Get ready for a test of Reverse 911

By Hanna Huber

Reverse 911 (R911) is a telephonic community notification system that may be used to deliver alerts when there is a threat to the health or safety of residents.

The system will be tested in May in Leisure Village.

The Ventura County

Sheriff's Office of Emergency Services may use this system to notify us of evacuation notices and possible road closures, hazardous material releases and community policing activities, such as Amber Alerts, endangered missing adults, prisoner escapes and high criminal activity.

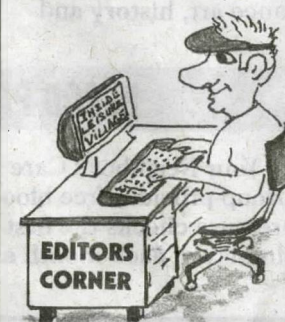

When you receive a Reverse 911 telephone message, it is important to listen carefully and follow all instructions provided with the alert.

The R911 database includes both listed and unlisted landline telephone numbers for AT&T and Verizon customers. You will need to add your telephone information to the database if you receive phone service from other providers, including cellular, Voice Over Internet Protocol (VoIP) and Teletypewriters (TTY).

Also, the system does not have the ability to disable your call intercept/blocking service.

Please see 911 on 10

All Villagers will be admitted free to the Showtyme performance by singer and dancer Tatjana on Friday, May 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the AR. Tell your friends and neighbors. Details, Page 11.

The Women's Club's annual Spring Fling Sale takes place Monday, April 6, from 3 to 7 p.m. and Tuesday, April 7, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the MPR. Details, Page 11.

An interesting article on Leisure Village's water recycling project appeared in the March 16 edition of The Ventura County Star. Detailing the cost savings of reclaimed water, Frank Royer, general manager of the Camrosa Water District, stated, "At a time when water rationing is possible and when conservation is really the key, Leisure Village is sort of on the cutting edge." In fact, Camrosa officials hope the project becomes a model for other golf courses and parks.

'Call Me Madam' opens in Village on April 22

By Cathy Friedman

The Players Guild is happy to present "Call Me Madam" April 22 through April 26. Music and lyrics are by Irving Berlin, book is by Howard Lindsay and Russel Crouse, and adaptation is by John Bravos.

John has spent many hours in order to produce a new and unusual adaptation of this play. We know you all will enjoy this new version, with lots of songs, musical productions, comedy and romance.

The show is produced by Joyce Belcher and has a wonderful cast, fantastic costumes by Millie Seidman and a great chorus. The chorus includes Annette Dahlberg, Piff De Simone, Fred Engle, Devra Please see MADAM on 9

Village resident Bill Foeller can't stop working

Bill Foeller works on one of his pet projects, the fire pit on the patio outside the Billiard Room.

By Joseph Benti

Watching Bill Foeller in action, it's easy to imagine that the motto of this Depression Era, native-born Missourian could be summed up simply as, "Show me the work."

Like so many of his generation, Foeller just can't stop working, even in retirement. Every time he turns around, he seems to find another job that needs to be done or a project that's been floating in the ether just waiting for him to start it.

His fingerprints are all over the Assembly Room, the new Village Patio by the West Parking Lot, the Walk of Celebration and bits and pieces of other odd jobs here and there. With or without the enthusiasm and help of some of "the guys," the jobs are varied: cutting and laying brick; planning, ordering and operating the sizzling new stage curtain in the AR, where he also works the lights; or installing a bench on the Walk of Life Saver Project now in Camarillo

By Bob Koster

The Life Saver Project, an emergency alert system for locating those suffering forms of dementia who wander away from caregivers or their homes, is being made widely available in Camarillo.

The project, which was announced by the Camarillo Police Department and the Camarillo Health Care District, provides participants with a non-removable bracelet containing a small radio transmitter. Using direction finders, either from helicopters, patrol cars or on foot, the Police and Citizen Patrol can track those who wander away from caregivers and return them to safety.

The Life Saver project is available only for those who have round-the-clock caregivers and who are not residents of an assisted-living facility.

There is a one-time charge of $150 for set-up and security, and a $25 monthly recurring fee. The Pleasant Valley Lions Club has helped provide support for the project.

Brochures with applications are available in the Rec Center office.

Additional information is available from:

Put fresh strawberries to good use

By Susan Amerikaner

These last few days of sweet California weather have sealed the deal: Local strawberries are here! I get mine on Saturday morning at the Camarillo Farmers Market.

Look for red, ripe ones — the ones that do not have white coloring around the top. Be a savvy consumer. Sometimes vendors put the best ones on top. So pick up the ones on top and check the ones underneath!

Never wash strawberries until you are ready to eat them, as they will get mushy. As soon as I get my fresh strawberries, I put them into a dry, covered plastic container with a paper towel on the bottom. I keep the container in the fridge, then I take out and rinse the berries when I'm ready to eat them. They will keep about a week this way.

Here is my favorite recipe for healthy and delightful strawberry salad!

Easy Strawberry and Spinach Salad

Serves 6-8

- 1 bag of baby spinach, usually pre-washed, but you can rinse again.
- 1 pint fresh strawberries, rinsed and sliced.
- 1 container of crumbled goat's cheese

Dressing

For a dressing, I like any store-bought Raspberry Vinaigrette, but a sweet French dressing goes well, too. Be sure it is chilled before using.

Preparation

Prepare the spinach and strawberries and return to the refrigerator to chill. Just before serving, toss the spinach, strawberries and goat's cheese with enough dressing just to coat the spinach leaves. Toss well to coat!

Next Driver Safety class set for May 21 in Village

Learn to breathe more easily

By Lorraine Comer

During a Better Breathing class, you can learn how to become short of breath a little less often and what to do if you do become short of breath. If you have any questions about why you get short of breath, come and let's talk about how to take care of yourself.

There are so many things we can take part in when we don't have breathing problems and so many things to enjoy living here in Leisure Village that, once again, I remind you to learn the better breathing techniques that will help you get things done a little easier.

If you need a refresher let's get together and discuss taking care of ourselves.

As you know, during each session we discuss improving our breathing patterns so that shortness of breath does not become a problem.

This message is to all those with and without breathing problems. During each of the Better Breathing sessions we discuss how to conserve energy when doing daily activities.

Hope to see all of you looking to improve your life the second Wednesday of the month at 10 a.m. in the Sun Room.

Bible study

By Norman Cannell

About 20 Leisure Village men and women meet weekly for Bible Study. This is an unusual study that does not require homework. Four local pastors rotate each week teaching on different books of the Bible. The pastors are excellent teachers.

You do not need to have any background in Bible Study. This would be the perfect place to start. We meet each Tuesday morning from 10 a.m. until 11:15. Please call Carol Cannell for the location.

The fun and joy of being a memory

By Lois Keeler

Oh, what fun I have being a memory. I can flit all around a person's brain and make them happy or sad. I can be mischievous or nice or just plain mean.

My person and I have been together a long time. We started out when she was just a baby and there were not many memories, but you would be surprised how soon I turned up. My whole life is filled with happenings, and I can bring them out at will or withhold them for as long as I want to.

For instance, the other day, my person was trying to remember the name of a musician, and I withheld any information from her. I teased her by almost remembering for a long time and then I woke her in the middle of the night with the memory. What fun!

Some memories are not so pleasant, and sometimes I keep my person from remembering them too often. That makes me feel good because they are happier when I don't come back too often with this type of memory — so, you see, I can be kind.

The good memories are the joy of my life. They bring happiness to my person and to me, too, when we share them. Last week was a great time for me. She was remembering her favorite vacations, and I could just pop in and out of places we shared.

Once in awhile I try to keep a friend of hers from remembering to bug both of them, but, of course, I can only do this when a person has shared memories with my person. It can lead to trouble though, because that person has a memory too and we are competing. The other memory usually wins out. I'm not fickle, and I'm true to my chosen one. As I said, I can be nice or mischievous and sometimes just plain mean.

One day not so very long ago, I felt a little frisky and I refused to let my friend remember for hours and hours. She was trying to remember an incident and it just wouldn't come to her. Of course, it was just me being devilish. Oh well, that's life. Sometimes it's really not my fault. My person isn't trying too hard and she just lets herself get distracted.

I'm not mean too often, but remember, I have a memory too and she can just be stubborn and not try too hard. It's so much fun when I withhold remembering from her. I know that eventually I will let her have her way, but I just can't help enjoying it.

Of course, there are those people who cannot help it when they start to forget, and this is very sad for me, but all in all, it is a good life and since I am a memory, I can remember it all.

Generally, I am able to control my person's memory, but she is tricky. I would make her think of something she needed from the kitchen and then as soon as she got there, I would go away and she would say, "What the heck am I in here to find?"

Did you know that

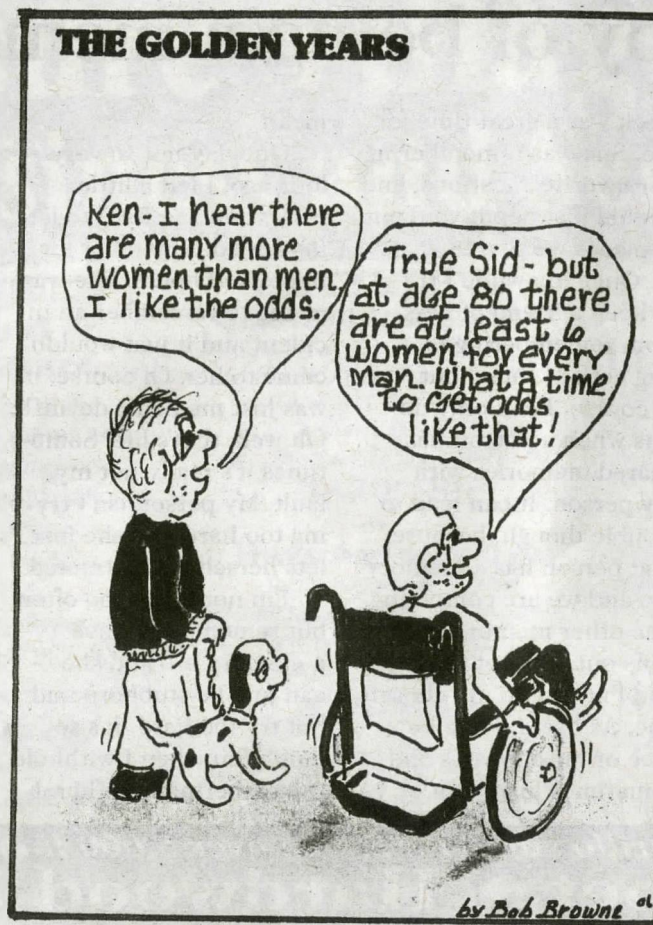

Jerry Cohen, V. 25, after retirement, was an extra in the movies, working with Warren Beatty, Madonna, George Burns, Jerry Orbach and many others?

Lucy Fiore, V. 40, at age 16 boarded a bus with her two younger brothers and was followed to the beach by a stranger? She ended up marrying him (Nick) 61 years ago.

Cathy Friedman, V. 35, had an all-expense paid trip to Hawaii, met Tiger Joe Marsh, a wrestler, had lunch on a mine sweeper, attended a party for an admiral, toured a submarine, visited Pearl Harbor, and took hula lessons?

Lois Keeler, V. 16, watched as her daughters appeared at the Hollywood Bowl, singing with Benny Goodman's band in the 1980s? They also appeared at Carnegie Hall, the Playboy Jazz Festival and all over the world for 2 1/2 years.

Irv Jacobs, V. 6, graduated DeWitt Clinton High School in the Bronx with John Fiore, brother of resident Nick Fiore in June 1946? On a visit with Nick and Lucy a few years back, John and Irv had a mini reunion reminiscing about the old days.

MEMORY

That was great until she started making notes all the time. She would write down her needs, and that took away part of the fun; however, she would forget where she had written it down. Then, she solved that by keeping a notebook right by her side and writing on that. Foiled again! Soon she was keeping notes to remind her to keep notes.

Then there was that alphabet thing. When she had trouble remembering a name or a place she would go down the alphabet slowly pronouncing each part of a letter like Pa, pi, pe, po and so forth until it jogged me and I would have to respond. I never said I was perfect.

All in all, it's a pretty good life, but I'm sure she will come up with something to spoil it for me. She can be a little devilish too, but memory is a big part of life, and I'm here to stay. Woe is her.

New type of reverse mortgage more flexible

By Sharron Parker
Troop Real Estate, Inc.

In addition to the standard reverse mortgage, there is a new way for homeowners who are 62 or older to purchase a retirement home. It is a reverse mortgage for purchase.

This new product, called The Home Equity Conversion Mortgage (HECM) For Purchase, is an FHA-insured reverse mortgage, enabling senior homebuyers to purchase a new primary residence and obtain a reverse mortgage in a simultaneous transaction with no monthly mortgage payments. This new program allows buyers to combine reverse mortgage proceeds with a down payment to purchase a new home.

Seniors can benefit from this exciting new program by purchasing a primary residence home without taking on a new monthly mortgage payment and without paying all cash.

Requirements include that this must be the buyer's primary residence and must be occupied by the buyer within 60 days from the closing date. The construction must be complete and habitable prior to the loan application. Property types not eligible include co-ops and second homes; however, eligible types are single family, HUD-approved condos, planned unit developments (PUDs) like Leisure Village, and two- to four-unit properties (one must be owner-occupied) and manufactured homes built after June 15, 1976.

Hebrew lessons offered in Village

By Bonnie London

Shalom Chaverim! A lively group of English speakers who want to read Hebrew but have never had the opportunity to learn, or who have forgotten what was learned decades ago, are now in the process of mastering the Hebrew alphabet, vowels and sounds.

Our very able and patient teacher, Ben Racowsky, meets with the class at 1 p.m. every Tuesday afternoon in the Sun Room for an hour of Hebrew language instruction. The emphasis so far has been on learning the letters and vowels and to sound out words.

The next step, highly anticipated by the budding linguists, is to "graduate" to a textbook on modern Hebrew, "A First Year Course in Conversation, Reading and Grammar."

Call Ben at 445-8284 for additional information.

Where's Grandma?

The old rocking chair will be empty today
For Grandma is no longer in it.
She's off in her car to her office or shop
And buses around every minute.

No one can shove Grandma back on the shelf
She is versatile, forceful, dynamic.
That isn't a pie in the oven you know,
Her baking today is ceramics.

You won't see her trundling off early to bed
From a place in a warm chimney nook.
Her typewriter ticker clops through the night
For Grandma is writing a book.

Our heroine never allows backward glancing looks
To slow up her steady advancing.
She can't tend the babies for you anymore
Because Grandma is taking up dancing.

She isn't content with crumbs of old thoughts
With meager and secondhand knowledge.
So don't bring your mending for Grandma to do.
Grandma has gone back to college.

Some things kids today simply don't know

Submitted by Bill Crome

The kids who are starting college this fall were born in 1989.

They have always had an answering machine.

They have always had cable.

Jay Leno has always been on "The Tonight Show."

Popcorn has always been microwaved.

They don't know who Mork was or where he came from.

They never heard "Where's the beef?" or "I'd walk a mile for a Camel."

They don't have a clue how to use a typewriter.

Guill, Buster Hayslett, Elise Perlmutter and Ann Steigerwald.

The cast and chorus are working very hard to give you the best production of this play. Here are some of the songs: "It's A Lovely Day," "Marrying For Love," "You're Just In Love" and other popular songs. You can't ask for anything more.

Tickets have already gone on sale. However, I'm sure there are good seats left. You can't go wrong. Tickets are only $8 and are available every Monday and Friday from 9 to 11 a.m. and every Wednesday from 1 to 3 p.m. in the lobby of the AR.

By the way, have you checked out the window in the atrium? It's awesome! All the credit goes to Millie Seidman. Thanks, Millie! Also thanks to our script person and stage manager, Mary Jane Porter, for all her hard work.

Mark your calendars to see "Call Me Madam" starting April 22 through April 26.

Celebration, which he did by himself.

They all add up to Bill Foeller's current line of work, volunteering to get things done in Leisure Village, where he's lived for five years.

Bill's been on one job or another since he was 11 years old, when his grandfather, his surrogate father — Bill's parents died when he was still an infant — enlisted him and Bill's uncle to start building the family home in Wentzville, Mo. Three years later, the job was done, and the Foeller family added a budding Jack-of-all-building-trades to the world.

By age 20, Bill was a recruit at the Marine Corps boot camp in San Diego, which he thought would be the jumping-off point to seeing the rest of the world. He never left the place, spending his entire enlistment piloting and maintaining Ducks — the Corps' amphibious vehicles — and also driving jeeps. Three years later, he was more than qualified to call himself "mechanic" on his resumé.

When Bill left the Corps, he did not leave California. He and his first wife began a catering truck business and grew his family: three children, six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. His first marriage did not last. His second, to Sandy, continues to thrive after 40 years, "happily," they both add.

The list of Bill's skills is impressive. He installed oxygen systems for underground missile silos and partnered in a construction company, where Sandy handled the books. Then Bill settled down professionally in the Pleasant Valley School District. For 25 years, he worked as a custodian, and then became a mechanic, a bus driver and a teacher of other drivers.

During much of that time, Bill and Sandy lived in Oxnard. They laugh as they recall how they ignored her son's advice to check out a place nearby where he lived, called Leisure Village. When they finally did visit in 2003, they were hooked, and shortly after established their happy home in Village 9.

After his volunteer duties, Bill lists golf, bowling and billiards as his sports, the latter two providing some income back in the old days when he used to play for money — so, be warned.

When not working, Bill and Sandy love to travel. Their favorite destination is Branson, Mo., to see their favorite country music performers. Recently, they went by Amtrak from Camarillo to Little Rock, Ark., and from there to Tennessee for two big visits: the Ryman in Nashville, home of "The Grand Old Opry," then to Memphis and Graceland, the home of Elvis, Sandy's favorite performer. Bill likes Doris Day.

Lucky for us, he also likes to keep busy volunteering to improve the Village.

CLUB NEWS

Women's Club

By Eldora Barton

April will be an active month. The week of April 6 will be our annual Spring Fling Sale, showcasing the many items the Workshop has been making these past weeks, from new creative items to old favorites — kitchen accessories, baby clothes and quilts, all kinds of knit and crocheted good things, crafts, decorations and jewelry. There will be quite an array.

The Spring Fling takes place in the MPR with evening hours on Monday, April 6, from 3 p.m. until 7 p.m., and on Tuesday, April 7, from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m.

In addition to the MPR sales, see the new selections of yardage in the Sewing Room for the Spring Fling available for 50 cents a yard. You can't beat the price. Come see the beautiful, interesting fabrics Celia and her crew have been acquiring.

Look forward to the month of May and the Women's Club Fashion Show. It will be especially nice, as the past presidents of the club will be honored. If you have any pictures or remembrances of the "old times," please contact Joyce Baker. This show is always a special event and many plans are in progress.

In order to accommodate all those who wish to come and in order to assure seating, there will be tickets purchased in advance this year. The charge for members will be $5, and for non-members $7. More information on acquiring tickets will be announced nearer the event. Damon's and Draper's will show their stylish clothes with commentary. Our own members will be modeling. Check out what your friends will be wearing.

Our ongoing activities for April will be See's Candy sales, Food Share non-perishable item donations and our school-assist program in bringing Campbell's soup labels and Box Top Education logos from boxed foods. Come join in.

L.V. New York Club

By Gerry Schulman

The Dean Martin Roast we recently saw brought back many fond memories and was an absolute riot. We all were laughing throughout the entire evening. Sid Sharron and Harry Rosenberg did it again. Great work.

The May show will feature Joey Aaron, who sings and plays the guitar. Joey has appeared in many different venues, and it is a joy to listen to his performance. Please come for an enjoyable evening.

We are now collecting dues for the year 2009. They cover the period from January to December. The dues give you year-round entertainment and enable you to attend a number of members-only events.

The New York Club is one of the premier clubs in the Village. Let's keep it that way. We need your participation.

Showtyme

By Gerry Schulman

The show on Friday, March 13, featuring Beverly Wright, was a delight. We had a great time with the sing-a-long part of the program. Thank you, Phil Kamens. You do one heck of a job month after month.

For Friday, April 10, our featured entertainer will be Tony Russell. Tony is a singing comedian. Tony has appeared in many movies, TV shows and on the stage. When you see him you will recognize him. He has a great voice and he will keep you laughing with his comedy. Do not miss this delightful evening in the AR.

For the May meeting, on May 8, we are going to try something new for one time only. We will have the wonderful performer, singer and dancer, Tatjana. For this show only, we would like to introduce our club to as many people as possible. Therefore, this show will be free for members and non-members. Please tell your friends and neighbors about this offer, and let's try to generate as much excitement as possible.

Remember: We are the pre-eminent club in the Village, and let's keep it that way. For further information, please call Phil Kamens at 388-9857. If you haven't signed up for 2009, please do so at the meeting.

The annual dues are $7 and cover the period January to December. Membership entitles you to live entertainment throughout the year and attendance to various member-only events.

Lillian has moved out of the Village. Departures from Leisure Village are common, but at exercise we will miss the Mankoffs uncommonly much. We will raise a bagel toast to them at the members-only breakfast in May and recall how much they contributed to our Village.

Milt would tout the benefits of the regimen, but what he may not have mentioned is possible addiction, with withdrawal symptoms on the weekends. Ready to try? It's Monday through Friday from 8:30 to 9 a.m.

Woodshop

By Chuck Russell

The Woodshop is one of the many recreation facilities in LV and is available to residents with woodworking experience. Contact Sid Alweiss, Woodshop Committee chairman, at 482-5341 for information on becoming a shop key holder.

LVA rule and regulation 9.16 (shown on pages 105 and 106 of the Community Directory) exists to assure that the Woodshop is a safe and enjoyable place to work. Anyone interested in using the Woodshop must learn the safe and proper use of tools. Various sources of information are available for those interested in becoming a woodworker. Magazines and books are available in stores and the library. The Internet offers numerous links to woodworking sites. Many of the sites offer video demonstrations of equipment and various tips. The information is interesting, but it does not replace hands-on training and experience.

The Woodshop Committee cannot provide woodworking classes; however, classes and equipment demonstrations are available nearby. One source is a business in Ventura. The Woodcraft Co., at 3860 E. Main St., has classes and sells tools and supplies. Call the store at 805-658-9663 or look at their Web site, www.stores.woodcraft.com/ventura, for information.

You do not need to learn woodworking to fix items. The Woodshop Committee volunteers will do that for you. Repair service is offered between 10 a.m. and noon Tuesday and Wednesday mornings. The volunteers consider every project an enjoyable way to help neighbors, and they do not charge for the services. Donations for materials and supplies are gladly accepted.

The Woodshop Committee needs more qualified woodworkers willing to help with projects for LV residents on Tuesday or Wednesday mornings. If you like working with tools and can spare a couple of hours on Tuesday or Wednesday, please contact Sid Alweiss at 482-5341.

Writers Club

By Lois Keeler

For the first time ever we had 22 in attendance.

It was great! The stories were varied and enjoyed by all.

As I have said before, we want writers of all kinds, and that is what we are getting. Some still think they are not writers, but they are. Anyone who can put a story on paper is a writer. Every approach is a learning process for the others.

This time we had several stories written as a dialogue, and they were very interesting. Some of our members are doing a bit of self-publishing, and it is wonderful to see them in print. The process has become a real do and not too costly. Some members are so good they should really be published, but it's a difficult process and sometimes not worth the

The Booster Club has two missions: not only to bring our community together with unique and fun events, but also to raise money for Leisure Village projects outside of the LV annual budget.

Our first event will be the "Luau of the Century" on April 5, with the traditional island banquet and outstanding professional

L.V. Bowling League

By Marty Simons

The season continues to roll along nicely — pardon the pun.

Week 23 saw some real excitement as Jim Dalton bowled a 265 and a 213 while on his way to a 650 scratch series. Nice going, Jim! Ray Cass had a 225, Jerry Rosen a 210 and Al Schuster a 201. Something in the water? Side pot winners were Jerry Rosen, Jim Dalton and Don Laird for the men, and Betty Herrmann, Shirley McQuivey and Joyce Belcher for the ladies.

Week 24 had Les Galvin with a 247 and a 219, Bert Stone a 215 and Al Schuster a 205. Side pot winners were Phil Kamens, Les Galvin and Irv Cohen for the men, and Sandy Rosenthal, Helen Koehn and Cathy Friedman for the ladies.

This was also the final week of the Ladder Tournament. Winners were, for Group A, Stan Feldman; Group B, Harry Lampert; Group C, Ernie Slabotsky; Group D, Cathy Friedman; and Group E, Gloria Page. Special kudos to Harry Lampert (93) and Ernie Slabotsky (94). Gotta be the water.

Week 25 had Herb Fogel with a 215, Stan Feldman a 214 and Jim Dalton a 202. Side pot winners were Mickey Newman, Herb Fogel and Stan Feldman for the men, and Ruthy Levine, Lucy Fiore and Clarice Shapiro for the ladies.

Week 26 had only one 200 game, a 237 by Les Galvin. Side pot winners were Alan Singer, Ted Ryan and Les Galvin for the men, and Lucy Fiore, Claudia Roberts and Sybil Moore for the ladies.

With the season ending April 24, the rest of us had better find that water.

Watch for these trips: Laughlin Aquarius, Showtime Cabaret, Glendale Centre Theater for "Oklahoma!" Laughlin Riverside, Monterey and Hearst Castle, the Getty Center, Chumash Casino and the Hollywood Bowl.

Single Active Seniors

By Zelda Greentree

We'd like to know you better, and also let you know us better, so come to the "News & Views" meeting on April 7 when our discussion will be "You and Us." To start with, those who feel comfortable will tell a little or a lot about themselves and their background. We are such a diverse group of people. Remember: Tuesday, April 7, at 7 p.m. in the MPR.

Next we have a very interesting program called, "50 Years in the Movie Business," given by Bob Daley, who is the husband of Valerie Daley, our folk dance teacher. These are the very same 50 years we have all grown up with, so it will be that much more relevant. This meeting will take place on Tuesday, April 14, at 7 p.m. in the MPR.

Our movie for April is also a winner. Come to the Annex on April 21 at 7 p.m. to see "Fargo," starring Frances McDormand and William H. Macy.

The Manipulators will play in the Annex on April 28. Keep looking for our posters and TV notices about our activities. Come to our events. You'll be happy you did! And, oh yes, for $5, you too can become a member.

The Mavericks

What a great time we all had in March dancing at our DJ Country Western Record Hop. The yummy desserts and the great music were enjoyed by everyone.

We are having a Game Night on Saturday, April 18, at 6:30 p.m. in the Billiards Room and on the Village Patio. The club will be furnishing pizza, and everyone is invited to bring snacks and BYOB. Please join us for a fun evening.

Village Painters

By Aurelie Zachary

The highlight of our March 4 meeting was President Marge Curry's speech about the mystery of the secret code in the days of slavery used by slaves who ran away from their masters. They devised a method of giving messages to each other by designs in quilt patterns. She had various samples of the designs.

She also showed us a family heirloom quilt that was handmade in 1840.

Already started are paddle tennis instructions on Mondays from 10 to 11:30 a.m. and Sundays from 3 to 4:30 p.m. We are encouraging our "job-holding" players to come out and enjoy Sundays. Regular playing times are listed on the Racquet Club bulletin board.

On March 28, we held a table tennis (ping pong) exhibition in the "Paddle Palace." Our men and women players provided instructions and demonstrations.

Saturday, April 25, the second R.C. Exhibition is paddle tennis at 10 a.m. Playing demonstrations and instructions will show the skills and enjoyment paddle tennis provides. Refreshments will be served. Come out and join the fun!

STROLLING

Strolling down Memory Lane: Los Angeles dance venues

By Lois Keeler

It's been quite awhile since I did a "Strolling" column. I have had several requests for another one, so here goes.

Sometime back, I reported about the various dance venues in the Los Angeles area and a couple of months ago someone sent me a newspaper article about where people used to dance in Los Angeles. I hope some of you find this interesting.

Some of you will remember the old Palomar, the most popular spot for quite some time. I grew up in the swing era and spent many a night dancing and watching those wonderful bands. Benny Goodman made his debut there in 1935. All the great swing bands played there, and I remember one night I stood in front of the bandstand watching Gene Krupa on the drums having not a care in the world and knowing I would be grounded for getting in too late. It didn't matter!

Unfortunately the Palomar burnt to the ground in 1939 and we were without a large dance pavilion until the Palladium was built in 1940. Seems like a short time, but for all of us it was a lifetime. Also the prices were a little bit higher. At the Palomar it only cost 40 cents for admission and opening night at the Palladium it was $5.00 a head, but that included dinner. I haven't been able to find out what the prices were later, but I know it was much more than at the Palomar.

All the great bands showed up there, including Jimmy and Tommy Dorsey, Artie Shaw, Harry James, Les Brown and Woody Herman, just to name a few. Glenn Miller had one of the biggest openings of all. I remember doing the Bunny Hop, the Lindy, which became the Jitterbug, The Big Apple and the Dipsy Doodle. What a swinging time we had!

Some of the other places where we went dancing were the Wilshire Bowl, Slapsie Maxie's, the Garden Room, The Cinegrill at the Beverly Wilshire Hotel, the Driftwood Room at the Miramar in Santa Monica and sometimes the Biltmore Bowl and the lively music of Phil Harris.

Of course, these were much smaller venues, but we loved them. Sometimes we ventured out to Ciro's or the Mocambo for a very special night. Remember the Aragon in Santa Monica? It had "Swingshift Dances" for people who worked the 4 p.m. to midnight shift at the aircraft factories. The Aragon sometimes alternated Tommy Dorsey and Bob Crosby from 1 to 5 a.m.

And let's not forget Frank Sebastian's Cotton Club, which later became Meadowlark and then the Casa Manana.

Hope this brings back some memories. Please let me know what you would like to hear about. Call me, Lois Keeler, at 383-0651. Hope to hear from you.

Tickets for the annual Pancake Breakfast go on sale April 27 in the Recreation Center lobby. The tickets are $4.00, same as last year.

This month's dine-out will be Tuesday, April 7, at 5 p.m., in Ventura Harbor at the "Greek at the Harbor" restaurant. Our host will be Ron and Sharon Loney. Call them at 987-8292 to sign up.

The next club meeting will be Tuesday, April 21, at 7:30 p.m. Our guest speaker will be CS RV Corp. in Oxnard. They will talk about maintenance and the services they offer. It should be very informative.

As a reminder, the club dues of $5 is due. Less than 50 percent from last year have renewed their club dues. We can't all have memory loss at the same time!
