

United States Senate

WASHINGTON, D.C.

January 19, 1961

Dear Mrs. Tolmach:

I hope that these few lines will convey my warm appreciation for your efforts during the campaign.

I am most grateful for the splendid enthusiasm of my associates. I am only sorry I have not been able to personally thank you for the excellent work which you performed in behalf of the Democratic ticket.

Without your unrelenting efforts and loyalty victory would not have been possible last November 8th.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely,
