

Ch.A.L.E.
(Chicanas Africanas Latinas Empowered) of the Latino Center
presents:

Poetry Reading
by Michele M. Serros

former SMC student and author of

CHICANA FALSA

and other stories of death, identity, and Oxnard

"Chicana Falsa is fierce: battling the racist realities found in academic learning facilities, West L.A. women's gyms, the dry cleaners and Ralphs supermarket."

-SMC student

"...an excellent and necessary expansion of the literary canon of American women."

-Michele T. Clinton, author of High Blood/Pressure

"Chicana Falsa rings true! 'Attention Shoppers!': read it and listen."

-Marisela Norte

a "new and important poet"

-Los Angeles Poetry Festival

Tuesday, November 29, 1994

Santa Monica College

Art Building 214

11:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.