

ASILOMAR

Gateway to beautiful Asilomar Hotel and Conference Grounds, where forest, sand dunes, and sea meet on the tip of the Monterey Peninsula, Pacific Grove, Calif.

Dear Patricia: Today I spent with Harten and until 2 on plant life. He's an excellent teacher, as are all the rest of our staff. This P.M. I handled an afternoon trip on insects with a good group. Overcast all day until about 7:00 when the sun came out. Can hear the P.G. jazz now. Wish you were here enjoying the place with the rest of us. As always
- Carl.
