Dear Miss Morgan

(Mr. Rossi tells me that the two fine trees which he moved to the north Terrace are going back very fast and that we are likely to lose them. The gardener agrees with him and says that the recent (that the tree surgeons performed their surgical operations in the spring when the sap was running and also that the operations were too soon after the storm. Moving the trees he spoke to Mr. Slattery at the time but he should have to you are to me, Mr. Slattery asked the tree surgeons if it was all right to go ahead and if course they said yes. I suppose they wanted the job. My private opinion is that tree surgeons are a lot of fakes anyhow. I believe our own people could do everything that they do and do it better. Anyhow we will try to do it ourselves next time — but I hope we can save the trees.

Sincerely,

Dorothy

[1929]