

Average Daily Population - 214 Japanese internees
Origin Of Evacuees Received - Arizona Military Area #1
Relocation Center Transfers - 246 to Colorado River.

MERCED CENTER - Location at Merced, California

Occupied - 133 Days from May 6, 1942 to September 15, 1942

Maximum Population - 4508 on June 3, 1942

Average Daily Population - 3,762 Japanese internees

Origin Of Evacuees Received - The north portion of the San Francisco bay area

Relocation Center Transfers - 4,492 to Granada, 32 to Tule Lake and 3 to Colorado River.

MARYSVILLE CENTER - Location at Marysville, California

Occupied - 53 Days from May 8, 1942 to June 29, 1942

Maximum Population - 2451 on June 2, 1942

Average Daily Population - 1,760 Japanese internees

Origin Of Evacuees Received - The Placer and Sacramento areas of California

Relocation Center Transfers - 2,453 to Tule Lake.

PINEDALE CENTER - Location northeast of Fresno, California

Occupied - 78 Days from May 7, 1942 to July 23, 1942

Maximum Population - 4,792 on June 29, 1942

Average Daily Population - 3,690 Japanese internees

Origin Of Evacuees Received - Pierce and King Counties of Washington and the Hood River area of Oregon

Relocation Center Transfers - 4,012 to Tule Lake, 697 to Colorado River and 41 to Gila River.

POMONA CENTER - Location at Pomona, California

Occupied - 110 Days from May 7, 1942 to August 24, 1942

Maximum Population - 5,434 on July 20, 1942

Average Daily Population - 4,755 Japanese internees

Origin Of Evacuees Received - Los Angeles, San Francisco and Santa Clara, California

Relocation Center Transfers - 5,261 to Heart Mountain, 11 to Manzanar, 9 to Colorado River and 1 to Tule Lake.

PORTLAND CENTER - Location at Portland, Oregon

Occupied - 132 Days From May 6, 1942 to September 10, 1942

Maximum Population - 3,676 on June 6, 1942

Average Daily Population - 2,969 Japanese internees

Origin Of Evacuees Received - Multnomah County and the Western Counties of Oregon. Also the central area of Washington