Present: Bagheri, Boylen, Elliott, Fischer (non-voting), Hammaker, Kreta (non-voting), Nix, Perkins, Sekelick, Viargues (for Mampaey), Stover

Absent: None

- The meeting was called to order by Chairperson Bob Hammaker. The minutes of January 23, 2001 were approved with one correction. In item 11/00-23 GMDSS, the vote was to assign 2 units to DL 400 (the lecture) and 2 units to the lab for a total of 4 units effective with the next catalog. Additional action was taken on the following items:
- 01/01-27 SOC 225 Ocean Politics In a unanimous vote, the committee recommends adoption of this new General Studies course for 3 units. It will be a social science elective with EGL 100 and sophomore standing as pre-requisites. The Curriculum Committee recommends further investigation of this course by the Business Department for its possible merits as a replacement for a similar course.
- 01/01-28 EGL 210 Autobiography/Biography In a unanimous vote, the committee recommends adoption of this new General Studies course for 3 units. It will be an elective English course that satisfies a humanities elective with EGL 200 as a prerequisite effective with the next catalog. This is a service-learning course that requires a minimum of ten (10) hours of local community service.
- 01/01-29 SOC 120 Community Service Learning In a unanimous vote, the committee recommends adoption of this new course for 3 units. It will be an elective social science course with no prerequisites that can fulfill a social science requirement effective with the next catalog. This is a service-learning course that requires thirty (30) hours of community service.
- 01/01-31 Advance Writing for Business and Engineering This item (a new course) was tabled and returned to the General Studies Department for further review.
- 11/00-19 CEP 270 FET Co-op I In a unanimous vote, the committee recommends adoption of this new course that will separate it from ME Co-op I (CEP 250). It will be a graded 8-unit course effective with the next catalog.
- 11/00-20 CEP 370 FET Co-op II In a unanimous vote, the committee recommends adoption of this new course that will separate it from ME Co-op II (CEP 350). It will be a graded 8-unit course effective with the next catalog.

- 02/01-01 NSC 250 Midshipmen Naval Training Cruise In a unanimous vote, the committee recommends increasing the units in this course from 2 to 8 to reflect the student workload.
- 01/01-30 ECO 210 The Economics of Globalization In a unanimous vote, the committee recommends adoption of this new course for 3 units. It is an elective course that can meet a social science requirement (not humanities), and is effective with the next catalog.
- The committee recommends changing the lab designations to the lecture course number plus the letter “L” contingent upon its accommodation by the computer software system in the Student Records Office.
- The meeting was adjourned at 12:38 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Albert T. Perkins, Recorder
