LV Box Office opens

One of the assets of Leisure Village life is the wide array of entertainment opportunities available to all of us. One of the confusions of that asset is when tickets for those events are on sale: Monday and Wednesday at 9 a.m.? Or is it Fridays at 11 a.m.? In the Rec Center lobby or the Sun Room? Now that puzzle may be a thing of the past.

The LV Box Office is open for business. On Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9 to 11 a.m., this one-stop service is selling tickets for most of the plays, musical performances and dances presented for residents. It's easy to spot in the Rec Center lobby: There's a Box Office banner plus a large white board, which lists all the events with dates and times. Pairs of volunteers accept cash or checks and can specify reserved seats when needed.

The Box Office is the creation of homeowner Sharon Loney.

"I got tired of not being sure when I could buy tickets for a particular event," she explains.

Chuck Russell: Once a Scout, always a Scout

By Patty Ecker

When little Chuck Russell (actually, they called him "Chandy" in those days) first put on a Cub Scout uniform almost 65 years ago, he had no hint how the Scouting experience would help define his life. He just wanted to have fun with his grandfather, who founded San Fernando's first Scout troop in 1915.

What followed was a childhood of summer camps, earned badges and friendships, trips to Alaska and growing leadership skills.

"Boy Scouts are helpers. It's a volunteer organization," explains Chuck. "I learned early on that if something was needed, we would do it."

His Scout uniform is larger now, and his blonde hair is 40-year-old pool will get a face-lift

First, the good news for Leisure Village swimmers: The 40-year-old pool will be getting a complete makeover for safety and appearance.

Now, the bad news: The extensive work will require that the pool be closed for a month.

"There's no date yet for the reconstruction," says General Manager Bob Scheaffer. "We expect to do the pool renovation when the construction of the new fitness center begins. Generally, that should be in the late fall."

The "new" pool will be replastered, retiled, and have new coping. It already was scheduled for a plastering face-lift next year. But as plans were approved to locate the fitness center on one segment of the pool deck, it made economic sense to jackhammer the concrete for both projects

NEWS TO KNOW

Next 2-day safe driving class by AARP set for Sept. 18, 20

By Paul Herman

The next Initial (Two-Day) Class for people who have never completed it and who want to receive the training and automobile insurance discounts for their initial three-year period will be from 1 to 5 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 18, and Friday, Sept. 20, in the Multi-Purpose Room (MPR).

If you want to improve your defensive driving habits and learn how to adjust to age-related changes in your vision, hearing and reaction time, then this class is for you.

After completing the AARP Driver Safety Class, you will receive a certificate that will discount your automobile insurance significantly over a three-year period.

The cost is $12 for AARP members and $14 for non-members.

Pre-registration is required.

Please contact Paul Herman at 437-6241 to register for this class.

VILLAGE HAPPENINGS

Night Blooming Jazzmen perform

By Dick Guttman

The AR was “swinging” on Sunday afternoon, Aug. 11, when the LV Musicians Club brought The Night Blooming Jazzmen to Leisure Village.

Almost 300 Villagers attended a rousing soiree of hand-clapping, toe-tapping Dixieland music by seven talented professionals. The program featured numerous Dixieland standards as well as a rousing jazz rendition of John Philip Sousa’s “The Stars and Stripes Forever” — the official National March of the United States of America.

The band’s leader, 88-year-old Chet Jaeger, entertained us between numbers with his dry humor, and reed player Jim Richardson surprised most audience members when he played two saxophones at the same time. Despite old jokes, spontaneous nuttiness and musical spoofs, the band put out jazz of very high quality.

At the program’s end, in a moment of seemingly spontaneous fun, ladies from our audience marched through the AR to the band’s “Stars and Stripes Forever,” twirling colorful parasols and adding a special “New Orleans moment” to a great afternoon.

Photos by Jerry Spector

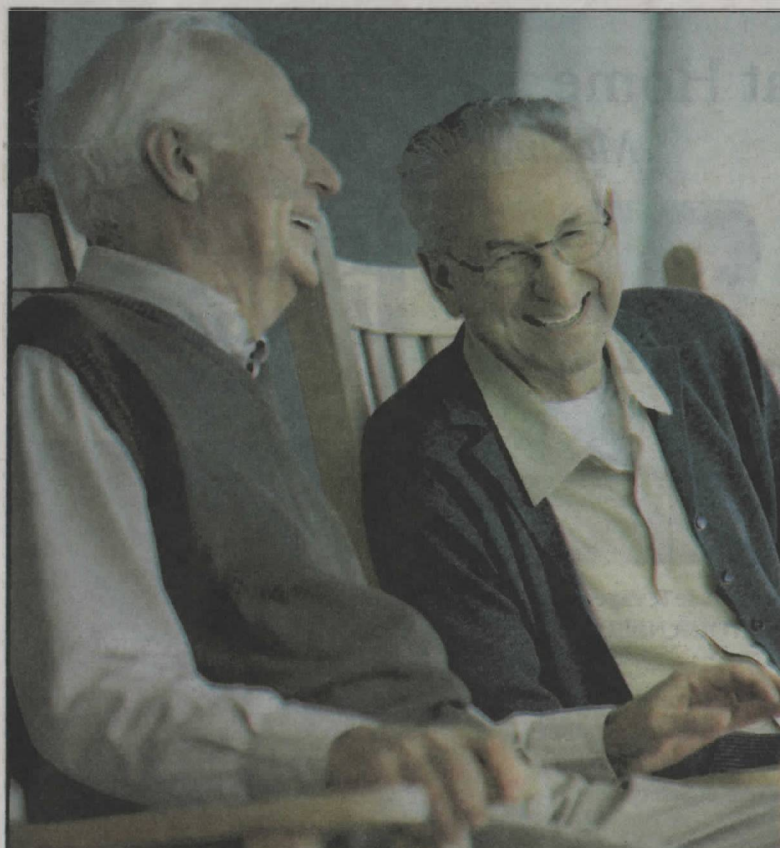

Women in the audience march to “Stars and Stripes Forever” during the Night Blooming Jazzmen performance Sunday, Aug. 11.

The “Nightbloomers” were formed in 1975 as an ad-hoc “pickup” band and have been so well received that they have survived with few personnel changes, playing thousands of concerts throughout the world, including trips to China, Australia, the Mediterranean and many parts of Europe.

We were delighted to have them entertain us here in Leisure Village.

Stay Social. Stay Well.

We Make It Easy to Make Friends

Studies agree. It’s good for your health to be social, especially as we age. At our community, friends are easy to make and even easier to keep. With discussion groups, classes, volunteer projects and organized trips, days are filled with opportunities to mingle.

Get Social! You and a loved one are invited to come enjoy an activity. Call 805.419.2455 to learn more and schedule your visit.

Planned Giving group meets

The Planned Giving Committee held its quarterly meeting on July 17 in the Lanai Room. We had three new Villagers in attendance who signed our Club Faire Information Sheet. With the successful recruiting of two new members, Natalie DiMeglio and Don Marquardt, we hope to be introducing new ideas into our existing process.

We also discussed ways to communicate our charter and encourage Villagers to consider putting the Village as beneficiary in a will and trust.

For information on how to participate in the LV Planned Giving Program, please call Joyce Baker at 889-5866 for details.

Please join us at our next meeting on Oct. 16 in the Lanai Room at 1:30 p.m.

Ellises moving out of LV

By Don Theall

We are saddened to say farewell to Bob and Sharon Ellis, who moved into Leisure Village in 2000.

Bob served on the Board of Directors from 2003 to 2005 and from 2011 to 2013.

Bob's greatest accomplishment in Leisure Village was as the chairman for the Water Committee from its conception in 2003 to the completion of its business plan in 2008. It was under his foresight and leadership that the Leisure Village water reclamation project moved from conception to implementation.

Since its implementation in 2006, the water reclamation project saved the residents of Leisure Village enough funds to repay a seven-year, $1.3 million loan in three years.

Another of Bob's accomplishments was chairing the Clean Energy Committee, which has identified numerous money-saving changes.

We will miss Bob

Attention, shutterbugs: New phone book needs your photos

Next year's edition not limited to Camera Club

By Marlon Green

It's more than a phone book!

The LV phone book is a wealth of information on everything Leisure Village.

Want to know what the rules are for children in the pool? That's easy. Find the answer in Rules and Regulations under Article 10.14.

The directory includes a quick reference guide for neighborhood transportation, health services, local government and city and community agencies. Some folks keep a copy of an old directory in the trunk of their car. They find it handy to locate a phone number when they are not home.

And, what a cover! Verna Cryder, a member of the Camera Club, took the prize-winning landscape photograph on the cover. The picture on the Rules and Regulations page was also a winner by Judy Spector.

In the past, the Camera Club provided all the photographs for the yearly book. However, that has changed, and now all residents can enter their pictures into competition for consideration for next year's book. This is meant to be a heads-up and head start just in case you see what you think is a great photo op when you are out and about in this wonderful place we call home. Take that picture! Use your phone or camera! Your photograph just might be on the cover of next year's phone directory.

Note: In order to enter the contest, you need to submit an 8-by-10 glossy print along with a digital image of the same picture with 300 dpi to the Association Office. Additional rules will be available later in the year.

LVTV covers Village news

Have you watched LVTV lately? You might be in for a big surprise.

What was created originally by an LV resident, Art Kaufman, has come a very long way from its original concept. A plaque honoring his achievement hangs in the LVTV studio.

The channel was initially just an automated message board. Later, Board meetings were taped, and soon broadcasts of Players Guild presentations were taped.

Five years ago, scheduled volunteers were manually changing the CD for each program. When Bob O'Connor joined the LVTV programming team, he realized there were many under-utilized aspects. One of the first things he and his team did was to acquire financing to bring in automated programming. Now the shows change automatically as they are scheduled.

Bob, along with John Baillie, Debra Guill and Ken Walker put into play new concepts to further inform and entertain their viewing audience, Leisure Village residents.

This is not the LVTV of old! You've got a cooking show hosted by Larry Swartz, Debra Guill is the Calendar Diva and John Bailles interviews residents for Viva the Village and goes out on the town with Ken Walker, our resident videographer, to bring local stories of interest to LVTV.

What Was My Line?

If you are new to the Village, you may not know about this show featuring residents having other residents guess how they earned their living before moving to Leisure Village. The show's coordinator, Jerry Spector, leads a panel that asks questions in the hopes of uncovering each hidden occupation. Some interesting careers have included funeral counselor, wedding coordinator, kiwi farmer, chicken plucker, spy, Ding Dong distributor, puppeteer and a circus bareback rider. New contestants are always welcome. Please contact Jerry Spector if you'd like to be on the show.

Cooking

Have you cooked with Larry Swartz lately? A repeat of his cooking show can be seen on Saturdays following Viva the Village. Check your TV schedule in the Village Voice and this newspaper for a listing of all the shows for the month. More shows are being planned for Saturdays to accommodate those residents who work during the week. LVTV strives to serve all residents.

CLUB PROFILE

Variety of programming on LVTV

Messages

On a daily, round-the-clock basis, LVTV broadcasts scheduling information and invitations to the various committees, clubs and groups. And for the visually impaired, Debra Guill reads the entire message board four times a day.

Looking for a place to go? Check out the Travel News on the message board. Bingo? The information is there for you. Work and can't be at the Board meeting? The meeting is taped and shown evenings. Do you want to dance? There are several choices listed on the message board. Want to know about the CAT bus schedule? it can be found on the message board.

Bottom line of this story is that LVTV is something worth watching. Whether you are informed by watching the monthly Board Meeting, important to all residents, or entertained by "What Was Your Line?", taken back in time to a rerun of a Players Guild show, taught how to Cook for One with Larry Swartz, taken on a trip to the Strawberry Festival, LVTV is something special to watch. If there is a show you missed, the LVTV staff would be happy to schedule it. There are now message ribbons running across the bottom of the screen for relevant news.

When you get your monthly Village Voice, check out the LVTV schedule. You just might be surprised at the lineup of shows.

A lot of people have made a lot of effort to bring you some great entertainment. This is all done to inform, enlighten and entertain the residents of Leisure Village. Check it out!

WOULD YOU HAVE MARRIED ME
IF MY FATHER HADN'T LEFT ME
A FORTUNE?

I WOULD HAVE MARRIED
YOU A FORTUNE

Surviving spouse must take steps for financial security

By Sharron Parker
Troop Real Estate Inc.

Many times after the death of a spouse, the surviving spouse may decide to sell the couple's home in order to scale down or begin some new memories with the purchase of a new home.

If there is to be a loan on the new purchase, personal events can affect credit. In the event of a spouse's death, credit and debt issues may arise. Stabilizing your credit in the event of a death can be difficult, especially if your spouse held all the credit in his or her name.

While resolving your financial affairs, keep in mind that credit accounts opened during marriage are automatically held jointly in California. Paying bills is critical. On-time bill payments during the next 18 to 24 months are important in order to maintain your credit. Even one late payment can affect your ability to get a new loan or credit card.

By law, a creditor cannot automatically close a joint account or change the terms because of the death of one spouse. Generally, the creditor will ask the survivor to file a new credit application in his or her own name. After reviewing the new information, the creditor will then decide to continue to extend credit or alter the credit limit. It's a good idea to open a new credit card in the surviving spouse's name only.

The Preparedness Corner

By Karen Eckles

Wow! Thank you, Leisure Village! Your response to our new monthly feature, "The Preparedness Corner," has been exciting. We received 93 emails in our first month.

This column is intended to educate our Villagers on how to prepare for a major emergency or disaster.

The answer to last month's question — Why should you never store water in plastic containers on concrete? — is: Because the water leaches up through the plastic potentially harmful chemicals from the concrete.

J.S. of Village 33 writes: In the event of a disaster and we don't have enough water, can we drink the reclaimed water used to water our lawns?

No! Humans should never drink our reclaimed water. However, pets, which have different digestive systems, have been known to drink this water out of the gutters with no ill effects. We suggest you contact the Camarillo Water District for complete details on reclaimed water. You should have enough water to last at least three days but preferably a week, at a rate of one gallon a day per resident.

Remember to email us with any questions or comments you have regarding Emergency Preparedness. Our email address is lvpreparedness@gmail.com.

Are you prepared?

Scouting shapes the life of Chuck Russell thinner. But Chuck Russell's commitment remains the same: to the Scouts, to family and friends, and to Leisure Village — particularly the LV Woodshop. If help is needed, Chuck is there.

"I don't have too many hours to myself," he laughs. "But I get a lot of satisfaction out of doing things for others.

Chuck is in his 63rd year as a Boy Scout. That's longer than he and his wife Carol have been married (51 years), longer than he was in the mortgage business (37 years), and a lot longer than they've lived in the Village (13 years).

"Scouting shaped me; in Scouting there is a natural progression to become a leader," he recalls.

Almost every year for the past six decades, he has gone to camp — first as a camper, then as a counselor, and then as a volunteer adult leader, making sure that Camp Whitsett above Kernville is effective and safe. He was named to the Order of the Arrow, a national Scouting honor society, and has participated in that segment of the Scouting program as well.

Chuck applies that same dedication to the Leisure Village Woodshop. You can find him there most days — what else — helping others.

"I always liked woodworking and fixing things, so I would stop in occasionally when we first moved here," he says.

Soon he was organizing the tools and materials. Sid Alweiss, the longtime Woodshop Committee chairman, founded the woodshop's Tuesday and Wednesday service to Villagers of fixing broken furniture, and Chuck joined in.

"We are very busy, repairing items for residents and doing projects for the Village. Sometimes I make house calls for people who can't bring items to the shop," he laughs.

Chuck also represents the Woodshop on the Ed and Rec Committee, and because he can't seem to say no, he holds four positions in the Emergency Preparedness Organization.

His commitment to volunteering makes him a perfect fit for Leisure Village. For retired people, there's always something to do here, he points out. And for someone as other-directed as Chuck Russell, he says, "That makes it a great place to live."

LV Bowling

By Bob Cohen

The 2013-2014 season is set to begin on Friday, Sept. 13, at Harley's Camarillo Bowl. There will be 16 teams of guys and gals showing off their bowling skills. A list of teams has been posted on the bulletin board in the atrium of the Rec Center. Practice begins at 9:30 a.m. and play for score begins at 9:45 a.m. As usual, we will have our regular side pot games (best handicap score) and will report those winners, as well as those who bowl 200-plus scratch games, beginning with the October issue of Inside Leisure Village.

The league has gained eight new bowlers this year. We welcome them all, but we are always looking for more. Join us any Monday, Wednesday or Friday morning at Harley's Camarillo Bowl. We're looking forward to another season of good bowling, good exercise and most importantly, good fun.

LV Veterans Club

By Paul W. Herring

LV Veterans is pleased to welcome back Brenda Manke, who will give us an overview of the Veterans Home of Ventura at our Sept. 26 meeting at 7:30 p.m. in the MPR. This is the last meeting to sign up to attend our end-of-year pizza dinner in October. The cost will be $8 and will include two slices of pizza, salad, drink and dessert.

Single Active Seniors (SAS)

By Zelda Greentree

Now that summer is almost over, perhaps a delicious Italian dinner might sound really good to you.

If you haven't attended our monthly Dinners Out at Ottavio's Italian Restaurant, why not do it in September?

It's true that we seem to attract mostly wonderful women, but men are certainly welcome to come and enjoy these evenings out as well. Ottavio's gives us a private room, good service, good food and the convenience of individual checks. If you're single and if you'd like to join us, please call for a reservation. Lee Edwards is sitting at her phone waiting to hear from you at 484-3289. You'll meet some great new friends.

Our next Dinner Out will be on Sept. 10 at 5:30 p.m. See you there!

a delicious lunch catered by Country Harvest that included a top-your-own ice cream dessert, entertainment was provided by David Singer. David played a few notes on his clarinet and the members named that tune.

Tennis anyone? Call Sharon O'Connor at 910-9428. Ping Pong is played on Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 8:30 a.m. in the Annex, and all are welcome. Lessons for beginners are given on Mondays at 2:30 p.m. in the Annex. Open play starts at 3:30 p.m. for all skill levels.

Pickleball continues each Monday and Wednesday starting at 9 a.m. at the courts. Free lessons are given each Monday and Wednesday. All are invited to learn the fastest growing senior sport in the county. Contact John Peterson at 388-1230.

The U.S. Paddle Tennis Association (USPTA) will be holding a clinic on Oct. 26 on our Paddle Tennis Courts. Come and watch the pros play and participate in a clinic with them from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Players Guild

By Joyce Belcher

The Players Guild will hold their monthly meeting on Sept. 19 at 7:30 p.m. in the AR. After the meeting, we will present "Happy Days," produced and directed by Cathy Friedman and Joyce Belcher. It will be a fun musical night bringing you back to the days of rock 'n' roll. We'll be singing and playing your favorite songs from the '50s and '60s — music that will make you want to get up and dance in the aisles.

As usual, there will be refreshments after the entertainment.

Also, don't forget that Diane Carroll has again agreed to hold another 10-week acting class. The classes will be held every Monday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. in the Sun Room beginning Sept. 30. If you wish to sign up, call Joyce Belcher at 445-9500. But hurry, as the class fills up fast.

The Booster Club

By Lin Grant

The Booster Club is planning our annual Veterans Day Canteen, the free event we provide to celebrate the men and women in the Village — and everywhere — who have served our country with honor. The Canteen will be held in the afternoon on Nov. 11 in the AR. Details, the exact time and ticket distribution will be forthcoming on LVTV and in this publication.

However, we are planning an event preceding this one to help raise funds for it and other projects. We are inviting all clubs and as many individuals as possible to create and donate wreaths — Halloween, Thanksgiving, Hanukkah, Christmas, New Year's, Valentine's Day, birthdays — and ones that celebrate hobbies — golf, sewing, tennis, gardening — in all sizes, shapes and designs for doors or tabletops which will be sold at a silent auction mid-October, just before the holiday madness begins. These wreaths can be used to decorate your LV home and will also make lovely holiday gifts. All profits go towards our seed money for upcoming community fundraisers. Clubs will be invited in writing to participate, but all should begin planning their wreaths early. This will be great fun and a win-win for the Boosters and the buyers. We hope the entire Village will support this effort.

The Boosters meet the third Monday of every month at 7 p.m. in the MPR. Please join us to help provide the Village and Village organizations with their desired needs which fall outside of the LV budget. You won't regret it.

Village quilter joins photographers, painters as fair winners

We've got lots of winners, and we are proud of them!

The Camera Club had 51 entries at the Ventura County Fair and 10 winners.

Four members of the Village Arts entered items, and all of those items earned awards.

And Nancy Chalker of Village 20, an eight-year resident of Leisure Village, entered six quilted items in the fair and won six ribbons.

Ken Lauchner collected and coordinated all the entries for the Camera Club. For the first time, the fair had three categories: advanced, advanced amateur and professional. Here's how the winners fared:

- In the Amateur Transportation category, Rebecca Maximovich, a new member, won honorable mention.
- Al Sarnelle took first place in the Amateur Flowers/Birds category, third place in Amateur Creative and honorable mention in Amateur Reflections.
- John Kingsley won honorable mention in Amateur Sunset/Sunrise.
- The following won in the Advanced Amateur division: Jerry Spector, first, Architecture; Hemu Kalle, honorable mention, Portrait Child; Ken Lauchner, honorable mention, Transportation; and Lee Clukey, first for Family Group and honorable mention for Creative.

The Village Arts members who took home ribbons included:

- Mary Kraus, who won first prize and Spotlight award for her acrylic, "Old Mill Stream," second prize for her acrylic, "Future Chef" and third prize for her acrylic "Light House."
- Judy Spector won third prize for her pastel, "Eucalyptus Trees."
- Gwen Zimring won first prize for her pastel, "Drought," and second prize for her pastel, "Southern Alps."
- Aurelie Zachary won Best of Show for her watercolor, "Lady in a Hat," including a special ribbon and plaque. She also won first prize for her pastel, "Persimmon;" second prize for her "Golden Vignette" in oils; third prize for her acrylic, "Alaskan Wolves;" first prize for her ceramic, "Nude;" first prize for her painted and glazed "Vase;" third prize for her collage "Feathers;" and a special ribbon and plaque for being third in the Sweepstakes.

Aurelie Zachary was a multiple winner.

Gwen Zimring's pastels won first and second place.

Groovin' Easy Band, will be playing in the AR on Tuesdays, Sept. 3, 10, 17 and 24, from 7 to 9 p.m. These are professional musicians who come to Leisure Village to entertain the Villagers. If you like to dance or just listen, you can have a very enjoyable evening. We have coffee and cookies, too.

Sing-Along

By Anne Wolfson

The Sing-Along group will be singing on Mondays, Sept. 9 and 30, in the AR from 7 to 8:30 p.m.

All Villagers, their friends and their neighbors are invited to join in. We have piano accompaniment, song books and a lot of fun!

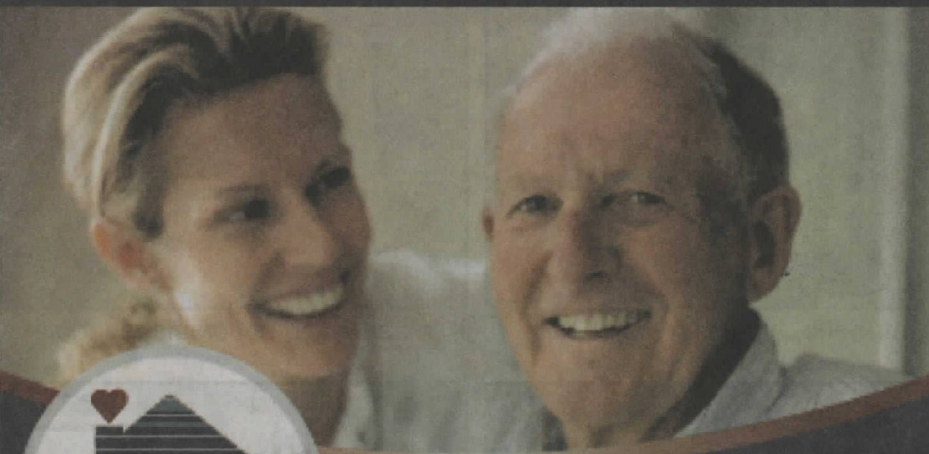

International Folk Dance

By Michelle Malkin

International Folk Dance meets on Monday between 1 and 2:30 p.m. We are always looking for new members, men or women. No experience is necessary. Just come if you want to get exercise, laughs and have fun. We do dances from Japan, Greece, Ireland, Croatia, Russia, Yugoslavia, Bulgaria and Israel. Valerie Daley is our great leader. On the first of every month we have a little goodies party for birthdays. Any questions, call Michele at 383-9996.

We welcomed returning judge Dan Holmes at our August meeting, which included our annual potluck.

In the Assigned category, which was Shadows and Reflection, the winners were: first, Frank De Simone; second, Jean Kohut; third, Judy Spector. Honorable Mentions went to Doug Demers and Lee Clukey.

In the Open category, first went to Jean Kohut, second went to Bill Margulies and third went to Laura Greffly. Honorable Mentions went to Margaret Petersen and Don Treadwell.

In the Creative category, first went to Jerry Spector, second went to Frank DeSimone and third went to Marlene Votion. Due to the few photographs entered in the Creative category, no Honorable Mentions were awarded.

Once again, beginning in September, we will be holding our meetings on the first and third Wednesday of each month. The first Wednesday is our competition night and is always a fun evening, hearing how the professional judges critique the member pictures.

Next month's category will be Photo Journalism and Action. All residents are welcome as guests; no camera is required. Contact Judy Spector at 384-9039 for more information.

LV Musicians

By Anne Wolfson

On Sunday, Sept. 29, at 2 p.m. in the AR, the Groovin' Easy Band and The Musical Theater performers will present their current Broadway Revue, sponsored by the LV Musicians.

Broadway Bound is a revolving group of Musical Theater performers who perform locally and represent the Alliance for the Arts, under the direction of vocal coach and artistic director Debi Lewis.

The three girls and three guys range in age from 17 to 22 and bring a wealth of experience to the stage.

Kelli Kay, a graduate of Boston Conservatory, was a recent soloist with the Boston Pops Symphony. She has held countless leading roles in Musical Theater productions.

Harrison Meloeny trained at Ithaca University and currently is in the musical "Bare" at the Hayworth Theatre.

Yael Karoly is a junior at Oak Park High School. She is guest soloist at the Museum of Tolerance and a finalist in the Southern California Vocal Solo Competition.

Tim Hoffman, a junior at View Point High School in Calabasas, has just returned from New York performing at the Stage Door Manor Repertory Theatre. He was a featured performer in the Macy's Thanksgiving Parade this past November.

Jordan Schneider and Morgan

Paige, both students at Oak Park High School, have multiple credits and awards between them. They were most recently seen as Valjean and Cosette in the Broadway musical, "Les Miserables."

Tickets for this show will be $7 and will be available Mondays and Fridays between 10 and 12 and Wednesday from 1 to 3 p.m. or by calling Roy Badger at 388-9335.

Saturday Nite Dance

By Andrea Morgan

We had a great turnout for our Aug. 3 dance with Tropic Starr; they were great. How lucky we are to have them back again for our Hawaiian Nite on Sept. 7. If you wish to wear your flower shirt, leis are provided. The schedule for September: Sept. 7, Tropic Starr (Hawaiian Nite); Sept. 14, Rhythm Kings; Sept. 21, Jerry Dokken; and Sept. 28, Dick Parent with the wonderful Henry on sax and clarinet. If you have not heard Henry, you are missing a real treat.

Come join us on Saturday nite for your dancing and listening pleasure. We are sure you will have a good time. Music is from 7:30 to 10 p.m. in the AR. Cost is $7.00 per person; punch and great popcorn are provided. Keep the feet to the beat.

Beginner Line Dance Class

By Tina Munnally

The class meets on Tuesdays in the AR from 3 to 4 p.m. Extra help is available from 2:30 to 3 p.m. Sharon O'Connor is the dance instructor. Regular attendance is recommended in order to learn the basic steps and dances. We dance to various styles of dance. Come join the fun. This is an activity that is great for the mind, body and spirit.

Contact Sharon O'Connor if you have any questions regarding this

Pinochle Club

By Jack Carlson

As a result of the June 29 Club Faire, the Pinochle Club has seven new members, four of whom are already playing on a weekly schedule. The club meets every Tuesday in the Garden Room from 7 to 9 p.m., with the exception of the last Tuesday of each month when we meet in the Lanai Room. We still need a few more players who will enjoy this popular and fast-moving game. Please drop by the Garden Room any Tuesday to observe the action.

We are playing three versions of Pinochle: Double Deck, the most universally played version of Pinochle; Racehorse, a very popular version that is played with three or four players; and Single Deck

Pinochle.

If you have played in the past, please consider joining our club. However, if you are not familiar with the game or would like a refresher course, we offer tutoring sessions. Also, detailed instructions are available on the Internet: <http://www.pagat.com/marriage/pindd.html>.

For additional information please call Jack at 388-9400.

Billiard Club

By Jack Quinn

The winners of the 9-ball tournament are:

In the B group: first place, Charlie Hartman; second, Don Nicksay; third, Chris Bogdan.

In the A group: first place, Sid Necowitz; second, Lew King; third, Max Chopra.

In the SA group: first place, Jack Quinn;

second, George Lueke; third, Paul Schifanelli.

The Billiard Room has another pool table, thanks to the fundraiser spearheaded by Jeanne White and Sam Kay with the help of many other volunteers. Many thanks to the contributors that made this a reality.

Women's Golf

By Ann Rogers

We were so glad to see your interested faces at our table at the Club Faire in July. Some have already joined, so the Leisure Village Women's Golf Association is proud to claim 61 members for 2013 (so far). If you are still thinking about it, undecided, come join us some Wednesday or Saturday at 8 a.m. We will be glad to see you and make room for you at the course. Don't worry about skill and handicaps. None of us are pros, just lady duffers playing for a good time.

We will hold our General Membership meeting in the Sun Room at 2 p.m. on Sept. 11. Members take turns bringing refreshments, and they usually bring their favorite things, thereby providing lots of neat treats. More next time.

Wii Bowling

By Paul Schifanelli

Leisure Village Wii Bowling is fun and easy. If you can hold a remote and focus on a large TV screen, you can participate in Wii Bowling. Ninety-minute Wii Bowling Club pre-scheduled sessions are on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. Yearly dues are $7, but the summer special is only $4 for the balance of this year. To join, or for more information about the club and/or scheduling procedures, please contact Paul Schifanelli at 419-4124 or Carole Miller at 383-0715.

LV New York Club

By Eileen Hasen

The New York Club is celebrating its 13th anniversary in October. The club was a vision of Bob Sklarz and Ben Perry. They and seven more of us got together and decided to form the club. They were Florence Sklarz, Eileen and Marty Hasen, Leatrice and Jules Posner and Gus and Diane Honeck. We had our first signups at the Pavilion near the pool. Eighty New Yorkers joined that day.

As we grew, Villagers from all over (not only from New York) joined the club, and we are now close to 300 members.

At our October meeting we will be having The Tweetle Lee Deevahs, a female trio of vocalists and performers whose credits range from Broadway to Radio City Music Hall. This is a very special evening, so it is for members only.

Travel Committee

By Glenn Whitlock

The 2013 Pageant of the Masters is currently stand-by only. The price is $188 per person for a double, and a single is $225. The tickets are non-refundable. MJ Porter will be your escort.

Reservations are currently underway for a trip to the Aquarius Casino in Laughlin on Sept. 9 through 11. The price is $138 per double or $173 single. This includes deluxe motor coach transportation, two nights' accommodations, baggage handling and tax. MJ Porter will be your escort.

The "Colorful Songs of Broadway" for Thursday, Sept. 19 has been canceled.

A trip to visit the USS Iowa in San Pedro on Oct. 3 is currently being sold. The USS Iowa hosted more U.S. presidents than any other battleship in history and is the only one of her kind to serve in World War II. You will get the opportunity to see the Captain's Quarters, Command Center, Crew's Galley, the Tomahawk Cruise Missile Launchers and much more. We have a private lunch at the 22nd Street Landing after the tour. The price for this trip is $89 per person. Curt Tucker is scheduled to be our tour guide and Glenn Whitlock will be the escort. An alert: This tour requires climbing ladders and navigating stairs and narrow walkways.

Oktoberfest at Big Bear is just around the corner, scheduled for Oct. 13 with MJ Porter as the escort. The Bier Garten now includes a Sports Garten, complete with large screen TVs. American and German beer and great German food will satisfy any appetite. Stroll along the Budenstrasse after your lunch and enjoy a variety of entertainment and crafts. The price of this trip is $86 per person.

The Palm Springs Follies scheduled for Dec. 12 to 13 is currently stand-by only. Isabel Blau is the escort. The price is $198 per double, $230 for a single.

Future trips are currently being planned for: Guide Dogs, Haunted Hollywood, The Lion King at the Pantages, Cirque Du Soleil Totem, Santa Anita Race Track and Plaza Hotel Casino in Las Vegas.

desperately needs volunteers in many areas. Be more than a tournament golfer — be part of the association. Do it!

We welcome back Don Obel, who returns to the fairway. We wish him great success.

So, what's with the 11th Hole? Reuben Ruiz scored an ace on July 23, followed by Bob Amantia on Aug. 13. Oh, what strange magnetism doth this hole possess?

The golf trip to Solvang was a huge success.

"It was a great trip. Had loads of fun and I won some money in the casino," said Pat Gunning.

Ron Edwards commented: "Everyone interacted at the banquet, it was a good time with good food."

Jim Mainland remarked: "The weather was great. We had a smaller group than in the past — probably due to the fact that this trip was held earlier than usual. We had 19 golfers with a grand total of 40 people. Everyone had a great time."

Ross Edmonds, left, and Ron Edwards of the LVMGA confer with LVWGA First Vice President Merle Ruiz before the start of the Tee Timers Tournament at the LV Golf Course on August 21.

"I played fine," John Palmer admits. "Except for that lousy 10th hole. I had a higher score than I wish to admit."

Job well done to organizers Ron Edwards and Jim Mainland.

The Women's Club has been receiving letters of thanks and appreciation for the contributions made to various charities. The time has come again for the donation committee to choose new groups or projects. They are open to suggestions you may have. The main source of funds for these donations is the weekly Tuesday morning workshop. From 9 to 11 a.m., the MPR is a place for workers who gain a sense of worth, express their creativity and make friends by giving time, talents and care.

As one of our extremely creative and productive members, Joyce West, moves away and still others are unable to sustain their previous level of activity, the workshop is in need of many new hands and fresh ideas.

Other ways to contribute are by donating materials or ideas to be used in the workshop, such as yarn or quilting material. The men in the Woodshop help out whenever tools and extra strength are needed. Last, but not least, are the shoppers who are also generous in nature and smart displayed their work using all mediums of art work.

Saturday, Aug. 10, was a nice day to enjoy the Leisure Village Art Walk. There were many beautiful paintings on display as well as an impressive display of art-enhanced gourds. Everyone also enjoyed the cookies and punch. Hope to do it again next year.

On Wednesday, Sept. 4, Village Arts held a woodworking presentation by four skilled artists carving toys, figures and other decorative objects.

Village Arts is comprised of members who paint using different mediums such as acrylics, water color, oil, graphite, pastels and pen and ink. Some members make collages using these mediums.

The painting class meets on Monday and Tuesday in the Lanai Room from 1 to 3 p.m. The drawing class meets on Friday in the Lanai Room from 1 to 3. We have workshops every Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 1 to 3 in the Lanai Room.

LAUGH LINES

Submitted by Jack Carlson, V. 6

Why being elderly has its advantages:

1. In a hostage situation you are likely to be released first.
2. People no longer view you as a hypochondriac.
3. There is nothing left to learn the hard way.
4. You no longer think of speed limits as a challenge.
5. Things you buy now are less likely to wear out.
6. You don't have to hold your stomach when you walk out in public.

Summer is over, school is in session AND grades are out !
