

"We are going to live an abundant life of courage, vision, worked play and by so doing we are going to live in a better, richer world!"

"So often we do not appreciate the comfort and convenience given us until we are actually deprived of them."

"A new and strange environment."

"Encountered many hardships and made numerous sacrifices."

"The brief stay at the Assembly Center was a testing ground for trials yet forthcoming."

"He came from a society where success was measured by material possessions - money - clothes or a good car." "He have acted in terms of advancing ourselves and ourselves only."

"Now material possessions money, clothes good car are no longer important. The quest for material gain now loses its former glitter."