Very nice job. Jared Carranza.

00:39:17:15 - 00:39:22:24

Don't forget, there's lots of activities going on. There are four stages. You can pick up your fiance, this fabulous, complimentary magazine at the information booth. It'll tell you what's going on, and they'll give you a lot of information about what the American GI Forum does. They predict they gather money for scholarships for needy students. And it's obviously it's because of their efforts that we have this event today, the Cinco de Mayo.

00:43:45:29 - 00:43:51:29

One I'm Yolanda Randolph and what we're we're doing today here for the September 16 celebration, which is the great movement of independence 100 and some years ago in all the new world. And a part of that independence is that we all vote and we're here. I'm here trying to get people registered to vote because there are a number of issues that are real important this November.

00:47:51:18 - 00:48:17:16

Speaker 6

Two of them are Pete Caprio is running in District three and George Shirakawa is running District seven. And there is the two term limit measure which will get more of our young people an opportunity to serve in our council in political office, especially with two term limit limits, the term of office of city council people to two consecutive terms, and now the council people stay in there until they fall over.

00:48:17:16 - 00:48:44:01

Speaker 6

Dad. And that's not good government elections as well as as the two term limit. And incidentally, on the 23rd tember, there's going to be a chicken dinner at the Italian Gardens. It's only $5. It's from 12 to 6. The idea is to get people there to get literature. So we tell all our friends and everybody to vote. It'll also be literature for the candidates.

00:48:44:03 - 00:49:15:02

Speaker 6

So please come and let's get everybody registered to vote.
