Election year is upon us and it's important that we study what each of the issues and each of the candidates stand for. One of the best ways to get to know the candidates is to read what each says daily and if you can, find their past record and compare their present views with their past views.

The choice you will have to make this year is clear if you understand the types of political thinking. The two dominant types for us to choose from are Conservatism and Liberalism.

Conservatism is sometimes referred to as rightism, or to the right. A radical to the right can be a Nazi or a Fascist. A conservative is usually one who does not believe in changing old ways and does not believe in passing new laws by the federal government. They believe that the states should have a minimum of federal control.

Liberalism, on the other hand, is sometimes referred to as leftism, or to the left. A radical to the left could be socialist or a communist. A Liberalist believes in a stronger federal government and also believes in constant reform and changing of old standards. This is why they are also sometimes called progressives.

Each side has its good points and their bad points. Conservatism, for example, has helped preserve some of our old laws which preserve some of our freedoms and keep us from drifting into socialism or communism.

Liberalism has helped us in reforming certain conditions which bad for our people. Our Social Security System is the result of Liberal thinking. The welfare departments and the labor unions are also leftist in nature.

In the presidential race the lines are drawn more clearly than the other contests. Barry Goldwater is definitely a conservative and has asked the people to give conservatism a chance to prove itself in our country. He opposes the Social Security System, the United Nations, and the passage of new federal laws.

Lyndon B. Johnson is not as radical to the left as is Goldwater to the right.

Johnson has the reputation of being a hard worker and a very sharp politician. As Senate majority leader he has helped pass civil rights law and other legislation through the Senate, which probably would not have passed without his leadership.

If I sound partial to Johnson it is only because I feel his views are more favorable to the poor people, to the Mexican-Americans and to all minority groups, than are Goldwater's views.

Domination by either side could be disastrous to our country. In Germany, for example, Conservatism led to Nazism and to the destruction of their society. Leftism could lead us to Socialism or Communism and the tyranny that follows.

Now that I've given you this class in political science, I suggest you go to your library and study about the candidates and the issues of our time.

COMING EVENTS

August 22nd is the date of our first ULAC dance. The dance will be from 9 to 1 A.M. with FREE REFRESHMENTS from 7:30 to 8:30 P.M. The music at the IES Hall (1401 E. Santa Clara St.) will be provided by Jess Escobar and his orchestra. You get all this for only $1.00 donation.

I'm back home at the ranch again. Did you miss me? I bet you did! No chance, I'm not about to quit and besides I can't be replaced! EL EXCENTRICO has only one Nut and that happens to be me! Rumors

El Patio (Carmen's Club) is being remodeled. The dance floor will be twice the size it is now.

Meanwhile I hear Maria's Club has the for sale sign out. From what I hear their price is in the six figure bracket.
At the Canneries

Down the grapevine at a local cannery I hear that a bleach blond (chicana) is making time with the big wheel there. Isn't that awful what a girl will do just to hold a job at a cannery. At another cannery another married woman propositioned a guard on the night shift, so he would call her when there was an opening. Isn't that shameful, and she doesn't even have a union book. Wait till the union steward hears about this.

At this other cannery two ladies got in a big fight in the restroom over George Plata. It all started when George drove one of them to work and the other was there talking to her husband outside the gate. The single girl passed by the married one laughing and went to the restroom to fix her hair. The married one followed the single one and demanded to know if her intentions with George Plata were honorable. When the single chick told her it was none of her business all hell broke loose. There were undergarments and blouses all torn to shreds. Not even the foreman could pull them apart. They were put on the dirtiest detail job tailing off at the warehouse. They are now on probation pending good behavior. I guess the only reason they didn't fire them was because nobody wants to work in the canneries anymore. When George heard of the news later that evening he just laughed and continued to laugh and booze it up with his favorite barmaid. Honest, girls, I don't see what you see in that sawed-off man, when I see him it looks like he is walking on his knees!

Smoking is Nasty

Here is a tip for all you single girls who smoke. The following are the results of questions asked to persons concerning this subject:

MANUEL FERNANDEZ: No, I don't like women to smoke. I think women that smoke their mouth stinks like a dead cat or rotten hamburger meat. I don't get a thrill out of kissing a garbage can.

GASPER ESPINOZA: Yes, I like girls that smoke because it gives a thick crust of nicotine on their teeth so every time I kiss them I get a full flavor of smoking without having to buy my own.

J. J. RODRIGUEZ: I don't smoke at all simply because I can't stand that damn dirty habit. I think women that smoke should carry a toothbrush or a bottle of mouth wash with them wherever they go.

GEORGE PLATA: Oh yes, I love girls who smoke. It gives me a chance to bum cigarettes (& money) from them. I can't afford to buy cigarettes anymore and since all my girls keep me broke all the time it's a lot cheaper to hustle them from broads than to buy.

ART "Alaska" LOPEZ: I don't mind if they do or not. I'm not about to spend any money and support that indecent vice.

GIL (MYSELF) SOLAREZ: I don't smoke at all. I feel this way smoking is about the filthiest, dirtiest habit on the face of this earth. It stains your fingers, teeth, lips and turns your tongue into a brown furry glob. And women are always looking for a place to lay their butts. In the U.S. we made three big mistakes. No. 1 - we allowed them to vote. No. 2 - we allowed them to drive. No. 3 - And now smoking, what else is left????

THE POLITICAL ● SCENE

William T. Ellis

How long has it been since we could look to Washington with pride and find the qualities of leadership that exemplify the principles of which we are so proud. Party lines do not divide good Americans. Good Americans of both parties respect men of dedication, men of Christian principles and men consistently sincere. The challenge of "What we can do for our country", given to us four years ago is even greater today. Four years ago, however, we had before us a man of dynamic personal conviction. We could hold our heads high, and under that leadership of dedicated principle, work together for a better America.

The challenge is even greater today because we now are being tested on our own convictions. We must prove that we have principle, that we are dedicated, and that we have the will to stand up for and demand a country of which we can be proud. The greatness of America was never legislated into being by congress, nor was it deducted from our incomes and given to us. It was developed through hard work and dedication to the common goals of freedom and equal opportunities. We must meet this test by working hard for these same goals. It is up to each of us to put forth that extra effort to make sure that we are individually well informed on all of the issues. We must understand what our country stands for. We must understand what the Fabian societies of Europe stand for. We must understand the significance of centralization of economy and how this differs from the economic system under which our country has developed the world's highest standards of living and productivity. We must further understand the causes of inflation and recognize the imperative need for stable fiscal policies and we must understand the consequences of federal deficit spending.

Are we giving foreign aid to depressed countries or are we transacting commerce with communist countries for the benefit of Eastern brokerage firms? Is it the noble purposes for which the UN charter was drawn up that we support or do we appease the pro-communist "Neutralists" in a Kangaroo court. During the next three months we will read in the papers and hear discussions of these and many other critical issues. They are important issues. We must be alert and attentive in the work of sifting the dramatic from the factual.

We must be enthusiastic in our beliefs, for if we are our children's generation and others to come will indeed be grateful for their heritage.

To meet the challenge and work for a country where we may again be proud of our personal integrity and national accomplishments is to be decided by each of us. It is a choice that we have, and a choice that we must make.

CLUB San Felipe

Candy Veliz

The 5th anniversary Formal Dance that Club San Felipe celebrated at the Cabaña in Palo Alto was a complete success, thanks to all you wonderful people that attended.

Joe Gonzalez doing a good job of coaching the softball team and they are undefeated in the 2nd half.

Against the Bachelors, Naro Moran saved Manny Castañeda's shutout with a sensational catch. Abe Calderon got a grand slam, Danny Castellanos and Freddie Santos gave the usual superb performance, thus the score San Felipe 8 - Bachelors 0.

Stationed in Alabama in the MP unit is Club San Felipe basketball star Sergio Cerna. Sergio, receive best wishes from Club San Felipe and may your stay in the Army be a pleasant one.

REMEMBER that on August 22nd ULAC is having a dance at the IES Hall on E. Santa Clara St. The orchestra of Jess Escobar will play from 9 to 1. However, don't forget that from 7:30 to 8:30 it's the happy hour - FREE BEER - so come early and let's all have a nice time. Admission is only $1.00 per person..... Bailamos???

THIS 'N THAT

In the very near future there will be a softball game between Club Selene and Zanzaree. I don't want to discourage Club Selene but Zanzaree has yet to lose a game even if they just play one game a year.

There will be a Paseo De Las Flores Parade on August 15th at 9 A.M. down First Street. I understand that there will be beautiful floats, etc., so why don't you make it a point to attend. La Asociacion De Charros will appreciate it and so will all the participants which are numerous.

Thinking about running for Burgermeister Queen are Gloria Castro, Velia Duran and Carmen Molina. The Judges will have a rough time picking a winner, yes indeed!

Would like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Angel and Esther Gonzalez for their invitation to their hospital-ity room at the Cabaña. By the way, Esther, you looked stunning.

Recently attended a party for Mary Vagara & Vince Uribe where their engagement was officially announced by her parents. Congratulations!

It is a sad, shameful story when a person dies here in San Jose, has dozens of kin folks and they do not have the decency to bury him. OK, kin folk, (not mine by a long shot) make excuses so that you can sleep nights.

When I say that Trudy Jimenez is not all there I only mean that she doesn't have her tonsils any more. They have been removed. Hurry up and get well, Trudy, all the gang misses you.

Happy birthday to Nancy Verona. A surprise party was given to her by Mrs. Susie Dominguez and Alice Zamora. The date was July 31st. Congratulations and many happy returns.

The Kennedy Memorial Committee had the Civic Auditorium free of charge, so they say, ONLY $109.00 for stagehands. How come I rented it for MAPA for $50 and $26 for stagehands? Señores y Señoras y Señoritas, a la otra vez mejor rentenlo. Les sale mas barato!

Thanks to Bubby Garcia, sales representative for Pearl Beer in Galveston, Texas, and to Gama Guevara that while in his vacation stopped and brought me a case of Pearl. Estaba muy sabrosa!!!

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe and Dolores Gonzalez. She was named Rose Mary. Congratulations.

Club San Felipe will have a BBQ and Dance on the 6th of September. More details on the next issue.

As a proud and dedicated Eddie Camunez steps down as Chairman of our San Jose Chapter of the American GI Forum, so steps forward a young, energetic and a very capable Bill Lopez to help bring our goals one step closer.

Although much has been accomplished we have but started and should therefore not put off until tomorrow that which should be done today.

Our Chairman has come forth with a fine platform and all that is needed now is your continued support.

As the 1964 GI Forum National Convention comes to a close in San Antonio we can expect an increased surge of our Forum's activities and projects throughout the nation.

Your past support has been greatly appreciated and we want your continued support. When you attend our next meeting try and bring a prospective member. Let him see us at work. We have much work to do and we need and want men who are willing to help see our programs through.

Let's all try to attend our next meeting and help Bill get our chapter off to a good start!

ODDS N' ENDS

Giants fans, buy your world series tickets now. The Phillies are going to fold soon. Cincinnati, Los Angeles, Pittsburgh, Milwaukee, and St. Louis have already conceded the pennant to the Giants. Good luck in the world series, Alvin! See you in Houston next year!

First it was the boats on S.F. bay. Then trains criss-crossing the country bearing the sign PACIFIC FRUIT EXPRESS. Then a publication at 330 South 3rd Street, San Jose, PACIFIC FRUIT NEWS. Now, a radio show! The Gay Hour, 12 to 1 A.M. on an SF radio station. The next comment will be Herb Caen's.

How many different words can you make out of Barry Goldwater's name? Let's see . . . Bolder War, War Later, Old War Gab, War Bater, Real War, War Goader, Try A Red War, War Ready, War Bore, etc.

MIGHTY METS CLASH WITH DODGERS!!

Manager Larry Connor's MIGHTY METS, 15-1 winners over The Senators in their last outing at Oster School, return to their home diamond at Noddin School to host the always tough Dodgers in Pacific PeeWee League action this Saturday at 9:30 A.M.

Behind the pitching of Kelley Jackson, Steve Guyon, and George Roush and due to good hitting by every man on the roster, the Mets recently won a 15-1 verdict over the Senators.

Infielders Mike Crawford, Matt Crawford, Jim Vaughn, Chad Connor, Todd Connor, and George Roush have shown tremendous improvement over the course of the season, according to Manager Larry Connor, as have outfielders Gary Hensley, Joe White, Daryl Frost, Kit Brady, Bob Andrews, and Chris Pederson. All are very good ballplayers.

The Sports Staff of ELEXCENTRICO wishes the Mighty Mets the best of luck for the remainder of the 1964 season. Go gettem' Mets!!

In the photo below are team members and coaches of the MIGHTY METS, the scrappiest and most respected team in the Pacific PeeWee League.

The Mets, like a team of the same name in New York City, are a new team and have rapidly developed into a team which is a threat to win every game on the schedule.
