

project.

I'm sure you are aware of our national organization called the Japanese American Citizens League and its weekly publication, the Pacific Citizen. I'm also sure that you are aware of a traveling exhibit produced by the California Historical Society which is a collection of powerful photographs showing various stages of pre-evacuation days with