Credential Program

See the social science credential adviser, Dan Orbeck, in the Social Science Building, Room 215.

American History Requirement

The American history requirement for graduation may be fulfilled by passing (a) the Advanced Placement Examination (see Advanced Placement) or (b) HIST 11 or 12.

Graduate Program

The Master of Arts degree program in History is designed to extend the competence of persons engaged in a wide variety of fields requiring a broad grasp of historical knowledge, techniques, and interpretation, for those in public service, for teachers at various levels, and for those anticipating advanced graduate study in history.

Prerequisites. Admission to the Master of Arts degree program in History assumes undergraduate preparation equivalent to this university's major in history. Majors from other disciplines may qualify for admission depending on grade point average and other factors deemed pertinent for success in historical studies. The department determines in each case whether the applicant needs additional preparation before receiving classified standing.

Master of Arts Degree Requirements

(See Division of Graduate Studies.)

The History Department offers a 30-unit Master of Arts program. The basic requirements are as follows:

A. Core: 15 units, consisting of HIST 200 (3 units); HIST 210 or 220 (3 units); HIST 230, 235, 242, or 245 (3 units); HIST 250, 260, or 270 (3 units); HIST 280T (3 units).

B. Six units from among HIST 210, 220, 230, 235, 242, 245, 250, 260, and 270. With the approval of the departmental graduate adviser, the student may substitute up to 6 units of related courses in other departments or 6 units of 100-level history courses (except HIST 100, 190, 198) which appear especially appropriate to the student's area of research. Selected Topics courses and Senior Seminars may also be used upon consultation with and the approval of the graduate adviser.

C. Three units from HIST 290 and 292.

Thesis: 6 units of HIST 299A-B.

Foreign Language Requirement. All graduate students of the Department of History must pass a reading competency examination in at least one foreign language approved by the graduate adviser before being advanced to candidacy. For further information, consult the department graduate adviser.
