

two bills
St. Anne's Hill,

Chertsey.

Surrey.

My dear Sir,

I hope you can repeat the pleasure you gave us, by favoring us with a visit on Thursday next, (the 18th Inst.) and stay until the following Saturday, and that you will leave the Waterloo Station on Thursday morn^g. at 5 minutes to 10 precisely, by the train to Chertsey, and not to Staines!!

I long for the high gratification of again playing some of Beethoven's Sonatas with you;
of course you will bring your Shaving Apparatus; I suppose you

Mr George T. SMART
Violon. et compo. angl.
(1776-1867)

14. August 1859.

un soire de violon

Geo. T. Smart

are almost perfect in the art of shaving, if not, I shall be happy to give you a finishing lesson:

I have invited M.^r Joseph Bries to ^{Habert}
^{violinist (1802-86)} meet you here (he is a Brother of the late Ferdinand Bries) and have ^{violinist (1784-1838)}
requested him to call upon you to arrange about your going by the same train, he is an Amateur Violoncello player, therefore if he will bring his Instrument we can have some Pianoforte Trios —

I beg you to favor me with an early Answer 2

consenting to my request, which will give much pleasure to Lady Smart, my Daughter & Niece, they unite with me in kind regards to you. —

Believe me to be Yours very faithfully,
George. T. Smart.

To Messrs Fachin — Joseph
L S &