

Patricia:

Your mom says she needs to talk to you about something. However, this afternoon (until relatively late, at least) she'll be out with Mas. I guess this is one of the days she brings him in to the College. If he doesn't Tell you something of very special interest about him and his teacher at the College, I'll tell you. It is charming & very choice.

I'll be prepared - if you choose tomorrow to come over for breakfast. Might be better than Sat. as I feel obligated to go to Dr. Morris's wife's funeral service Sat. AM. at 9:30 in Willow Glen Love - Carl
