

THE VICE PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON

August 9, 1968

Dear Jane:

I am sending to you, under separate cover, a book entitled, "A Man For All People," a pictorial biography which I hope you will find both interesting and informative. There is an old Chinese saying: "One picture is worth more than ten thousand words." Hopefully, these pictures and text will give you a more intimate glimpse of my life and my work.

We do not want to overload you with all sorts of campaign literature. We shall try to be selective, bringing to your attention only that which is relevant to and helpful in making your decision as to the nominee of our Party.

Mrs. Humphrey and I shall be looking forward to seeing you at the Convention in Chicago.

With my very best wishes.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Hubert H." in a cursive, slightly stylized script.

Hubert H. Humphrey
