September 21, 1937.

Mr. William W. Murray
409 Hearst Building
San Francisco, California.

Dear Mr. Murray:

Mr. White gave me your letter of September 14th, relative to the credits which Mr. Hearst did not receive for built-in antiques

I think it would be well if you would have Miss Morgan make a list of these articles and estimate the value of them.

When such list is prepared, will you send it to me so that I can take it up from the legal angle first?

Sincerely yours,

Edward G. Woods.
