PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

On January 26, 1971, Professor Carlos Lozano was the keynote speaker at Porterville High School's "Brotherhood Week" program. In addition to talking about Cal State Bakersfield, he addressed himself to the role of education for both the Anglo and the Minority student. Professor Lozano received a most heartwarming ovation from the some 1644 students after his talk, which covered such topics as justice, morality, communication, drug abuse, and the role of the younger generation in the fashioning of a new world. Following his talk, he met with small groups of individuals from the high school.

Mr. Armand Vorce' and Mr. Jack Behrens presented a lecture on music appreciation to a group of 22 elementary school children. The lecture was viewed Saturday, February 5, 1971, on channel 23, Bakersfield, on Miss Beverly Ross' classroom. Mr. Vorce' and Mr. Behrens were also judges at the Music Teachers' Association of California, Junior Bach Festival on Sunday, January 31, 1971.

Professor Carlos Lozano has had two articles accepted for inclusion in a Commemorative Value on the work of the professor, novelist, poet, short story writer, critic, and literary historian Fernando Alegria. The titles are:

"The Epithet as Praise" (draws on La Celestina and Don Quijote)
"Self-Definition, Commitment, and Identification in the Works of Fernando Alegria" (article has already appeared in literary reviews here and abroad, as well as in two books)
