Dear Mrs. Tolmach:

I reached Jack Foisie last night shortly after I had talked with you. Jack said he thought he had reached an understanding that no material would be used in an interview which was not reflected in public meetings, statements or press reports. I reaffirmed the necessity for protecting investigative material and the sources of such material, and Jack said he concurred in this completely.

Just as soon as we receive the tape recording from you, we will have it duplicated and a copy provided to Senator Engle.

I certainly appreciate your helpfulness and cooperation in our preliminary investigation. Please let me know if there is any way I can reciprocate.

Sincerely,

Jack Howard
