

employed as graduate assistants, students must have sufficient funds so that they will not need employment. They should plan to register for the minimum legal number of courses each semester, which for undergraduate students on "F" or "J" type visas is 12 units and for graduate students is 8 units. These are the minimum-unit loads foreign students must carry in order to keep their student visas valid. They are also required to have adequate health insurance coverage at the time of registration.

The International Student Counseling Office also coordinates campus and community activities for foreign students. These activities are designed to enhance their educational experiences in the United States. Students should consult the International Student Counseling Office for information pertaining to these activities. Foreign graduate students should refer to the School of Graduate Studies section of the catalog.

DEAN OF STUDENT AFFAIRS OFFICE

In addition to providing guidance to the various units within Student Affairs, the Office of the Dean of Student Affairs is responsible for administering the Student Grievance Procedure, student discipline, and for maintaining liaison with other administrative and academic areas of the university. A legal advisement program is also administered through the office.

STUDENT HOUSING

RESIDENCE HALLS

The university can accommodate 1,268 students in the residence halls on campus. Two types of rooms are available: single and double. Rooms are attractively furnished and provide pleasant study and living facilities. The halls also have special lounge areas, recreation rooms, study rooms, and laundry facilities. Food service is provided by the residence hall dining facility. A choice of board plans is available, allowing the resident to choose the one which meets his or her needs and budget. The hall governments sponsor an extremely active and varied program of activities. In addition to the conveniences of location and services offered by the residence halls, the group living situation affords a unique opportunity for students to make new friends and to become involved in university and hall activities.

Residents must agree to live in the halls for the academic year. For information on residence hall costs, see Fees and Expenses. Further information and applications for reservations may be obtained by writing to the Housing Office. Application forms are available after April 1. Students who are applying for accommodations in the halls must also file an application for admission to CSUF unless already enrolled.

OFF-CAMPUS HOUSING

Students are advised to make arrangements for housing as early as possible before registration. The Housing Office maintains a file of available off-campus living accommodations. A large number of apartments are available in the area adjacent to the campus. Accommodations are also provided by private homes in the area, with a limited number offering room and board. The Housing Office also receives a few listings on houses, duplexes, trailers, and other accommodations for rent, lease, or sale. Most of
