

ADMISSION

matriculated students are retained by CSUF.

3. Take the SAT or ACT and request official scores be sent to CSUF, if a lower division applicant. TOEFL required of all foreign applicants.
4. Take any additional proficiency or placement tests required.

In addition to the other documents required a veteran should file a photostatic copy of his or her Notice of Separation (DD 214) from the armed services with the Office of Admissions. He or she will be allowed credit for service time and service schools completed as recommended by A Guide to the Evaluation of Educational Experiences in the Armed Services. He or she may also be given consideration for special admission under conditions outlined under Undergraduate Admission Requirements.

Applications will not be accepted after admissions categories have closed. Eligibility for admission cannot be determined until all required documents have been received. Due to staff limitations, an evaluation of transfer credit will generally not be available until at least a month after admission.

Degree credit may be granted for work completed satisfactorily in another accredited institution of collegiate grade subject to the restrictions imposed on work taken at this institution. Questions concerning acceptability of a course from another institution should be addressed to the Evaluations Office.

A maximum of 70 semester units of credit is allowed toward the bachelor's degree for work completed in a community college. No upper division credit is given; however, community college credit in excess of 70 units may be used to satisfy subject requirements.

A maximum of twelve (12) semester units will be allowed for Agricultural Projects, Work Experience, and/or Internship courses. No more than six (6) semester units taken prior to Junior standing will be accepted toward the degree.

Remedial English and mathematics courses in excess of 4 units are not accepted for degree credit.

For limitations on extension and correspondence credit, see Extension Classes.

Students desiring university housing or financial aid should file special applications with the appropriate offices concerned as soon as possible.

LOCALLY AND SYSTEMWIDE IMPACTED PROGRAMS

Most undergraduate applications are accepted for consideration at the first choice campus in the first choice major. However, quotas have become necessary in a few majors at some campuses where more applications are received during the first month of the filing period than can be accommodated. In those programs, only applications received during the first month of any filing period will be accepted for consideration. Applicants for impacted programs must apply during the first month of any filing period. Supplementary screening criteria are used to determine which applications will be allocated space in impacted programs. Campuses may consider hardship appeals from applicants.

Applicants to impacted programs, both students currently enrolled at California State University, Fresno, and those enrolling at the university for the first time, must submit supplementary applications in order to be considered for admission to an impacted program. Each applicant to an impacted program must meet supplementary application deadlines and must meet
