

We are anxiously waiting to see what new use those cheese-cloth costumes of the Seniors will be put to next. They first appeared at the Senior B reception, then the girls were draped in them to receive the President; while almost every amateur entertainment in town has found it convenient to adapt "those Grecian costumes." Do you suppose the girls will graduate in them?

ALUMNI NOTES.

Miss Julia C. Colby, Dec., '88 is teaching at Good-years, Solano Co.

Miss Eva Senf, June, '90, is teaching in the Eureka District, Lake Co.

Miss Mary L. Tinsley, June, '89, is teaching at Douglas City, Trinity Co.

Miss Sadie Willard, May, '88 is teaching in the Lafayette School, Oakland.

Miss Lillie Harris, May, '85 is vice-principal in her old school at Pleasanton.

Merritt Eley, June, '90, is teaching in the Dennis District, Madera, Fresno Co.

Miss Mamie A. Coughlin, Dec., '87 is teaching her second year at Warm Springs.

Miss Anna E. Kline, Jan., '90 is teaching in Salem District, near Elmira, Solano Co.

Miss Winona Kanfinan has taught in Nicolaus, Sutter Co., for eight months successfully.

Miss Alpine Crane, June, '90 has just closed her first term of school in Gains, Tulare Co.

F. M. May, Jan., '90 is teaching his third term at the Hot Springs District, in Contra Costa Co.

Miss Mary E. O'Leary, Jan., '91 has been accepted as teacher of the Burns Val. District School.

Mrs. Robt. Dixon, nee Lizzie Sinclair, May, '87 has withdrawn from the profession of teaching.

Miss Mae Gates, Jan., '91 has a position as assistant teacher in the Lockwood School, Alameda Co.

Miss Mary Tyrrell, June, '90, and Miss Charlotte Patton, May, '88 are teaching in the Durant School, Oakland.

Because of ill health, Mr. Lewis Goble, Dec., '85 has resigned his position as first assistant in the Ferndale School.

Miss L. Georgia Bradshaw, Dec., '88, who has taught since graduation, is now teaching in the Huyck School, Santa Clara Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill are teaching the Cayucos School, in which are many Swiss children, not yet able to understand English.

Miss Harriet M. Smith, June, '90 is now teaching at Empire Hill District, Yuba Co., where she will continue about eight months.

Miss Ida M. Seidel, June, '90, taught one term at Lone Tree School, Contra Costa Co., but is now teaching the Valley School at Briones.

Miss Kate C. Bellevue has taught the primary department of the Milpitas School since last August.

Miss Anna H. Baggett reopened her second term of school of forty pupils on March 23, Mill Dist., Sisson.

Miss Dora Thush, Dec., '85 has taught three years since graduation, and is now employed in Washington District, San Joaquin Co.

Miss Hattie Cuthberston, Jan., '90, after having taught eight months in Fish Rock District, has accepted a larger school in Cleone, Mendocino Co.

Miss Annie Farrell, June, '90 has finished her ninth month in the Saucelito School, in which seventy-seven were enrolled, the majority of whom were foreigners.

Miss Georgia Thatcher, June, '89, has taught almost two years at Pomo, Mendocino Co. She finds practical use for many of the Normal methods in a country school.

After teaching four years in the Potrero Primary School, San Francisco, Miss Birda E. Stoddard, Dec., '84 was transferred to the Lincoln Grammar School of the same city, where she is at present.

EXCHANGES AND CLIPPINGS.

Daniel Webster is credited with being the first editor in college journalism—at Dartmouth in 1800.—Ex.

Our Eastern exchanges must remember that the Leland Stanford University is at Palo Alto, not Polomai.

The University of Leipsic has this year been opened to women. At present this is the only German university admitting women.—Ex.

Columbia, Dartmouth, and Williams have abolished graduating orations, and have substituted an address by some noted orator.—Ex.

The convention of the National Educational Association is to be held at Toronto, Canada, from the 14th to the 17th of July next.—Ex.

Of the two thousand one hundred fifty-nine students enrolled in the University of Michigan in 1890, thirty were from California.—Chronicle-Argonaut.

Harvard allows the substitution of Japanese and Chinese for the Greek and Latin required for entrance. It is thought this will attract many Japanese students to Harvard.—Ex.

The University of Chicago, which is to be opened October 1, 1892, will remain in session summer and winter, each student taking his vacation of two months at any time he wishes.—Argus.