

SUMMER SESSIONS

Summer sessions are conducted at Fresno State beginning at the close of the spring semester. The second session includes classes held on the Fresno campus, at Visalia, and at other valley locations. Completion of a maximum of eleven weeks is possible in a single summer. Only one semester unit may be earned for each week of attendance except that, upon approval of the appropriate university authorities, additional units may be earned at the rate of one-half semester unit for each three units for which a student is registered in a three-week period.

The courses offered are planned to meet the requirements of baccalaureate and master's degree program, credential programs, the needs of in-service professional people, and to provide for intensive practical work in areas such as music, drama, and fields of education.

A Summer Session Bulletin is published each March. For information, write to the Dean of Continuing Education and Summer Sessions, California State University, Fresno.
