I remember budgeting the finishing

Dear Mr. Hearst:

You were right in thinking me mistaken in the cost of the Botticino marble for the patio vestibule - as I realized tonight that my mind was not functioning. I remember budgeting the finishing of the main vestibule and the finishing of the patio entrance as approximately equal for marble, viz - $8000.00.

I telegraphed to the office for the figures - received just as I was leaving tonight - which are as follows -
(etc. see telegram attached.)

Yours very truly,
