OVERSEAS PROGRAM

The California State Colleges offer academic year programs of study at a number of distinguished universities abroad. For 1969-70 the cooperating universities are: University of Aix-Marseille, France; Free University of Berlin and University of Heidelberg, Germany; The Hebrew University of Jerusalem and Tel Aviv University, Israel; University of Florence, Italy; Waseda University, Tokyo, Japan; University of Granada and University of Madrid, Spain; University of Stockholm and University of Uppsala, Sweden; National University, Taiwan. Academic work successfully completed at the cooperating universities abroad may be applied toward the degree requirements of the college in accordance with college regulations.

A selection among applicants from all California State Colleges is made on the basis of academic, linguistic, and personal qualifications. The criteria are:

- (a) Upper division or graduate standing by the beginning of the academic year abroad;
- (b) Academic achievement;
- (c) Proficiency in the language of instruction;
- (d) Faculty recommendations.

Cost to the student includes round trip transportation from San Francisco to the host university, room and board for the academic year, and medical insurance. Incidental expenses, individual travel, etc., must be borne by the participant. In 1969-70 these costs are: France, Germany, Spain, $2,300; Israel, Taiwan, $2,000; Italy, Japan, Sweden, $2,500. Payments may be scheduled throughout the year.

Programs in Israel, Italy, Japan, Sweden, and Taiwan do not require previous linguistic preparation; applicants for all other programs must demonstrate adequate facility in the language of instruction at the host university.

Application for the 1970-71 academic year should be made early in the fall semester 1969. Detailed information may be obtained at the office of the Dean of Students, or by writing to the Office of International Programs, The California State Colleges, 1600 Holloway Avenue, San Francisco, California 94132.
