International Political Economy

For details about the Minor in International Political Economy, see listing in the Department of Economics.

Note: The minors also require 2.0 GPA and 6 upper-division units in residence.

United States Constitution Requirement

The United States Constitution (including California State Constitution and local government) requirement for graduation will be fulfilled by PLSI 2 or 101. No other political science class fulfills the United States Constitution requirement.

Advanced Placement Exam Policy

Advanced Placement Examinations for American Government cannot be counted to fulfill the American government General Education requirement; 3 units of elective may be granted.

Credential Program

See the Social Sciences credential adviser, Social Science Building, Room 118, for advising, and refer to Secondary Teaching Credential under Social Sciences Programs (see page 484).

Master of Arts Degree in International Relations

The program leading to a Master of Arts degree in International Relations is designed chiefly, but not exclusively, for students preparing for careers involved with global and international politics (e.g., political aspects of: international business, agriculture, health services, education, U.S. foreign service, etc.). The interdisciplinary nature of the program is derived from: (1) the five seminars in political science each of which requires the student to master concepts and materials from other disciplines closely related to global politics, and from (2) the 9-unit component of the program which
