Place nothing to do on the train I made a stop at the green house Am all glass house always looks terribly so I suggest that we build the house of concrete for at least one half the way up. The rest can be green glass w/ the taffany type with gilt iron rails or to hold it together
The front lobby and dressing room

To need only be 12 or 14 ft high. Thus

Street and No.

Place

There could be a terrace above on top of these inside the green house overlooking the pool we reached by steps from the lobby There would be steps down from the lobby (big broad ones) to the broad wall which would go south to the pool (20' broad) and across the pool by a bridge. There would be a ten foot walk around the pool. South of the pool the twenty foot walk would continue

To

Street and No.

Place

To the suite of rooms at the south of the building. Broad steps would go up to the lobby of this suite or to a big living room looking back onto the pool and front on to the sea. There could be a terrace above this suite as above the entrance lobby and dressing rooms or ~~perhaps~~ perhaps other rooms with balconies looking onto the pool etc. That depends on how much space we use. The terrace probably ~~best~~ best. Sincerely W. K. Heath
