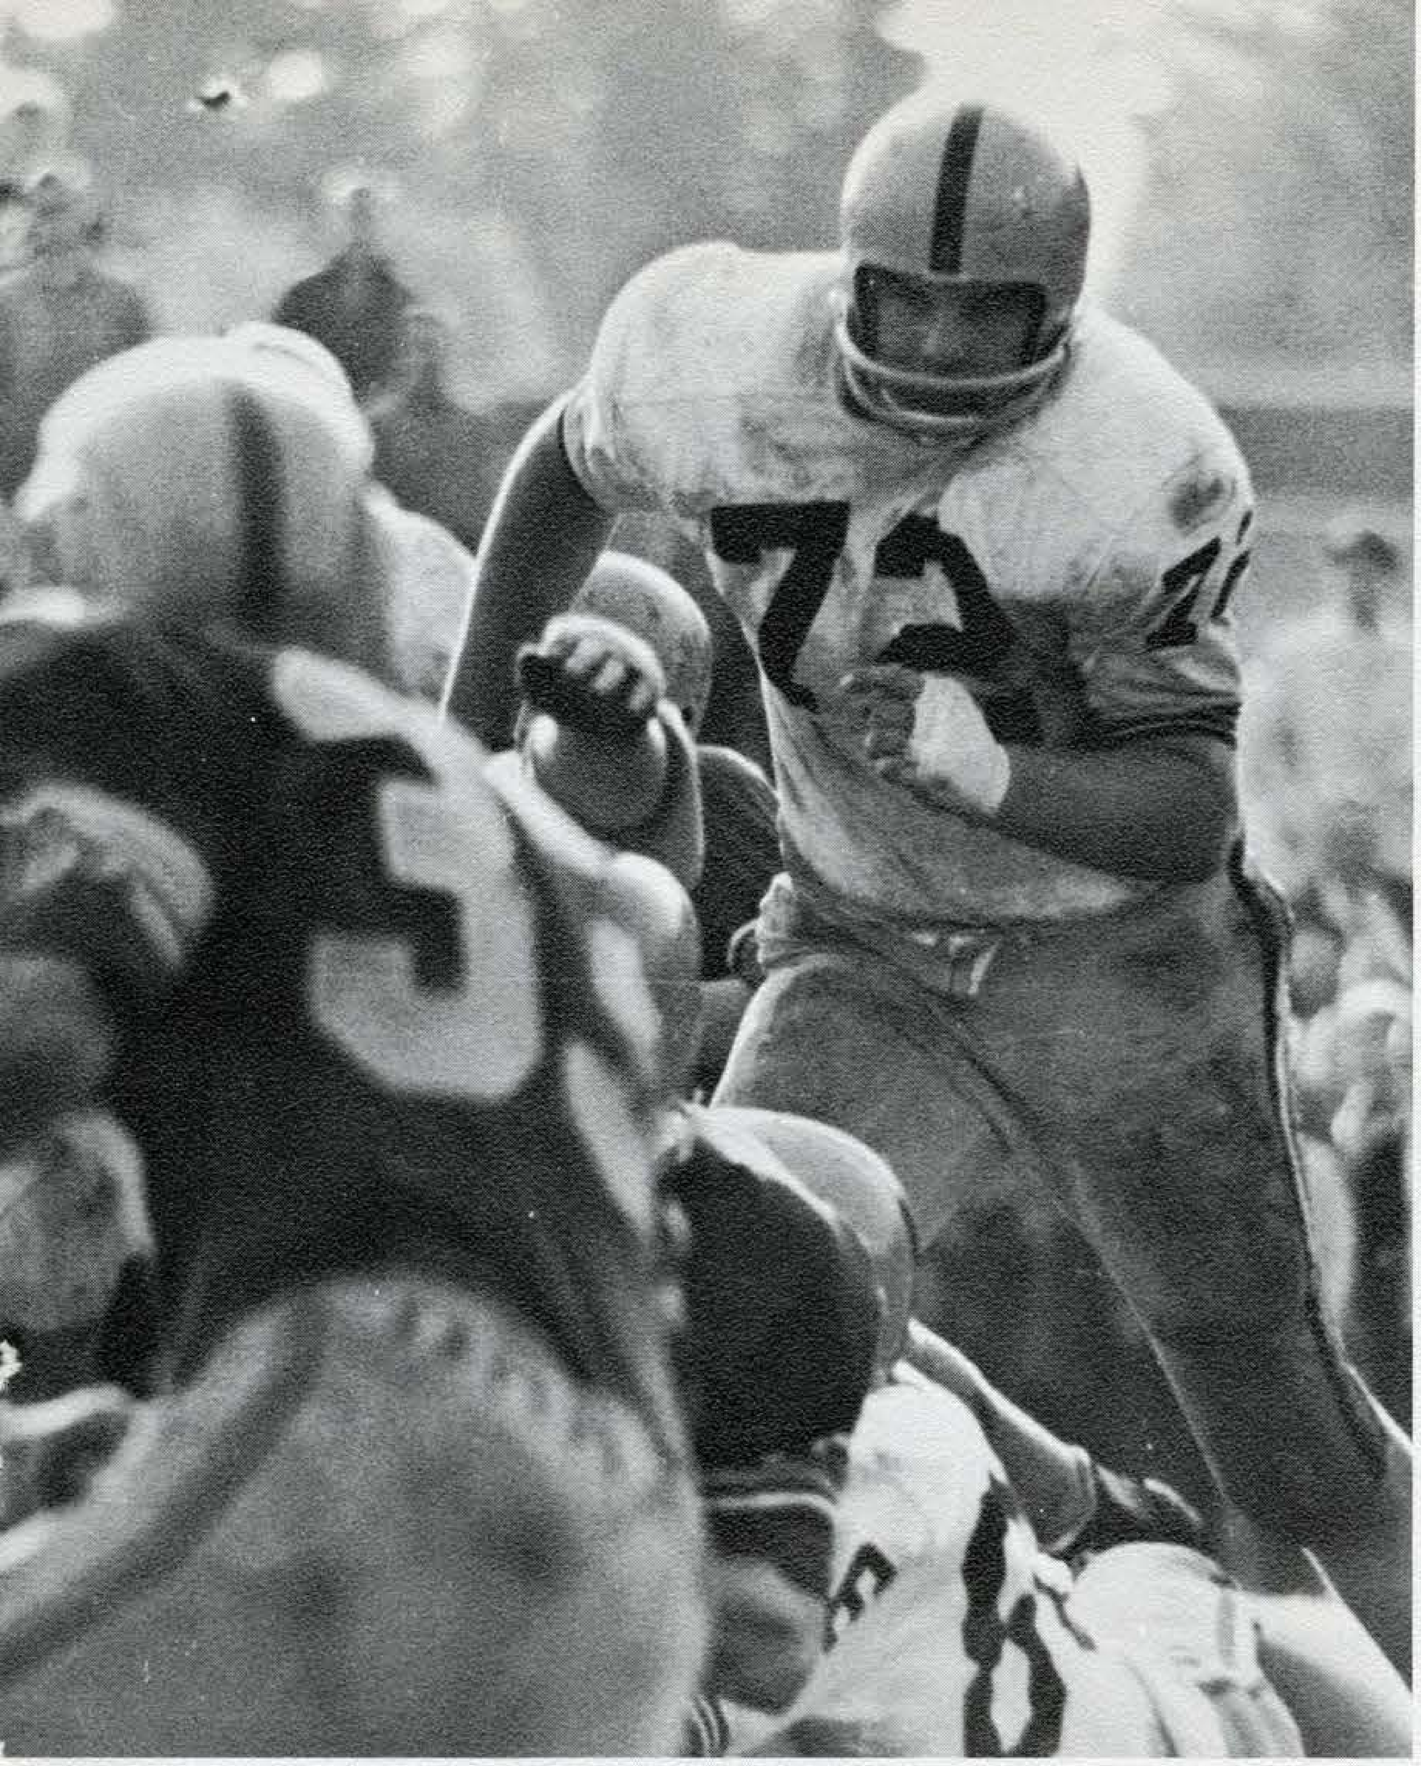

San Jose State suffered their third loss of the season against the California Bears at Memorial Stadium in Berkeley. The Spartans were beaten by the Bears 25-8. Again the Spartans scoring chances were foiled by penalties and mistakes in key situations. The Spartans were out maneuvered by California in the first half of the game as they gained only 50 yards to the Bear's score provoking 195. The Bears took full advantage of the Spartan's fumbles in the first quarter to display a 12-0 lead. In the second half the Spartan's "never say die" attitude showed when, in the fourth quarter, the Spartans recovered a Bear fumble on Cal's 33 yard line. Two plays later the way was open for a Spartan TD when from the 10 yard line Rand Carter rolled around left end for five yards. Two plays later Larry Doss went through the middle for SJS's only TD. Cal outgained the Spartan's 247-82 yards rushing. The Spartans controlled the air ways as Rand Carter completed 15 out of 20 passes. The Spartans got 106 yards in the air to Cal's 71.

Halfback Tom Doslak leads interference for quarterback Rand Carter as the Spartans rumble toward their only TD of the game.

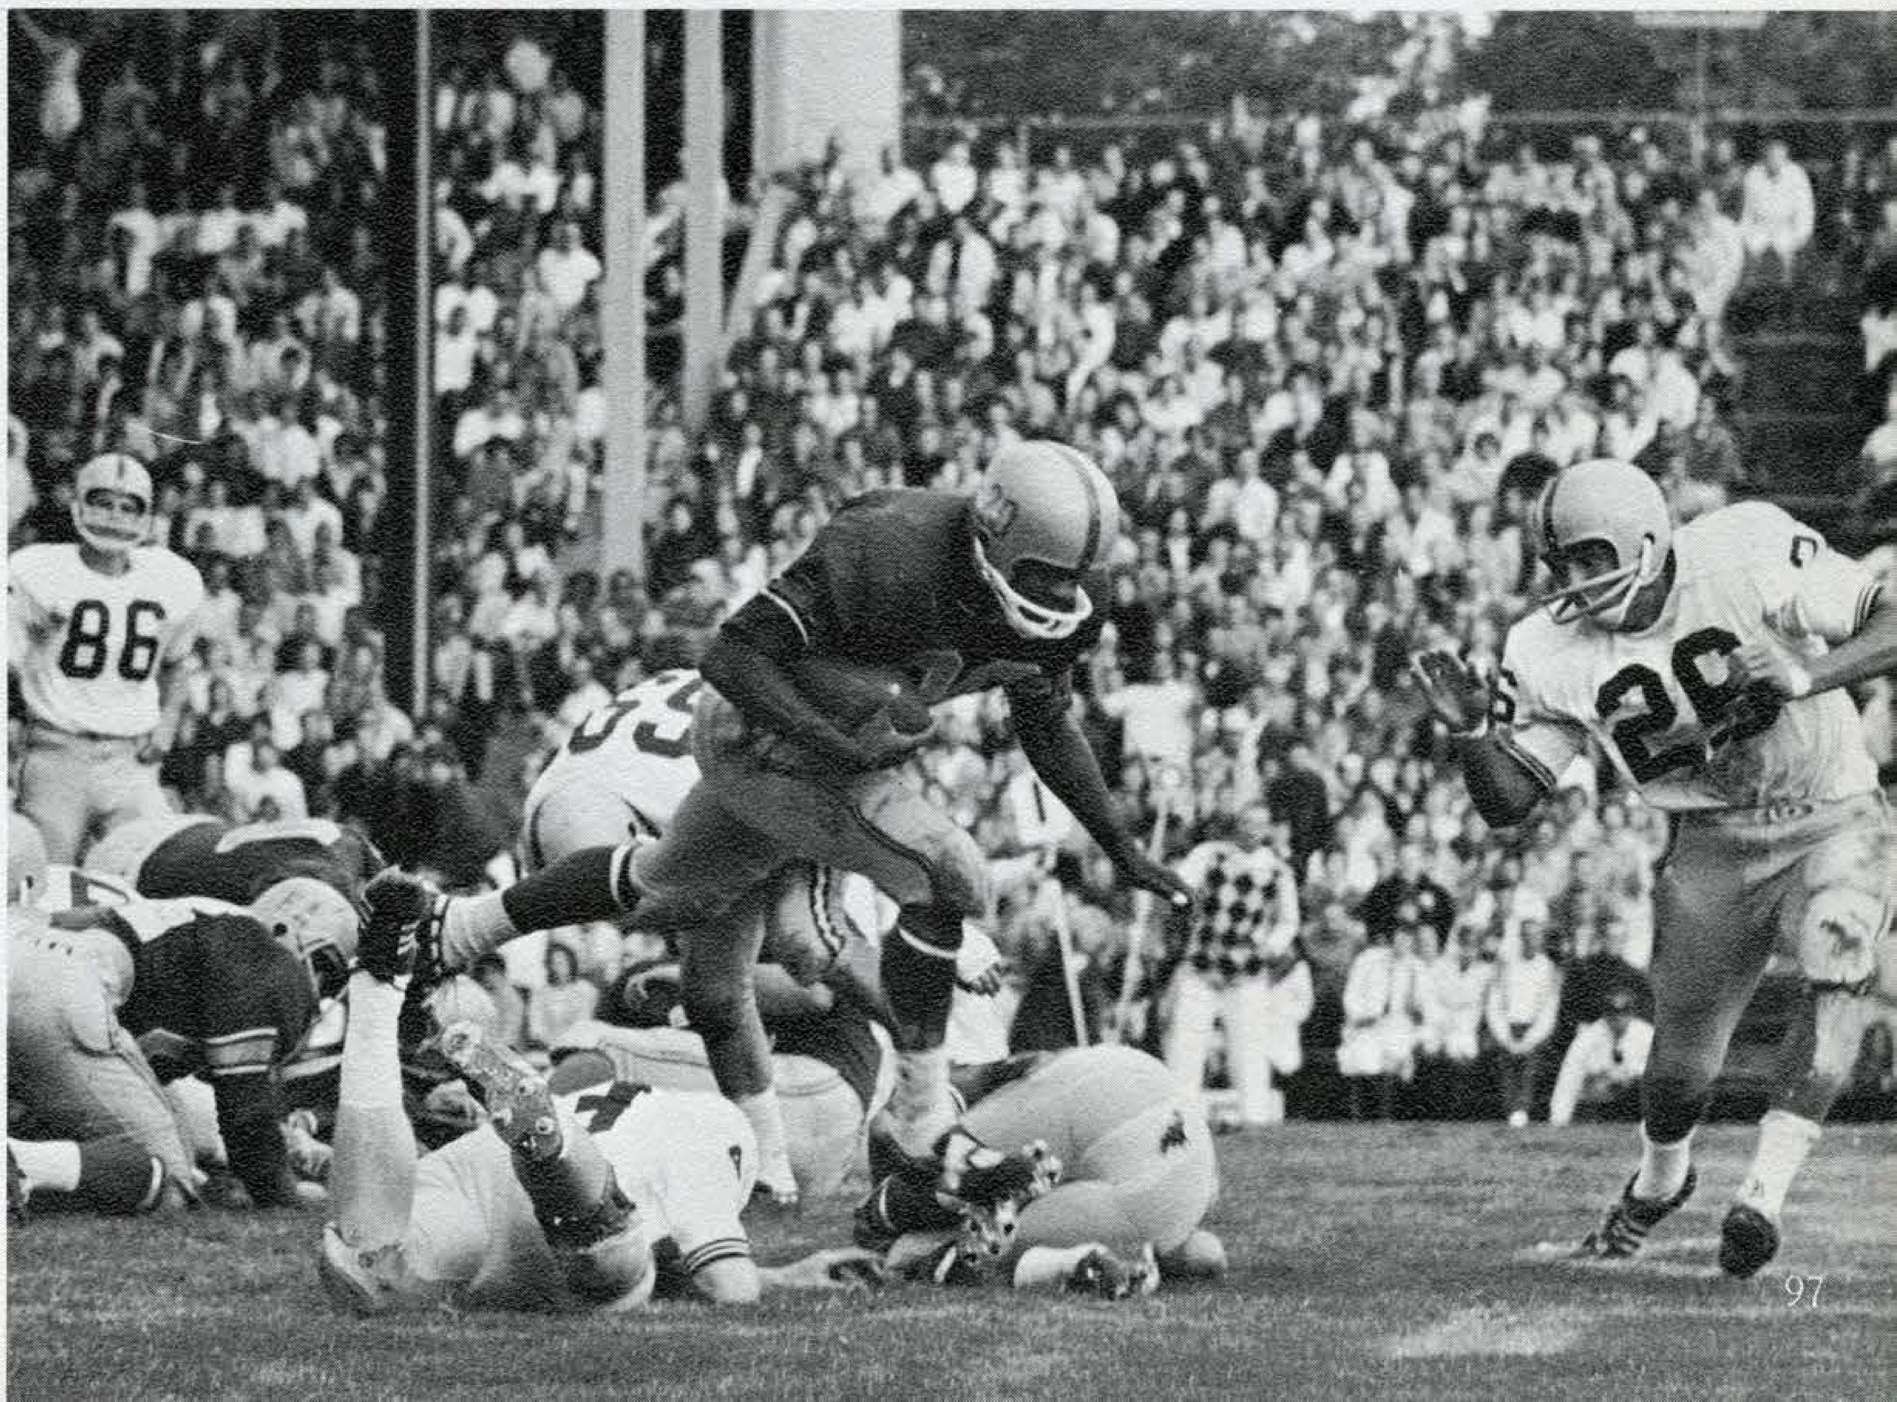

San Jose State 0
Oregon 14

Though losing to Oregon 14-0, the Spartans showed their fighting spirit by, at least, subduing Oregon and thereby preventing a real catastrophic loss. Oregon, boasting a great line and an excellent all around team was favored to out and out slaughter the Spartans. The Spartans put up a stubborn defense causing Oregon to remain scoreless throughout the second half. The tables could have been turned on Oregon if the SJS eleven had been able to punch across TD's when they were down to the Ducks four and eight yard lines. San Jose State contained the Ducks as well any team has this season. Oregon had to use its best all night as proof to the Spartan's stamina and stick-to-it-iveness. The Spartans kept Oregon to 14 points the very same amount the Ducks scored against Texas, then the no. 3 team in the nation. The Spartans played an almost errorless game. For the first time the Spartans incurred only two penalities throughout the game to Oregon's three. Johnny Johnson was SJS's leading man as he carried the ball 19 times to Berry's 15. Quarterback Rand Carter due to his injury was unable to use roll-out passes and Oregon used a four-man defense which muffed San Jose's air attack. But despite the defeat SJS showed their spunk.

Walt Firstbrook (72) begins the pileup on Oregon back who is being brought down with the ball (hidden behind player in front).

Pete Demos (26) closes in to stop Duck ball carrier who has just broken thru Spartan line.

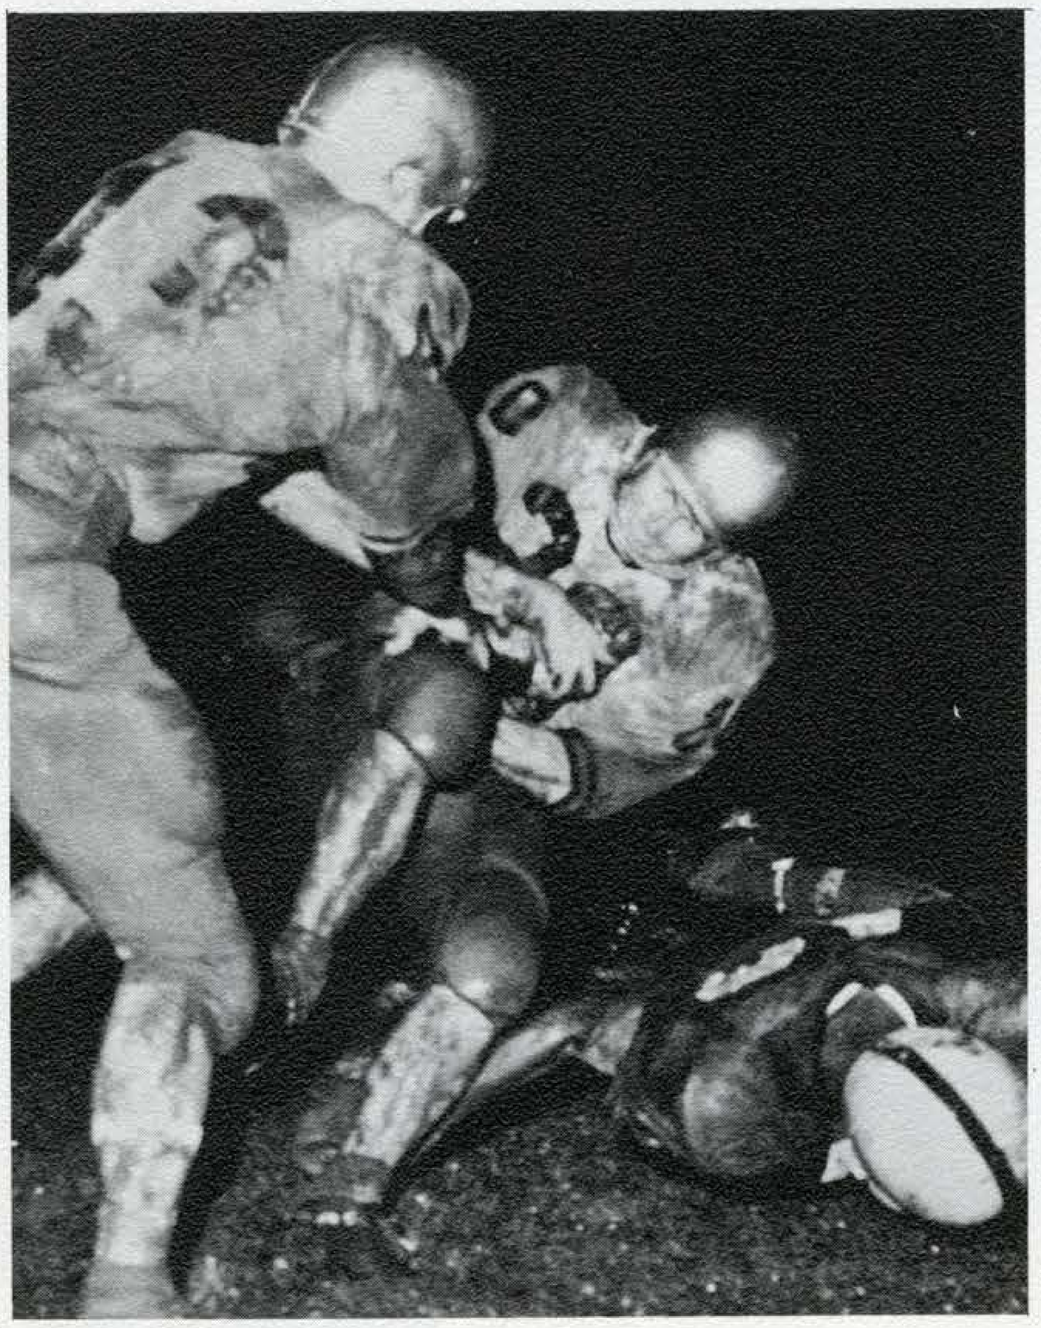

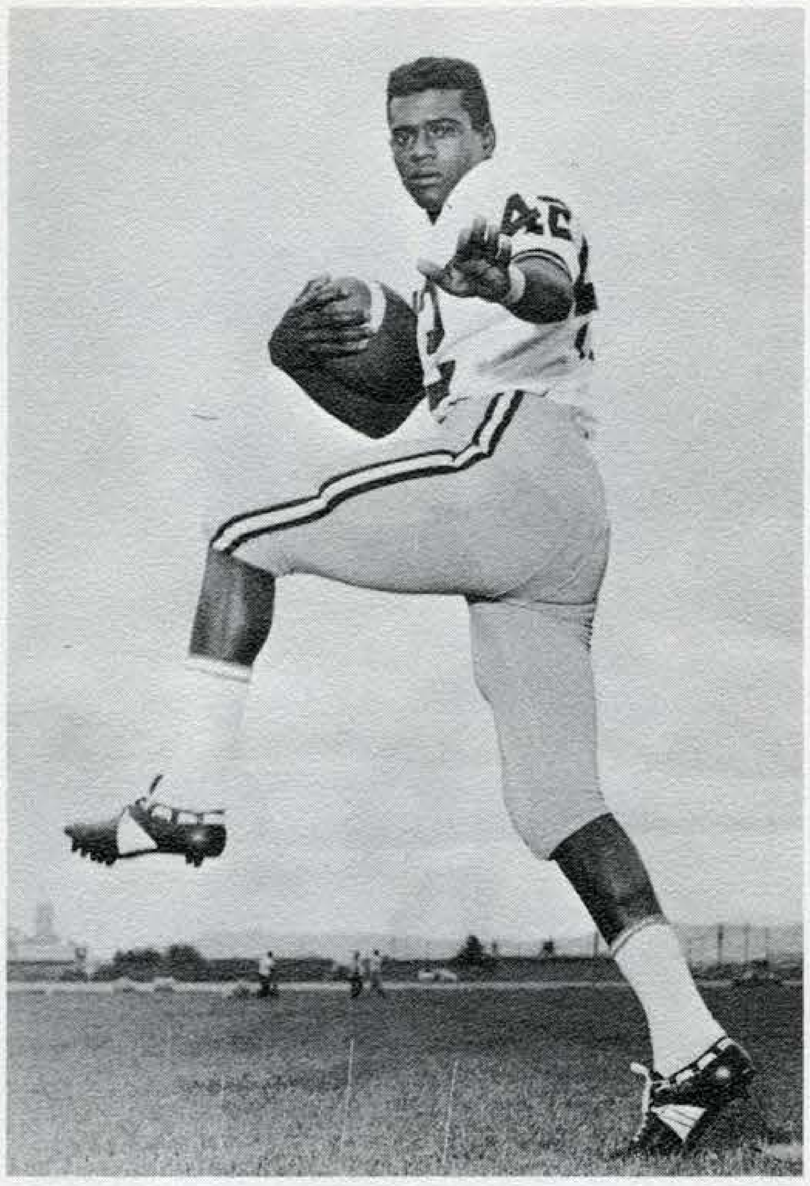

Spartan Halfback Jerry Colletto, on the ground, was blocked by Larry Stromeyer who turned and went in to help on the tackle.

San Jose State 12
Idaho 12

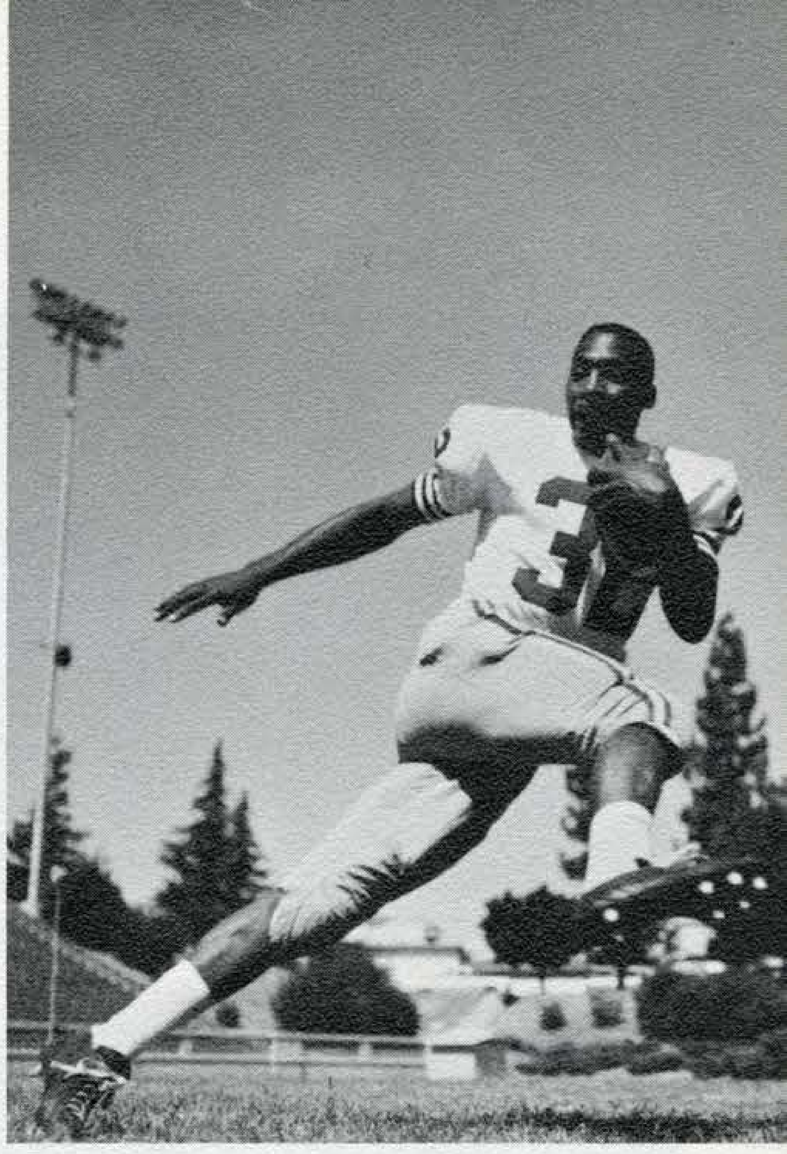

Splish-splash-splat, is about all to be said to describe the Idaho-SJS game at Spartan Stadium. Credit must be given to the fans who showed much loyalty and spirit to come out en masse, amidst the stormy wet, wet, cold weather, to cheer on our then winless team to a "might have been victory." The Spartans gave us some consolation amidst the misty mist, they tied Idaho 12-12 and might have won if the field had been a bit more playable. The Spartans were ahead most of the game until, with a minute and eight seconds left, Idaho tied the score, but failed to kick the winning point. San Jose gave the fans some unexpected thrills when they scored a TD with six seconds remaining in the game, only to have it called back for a backfield in motion penalty. The TD would have given SJS its first victory of the year. The Spartans opened the scoring in the second quarter which started out with a five yard offside penalty. Bonillas then passed to Pete Demos good for 17 yards to the three. Johnny Johnson went over center for two and then over on the next play for the TD. The kick was no good and the Spartans led 6-0. The Vandals scored late in the second quarter. In the third quarter, SJS scored when Walt Firstbrook blocked a fourth down kick and Jerry Ludy fell on it in the end zone. Idaho's TD in the fourth period ended the scoring and gave the Spartans a tie. It was a sloppy game, which left the field rotatilled and ready for reseeding and left the Spartan players ready for the showers in which they would meditate and dream about the dry Arizona climate and a much desired win.

"Hey gimme that," cries an Idaho player. Actually he lost his balance in the mud and a team mate is trying to help him regain his footing — it was wet

San Jose State 8
Arizona State 44

San Jose had one of its worst defeats this season at Arizona, but they were up against a really tough team who only lost one game thus far. The Spartans had to contend with a top passing quarterback John Jacobs of the Sun Devils who maintained superiority of the air. The Sun Devil line was tough and the offensive linemen were able to break through San Jose's fine wall for three TD's on the ground. Most of the touchdowns were made through the air for Arizona as they sprang to life in the second half with the old one-two-three fighting style. San Jose State was generally good against the Devils, but were not able to follow through and penalities also held the Spartans back. The Spartans seem to do the best in the air, but the Sun Devils were just too overwhelming in that area. While San Jose State was generally good in passing and running the Sun Devils were tops in both passing and running. It must be remembered that San Jose is making a bid for big time and it will play tough teams and may score big defeats on the way up.

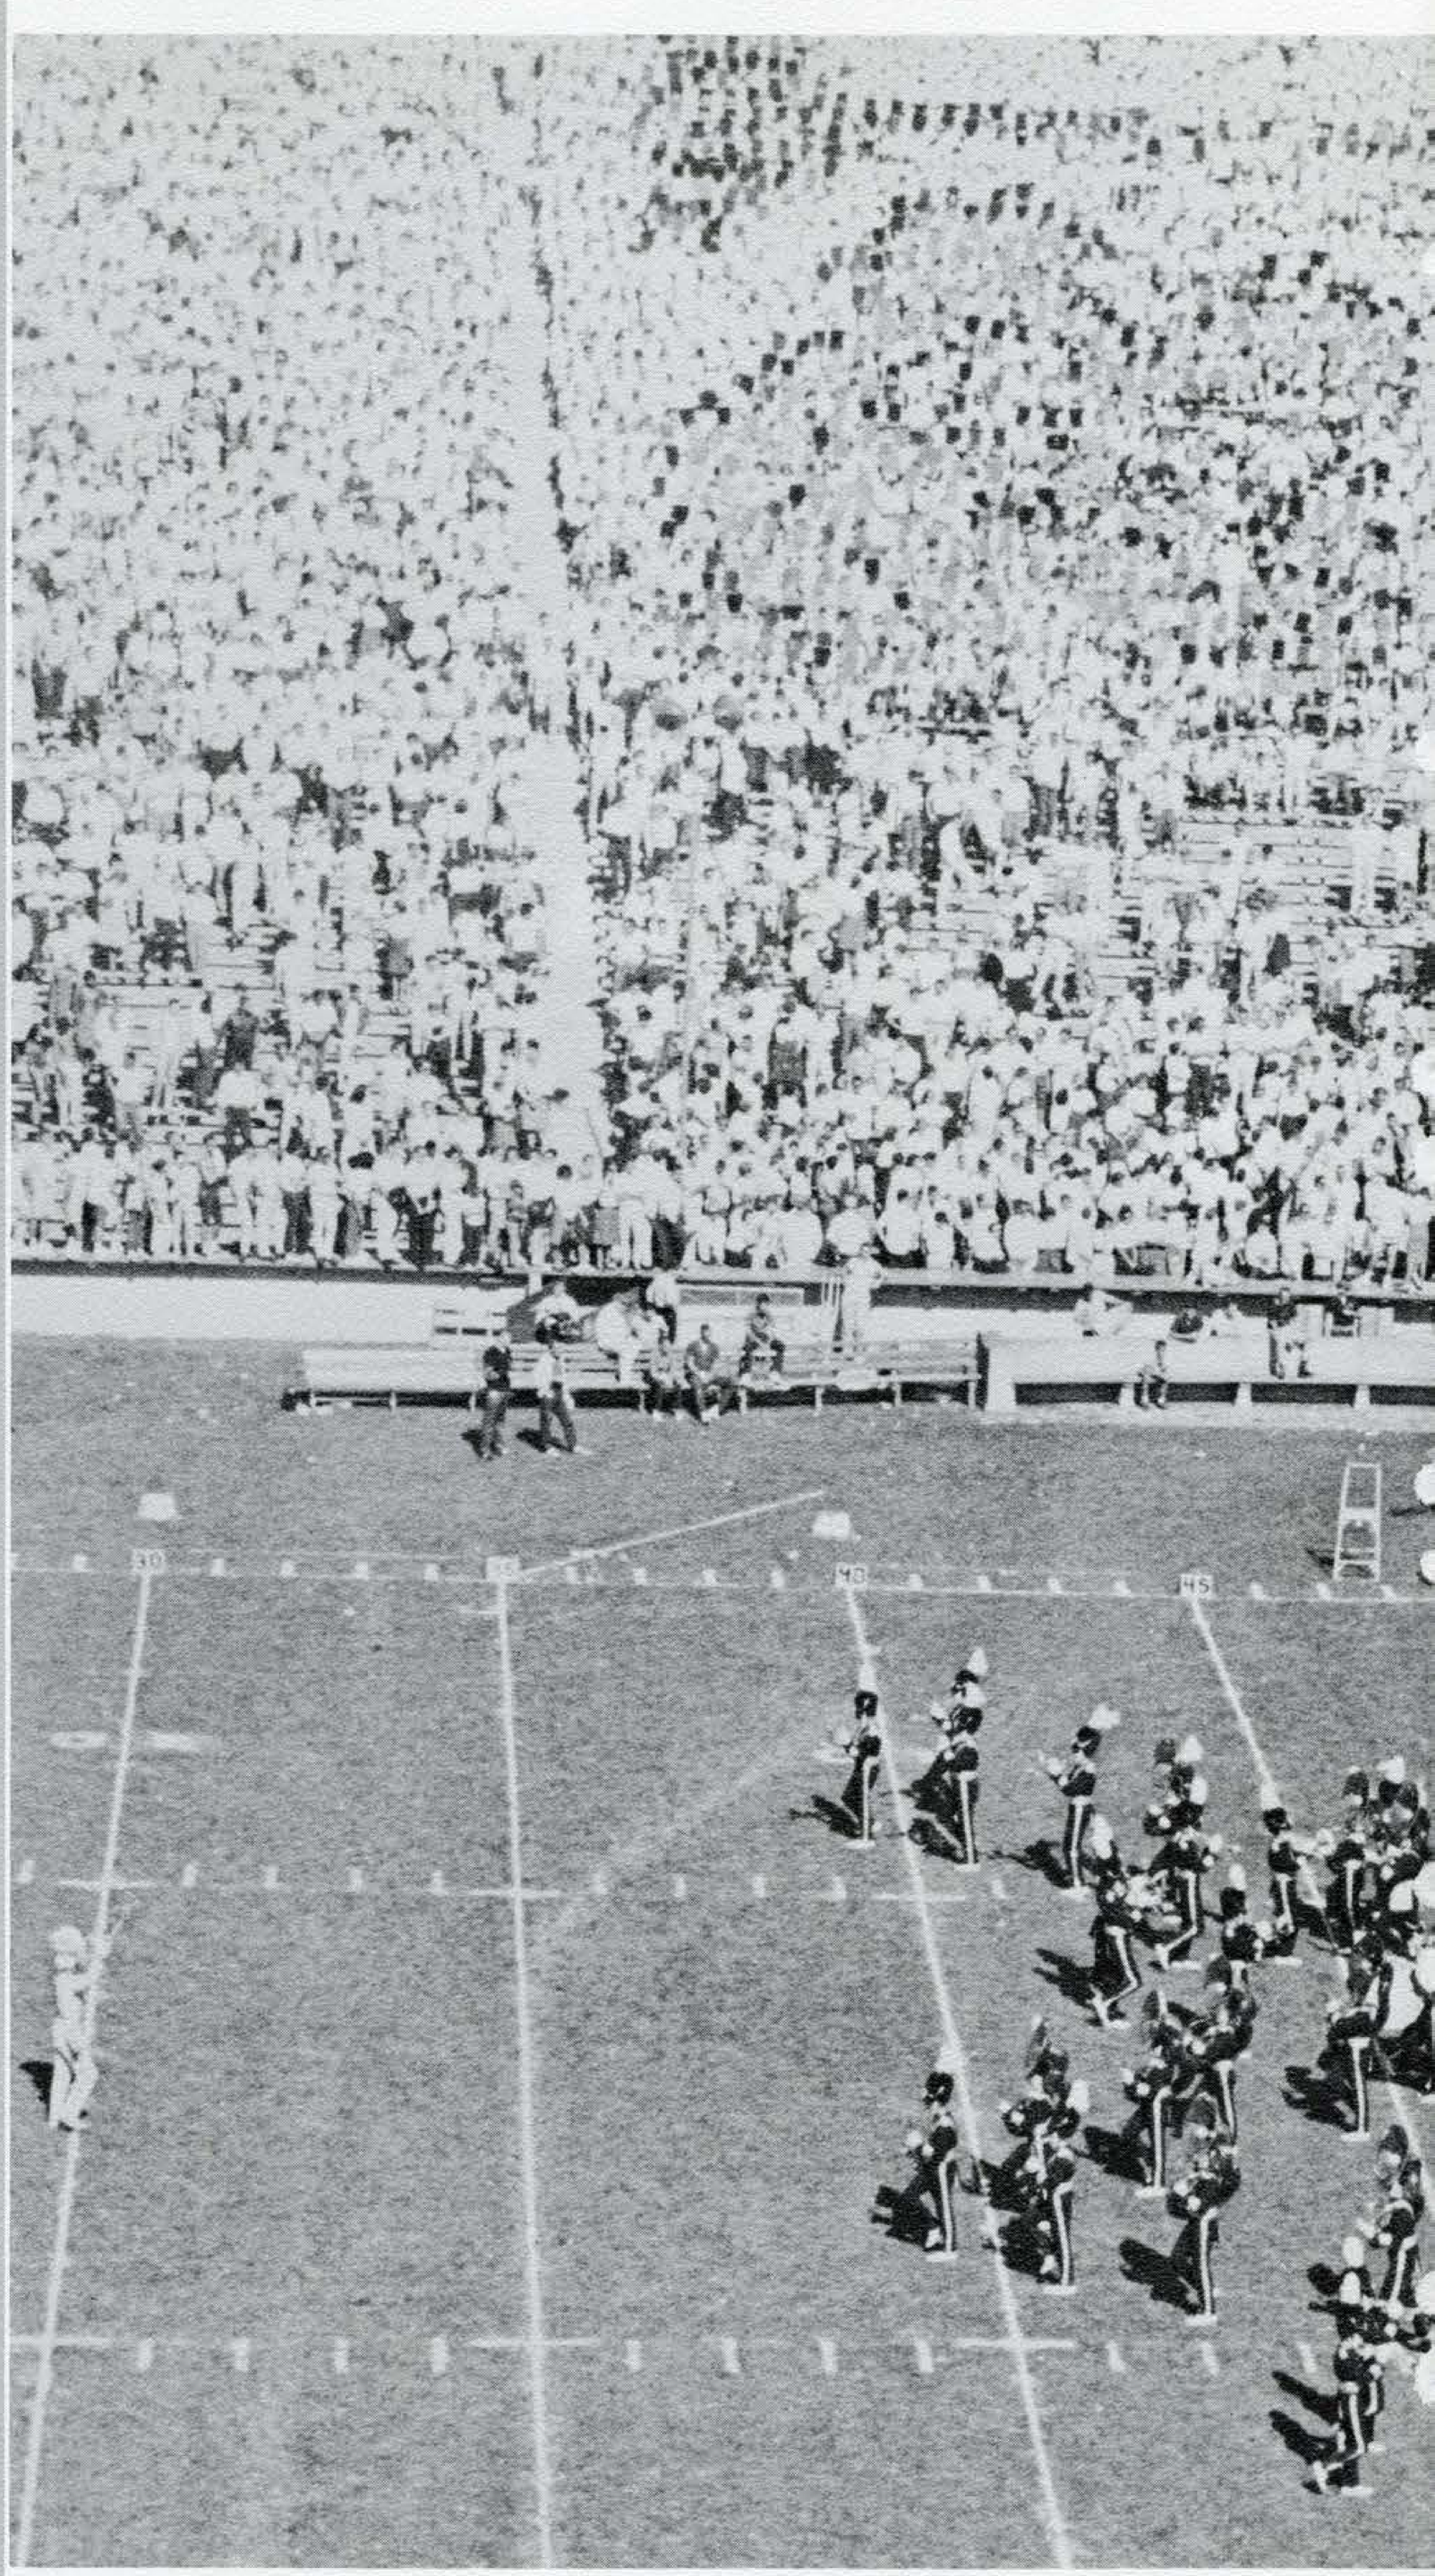

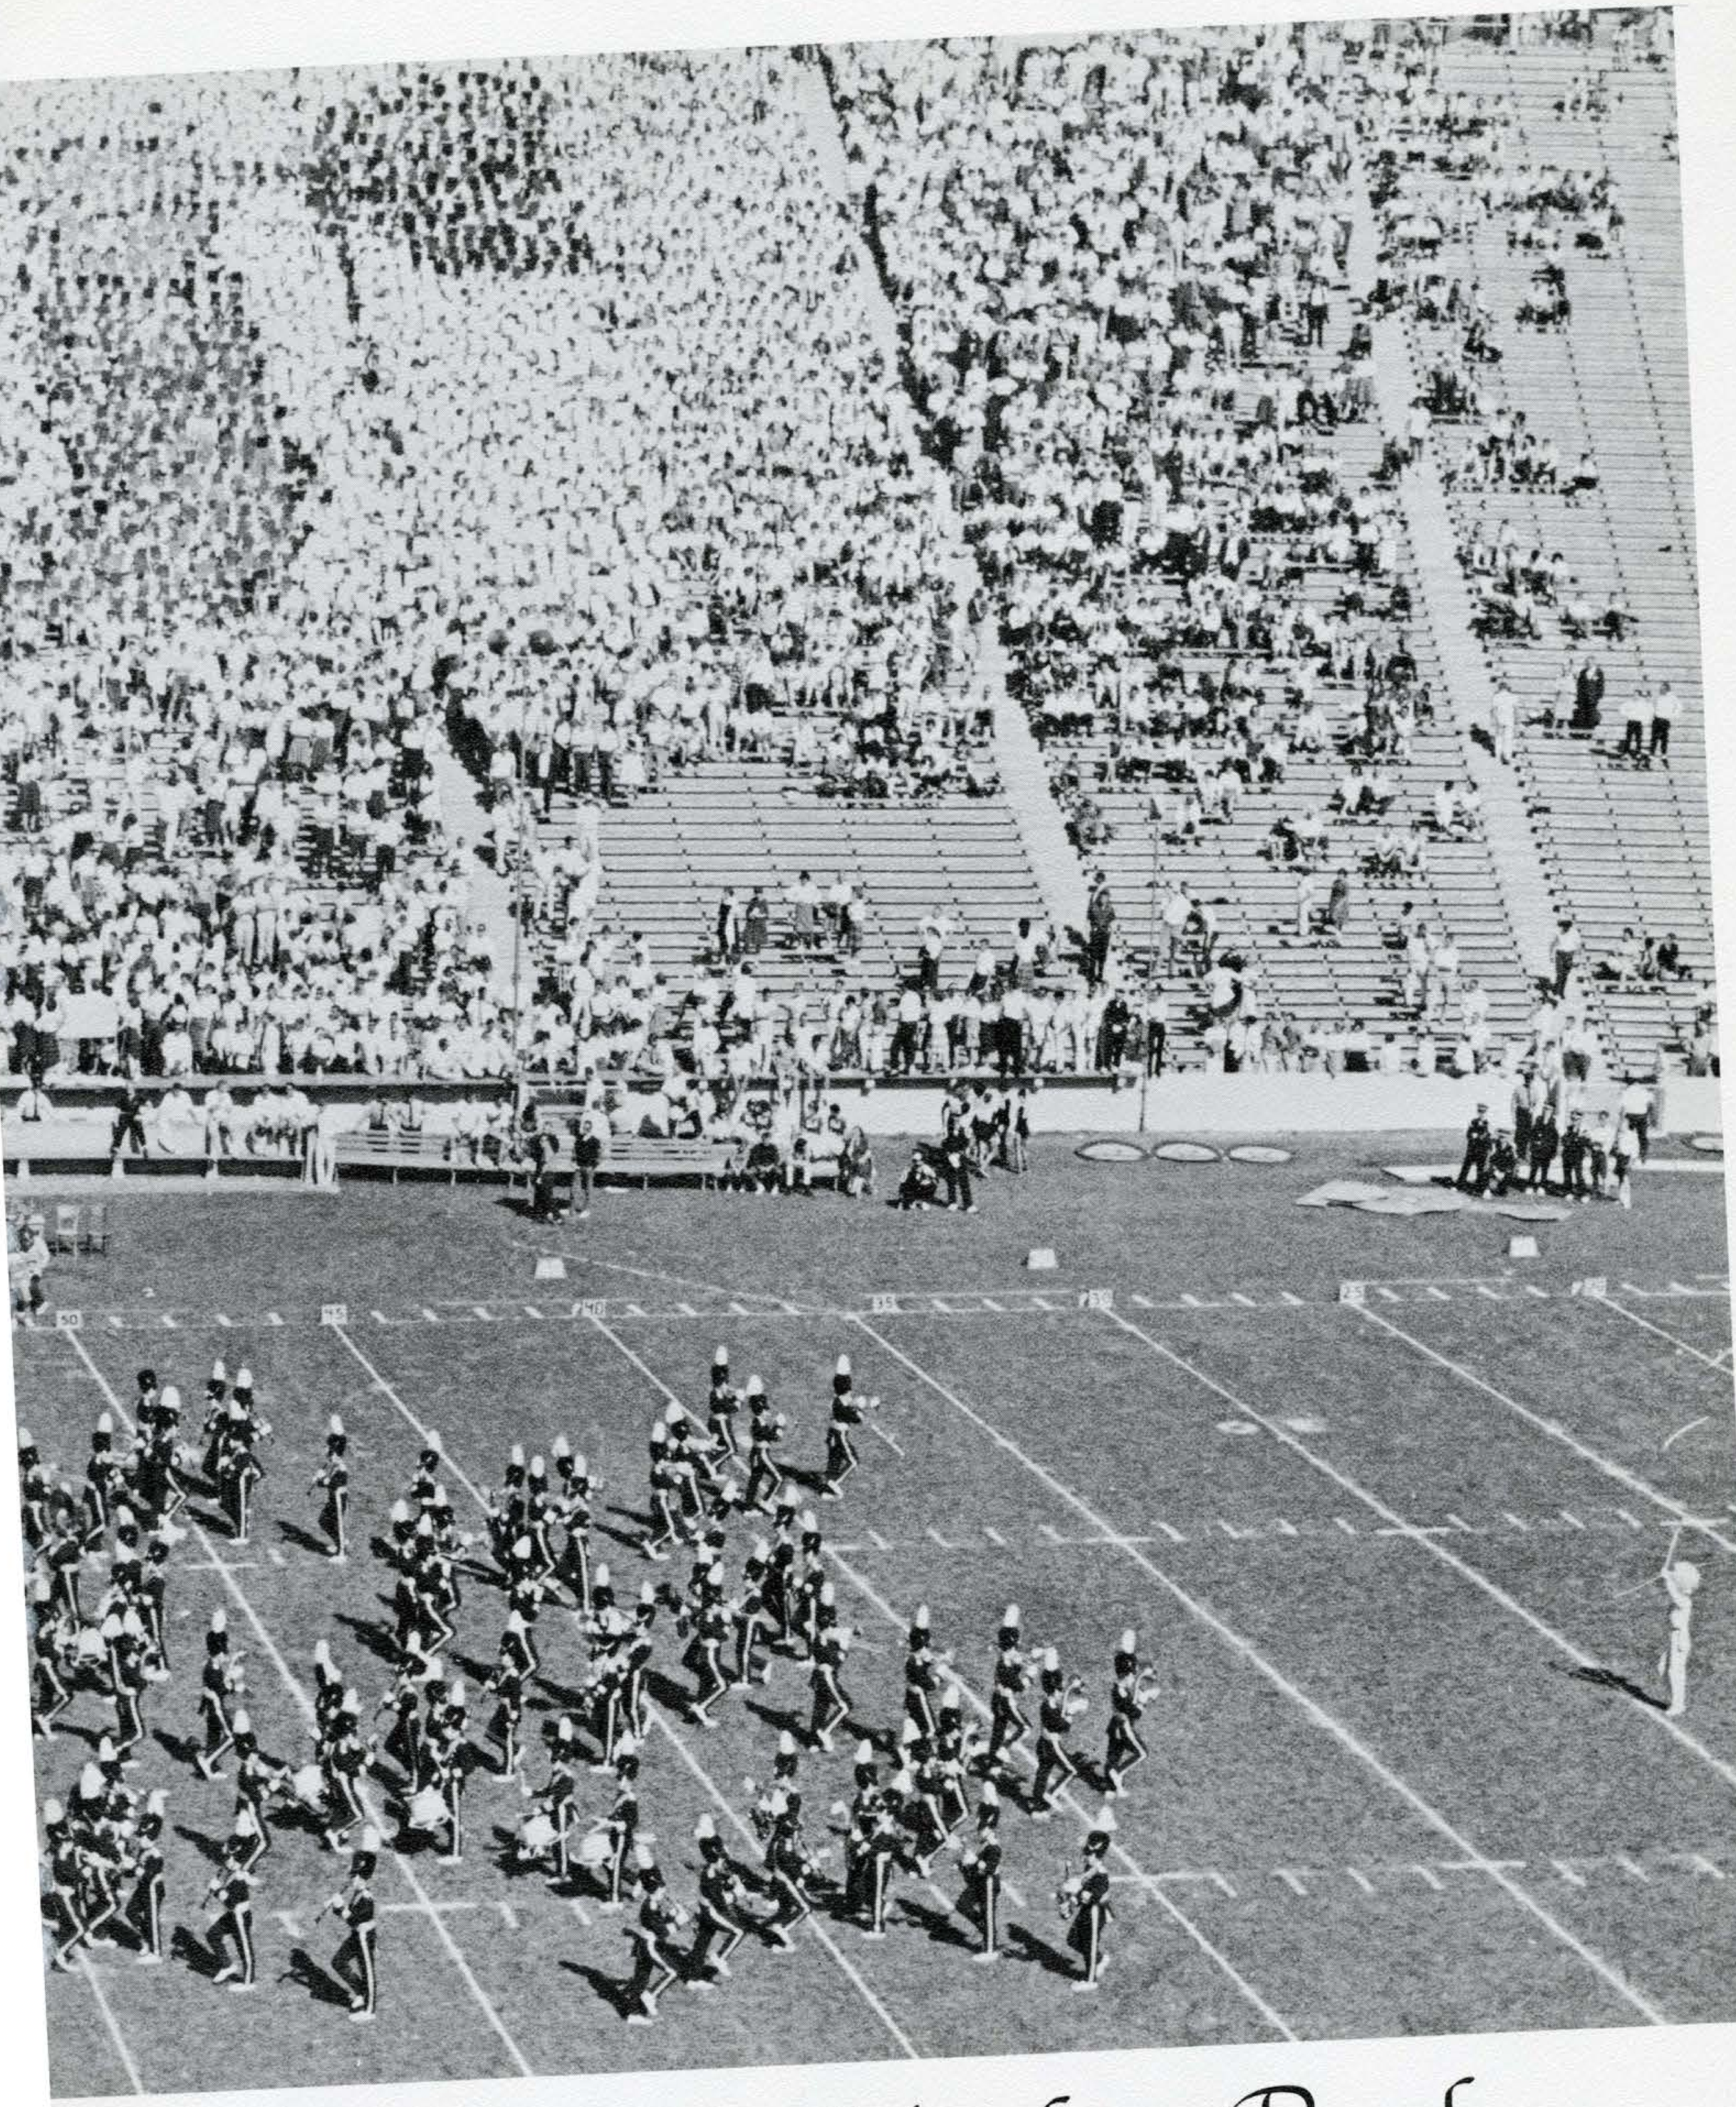

Get your fingers out of my mouth you Devil.

Hey where'd my contact go — my contact lense that is.

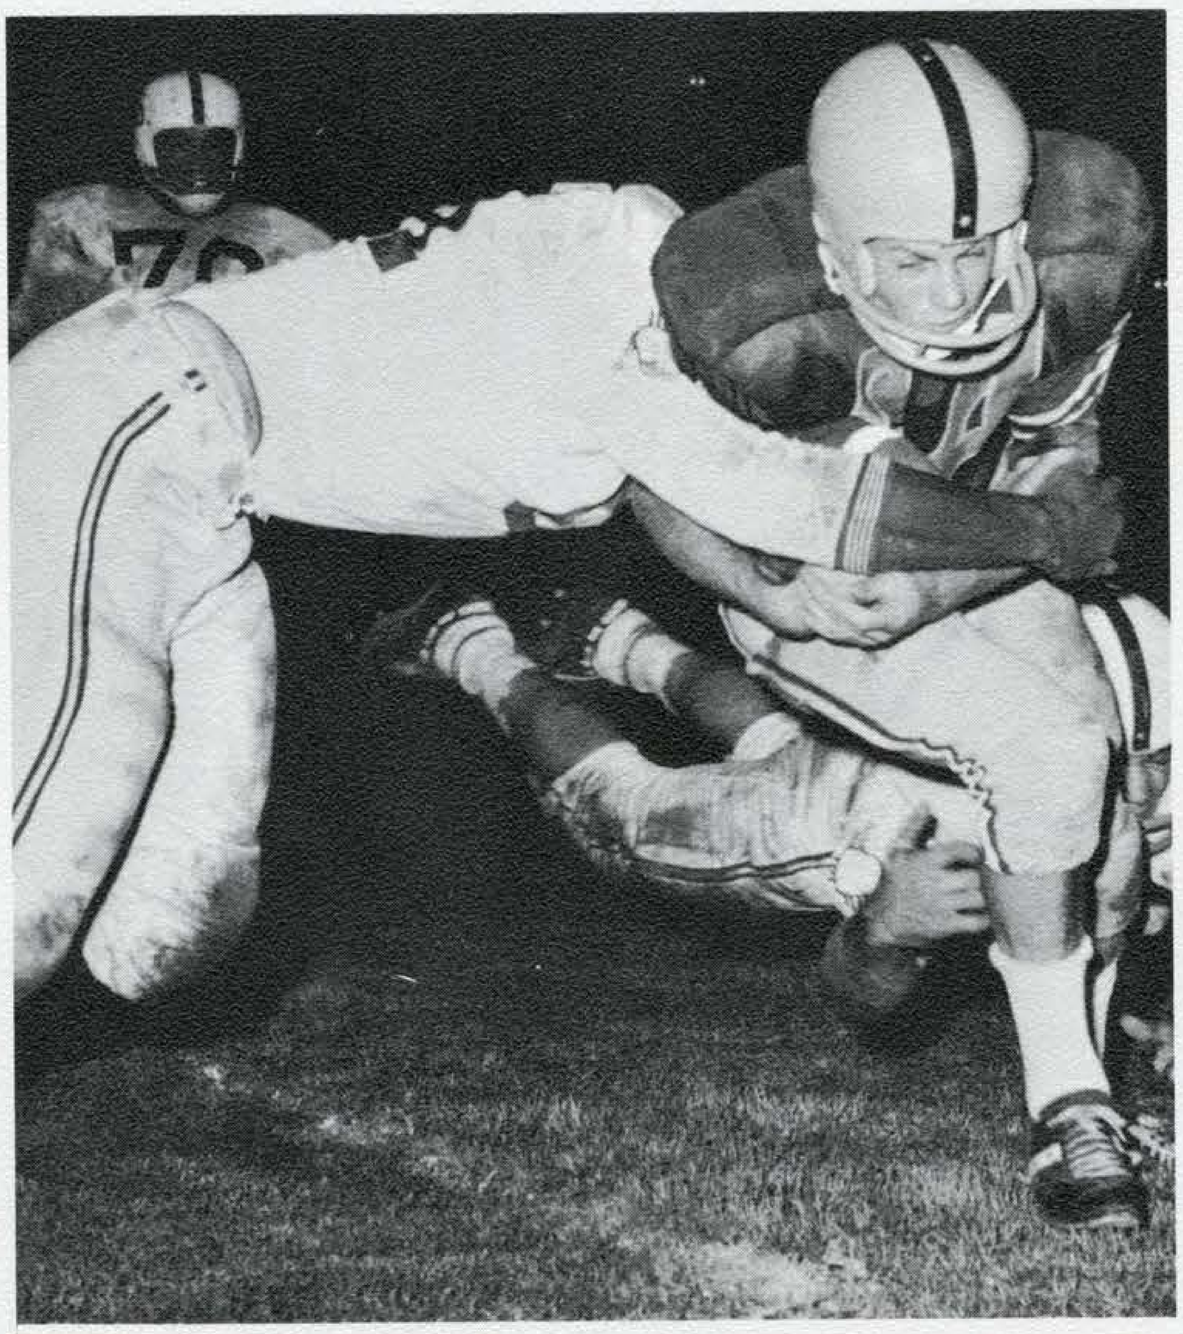

Stunning, audacious, magnificient, spectacular, Judy Garlandish, what can one say to describe this magnificient ensemble of outstanding playing and direction. One must see it to really appreciate it. The 1962 Spartan Marching Band has caused so much discussion both because of a travel controversy and because of its wonderful arrangements that it probably is the one outstanding spectacle here at San Jose State this year. The Band caused a sensation both at home and on the road helping to add prestige to San Jose State. With the band this year, as an added attraction — and what an attraction — is a group of girls appropriately named the "Bandaids." Let me say that they surely do aid every male's eyes in the stadium. Performing with the band is baton twirler Maxine Furiuke who won 13 awards at the Seattle World's Fair and she puts on a spectacular performance. Under the direction of Roger Muzzey, the Band is something San Jose State can be extremely proud of.

San Jose stayed winless after the Homecoming game even though the fans gave them all the spectator support they could want, but it wasn't enough. The San Jose State loss was due to the same old problem that has been evident in past games, penalties and fumbles, according to Coach Bob Titchenal. The Lobos won 25-13. The pre-game activities went off so well that it was sort of a gross letdown to have this final event of the day come off sour. The first play of the game after the Spartan's received the opening kickoff resulted in a fumble that set up the first New Mexico touch-down. On the first play from scrimmage on the SJS 23 Walt Roberts fumbled and Larry Jasper recovered for New Mexico. It took only three plays for the Lobos to push across for a touchdown. New Mexico got two more TD's in the fourth quarter which were considered "give-aways" be-cause of Spartan fumbles. The Spartans were trailing most of the game and had a chance to get back in competition again early in the fourth quarter, but bobbled a play at the six yard line and a penalty called them back. Two of New Mexico's touchdowns were directly linked to Spartan fum-bles and San Jose State could have won 13-12 if they could only have hung on to the ball.

Homecoming

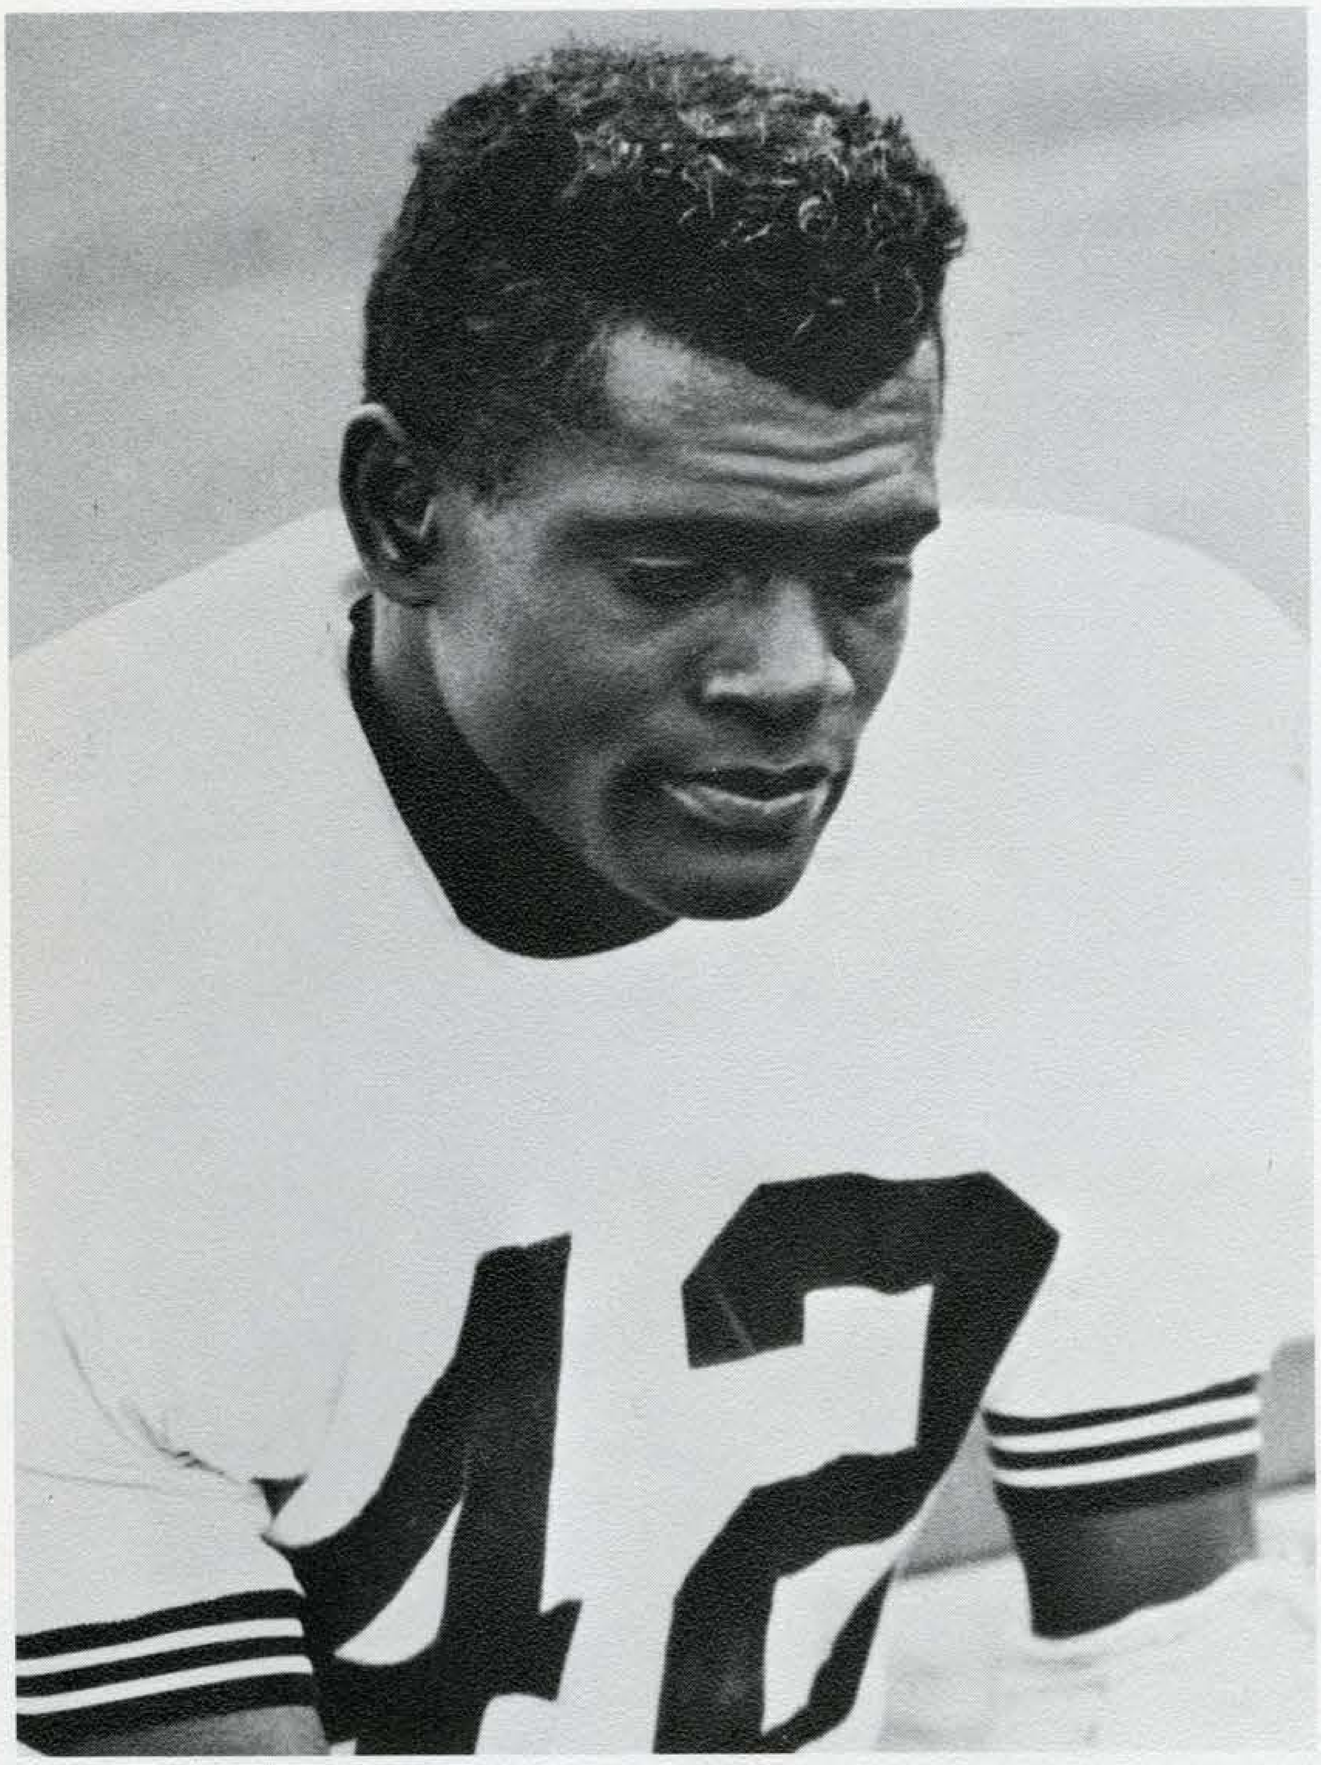

Presenting the Homecoming Queen of 1962 . . . Elaine Halvorsen

Old memories, a queen, floats, music and gala pageantry marked San Jose State's Homecoming Day celebration. Flames leaped high from the 40 foot bonfire which sparked off the pregame celebration Friday night and Saturady morning of Homecoming. Saturday was filled with gala festivities including a float parade featuring San Jose State's beautiful Homecoming queen Elaine Halvorsen who was just as radiant as the flower covered floats which she rode with in the parade. The climax of the Homecoming celebration was, of course, the game against New Mexico. Old memories were mixed with new and spectacular moments during halftime. SJS's great coach of 1930 "Dud" Degroot was on hand to wish the Spartans well and honor Queen Elaine during the ceremonies. Queen Elaine arrived in a chariot, during halftime, complete with attendants and a red carpet rolled out for her. Except for the Spartan defeat to New Mexico, the Homecoming festivities were a very spectacular event and will be remembered by all as a very endearing event of their college lives.

The traditional Homecoming Bonfire

San Jose State 24
University of Pacific 22

It was wonderful, San Jose defeated favored University of Pacific 24-22 at Stockton for their first win of the season. Quarterback Rand Carter guided the Spartans to their first victory and threw two long touchdown passes. Both passes were to End Dave Johnson, one of 44 yards, the other for 53 yards. Pacific was the first to score when Bob Scardina blocked a San Jose kick and Buck Del Nero recovered on the Spartans seven and went in on the next play. Scardina kicked the extra point. San Jose followed with an 87 yard drive which ended when Carter threw a 53 yard scoring pass to end Dave Johnson. Minutes later, San Jose's Walt Roberts took a punt on his 28 yardline and cut down the left sideline 72 yards to score with the help of some key blocks. San Jose showed its potential at Stockton with some great passing and driving, proving once again SJS has the potential both in the air and on the ground.

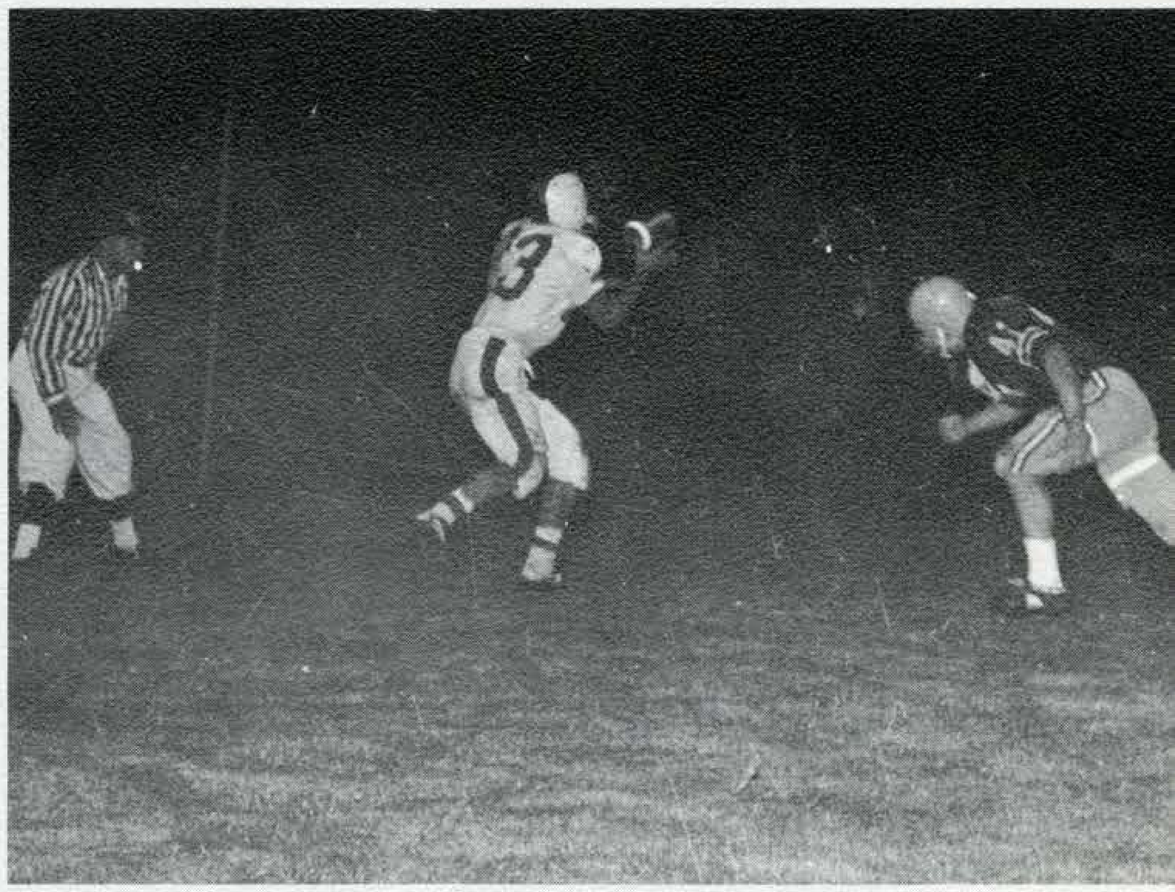

Star Halfback Walt Roberts expression could have many meanings, of sadness or satisfaction, let your own interpretation be the answer.

Mr. "Titch" given "shoulder-boost" after Spartan win.

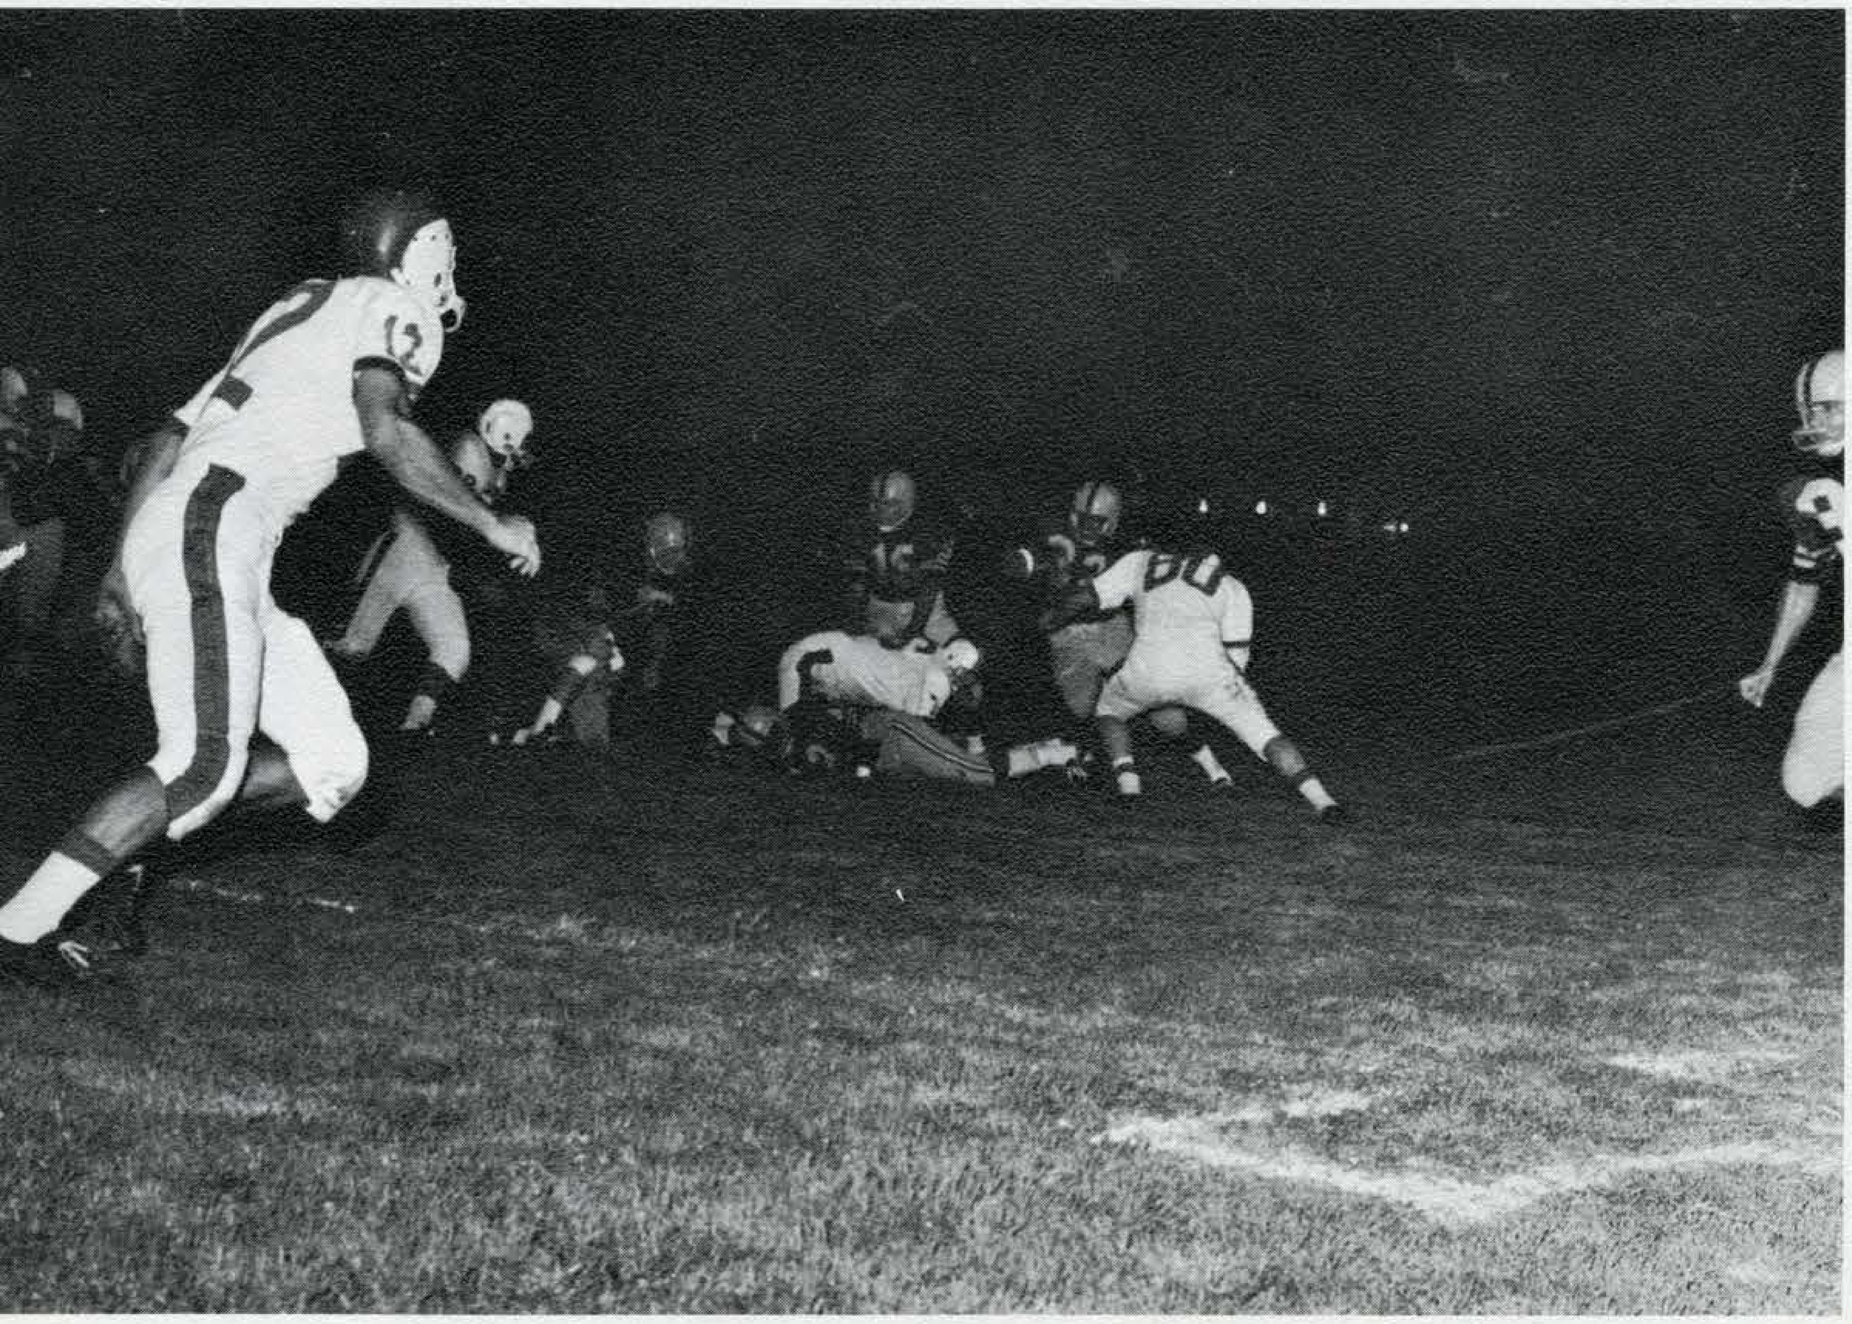

San Jose State 14
Fresno State 20

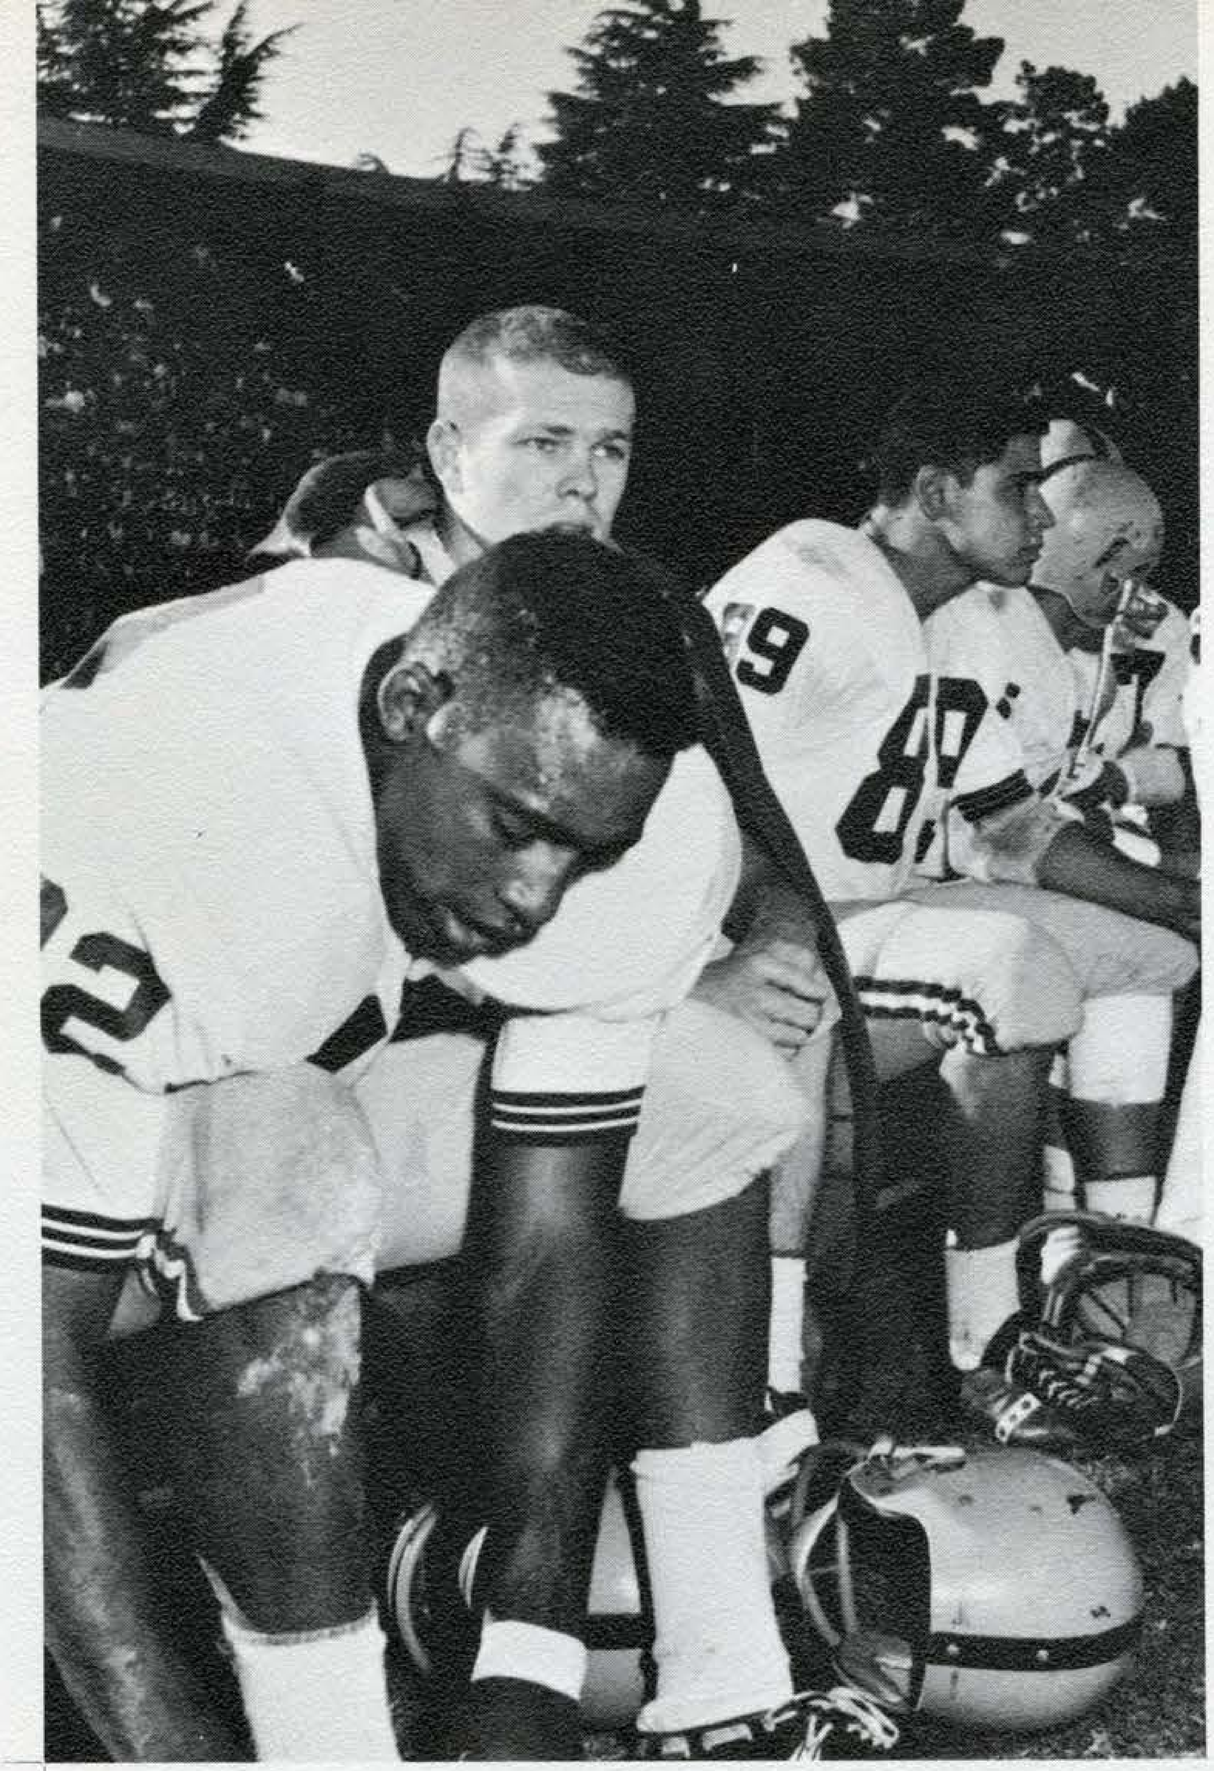

The Spartans put up a good fight and tried to come from behind, but were unable to beat Fresno State as the Bulldogs won 20-14. The Bulldogs opened the scoring in the early part of the first quarter when on the play from scrimmage Beau Carter took the ball around left end and went 73 yards for the first TD. The point after was not made and the Bulldogs led 6-0. The rest of the quarter was stalemated when neither team penetrated the other's zone very deeply. The best drive was put on by the Spartans when Johnny "TD" Johnson blocked a Fresno State punt and recovered the ball on the nine. Rand Carter then took the ball around right end for the touchdown. Dave Bonillas passed to Greg Rocha for two points. Neither team scored again in the game leaving the score 20-14.

San Jose State 9
Stanford 21

San Jose State's Spartans gave the Stanford Indians a violent battle before slipping to a 21-9 defeat at Stanford Bowl. Had not the Spartans fumbled the ball at the wrong moments, the improving San Jose State team may have notched a third win over the Indians and the big upset of the season would have taken place. San Jose started the scoring mechanism whirring by scoring a 20 yard field goal by Bob Paterson in the waning moments of the first quarter. The Spartan ground defense was fine and so was their ground offense from which they gained 144 yards. Walt Roberts netted 61 of the yards in eight plays for a 7.6 average, making him the outstanding Back of the game. In the air San Jose's Rand Carter completed eight of nineteen passes for 155 yards. Considering everything San Jose played a creditable game.

Dave Johnson (86) catches a pass thrown by Rand Carter during the Stanford skirmish.

Band-Aids

Ingredients: a tablespoonful of Can-Can, a measure of wild music, plus eleven units of swingin girls and a pinch of ye olde bump and grind. Cook for 15 minutes (the males at halftime) and you have some of the most magnificient dishes ever to be served in one helping — the Band-Aids of San Jose State. They were given their title by Roger Muzzey, Band Director. The "Band-Aids" are a group of girls who do some swingin dance routines for wide-eyed Spartan fans during halftime. The "Band-Aids" are great and deserve much credit for their outstanding performances.

Cheerleaders

Without Cheerleaders at a game, it would be like earth without water, dry and lifeless. The Cheerleaders are an important part of every game giving the audience some means of game-orientation. Much credit must be given to our wonderful SJS Cheerleaders who have helped keep the Spartan spirit alive during the season. A very G-O-O-D J-O-B men.

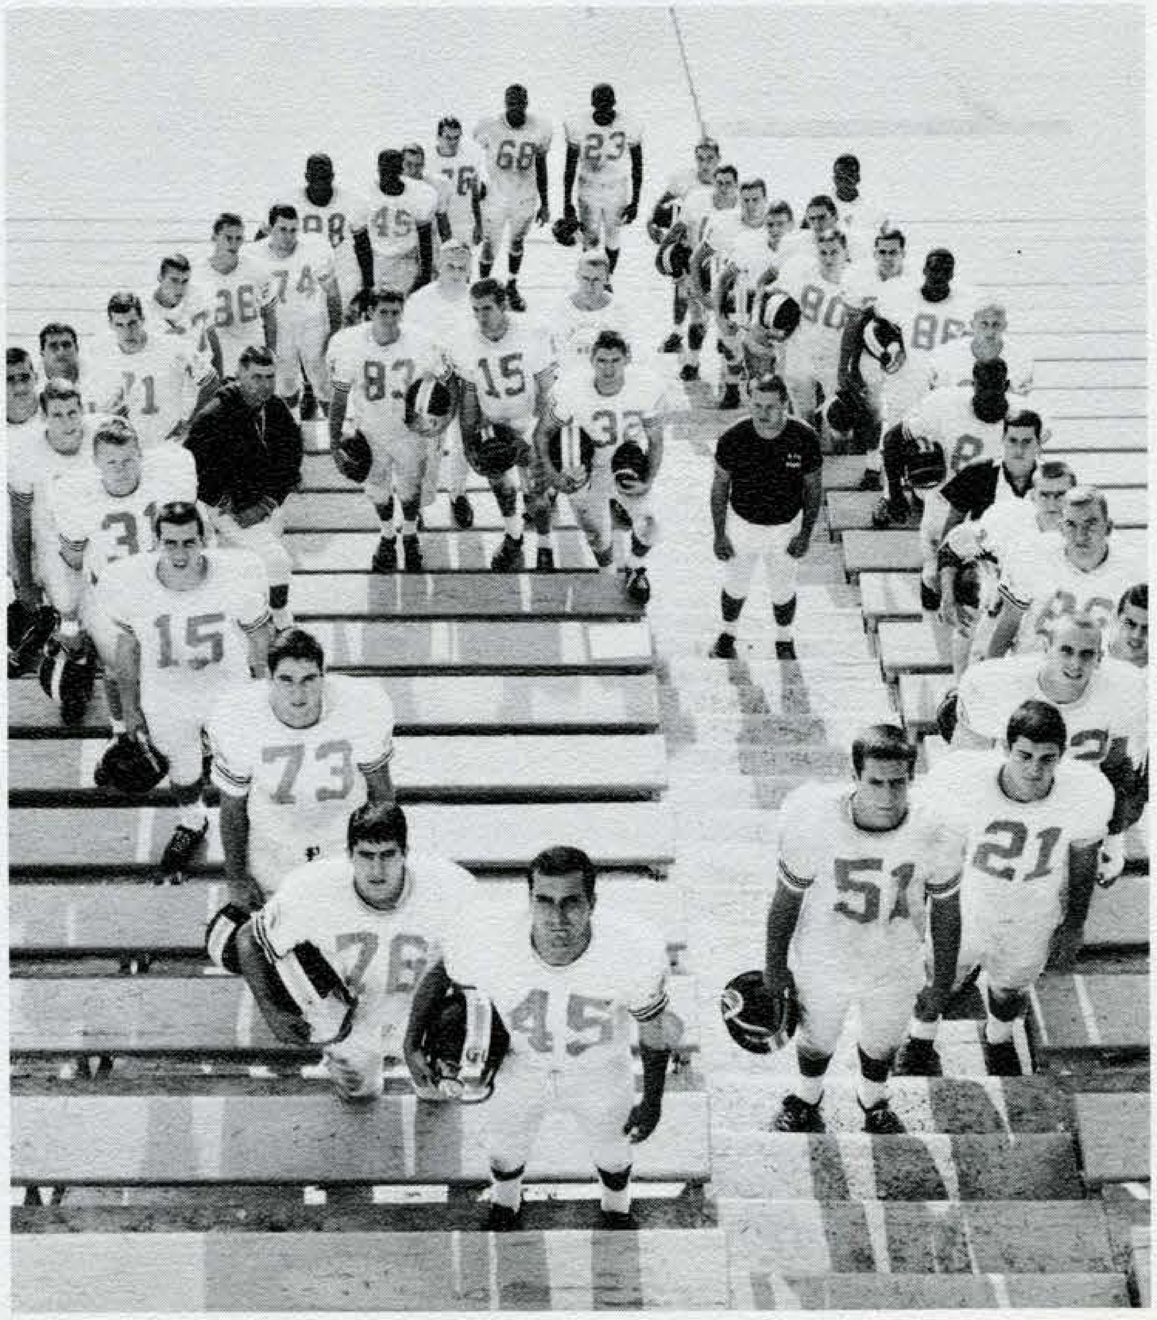

Song Girls

It takes many people, dedicated people, to hold the tradition and spirit of a college together. And there are five such dedicated people, the San Jose State Song Girls who throw their warmth and personality on the masses of Spartan fans each game. These girls are an important part of the Spartan spirit and tradition and do a glorious job with precision skill and talent.

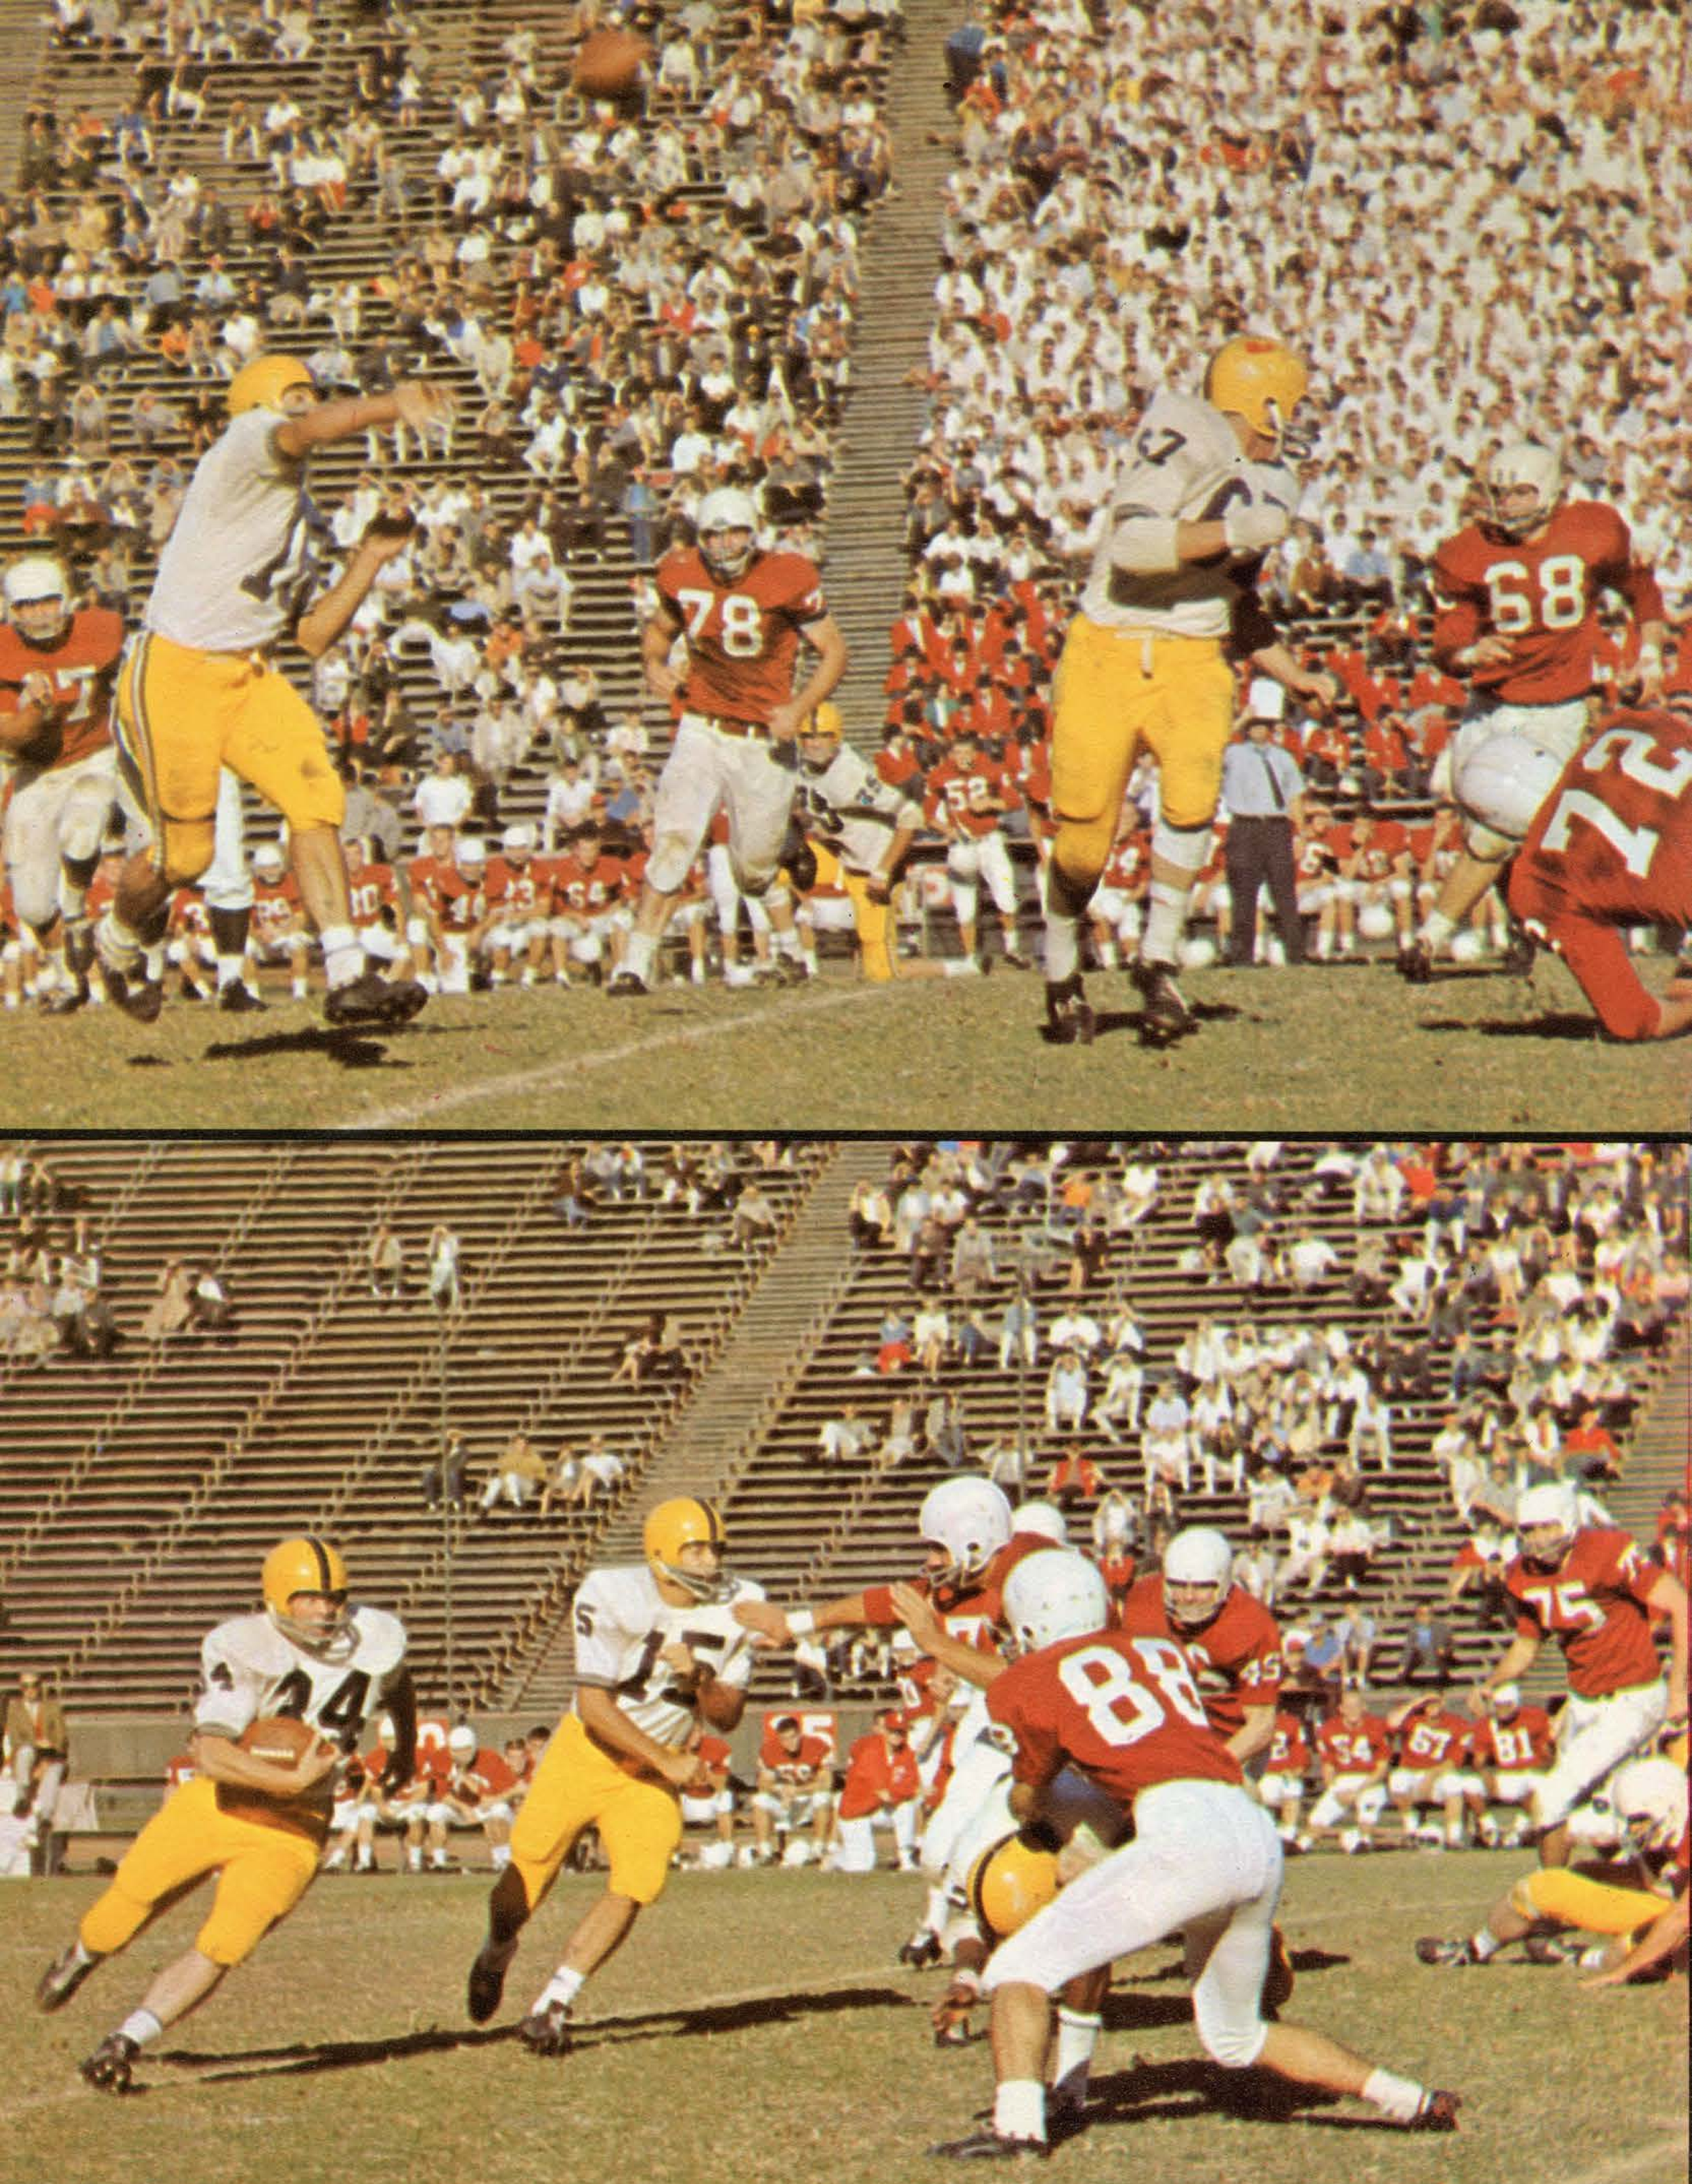

Varsity Football Windup

The 1962 football season has passed and the team has returned their uniforms to storage. The games played are but memories now, but even though the pigskin has been put to rest until next fall, San Jose State can now look back at the past season with warm memories of fun, tradition, pageantry and excitement. Although the Spartans lost more games then they won, they gave the fans many thrills with their "open" games in which they displayed much spectacular passing outgaining many teams in air yardage. The Spartans always showed their "never say die" spirit even when behind in points. The fans must also be given much credit for their unwavering spirit which helped aid the Spartans in their quest for victory. Many people ask, "why didn't San Jose State win more games?" These people blame the defeats on many sources, but most of these critics seem to forget that San Jose State was up against one of the toughest schedules in its history. And it is still in the process of building up a big name team. The Spartans showed good stuff during many of the games including the Oregon melee. Generally, the Spartans showed spectacular playing in their own territory, but were unable to gain much advantage when they were within striking distance of the opposing team. San Jose State played good ball, but just did not have the necessary "follow-through." Although the Spartans had a rough year they displayed many good footballers, such as Star Fullback Johnny "TD" Johnson. Johnson is an "old-timer" on the Spartan squad having played with San Jose State for three years. Johnny Johnson was virtually unknown in 1960 when he started with the team, but has, three years later, become an important brick in San Jose's solid wall of football stars past and present. Johnny started railroading his way to greatness on the Spartan team when he was given the title of "Hero" for his part in the massacre of the Stanford Indians during his first season. Johnny scored four TD's during the Stanford game and was given the nickname "TD" which has stayed with him ever since. Johnny was named all-coast this year and has proven himself to be an important, vital and spirited part of the Spartan team. SJS will always remember Johnny "TD" Johnson and will always be grateful to him for lending his fine ability to the Spartan squad. Johnny is truly one of State's all time greats. All the Spartan team members have tried their best this year to give SJS some much desired victories. The competition was rough and the breaks were just not there this year, but the spirit was, and every member tried his best to give the fans thrills and excitement. Coach Titchenal is attempting to mold SJS into a top name school Sports-wise and he is working hard to make this dream come true. San Jose State has always had fine football teams which helped give San Jose State a substantial name in football. Let's give "Titch" and the team our grateful thanks for helping to pave the way for San Jose State in big time college football.

A Team . . . Victory . . .

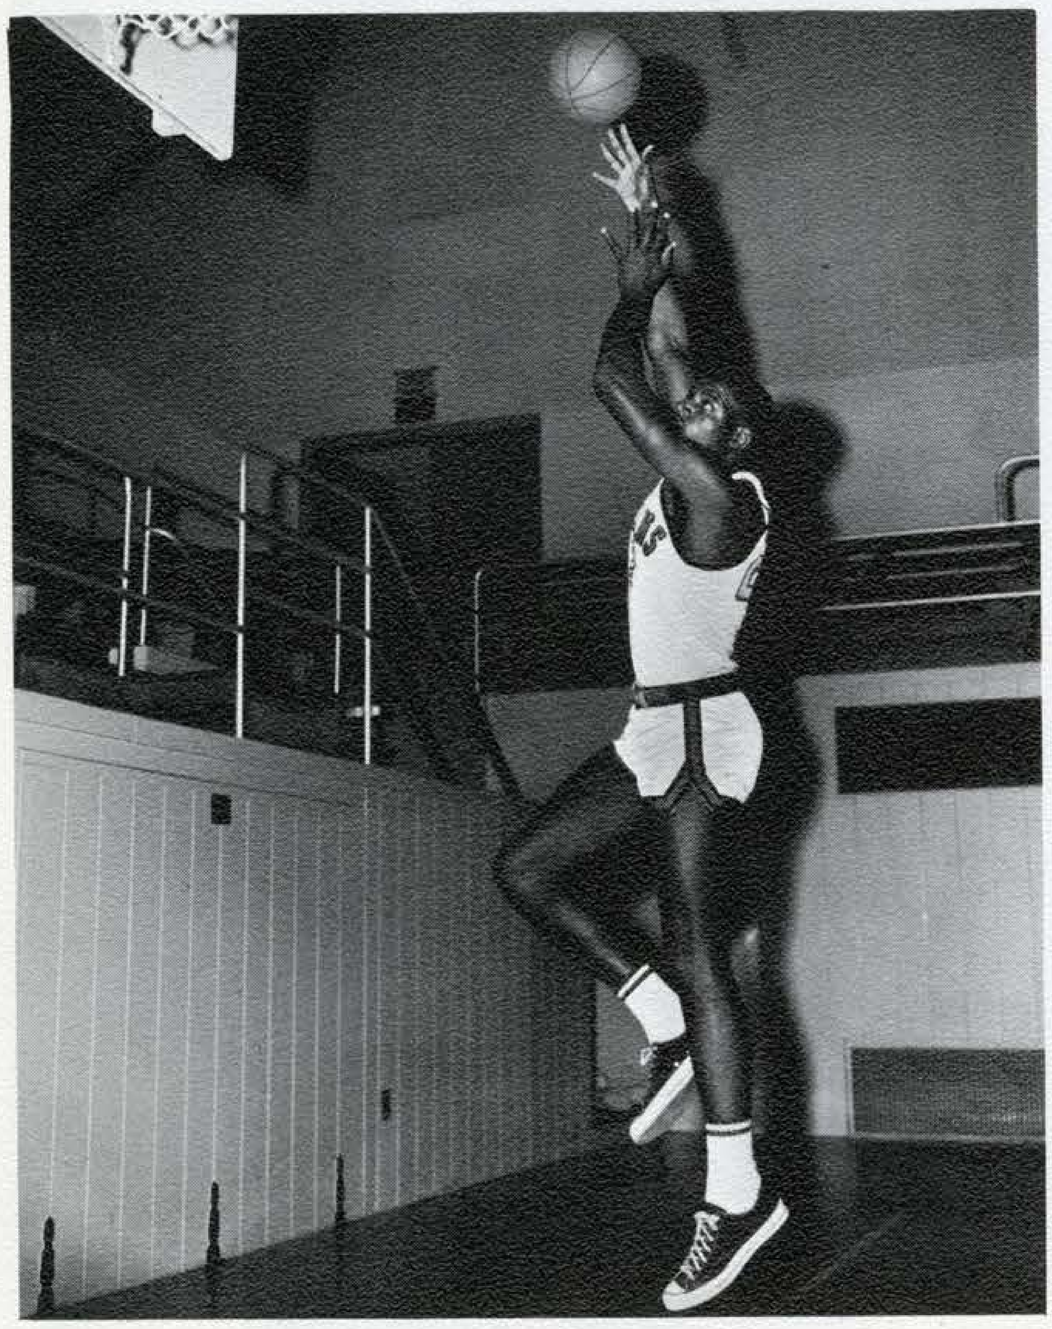

Defeat . . . . Hope!

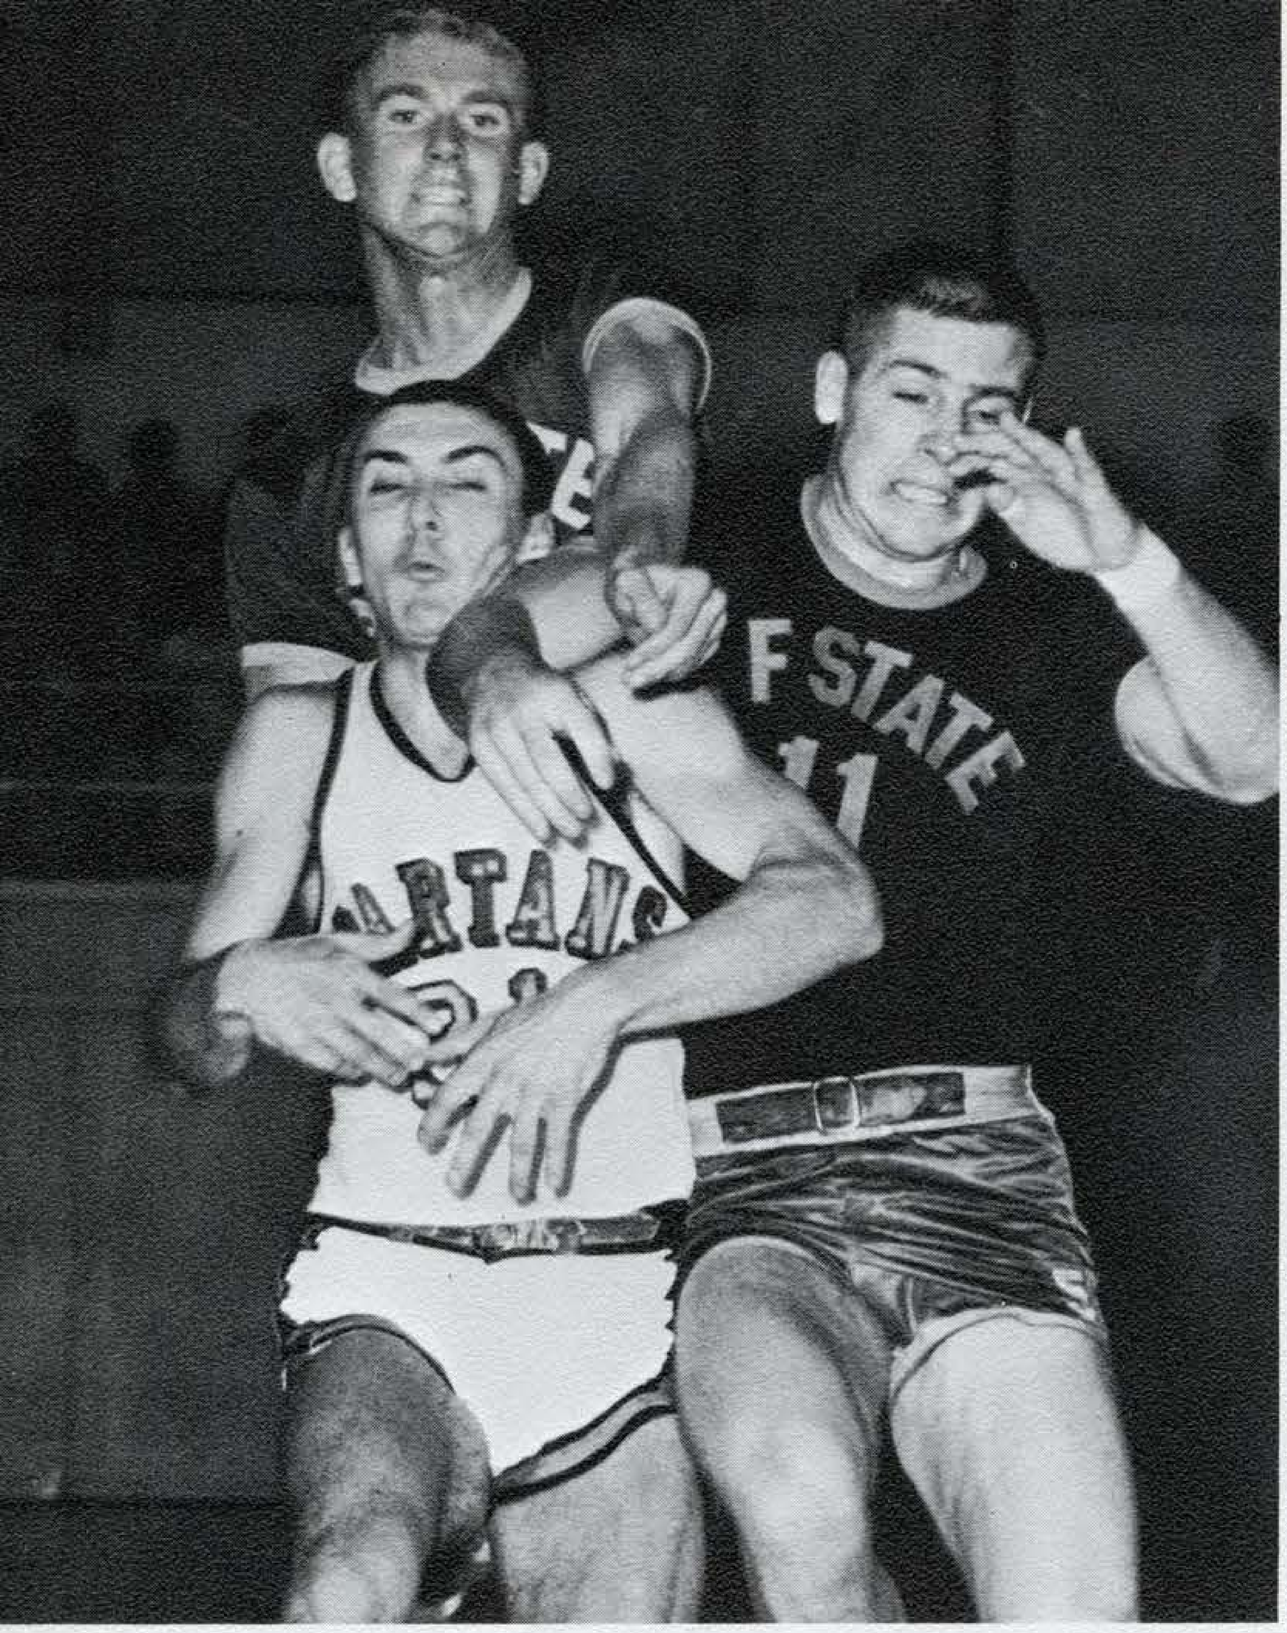

Bill Robertson puts one up.

Eddie Sims executes a successful layup.

The league tourney started off grand for the San Jose State Cagers as they won in overtime against the University of Pacific, 42-41. It was a thrilling game for the San Jose State fans and Bill Robertson, Dennis Bates, Harry Edwards and newcomer Eddie Sims were in top notch condition for the event. Then, on January 11 the Spartans went to Maraga to battle it out with St. Mary's. The Spartans put up a tremendous battle against the Gaels, but were not able to topple them this time. Both teams put out good play. There had to be a winner and this time it was St. Mary's. They won 56-50. After the defeat to St. Mary's, the Spartans came back home and entered into combat with Loyola at Civic Auditorium. Again the Spartan Cagers showed great spunk as they hammered the Lions down with strong blows from Sims, Edwards, Bates, Yonge, and Labetich. All were in prime condition and showed their stuff amongst the throng of Spartan fans.

ALL-STAR Harry Edwards

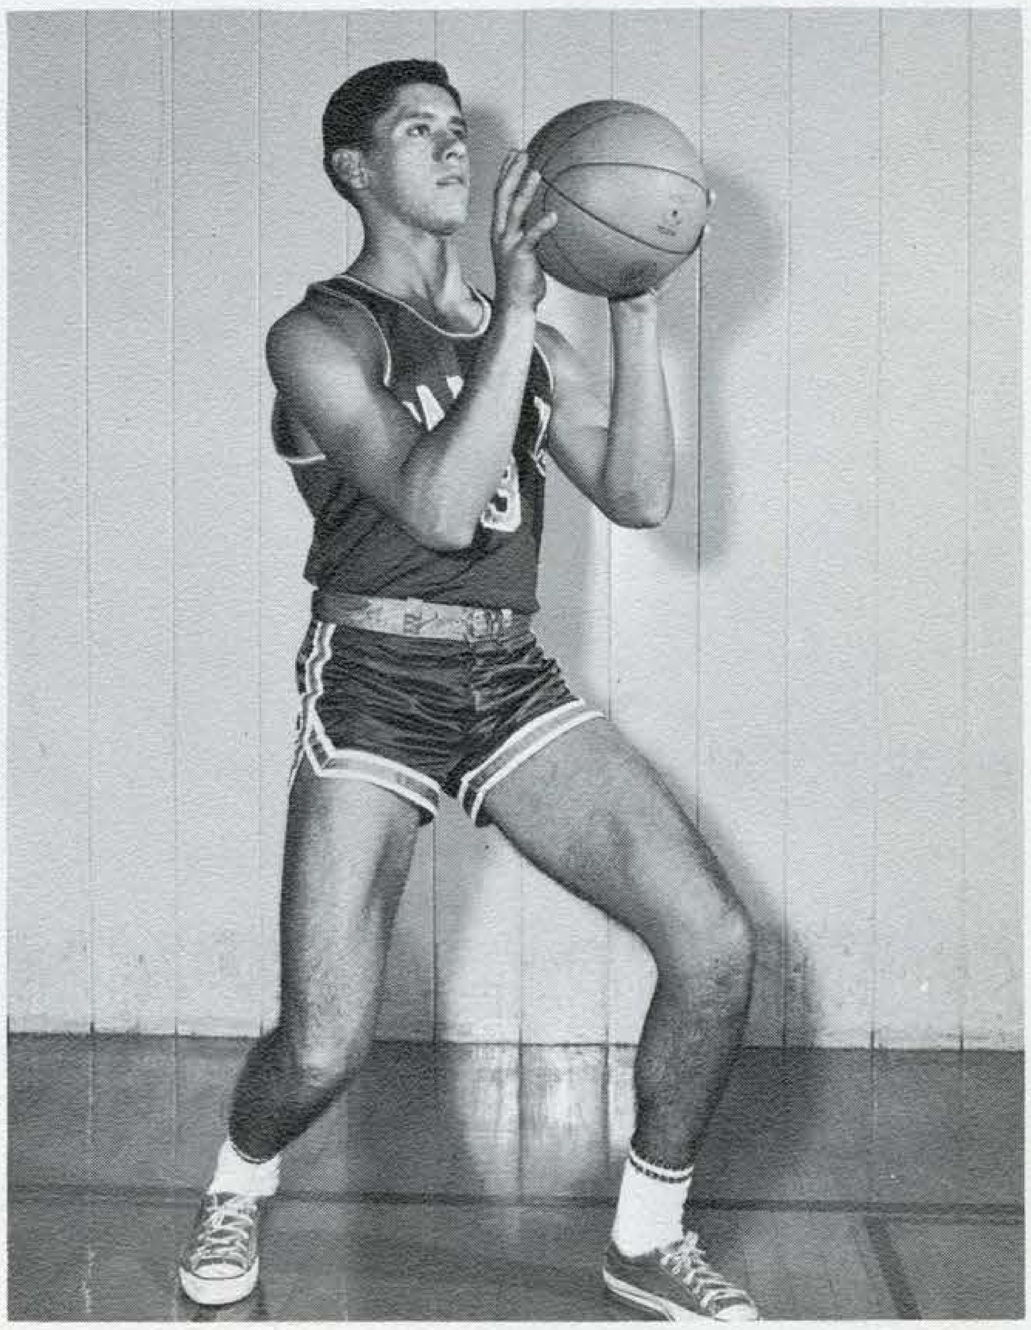

Hey . . . she's mine.

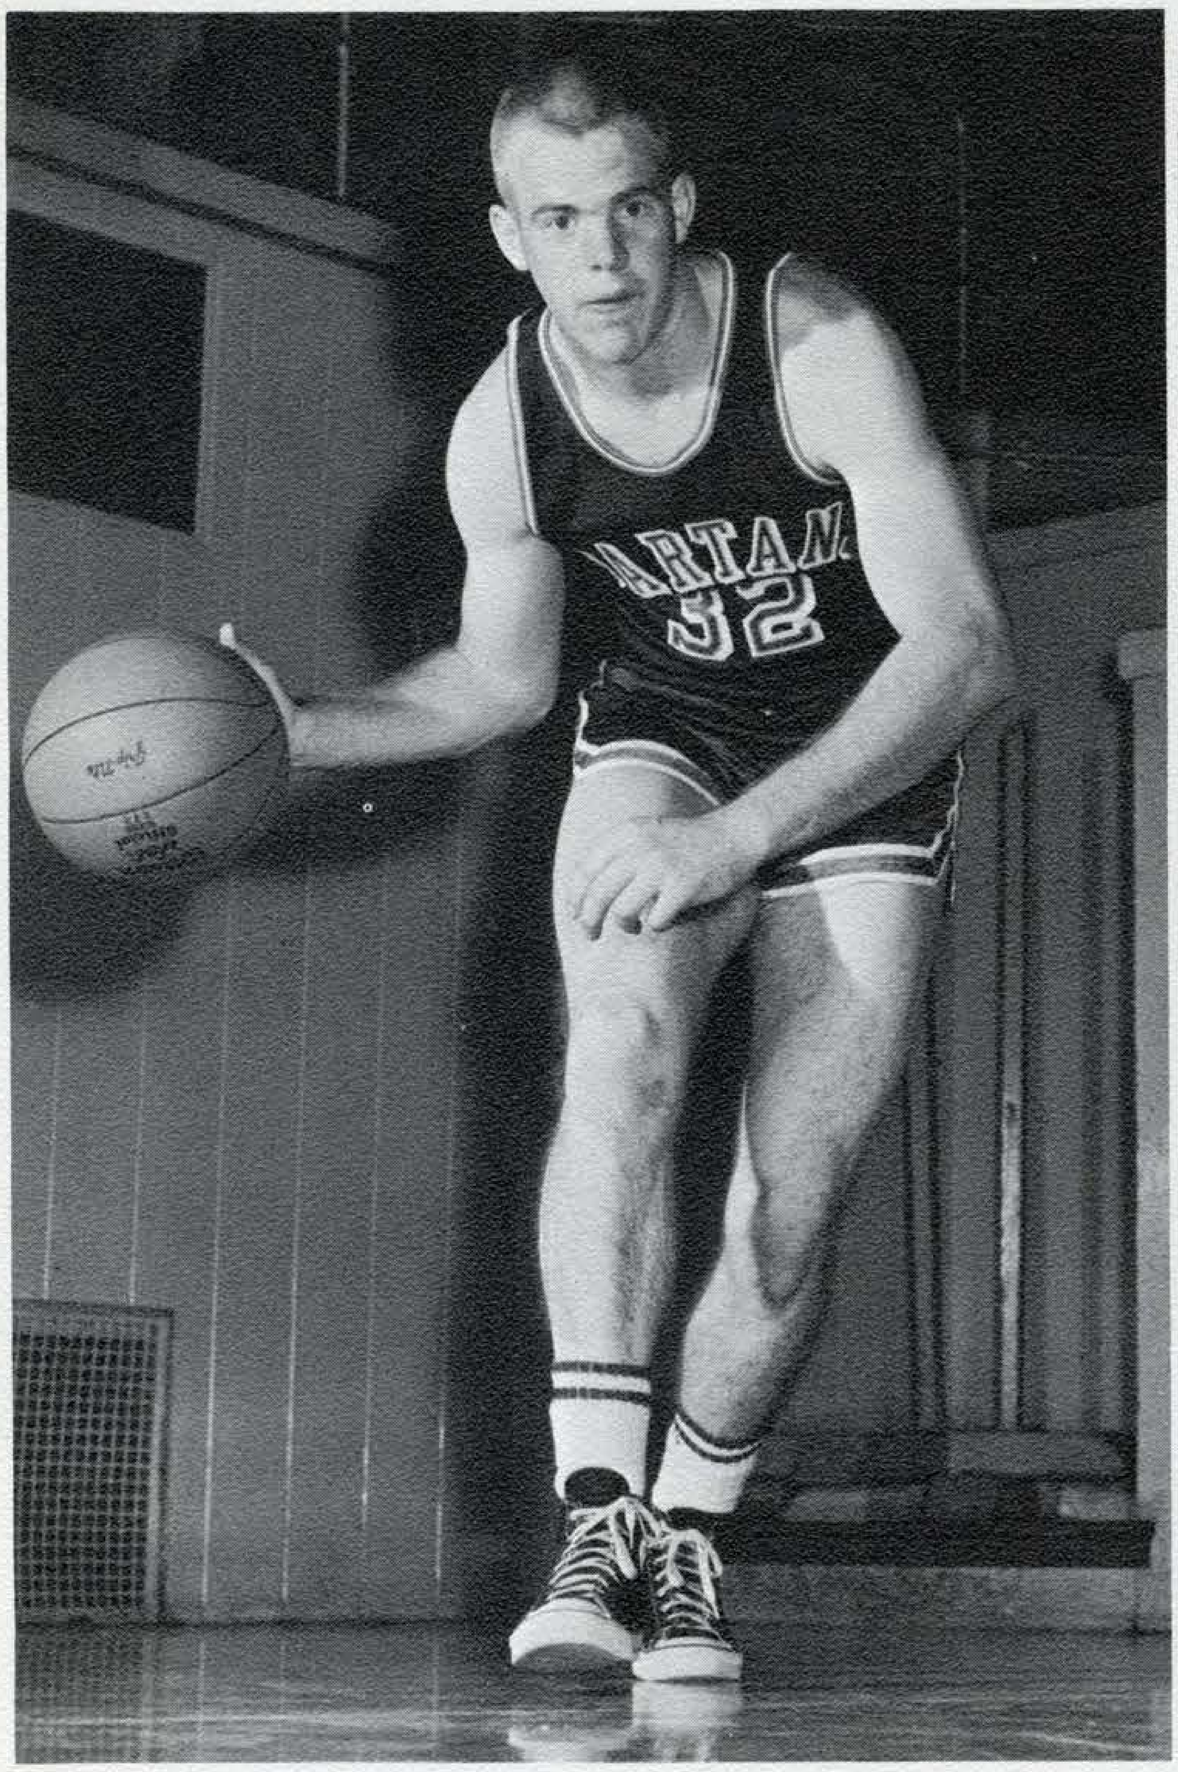

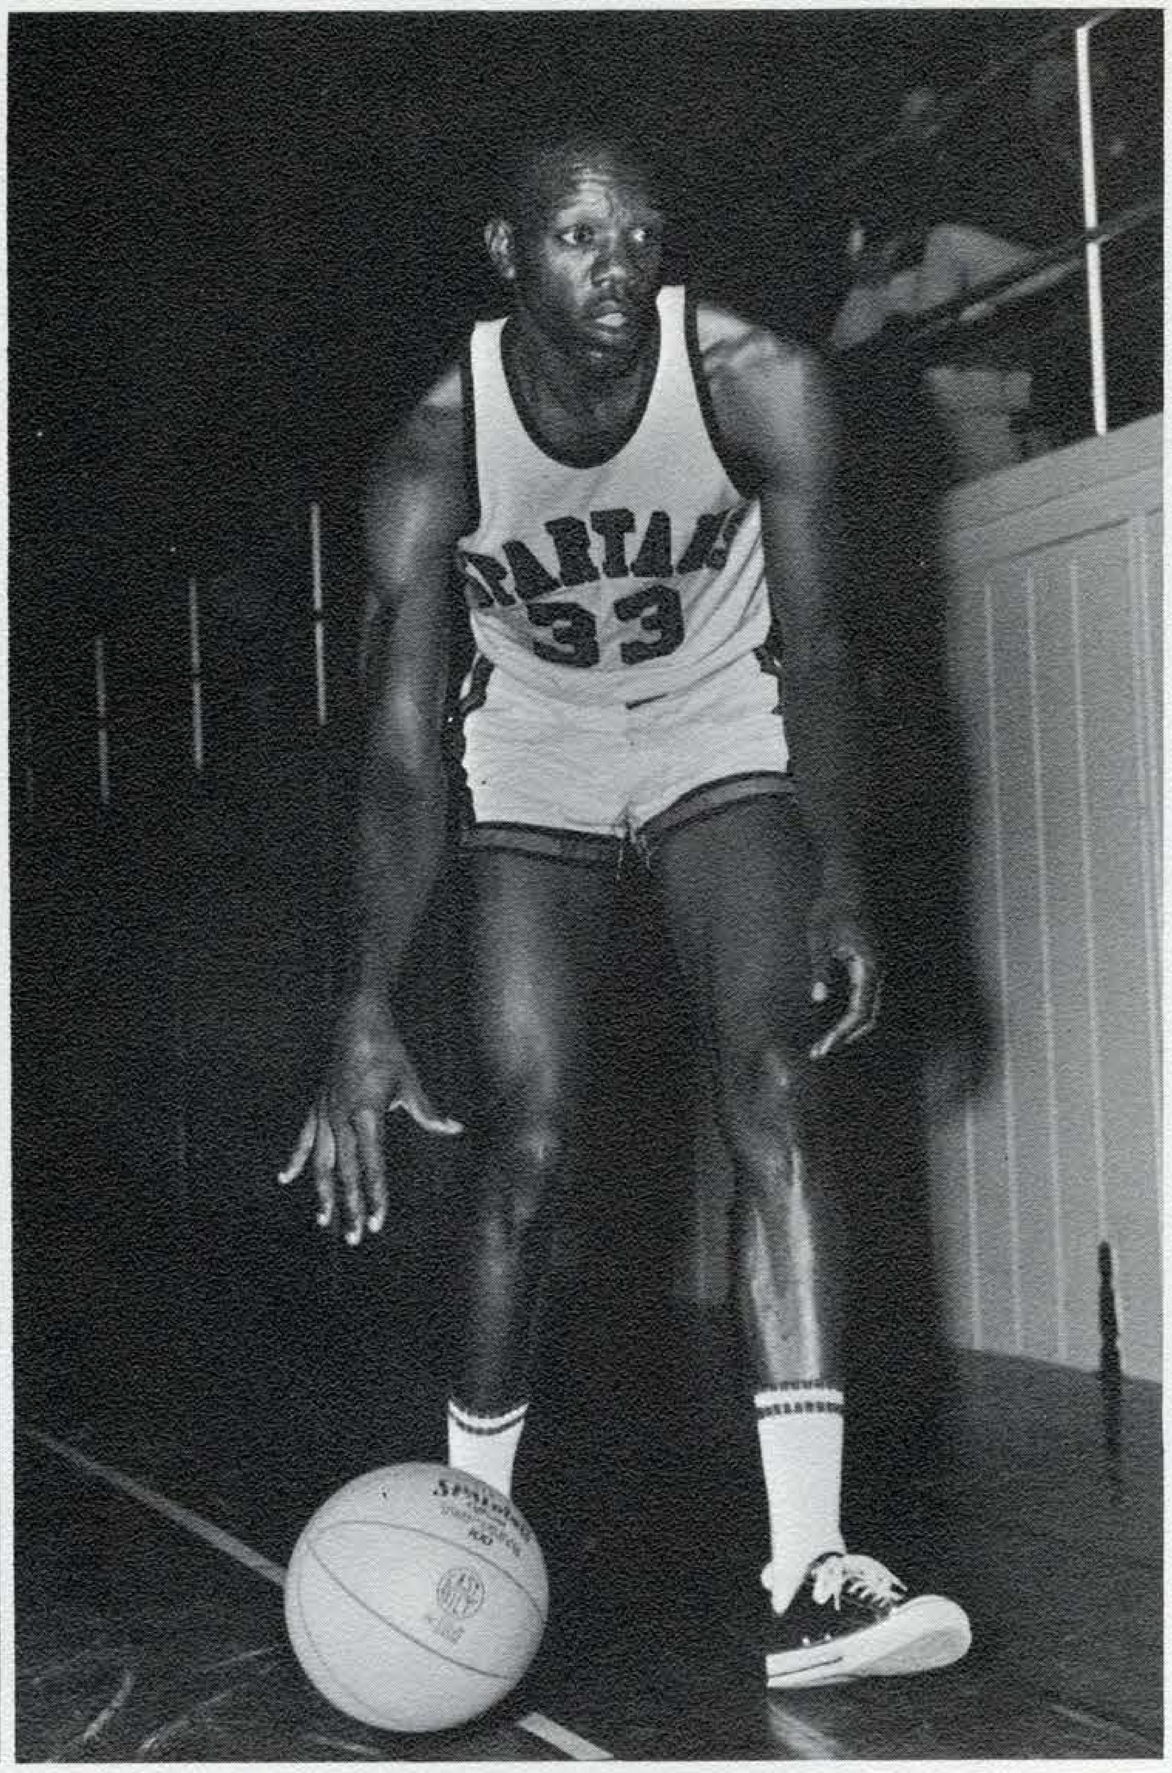

Harry Edwards buckets one

The Spartans won the game with Loyola 62-52. Next, the cagers met the tough Santa Clara Broncos and put up a good and heroic fight against Santa Clara. The Spartan five were on their toes all the way, but were beaten 67-55 and to no disgrace to San Jose State, for they put up a grand display of both offensive and defensive play. Pepperdine was the next Spartan challenge and we met it well by winning 67-60. A near capacity crowd showed at Civic Auditorium and cheered the Spartan Cagers on to a much deserved victory. It was star San Jose Cager Bill Yonge's night as he connected for 17 points, including seven straight in the second half to become the leading point getter of the night. Yonge hit eight out of nine field goal attempts for the Spartans. Ron Labetich and Al Jancsi were both lightning fast in their ball stealing antics. Labetich totaled nine points, Dennis Bates thirteen points, big Harry Edwards and Al Jancsi both scored ten points apiece.

ALL-STAR Dennis Bates

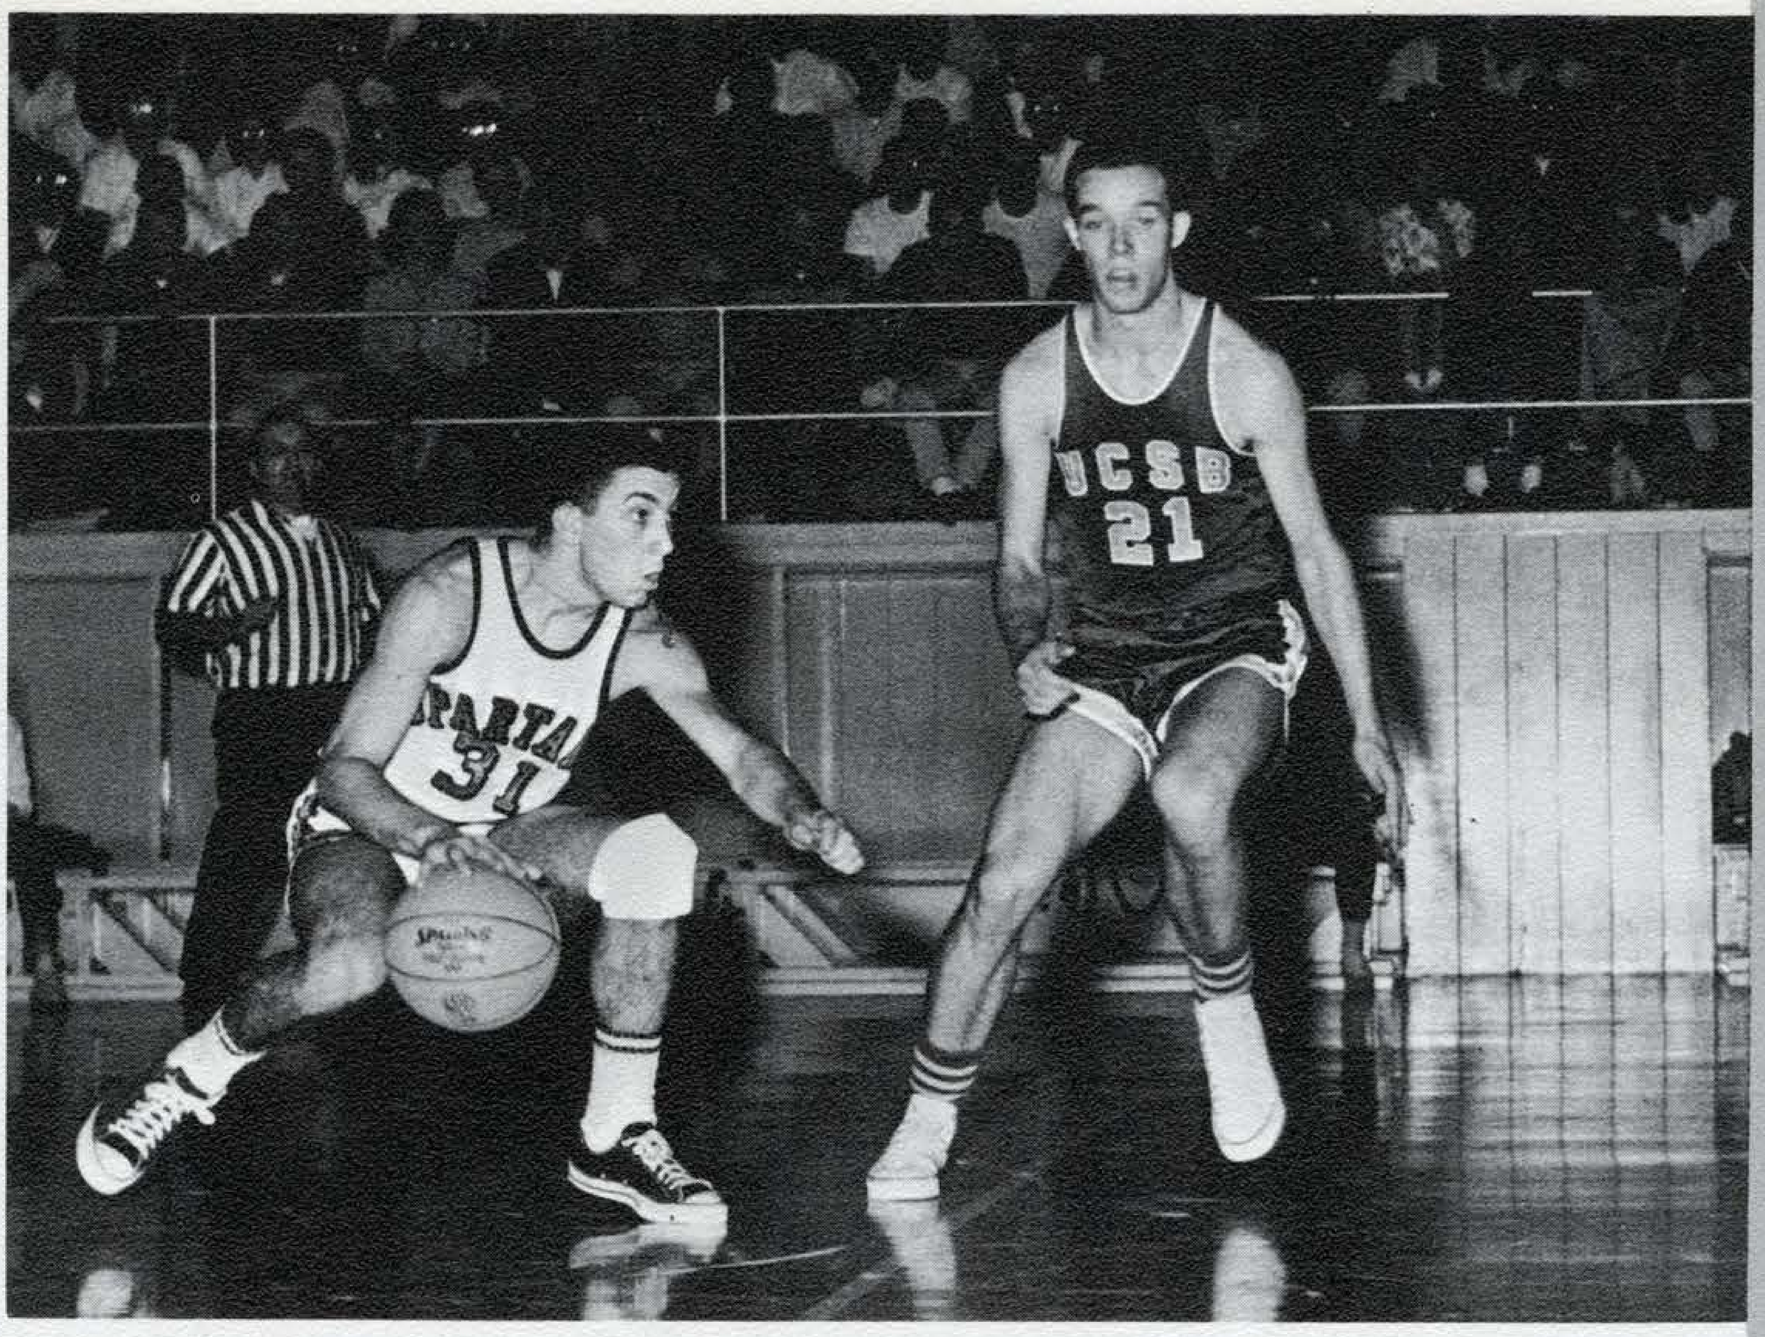

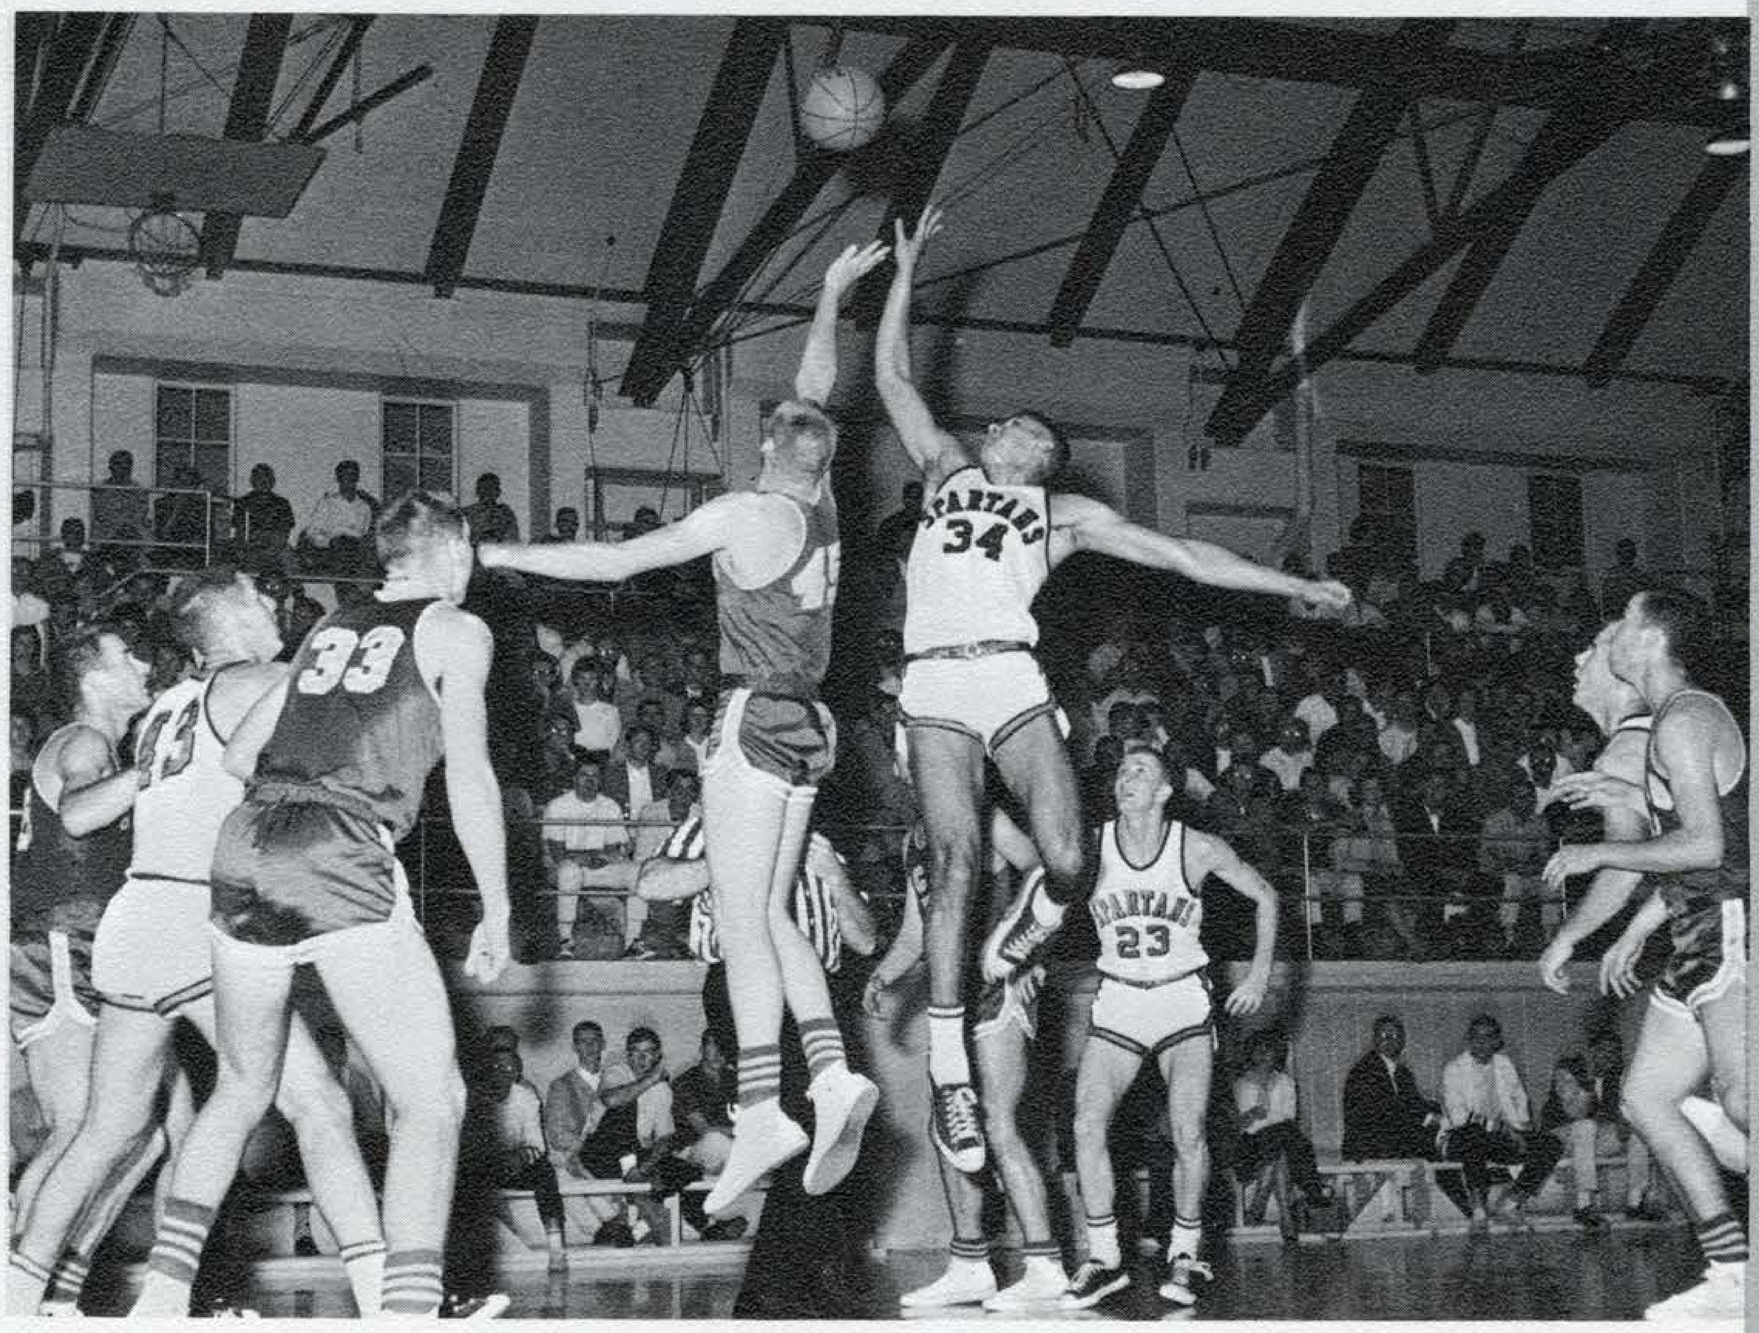

ALL-STAR Bill Yonge

ALL-STAR Eddie Sims

It was a thrilling game and the Spartan fans thoroughly enjoyed every moment of it. For their next game the San Jose State Cagers packed their suitcases and went to Loyola. It was uneventful for San Jose State as they lost the skirmish 48-56. After the loss to Loyola, the Spartans took on Pepperdine and lost to them 63-80. These games were major setbacks for the Spartans, but with their courage and stamina undaunted, they were able to pull through for a miraculous, spectacular win over the University of San Francisco on February 22. The Spartans won 49-48 and the game was won of the most thrilling the fans have ever seen in many a season. University of San Francisco had the height, but State had the courage and the will to win and they did despite University of San Francisco's tough, rough team. Even with the loss of Bill Robertson, who had played wonderfully all season, the Spartans came through in their good old bravado style. Big Harry Edwards was the highlight of the night as he connected some beautiful long shots. Dennis Bates also showed great style and control. It was a capacity crowd at Civic Auditorium and it was one of the wildest audiences ever to help rock the San Jose State Spartans to victory. The Spartans were considered to be heavy underdogs, but they proved this to be totally untrue. The next night the Spartans grappled with Santa Clara and were beaten 57-77, but as anyone will tell you they played just as thrilling a game against the Bronco's as with San Francisco the night before. The Spartans were not able to connect as many as Santa Clara, but played just as tough against a tough team. All in all the Spartans played hard and well, and even though they may have lacked a bit in height, they made up for it in skill. All of the men played hard and even tough, at times, the outlook seemed dim, they kept up the hard work and played magnificent ball against some extremely good teams. Coach Stu Inman must be given prime credit for keeping his Cagers in top condition and spirit.

For the last two years the San Jose State Spartans have reigned supreme among California State Colleges and northern California Universitys. San Jose suffered its last defeat at the hands of the California Bears in 1960. From that point to date the Spartans have beat Cal three times and established a record of over 30 wins and no losses. The mermen of "63" under the coaching of Tom O'Neil, have thus far kept alive the winning tradition of the former teams by defeating the University of Oregon, University of California and Oregon State. Returning lettermen, Pete Sagues, Bill Hird, co-captains Jim Monses and Don Black are not only top point getters, but also the main reason why the Spartans may make it their third undefeated season.

Intramurals

The Intramural program, under the direction of Dan Unruh, has enabled 4,500 San Jose State students to enjoy the benefits of organized athletic competition. The sports program, which includes 17 individual sports, has a very implicit goal—"The aim of the intramural sports program is to provide an opportunity for every male student at San Jose State College to participate in some type of competitive sport activity as regularly as his interest, ability, and time will permit." The principle objectives stressed by the program are: (1) Recreation (2) Social Contact (3) Permanent Interest in Sports (4) Group Spirit (5) Physical fitness." For the individuals and organizations participating in the Intramural Sports Program, there is an award system that acts as a stimulate not only for the individual, but for the organization to participate in all phases of the program. There are four award categories: (1) The All Award Trophy: This trophy goes to the organization which accumulates the most points in all sports through the year. (2) Traveling Trophy: This trophy is awarded to the team winning the All-College Intramural Championship in various classes. (3) Individual Awards: Individual awards will be made to members of the championship and runnerup teams in each class. (4) Individual Trophy: Trophies will be awarded to the first and second place finishers in certain classes. Perhaps the most sought after award is the All Sports Trophy. Independent as well as Greek organizations are in contention for this Trophy. In order to win, an organization must have many participants, as well as winning continually in all sports. Thus far only seven sports out of the seventeen listed have been completed. The spectator appeal is quite noticable with estimates ranging from 12,000 to 15,000 people attending the seven activities held to date.

San Jose State's Gymnastic squad under the direction of Clair Jennett has proven strength in the Side Horse and Trampoline Division. Returning lettermen Mike Lucero, who last year captured the Side Horse crown, will again be favored to retain his title. Added power will be in the form of Lynn Dodson, a top-notch contender for the Trampoline Championship. Placing weight behind the Spartans attack will be the all around preformances of lettermen Dan Landers and Art Andrews. This two-pronged attack, backed by the well rounded ability of the squad, insures that the Gymnastic Team will continue its winning trend throughout the remainder of the "62-63" season.

Wrestling

Hey . . .

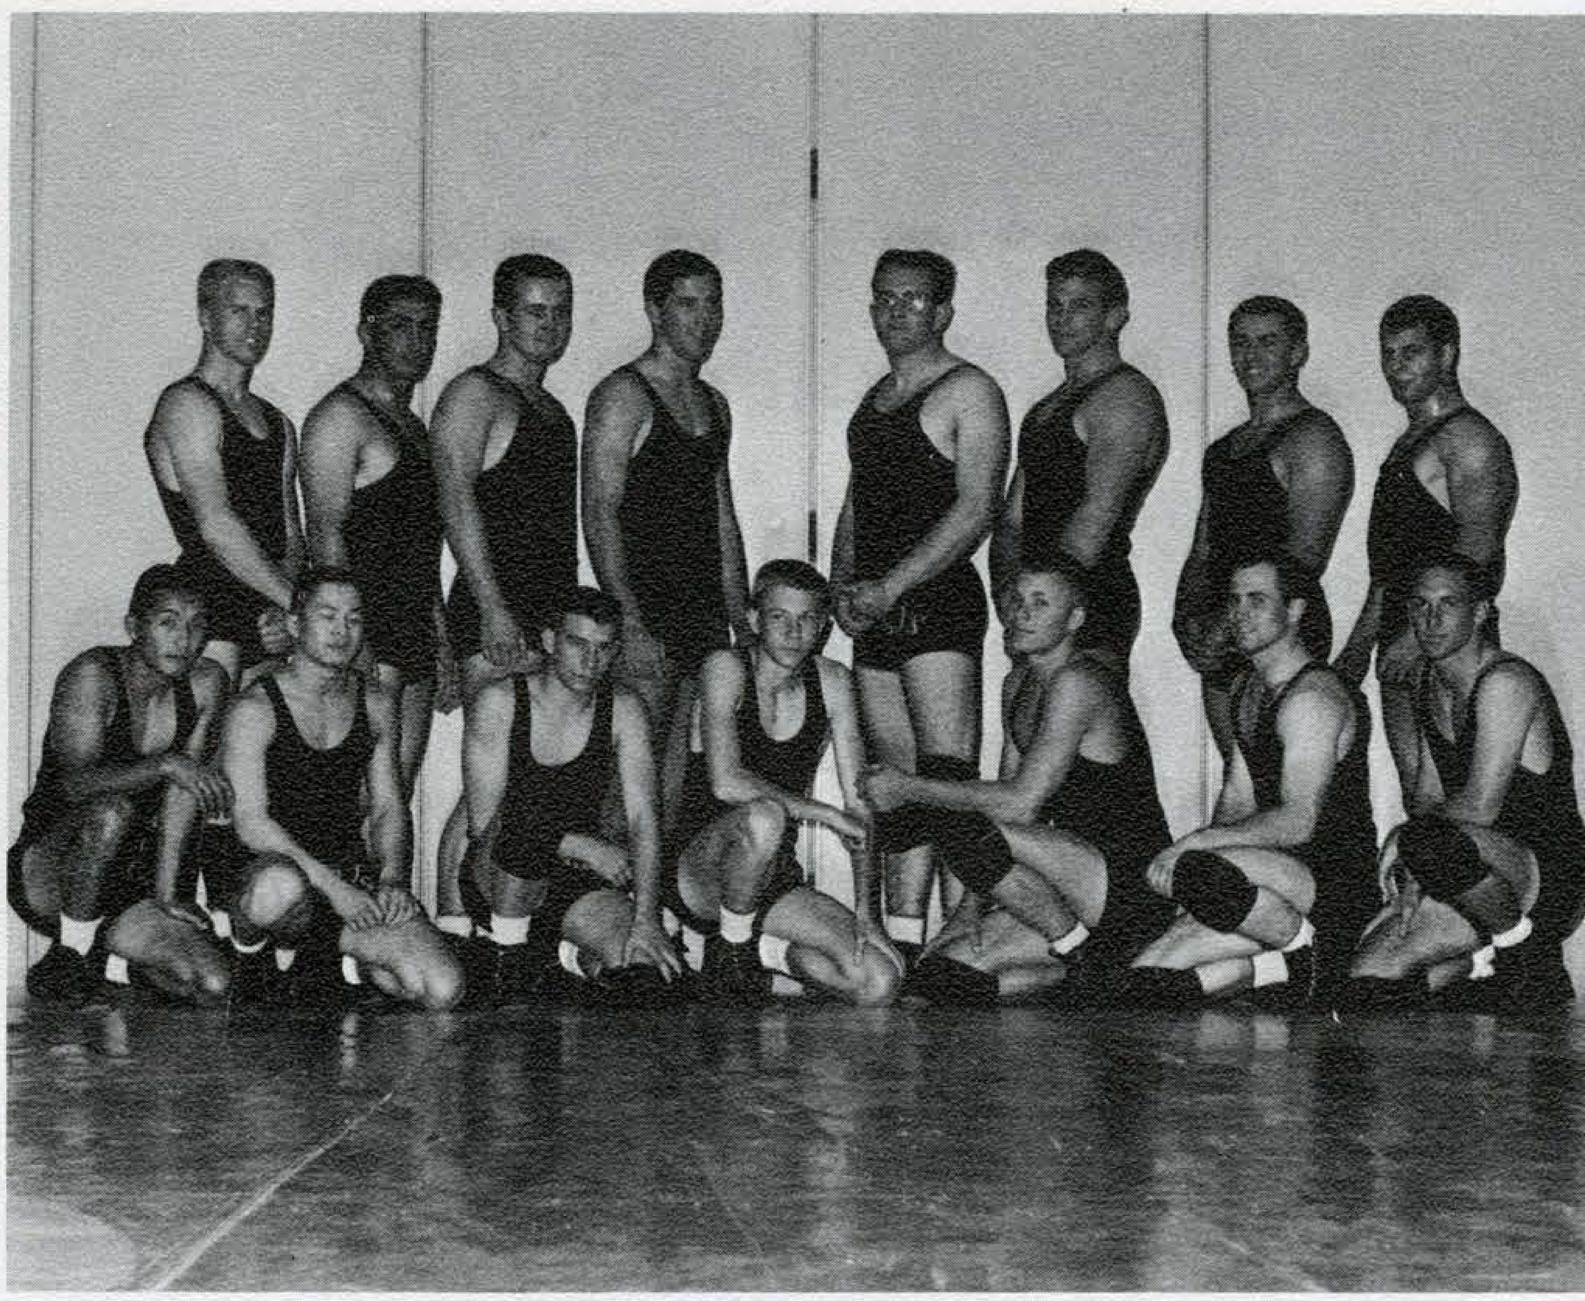

Let's . . .

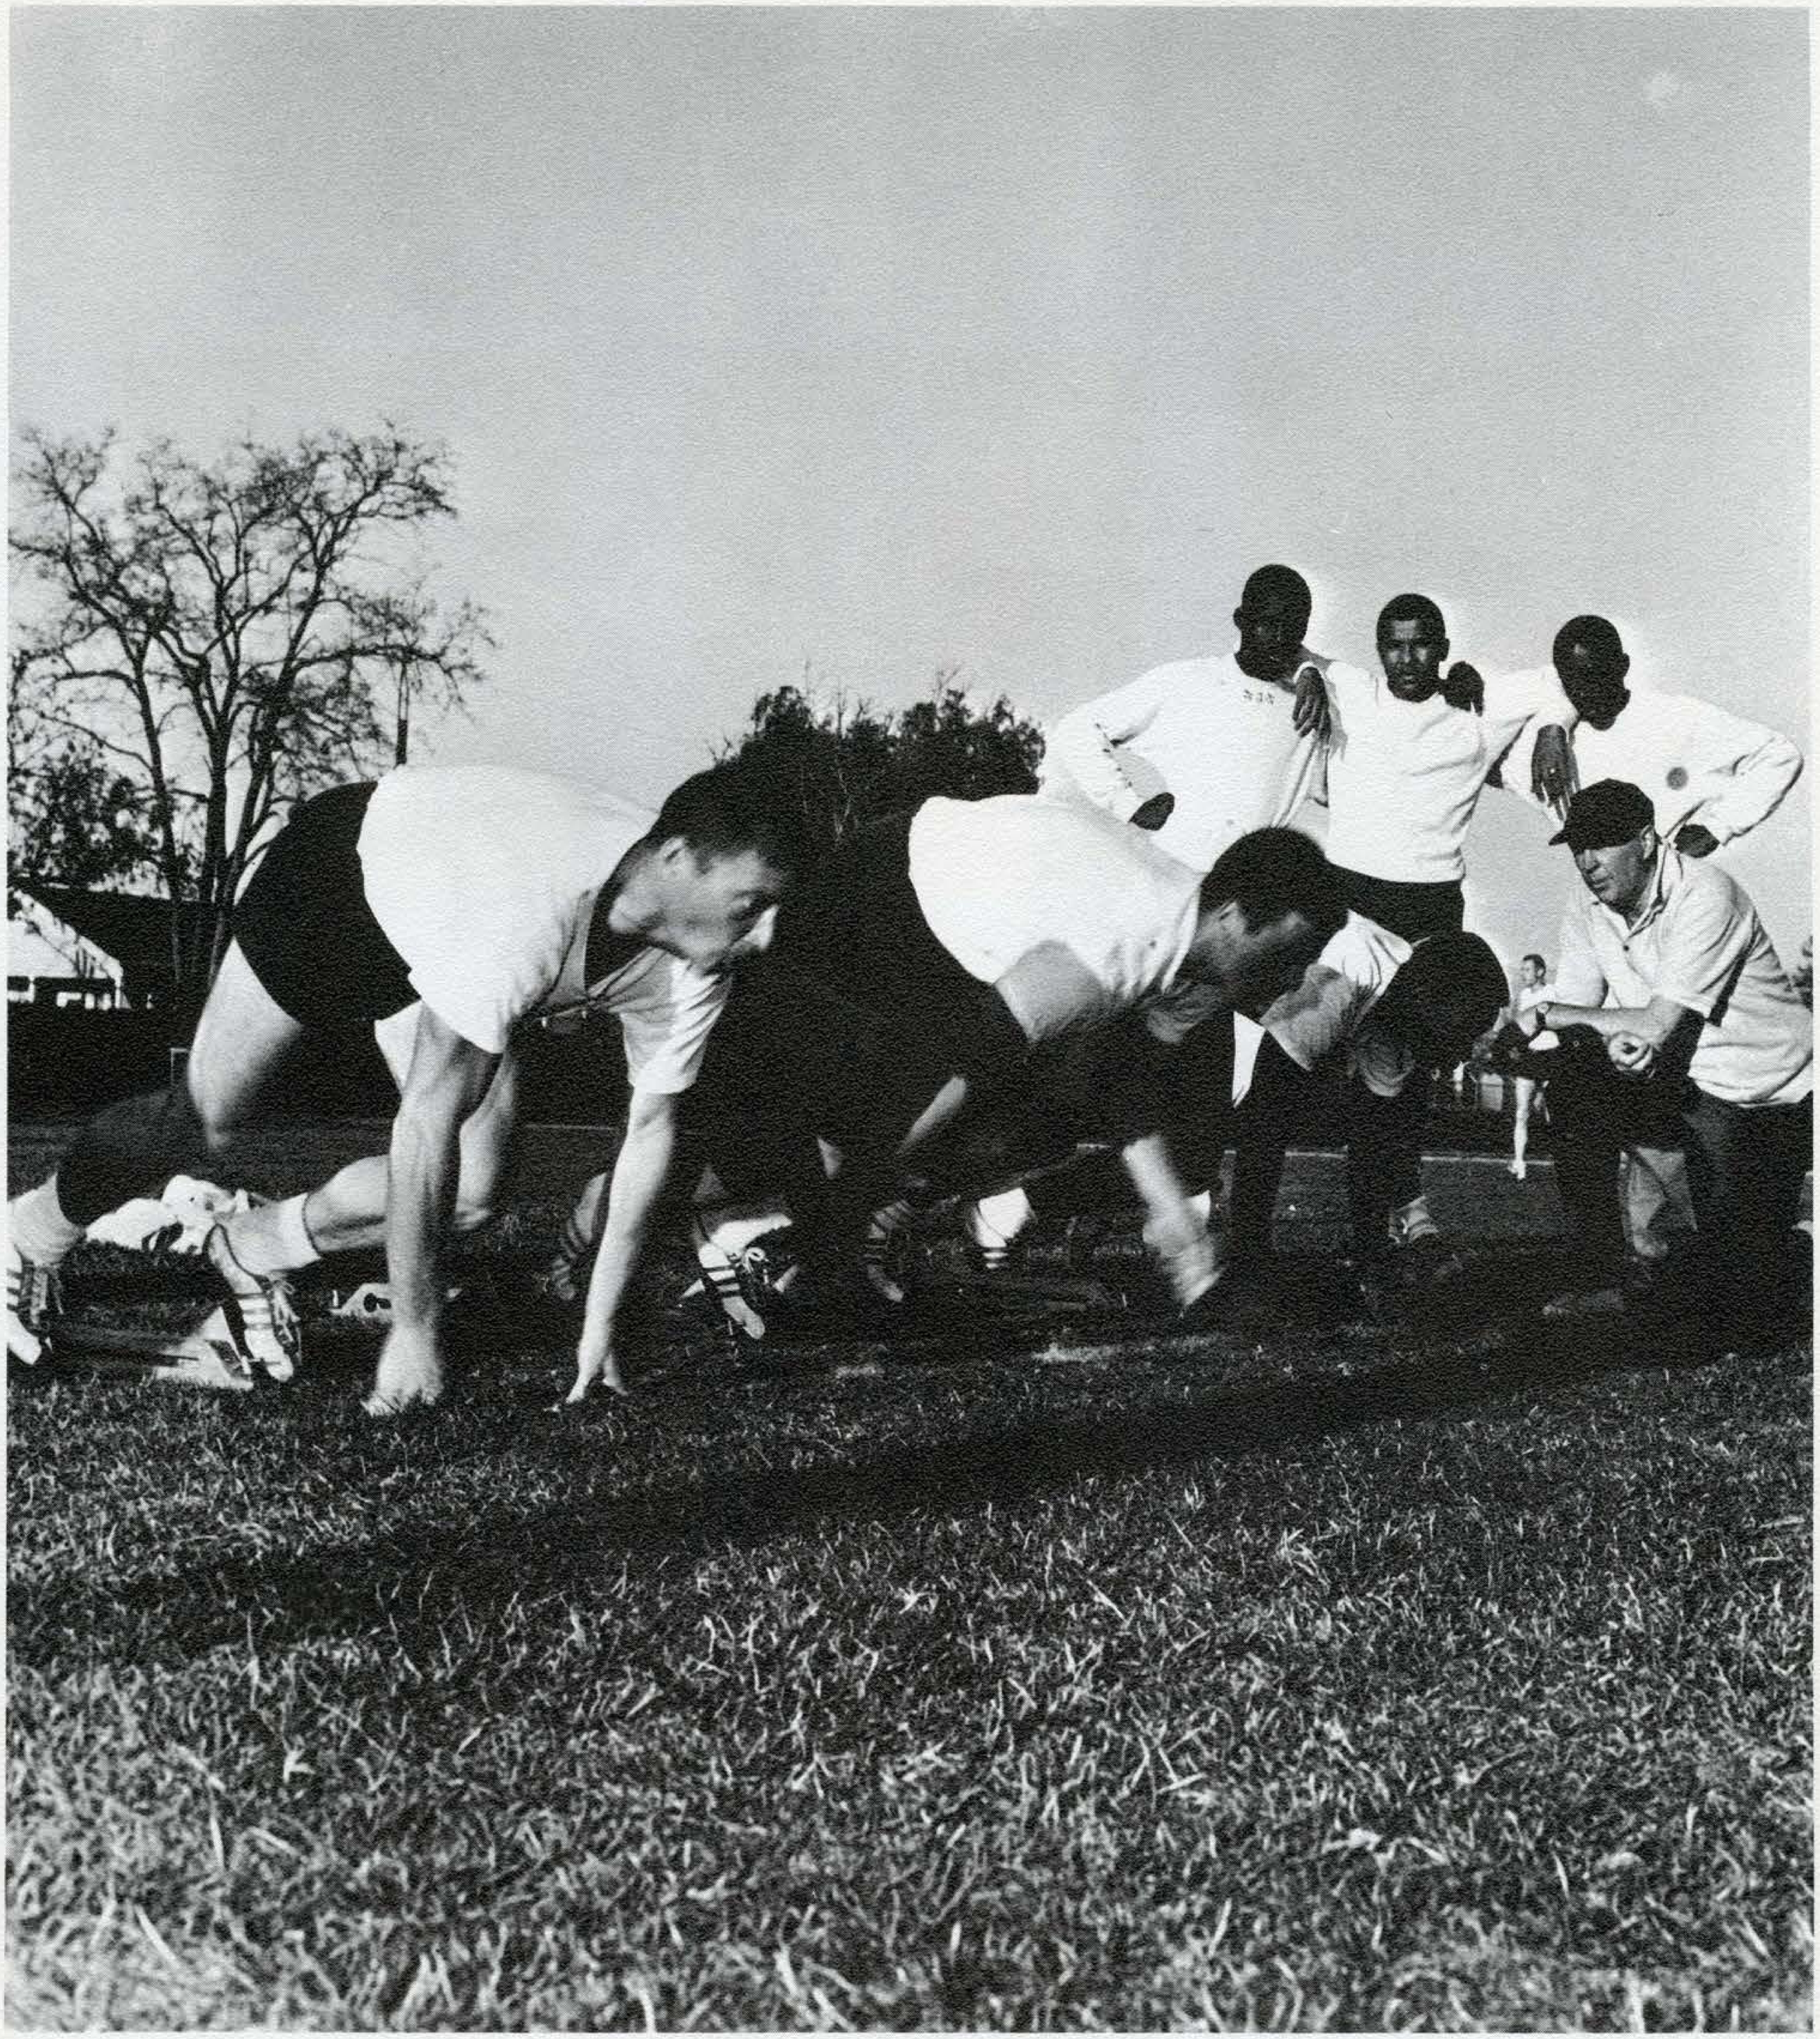

Twist.

The San Jose State Wrestling Team under the able leadership of Coach Hugh Mumby placed first in the 1962 Northern California inter-Collegiate Tournament. Individual Spartan standouts were in evidence as Captain Paul Hodges placed first in his weight division. Warran King also won the 147 pound clas, and Clif Olson, a scrappy 157 pounder, placed second to help lead the Spartans to eventual victory. The over-all season record has yet to be established; however, with such men as captain Paul Hodges, Warren King and Clif Olson dominating their respective weight divisions, the Spartan mat men will again come out on top.

Track

This year San Jose State is blessed with one of its greatest track teams ever. This is the most well balanced track team the Spartans have ever had. Unlike most years when power has been mainly in the sprints, this years team is powerful in every department. SJS has the greatest collection of middle-distance runners ever assembled under the Spartan banner. Several of the Spartans have been mentioned as 1964 Olympic hopefuls. Ben Tucker leads this group. In 1962, Tucker had the fastest time in the nation in the 880 with a 1:47 clocking, he also had a real good 4:03 in the mile. Ben will be a threat to American and world records in every meet he enters. Jeff Fishback, this year's captain will also be a big scorer for the Spartans. Last year, Jeff finished second in the steeplechase at the N.C.A.A. meet.

The 1962 edition of the Spartan Cross Country Team will definitely go down as the greatest in San Jose State's history. The great team of Danny Murphy, Ron Davis, Jeff Fishback, Ben Tucker, Horace Whitehead, and Jose Azevedo, is rated by many experts as the best team ever assembled in the history of the sport. Coach Dean Miller's dedicated team conquered all opposition in regular season competition, and in the process, broke meet records against everyone they faced. The Spartans climaxed a thrilling season by winning the NCAA Cross Country Title in East Lansing, Michigan. They were so good that they broke the national team record by 39 seconds when five of the SJS runners finished among the top 30 in the nation. Danny Murphy led the "Swift Five" as he finished third in the individual standings. Ron Davis followed Murphy across the finish line seconds later, and finished sixth. Both Murphy and Davis were named to the All-America Team. Most of this year's team will return come '63, they will be joined by a 1962 undefeated frosh cross country team. It sure looks good for State next year, and you can ask every track coach in the nation, and they'll all agree: "It's State '63."

The highlight of the San Jose State's Soccer season arrived when two Spartan soccer stars were selected to try out for the U.S. Olympic Club which will represent the U.S. in the Pan-American games and in the '64 Olympics. Dave Kingsley (left) and Al Korbus muse over their chances of landing a berth on the U.S. Olympic Club team.

The Spartan Varsity Soccer team finished the '63 season with 2 wins and 8 losses. Individual stars brought West Coast and Nation-Wide attention to San Jose State and their playing ability. Dave Kingsley and Dietmar Demeter were named to the first squad on the All-Conference team. While nation-wide attention was being focused on 44 soccer stars who were selected from the 50 states. Two of these stars were Spartans Al Korbus and Dave Kingsley who will try out for the U.S. Olympic Club.

Returning lettermen, plus transfer students, equal a winning "63" season and a probable W. C. A. C. crown. This is the formula that Spartan Coach "Butch" Krikorian will be using in the coming campaign. Carrying the brunt of Spartan attack will be three senior letter-winners; Gordie Stroud, Stillson Judah, and Lee Junta. The second half of the formula is in the person of Richard Drake, Junior transfer student form Santa Monica. Over-all balance is the key word with striking power balanced in "formula of four." Coach Krikorian has coached here for seven years. Before coming to S.J.S., he was recreation director in Oakland. An established tennis player, he competes every summer in the Northern California Tennis Tournment. Two years ago "Butch" toured the European circuit.

Statistics

San Jose State's Varsity Baseball Team closed with a rush to end its season with a 24-17 mark and the West Coast Athletic Conference title. Left fielder Carl Fisher and shortstop Dom Ascani shared batting honors for Coach Ed Sobczak's Spartans. Fisher, an all-tourney selection in the rugged Los Angeles State Easter Tournament, paced San Jose in home runs with three and in runs-batted-in with 30, although his batting mark was a mild .261. Ascani, one of the few seniors on the SJS nine, alternated with Ron Lindenman at short while compiling a healthy .394 batting average. He also paced SJS in doubles with six and had a home run and 16 runs driven in. Ascani had a late season hot streak which pushed him up 100-points and past Lindenman who finished at .324 and Ken Takahashi who closed at .321. Second baseman Lon Romero was highest among the remaining regulars with a .276 mark. Romero led the Spartans in stolen bases with 12, in sacrifices with nine and finished second to Takahashi in bases on balls with 26. The Spartans' pitching staff suffered from inexperience. Sophomore right hander Jim Visher hurled the only shutout recorded by a San Jose pitcher during the season when he blanked University of Pacific for a 1-0 decision. The little fast-baller also threw 11 scoreless frames against Fresno State before the Bulldogs tallied in the twelfth to take a 1-0 win. Lefty Jim Wilson had the best earned run average, 2.08, and won-lost mark, 1-0, but only hurled eight and two-thirds innings. Injuries and a bout with pneumonia kept Wilson from further mound duty. Lowest earned run mark among the regulars was compiled by Jerry Guibor, 2.43. But the converted shortstop was tagged for 21 unearned runs in 85 one-third frames and finished the year with five wins and six setbacks. Although he was tagged for an average of 4.10 earned runs per game, junior Bill Dawson finished with the best season record of seven wins and three defeats. Visher was close behind with a 7-4 ledger and had a 3.36 ERA. Visher was the club leader in strike-outs with 72, in walks allowed with 53, in appearances with 15 and in hit batters with three. Guibor was the Spartan workhourse with nine complete games in ten starts. Coach Sobczak will not be seriously hampered by graduation, with a predominantly sophomore and junior club. With Lindenman as his shortstop, the Spartan mentor can field the same infield as he did this season with Len Rosenfeld, Tom Van Amburg or Gary Calcagno at first, Lon Romero or Steve Chell at second and Ken Takahashi at third. Gary Vice, a consistant hitter with power, joins Fisher, Bob Pimentel, Mark Bowers and Ed Bauer in the outer gardens and Phil Ertl returns as catcher. The pitching staff returns en masse this Spring but Coach Ed Sobczak may look to the 1962 freshman mound crew to bolster his starting rotation.

A Batting Clinic is held each year at San Jose State to help people who are interested in baseball become better familiar with proper batting techniques. A unique feature of the clinic is the many baseball celebrities who participate in the program in which they display their particular abilities in batting and their own specialized talents. This year Coach Ed Sobczak invited five of the top names in baseball to attend. They are: Wayne Belardi, Boston's Eddie Beresso, Ernie Broglio of the Cardinals, Hobie Landrith of Baltimore, and Dick Le May formerly with the giants. The clinic is open to the public and is very interesting and worth while for anyone interested in learning more about the popular sport of baseball.

San Jose State is up in arms . . . well, anyway, the Rifle Team is. The group is coached by Dr. Leslie E. Stephenson who is associate professor of industrial education at San Jose State. .22 caliber rifles are used in the matches. In competition a rifleman can get as many as 30 points per match. He fires his rifle in three different positions: 1) standing; 2) kneeling; and 3) prone. In each position he can make a maximum of ten points or a total of 30 points for the three positions together. In the United States there are 295 college rifle teams and San Jose State's rifle team is ranked a strong 22. In the Northern California Intercollegiate Rifle Conference the Spartans hold a third position up to the time of publication. Rifleman William Kindred, presently on the team is the former California State Junior Champion. Surprisingly enough, most of the team members do not belong to the R.O.T.C. The sport is open to all San Jose State students and it is a year-round activity. The Rifle Team is very lucky to have as their coach, Dr. Leslie Stephenson, who holds the title of "Distinguished Rifleman." Very few people have had the privilege or ability to possess the "Distinguished Rifleman" title which started back at the turn of the century, and so far there have been only 105 people that have held such an honor in the history of rifle competition. In 1956 Dr. Stephenson was the National Civilian Big Power Service Rifle Champion. Stephenson has held the National Muzzle-Loading Rifle Championship for the last three consecutive years. In the spring of 1952 Stephenson won the European Smallbore and High power Free Rifle Championships and was the Dept. of the Army's overseas representative to the Olympic Games and International Team trials held at Ft. Sheridan, Ill. He is also credited with a National record for free rifle during the 1954 Regional at Ft. Devens, Mass. Dr. Stephenson is a great asset to the rifle team of San Jose State. Without his expert advice and help the Rifle Team would not be as highly recognized in the United States as it is today.

Judo

Smack, slam, thud, bam, crunch, are some of the sounds familiar to anyone who has participated in or watched a Judo team in action. San Jose State's Judo group is one of the finest in the nation and just in the last season alone the team has racked up many notable wins which include: winning the AAU Junior and Senior Novice Tourney, the AAU Brown Belt Championship, the 1962 NCAA National Intercollegiate Championship, and the AAU Senior Championship has been won by San Jose States' Judo team for the ninth straight year. The team, under the excellent direction of Coach Yosh Uchida, has remained one of the top college Judo teams in the nation. Coach Uchida holds the distinction of founding college Judo in the United States. Mr. Uchida started instructing the art of Judo at San Jose State in 1946 and through his efforts the sport has spread to most colleges in the nation today.

The team boasts one of the best dual competition teams in the west. Most of the 1962 team has returned this season. They include: All-American John Lotz, Bill Aragona, Mike Tanzer, Grant Hornbeak, Tom Barber, and Harlan Krantz (1961 Sacramento City Champion). The returning sophomores include John Brugger and Harry Taylor. John Lotz one of the most outstanding players in the golf team's history may soon become another Ken Venturi who himself was on the San Jose State Golf Team. John Lotz has participated in the famous Bing Crosby Golf Tourney at Pebble Beach. Lotz has won the Northern California Match and Medal Play Championships and the Oakland, Hayward and Alameda City Championships. John Lotz was elected All American last year and undoubtedly will be nominated again this year.

Crossroads of Two Worlds

Campus Trumpeters

Blow your horn,
Beat your drum,
Raise your voice
And speak your words
For all the world to hear.

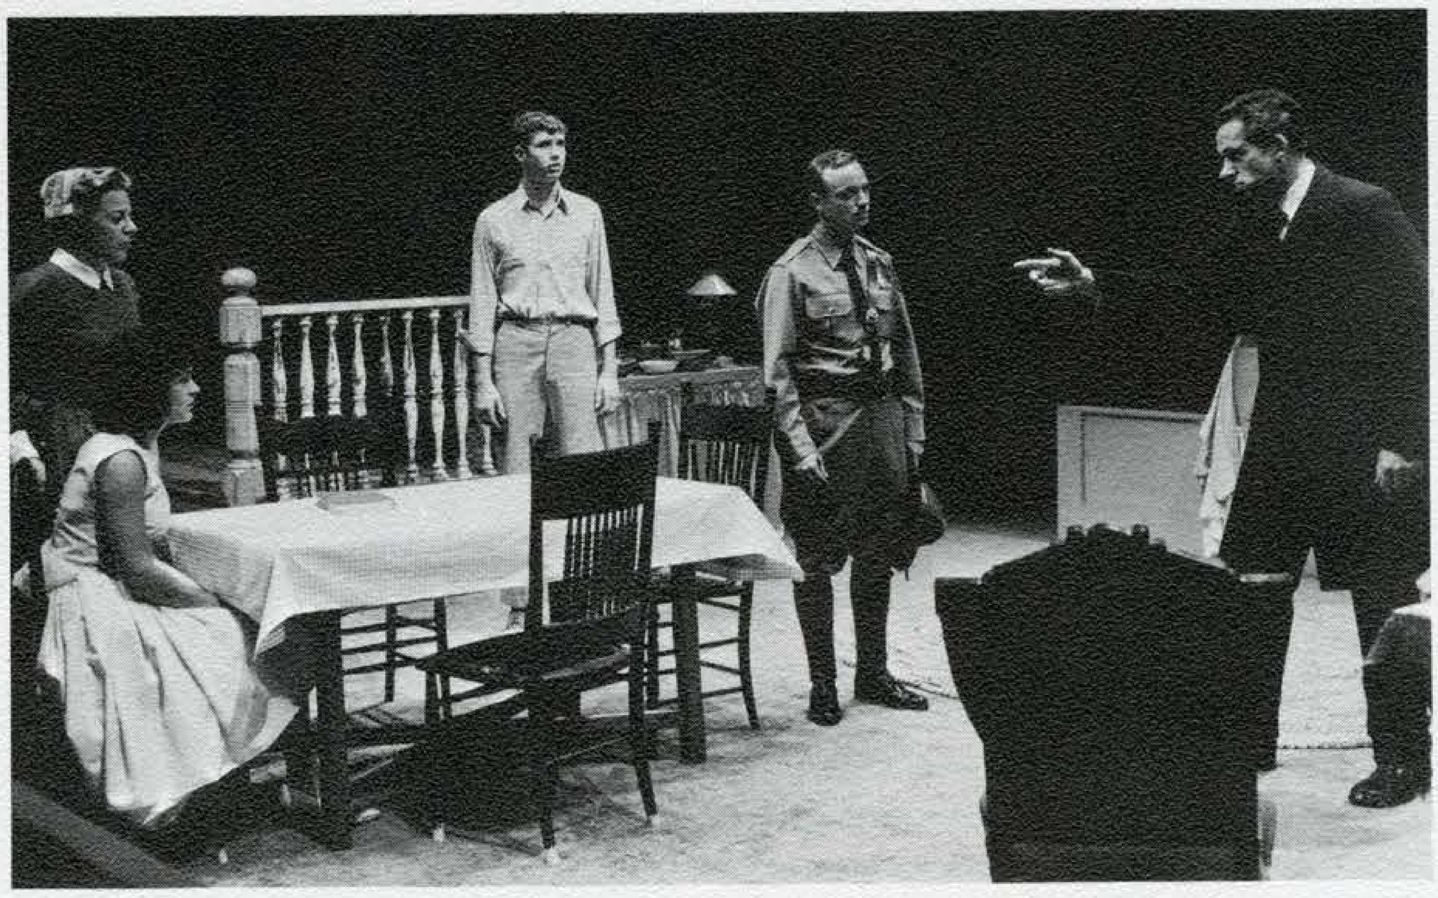

"Curtain up, light the lights, we've got nothing to hit but the heights," should have been the theme of this season's Drama productions. The Speech and Drama Department opened the new season with an excellent production of George Bernard Shaw's Androcles and the Lion, followed by an equally well done job of Ionesco's Amédée. Between these productions were many other shows, such as the annual children's show, which this year was The Three Bears, and many Studio Hour presentations. What you will see on the following pages is just a sample of the excellent jobs being done by the Speech and Drama Department. And now, on with the show. . . .

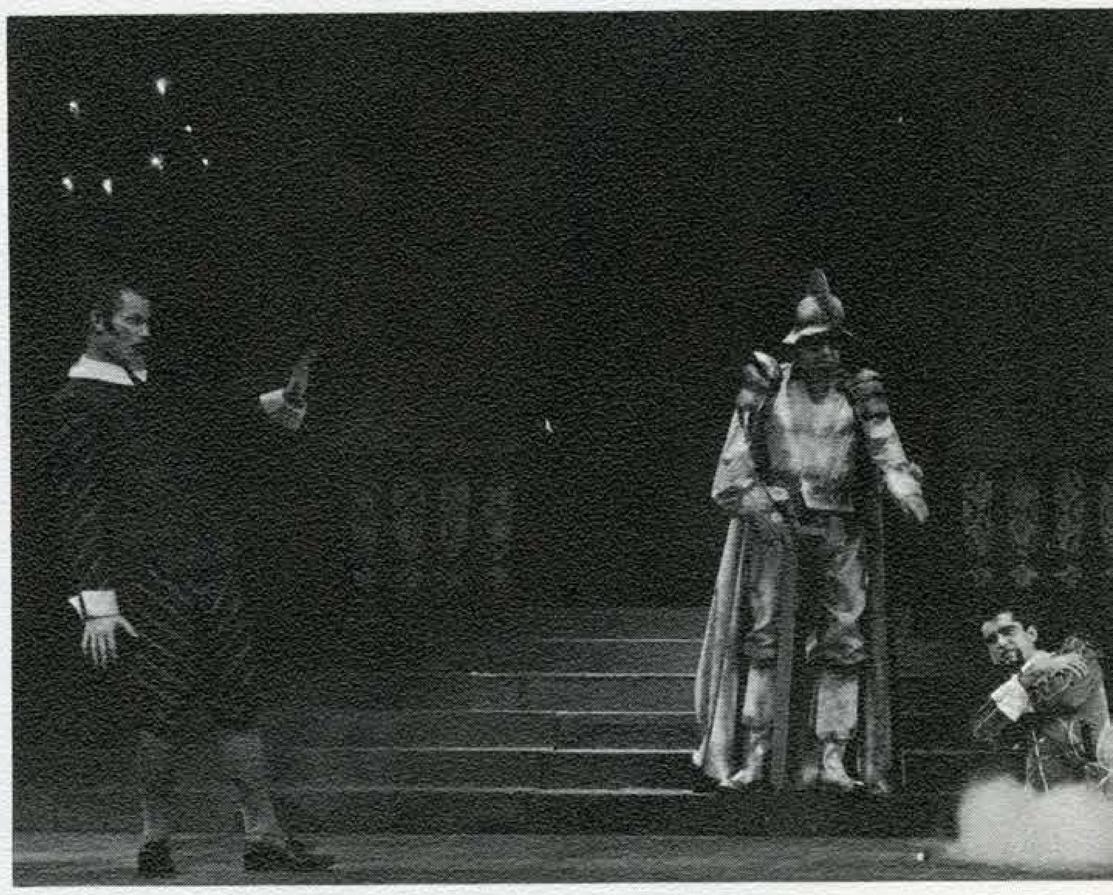

Drama

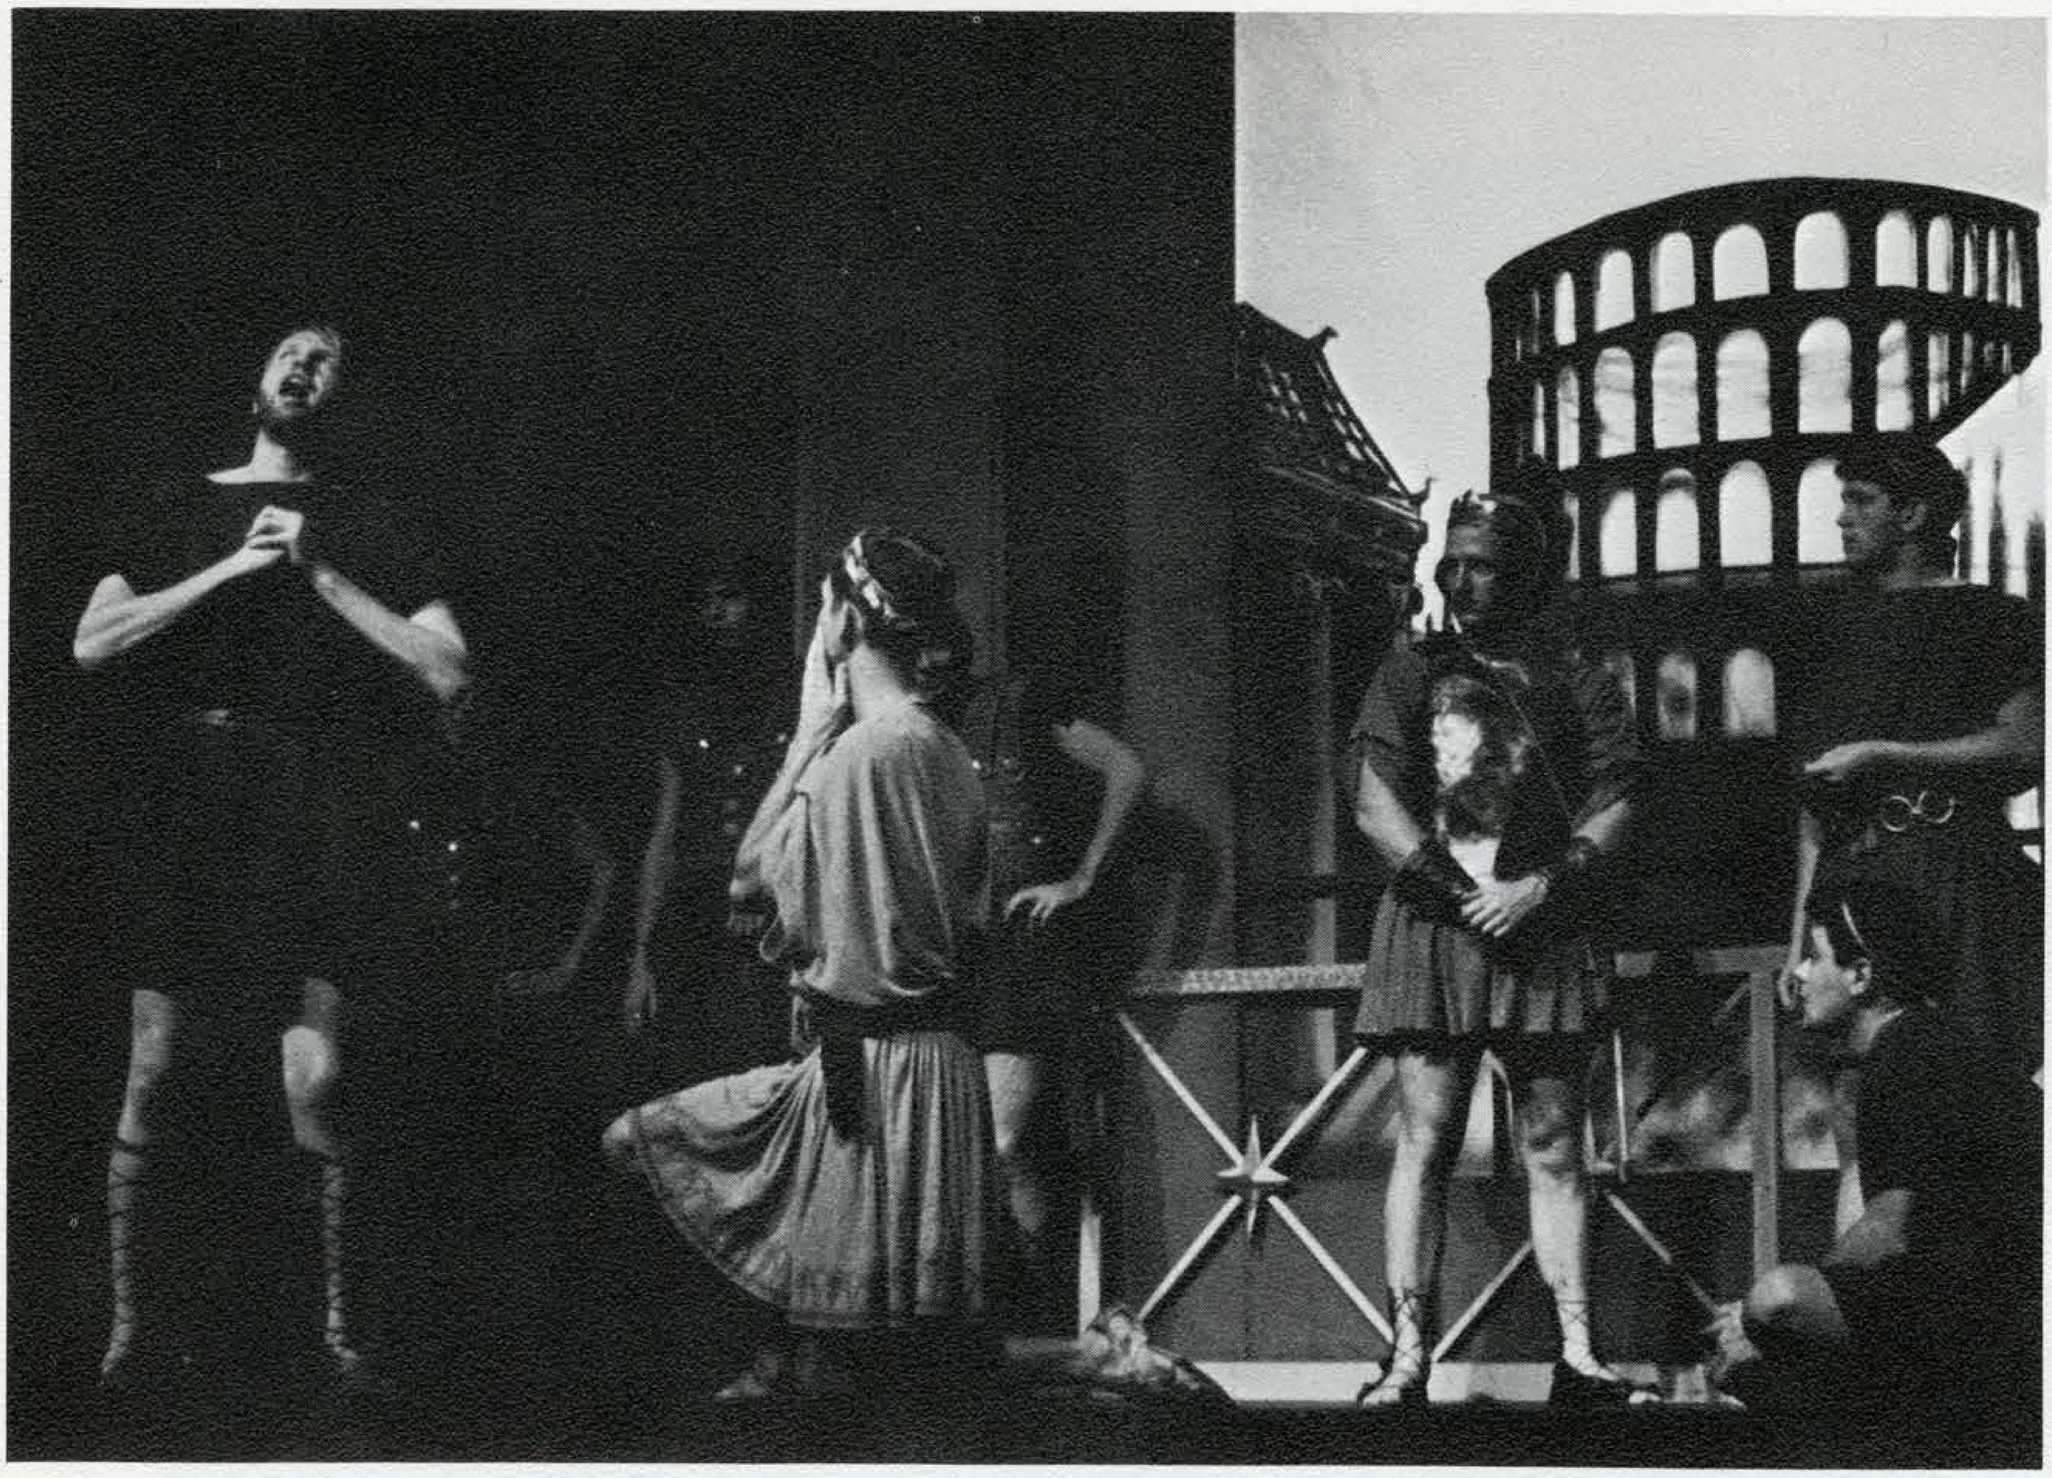

Besides having a full slate of activities during the regular academic year, the Drama Department also had a program during the summer school session. Among the shows produced were the Merry Wives of Windsor, pictured at left, and Papa Is All, shown in the center.

Androcles and Lion

The first production of the season presented by the Speech and Drama Department was George Bernard Shaw's Androcles and the Lion. This two act play was directed by Elizabeth Loeffler, associate professor of drama, with a cast of 28. The lead roles were taken by Jerry Gogol as the Lion, Arthur Conn as Androcles, Zoe Kamitses as his wife Megera, and Ann Morris as Lavinia. The settings were designed by J. Wendell Johnson, the costumes by Bernice Prisk, lighting by Kenneth Dorst, and the musical effects were by Stanley Hollingsworth. The settings, the costumes, and the special effects all added to the Roman atmosphere of the play.

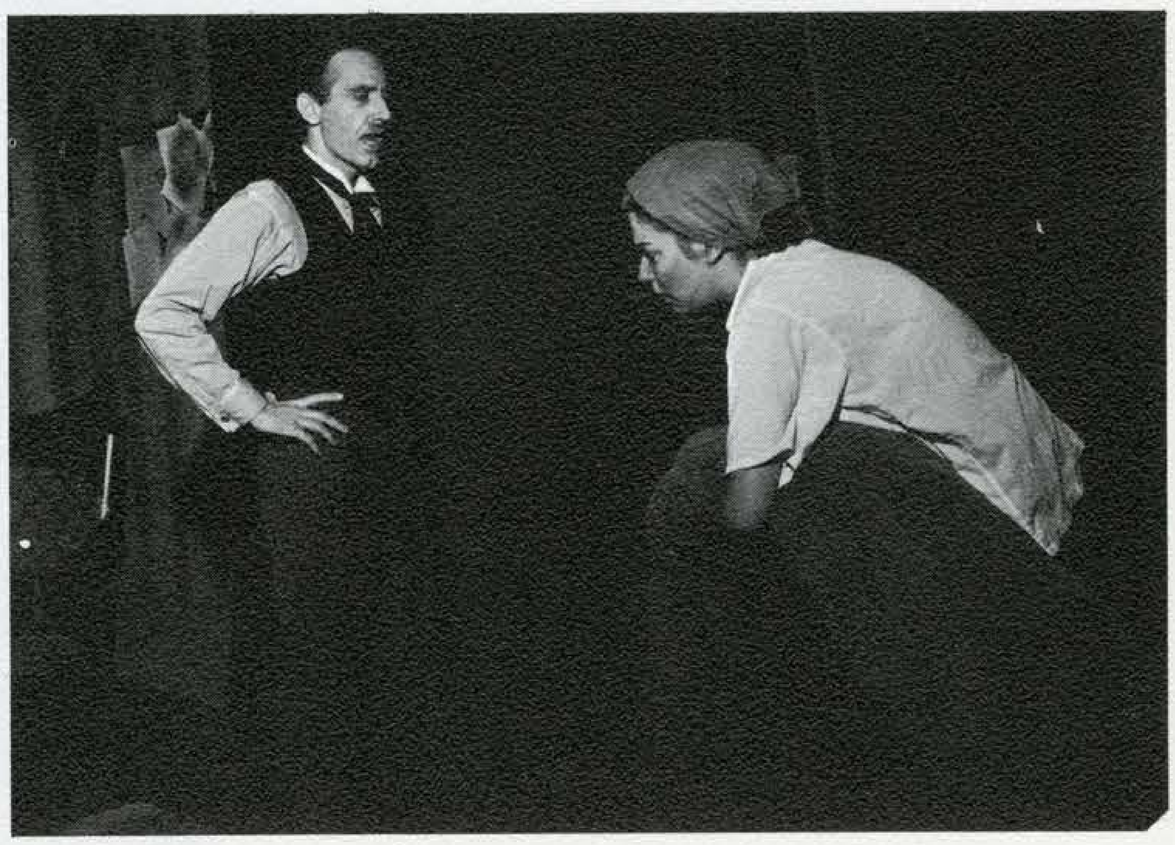

In the scene at left, Arthur Conn, as Androcles, listen attentively to the cries of one of the Christian prisoners. Leading off the Drama Season, Androcles set an excellent precedent for the rest of the Season. The convincing acting, and delightful antics of the Lion provided an interesting production thoroughly enjoyed by the audience.

Amedee

One of the most complex and difficult plays ever staged by the Speech and Drama Departments was its production of Ionesco's Amédée. The lead roles were taken by Russel Holcomb as Amédée, and Mari-Lyn Henry as his wife, Madeleine. The Director was Dr. Jack Neeson, associate professor of drama. Briefly, the play was about a growing problem that forced itself on stage and upon them. Presenting this problem on stage was only one of the several problems encountered by Dr. Neeson and his crew. Thomas Ryan, professor of music, composed the incidental music especially for this play, and the realistic settings were designed by J. Wendell Johnson, professor of Drama. According to Dr. Neeson, Ionesco's play was chosen because it presents the actors with an excellent acting exercise.

The production stressed the fact that married couples seem to nurse and care for the very thing that may be breaking up their marriage. The main production problem was to keep Ionesco's style pure, as the plot did not tell something, but instead it showed something. The realistic setting, the "growing problem" encountered by Amédée and Madeleine, and the excellent acting provided the audience with another interesting and different play.

The Three Bears

One of the highlights of the Drama Season for the children of all ages of the San Jose area is the annual production of a play put on just for them. This year's production was The Three Bears. The play was directed by Dr. John Kerr, with costumes by Miss Bernice Prisk. Appearing in The Three Bears were: Sandra Emery as the Little Bear, Mary Louise Nelson as Mother Bear, Joe Lonon as Papa Bear, and Terry Lumley as Goldilocks. The realistic set design added fully to the enjoyment of the program. The squeals of delight from the younger children, and laughter of those older ones signalled the completion of another successful show.

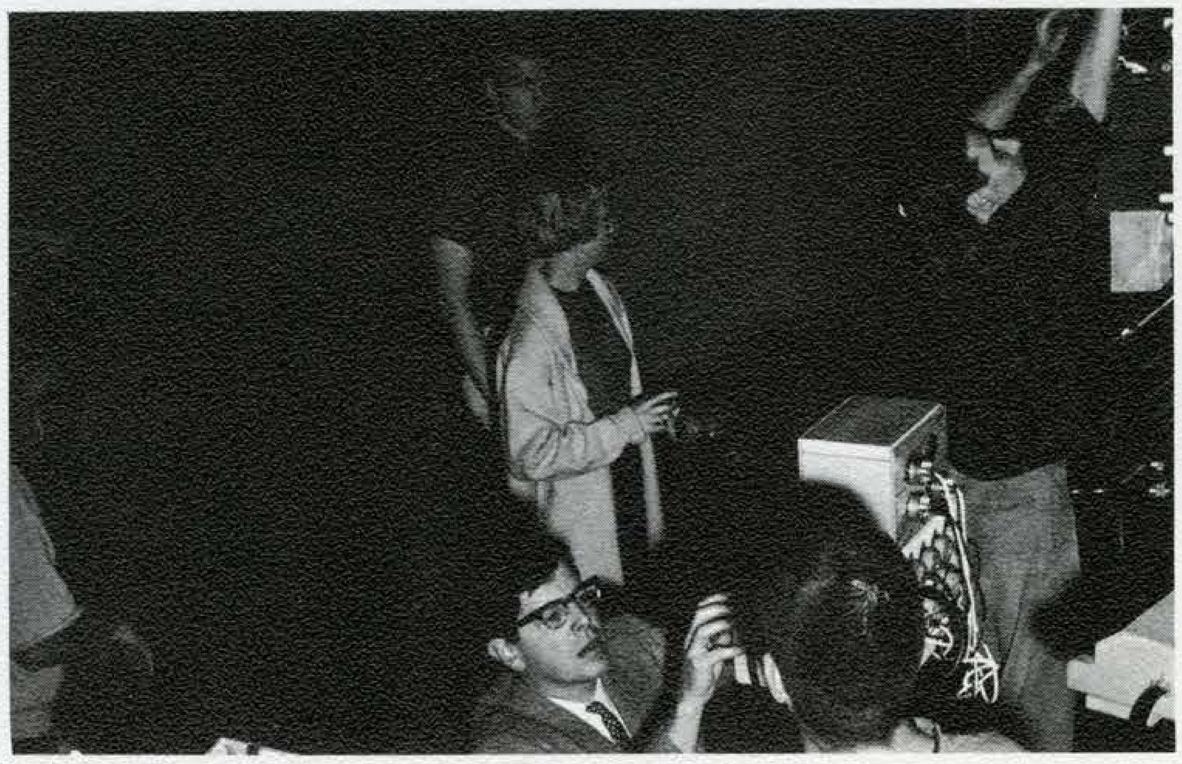

Shown at left are the Three Bears as they take a break during rehearsal. The heavy costumes sometimes made it uncomfortable for the cast; nevertheless, they all enjoyed themselves thoroughly when they performed for their audience. The Children's Theatre is under the supervision of Dr. John Kerr, who has done an excellent job in providing thoroughly enjoyable shows for children of all ages. The plays are usually produced two or three times in a certain week so that as many children as possible may see them.

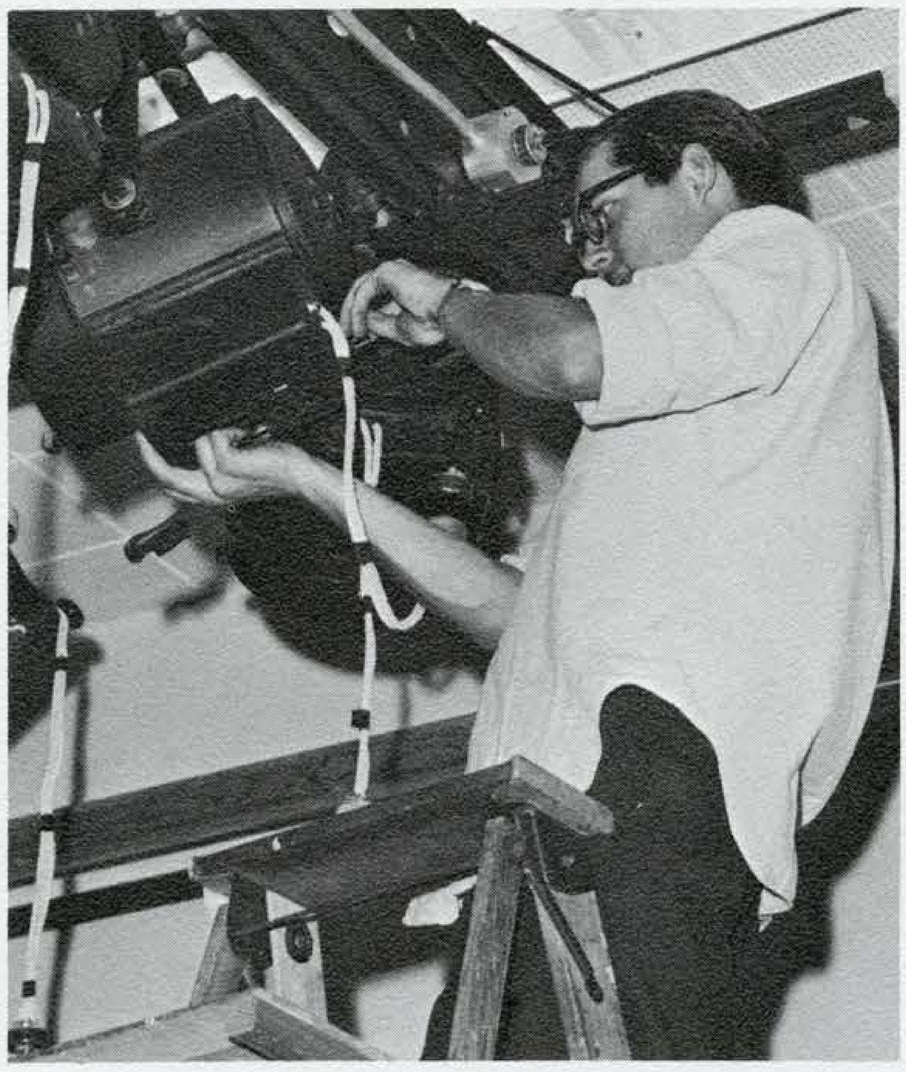

The Speech and Drama Building

This is the building where all the Speech and Drama activities take place. One of the newer buildings, it still is one of the most active. As one walks down the corridors, one never fails to hear the hustle and bustle of the crew setting up for another television show, the painting of flats for another Main Stage production, the piercing screams of someone rehearsing for a Studio Hour, and upstairs, the sounds of tape recorders and speech correction machinery. There is never a dull moment around here, not even in the Green Room where both students and teachers sit down and relax between their classes or their work.

Never a moment's peace! Always busy! There are speech activity classes, drama productions speech correction projects, oral interpretation readings, television shows, and, of course, daily classes. One can rarely walk down the corridors of the building without finding something going on. Even during the summer the department is busy. This is what characterizes San Jose State's Speech and Drama Department — always busy, always presenting excellent productions. The curtain has closed on this season, but we can look forward to next season and the productions presented by the Speech and Drama Department.

Radio T.V. Guild

The Radio T.V. Guild, pictured above, consists of students interested in communication and the qualities that make broadcasting what it is today. Although begun only recently, the Guild gives students of Radio and Television an opportunity to get together and discuss any ideas which they have concerning the two fields. Thus, this is the basis for many a cooperative effort among the members.

Television

The PERSPECTIVE SHOW begins.

We're on the air!

The Perspective Series is now in its fifth year at San Jose State College. The programs in the series are designed to extend the resources of the college to the community and to provide training for students in Television Production through live broadcasts. Through college and KNTV audience surveys, it is estimated that the series reaches approximately seven to eleven thousand viewers each week with an approximate accumulative total viewing audience of 475,000 for the first two years of programs.

Nancy Case gets instructions from the director.

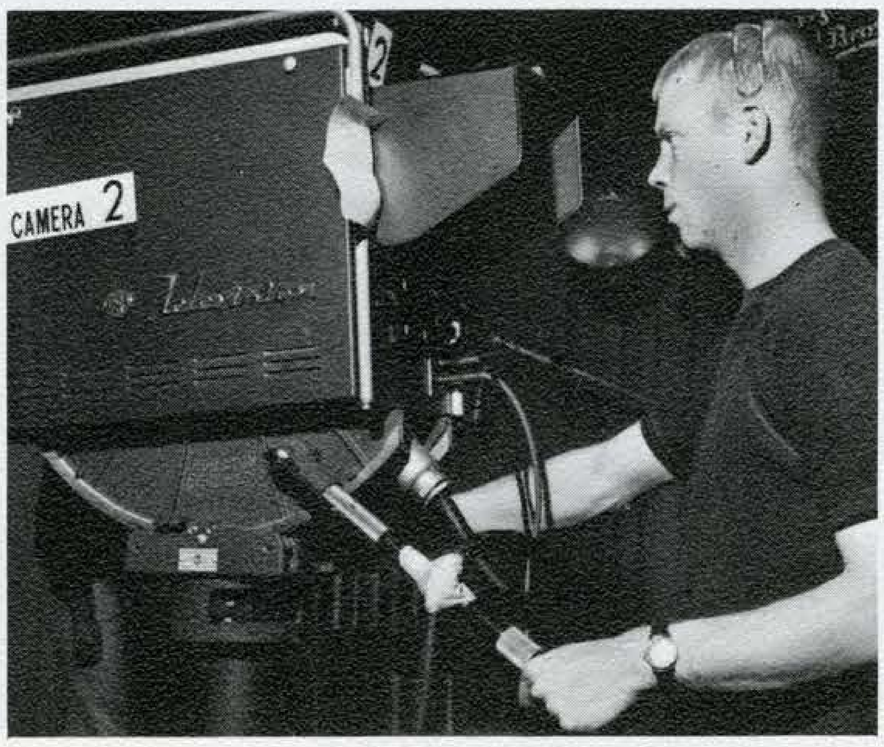

On Perspective's third show of the year, Mr. Elliot, Assistant Professor of Drama, had as his guest Dr. Harold M. Hodges, Associate Professor of Sociology.

Man's Sociological Values

The Radio and Television Department of San Jose State College presents a series of programs every Saturday morning entitled Perspective. The programs are transmitted from the studios in the Speech and Drama Building through KNTV (Channel 11) in San Jose. The shows usually begin at 10:00 a.m. Saturday morning. This means that the cast and crew must show up for the final dress rehearsal at 7:00 a.m. At 10:00 the polished program is ready to be presented on time.

Show starts in five minutes?

The responsibility of directing the Perspective shows lies in the hands of students. Any student who is an upper classman, who has taken certain required courses, and is interested in directing a show, may do so. Along with Dr. Clarence Flick, Associate Professor of Drama, who heads the Production Staff, they plan and organize each of the programs. This means that they must decide on the topic for the show and who their guest will be, and arrange a rehearsal schedule for the crew. A crew of ten is usually required to work on one show, which means that each one must know his job perfectly in order to provide a program for the audience. And as usual, they always do.

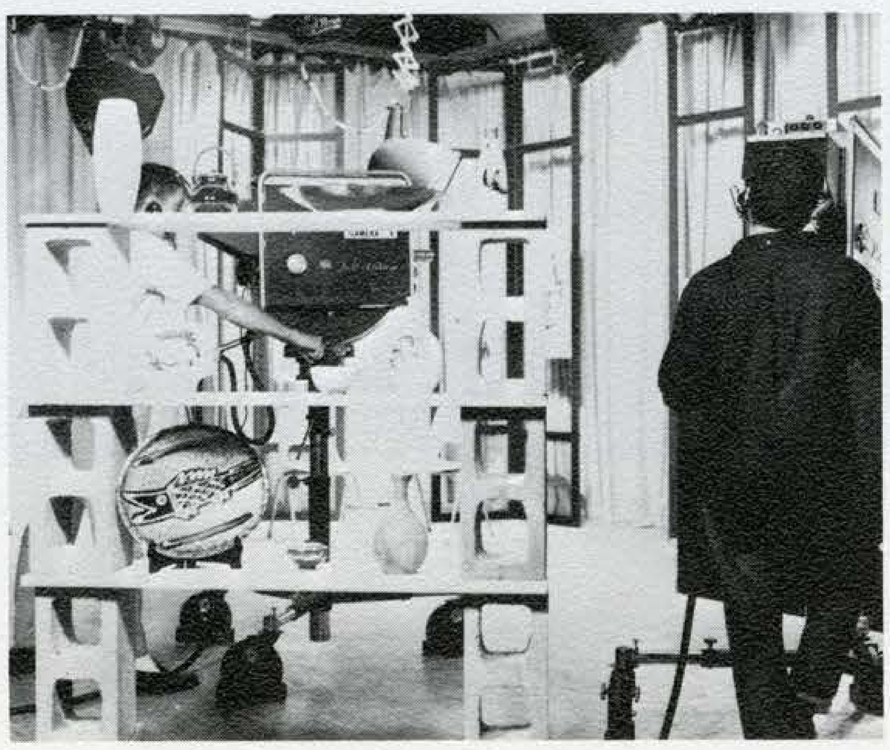

On another Perspective show, Professor Elliot and his guest, Professor Herbert Sanders, discussed the many aspects of Japanese Pottery.

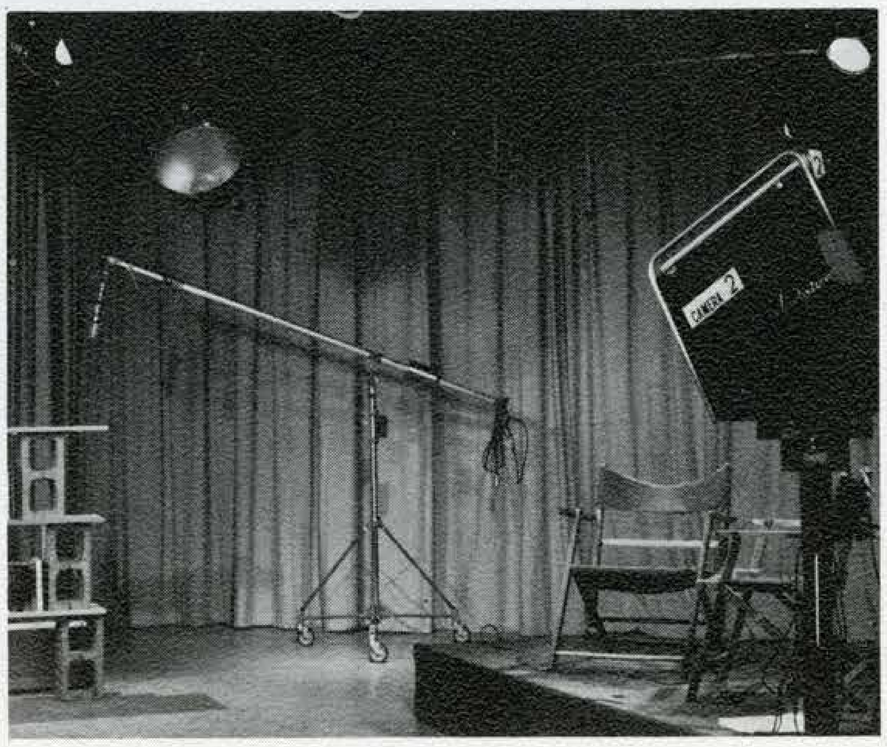

Tom Graham moves in for a close-up.

Japanese Pottery

The Perspective series concentrates on bringing a variety of subjects to families in the Bay Area. In doing this, the staff provides the audience with discussions of topics fom various fields. An example of this was the above shown on Japanese pottery. Professor Sanders discussed fully the art value of Japanese pottery and thus added another fine show to Perspective's already growing list.

Now for that novelty shot.

Show's over.

Radio

KSJS is San Jose State's FM radio station. It broadcasts from the Speech and Drama Building, and operates at a maximum efficiency level of 85 watts. KSJS can broadcast as far north as Redwood City and as far south as Gilroy. It not only plays all types of music for the enjoyment of its audience, but it also presents discussions on topics of current interest. The station gets tapes on a variety of interesting subjects from the national radio stations and plays them for their audience. The members of KSJS are shown on the right. They are:

Another activity on which both the students of Radio and Television work is a program entitled "Showcase-SJS." Showcase-SJS is broadcast over Radio Station KLOK. On the show, activities of the past week and those of the coming week are discussed for the benefit of its listeners. The program is pretaped, with interviews of various people on the campus. This is just another example of the many fine activities of the Radio and Television Department.

In an effort to provide creative opportunities for students, Dr. Gibson Walters, conductor, points out that positions in the orchestra are open to any qualified musician on campus.

The Choraliers form the elite group of the A Cappella Choir. Lead by William Erlendson, the group performs in concert and in other musical events of the year. The fine quality of the group makes it one of which San Jose State can be proud.

The Spartan Daily is San Jose State's outstanding newspaper. Coming out daily with campus and world news, it keeps the campus well informed. Under the leadership of Lester On, the Daily has been bigger, and even more important; the quality is higher than any previous semester. A few favorite sections around the campus are Thrust and Parry, ????, Elsewhere, Grin & Barr It!. and Daily Comment. Quality makes the Spartan Daily a publication to be proud of.

But I don't know how to type!

Last November, San Jose State's feature magazine was awarded first place in the "all around excellence" category of the 1961 national contest conducted by Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity. In addition to this honor, two members of the Lyke staff, Bruce Wolfe and Jerry Haynes, were chosen to contribute to the first issue of "Off Campus," a professional feature magazine. Four times each year, SJS students are given the opportunity to see for themselves the results of good taste and hard work.

These scholars are freshmen on up through graduate students. Most of them are busy in campus activities or hold jobs. They are indeed worthy of their honors and are a credit to San Jose State.

What Makes a Scholar?

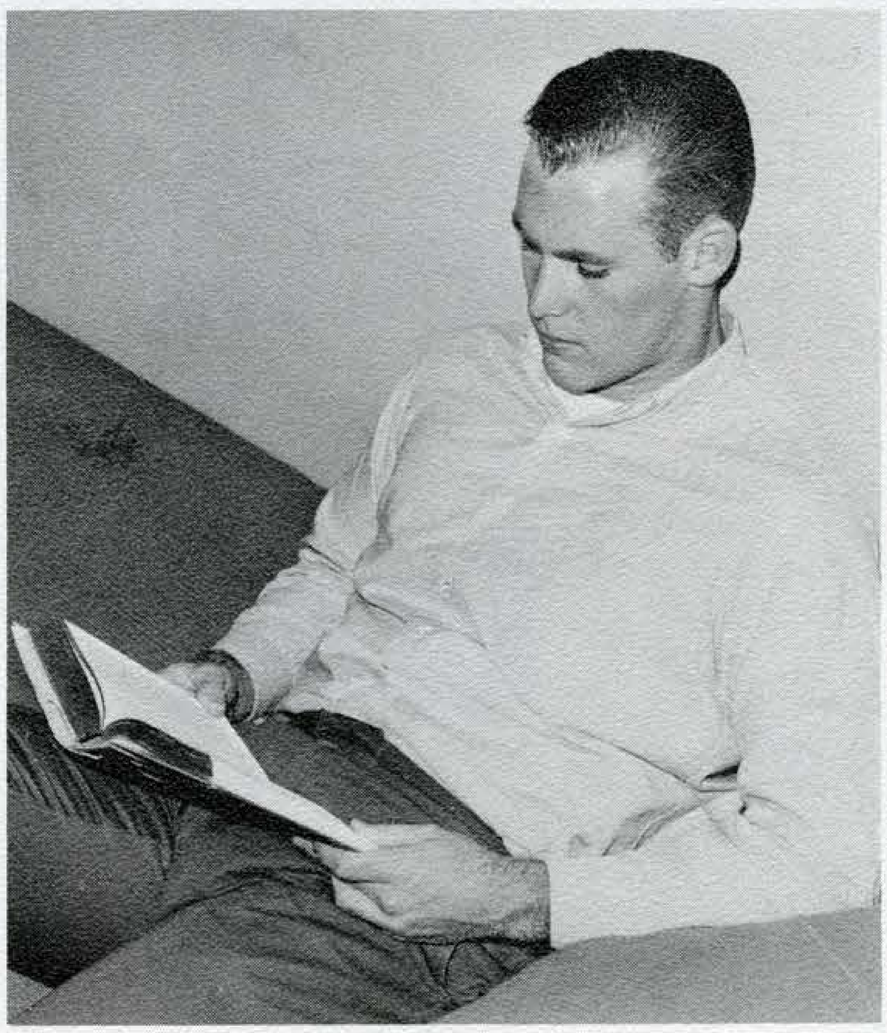

Besides being tops in scholarship, many of the scholars are very busy in activities. To prove this, here is a list of activities and honors of just four the scholars. Robert Gillham — Frosh-Soph Baseball, Air Force R.O.T.C., lifetime member of C.S.F. in high school, and several scholarship awards. Mary Blomquist — member of Band-Aids and Rally Club, member of Spartan Spears and president of Women's Glee Club, lifetime C.S.F., member of other honorary and scholastic groups. Robert Nye — two years Varsity Basketball, Resident-Assistant at Moulder Hall, Rhodes Scholar candidate, other Scholastic honorary organizations. Linda Yates — member of Spartan Spears, dorm officer, member of C.S.F. in high school, other honorary groups. Shown here are the four in their usual study surroundings. They all agree that the more you do, the more you get done.

The Gamma Phi's began the calendar with a Fall Pledge Dance. At Christmas they combined efforts with Delta Upsilon to help Underprivileged Children. The alum children were honored at an Easter party with the collegiates entertaining. A spring dance was held at Brookdale Lodge to honor the Favorite Guy. Other events for the year were Mother-Daughter Tea, Father-Daughter banquet, and the annual Mother Bridge and Luncheon party. The Gamma Phi's also joined in Greek Show, Sparta Sings, and Push Carts. As a philanthropic project they work a couple of times a month with the children's shelter in San Jose.

In December the Council held a workshop which was very successful in analyzing the council and its functions. Spring rush began with an open house and a fashion show which was followed by open rush. The Council worked with IFC on the annual Greek Retreat which was held at Carmel in March.

Fire destroyed the old house but construction began on a new 15,000 square foot, split-level house. This will feature underground parking, open fireplace in the basement, and a recreation room. The fall semester was highlighted by the Annual Carnation Ball where Jane Winters was crowned Delta Sig Dream Girl. 72 Chapters

The current year the men of Phi Sigma Kappa have worked to maintain our high scholastic standing. We were active in many phases of campus life and have donated time to service projects in the community. Our success in athletics has exemplified our fraternity spirit, placing high in all I.F.C. sports. At Homecoming we sponsored the Homecoming Queen, Elaine Halvorson. A few of the social events of the year included a Hobo dance, Christmas dance, the annual Moonlight Girl Formal held at Squaw Valley, a 49er dance with Cal., a Greek Toga Party, and a P-J dance. Through the development of brotherhood, scholarship, and character the Brothers of Phi Sigma Kappa maintain our high ranks in campus life.

135 Chapters

The first thing that comes to mind when Sigma Chi is mentioned is the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi. The contest to select the sweetheart begins about Oct. and comes to a finale in April with the selection of the Sweetheart at the Sweetheart Dance. This is an overnight function, and it was held at Seigler Springs Resort in Lake County this year and was such a success that it will be held there again next year. Other social functions held during the year were the Pledge Dances each semester, "After the Bomb Dance," UOP bus trip, High-School-Harry Dance. We are also proud of the Help Week Trophy that we won in the fall. We are looking forward to our new house to be started in Sept. '63. Sigma Chi is the oldest national Fraternity on this campus.

Sigma Phi Epsilon

Richmond College, 1901 — San Jose State, 1958

158 Chapters

Since Sigma Phi Epsilon was founded at San Jose State's campus they have stressed scholarship, social, campus activities and intramural athletic competition. Philanthropically, the San Jose Sig Eps join with the ladies of AOPi each Christmas to host a party for underprivileged children, and in the spring the Sig Eps and ladies of Alpha Phi present the annual Heart Fund Benefit which includes an all campus street dance and spaghetti feed — the proceeds are donated to the Santa Clara County Heart Assoc. The Wearers of the Golden Heart fill their fall program with Homecoming and Founders Day Banquet, the "Sam's" Stomp, Greek Show and the annual Christmas Dance. In the spring highlights are Sparta Sings, Pushcart Relays, and the traditional "Queen of Hearts" Ball at which time one of twenty four sorority women is selected to reign as "Queen of Hearts" for the coming year.

Sigma Nu

128 Chapters

With the enthusiasm of President Jere Owen to guide them, the members of Sigma Nu Fraternity had another successful year. The Brothers once again had a full social calendar, including the Squaw Valley overnight, White Rose Formal, Playboy Party, the Alpha Chi Omega Christmas exchange, an Easter Egg hunt with the Kappa Kappa Gammas, along with several other functions. Scholastically, the house finished third during the 1961-62 year. Campus activities are an integral part of Sigma Nu life and many of the Brothers can be found holding offices in campus groups.

Sigma Pi has been active in every phase of campus life. Their goals are to establish a strong bond of brotherhood, through friendship, justice, and learning, and to prove that high scholarship is possible with a large social program. Sigma Pi this past year sponsored numerous functions: two Pledge dances, Homecoming float with Chi Omega Sorority, the "Tiki Island" dance, bus ride to U. O. P., and the "Orchid Ball" held in the spring at which Alpha Chi Omega, Barbara Hudson, reigned as queen. Always striving high . . . Sigma Pi.

Theta Chi

Norwich University, 1856 — San Jose State, 1948

129 Chapters

Theta Chi was established locally in 1948. Since that time the chapter has been active on San Jose State's campus. Its overall goal is an active balance among many aspects of college and fraternity life. School activities, I.F.C. sports, inter-house government, scholarship and social functions are means by which Theta Chi attempts to achieve this end. The Social Calendar is centered around the Dream Girl Contest which begins in the fall and culminates in the spring with the Dream Girl Formal. Other functions include, Red Ox Stampede, Winter Formal, Roaring 20's, and Old MacDonald's Farm Party. Every Christmas the Theta Chi's give a party with Kappa Kappa Gamma's for the underprivileged children of the San Jose area.

Go onward down the field,
And we will win the game.

La Torre Queen 1963

Kathe Prasil

This is the highest award that La Torre gives annually to a Spartan co-ed. Kathe Prasil was chosen Queen not just because of beauty and personality, but because she represents the ideal person that can represent our college anywhere, and at anytime. A transfer student from Portland State, she has taken part in many State activities. The love of sports (football and baseball in particular), the ability to socialize with people, beauty, personality, and her ability to adapt herself to new surroundings has made her a Fraternity and Independent favorite on campus. She's a member of Delta Zeta Sorority, and quite active in various activities.

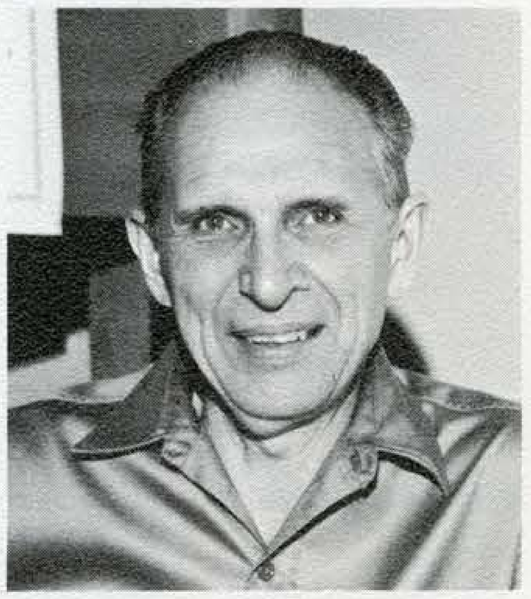

Editor's Finale

RON HALL

Well, it's all over! Just think, no more torment to bare or agony to portray. You kids (the staff) made more work for me than a staff twice the size, but I doubt if an Editor could ever have had a better staff than this past year's. There was Jackie Hessler who never did join a....., and yes, Caryn Feuz, all those yearbooks do remind me of dead people. It was always nice to have guests visiting J-117 and hear Charles Rubin's radio blaring-out while Penny Furtney did the mash potatoes. Judy Helmbolt and Arlinda Wing realy did an outstanding job on the class section. They both worked long hours daily, and I know it really paid off for Judy!?? Sharon LaFond, well as for you young lady, never tell Penny what you heard about Ken (hush, hush!). Allen Shores and Roger Bengston, you two kept me in J-117 too many nights working on your sections . . . for those who want to know, they both flunked the class each semester and forged the "F" to an "A". And look at our class attendance. For example, there was Ray Carpenter who never missed a class unless he had to surf at Santa Cruz. Eileen "Julia Prowse" Hayes, you beautiful doll, you never did dance, but what eye-lashes. Bruce Macumber, get to work! Pam McDowell, you received an "A" the first semester, but weren't you surprised the second? Milt Herzog, you did a masterful job with the sales staff. I'll never get over how you sold one thousand yearbooks the first week of the fall semester - that was until I realized that each salesman sold forty books to each other . . . only kidding, they bought five apiece. And last amongst the staff, there was Ron Hall. I doubt, seriously, that any Editor, whether he be at State or some other college, could have had a better Business Manager. Ron is one of the few Managers that I have ever met, or heard about, that went out of his way daily to help other staff members do their sections. He had a great, or even gigantic, part in helping with the Senior and Greek sections. Thanks Ron. There are many more people who helped us produce the 1963 La Torre . . . . Keith Cole Studios and their fine photography department . . . . Norma Burnham, who continuously had to remind me about the blueprints. Norma is the representative of our printers, the Wheelwright Press, one of the best printing outfits in the nation. Special thanks to the girls in TH 16, which was later moved to the barracks. Thanks to Mary, Stella, and Elaine for all the help and encouragement they gave the staff. Thanks to Mr. Swan who was not only our advisor, but someone who turned the photolab into a well organized unit . . . . (I say this now, all you cats in the photo-lab, but don't let it go to your heads). And there was Dr. Bentel who gave gave me needed confidence at the beginning of the year, and never complained once about all the racket that came out of J-117 daily. There were so many more people who helped with the yearbook. I'm sorry that there isn't enough space to print their names, but thank you. But most of all, thanks to the Student Body, for this is your yearbook, and as Spartans, you deserve nothing but the best. We hope we delivered a good, if not outstanding, yearbook into your hands.
