

STUDENT ABSENCES

Students are expected to maintain regular attendance at classes. Extended absences (more than one week) due to illness, death in the immediate family, or other extraordinary emergencies, should be reported immediately to the Counseling Office which will notify the faculty concerned. When any absence occurs, however, the student should contact the instructors involved concerning the possibility of making up the work missed.

STUDENT HOUSINGCollege Residence Halls

The college has three modern residence halls in operation. Homan Hall houses 208 men, and Graves and Baker Halls each house 208 women. The halls are fire-proof, air-conditioned buildings having study rooms, lounges, recreation rooms, and laundry facilities. Students are housed two to a room. The rooms are attractively furnished, and provide adequate study and living facilities. Linen service is provided, but students are required to furnish their own blankets and towels. Food service is provided by the college cafeteria. For information on residence hall costs, see Fees and Expenses.

Each hall is under the supervision of a well qualified head resident and six student assistants. Students are encouraged to take part in group living through experience in self-government and by taking part in the social and intramural programs. Women living in the halls are required to observe the residence rules of the Associated Women Students.

Further information and applications for reservations may be obtained by writing to the Student Housing Office. Students who are applying for accommodations in the halls must also file an application for admission to the college. Conditional admission can usually be granted on the basis of a transcript of all college or high school work completed to date. For further information on admissions see Regulations and Procedures.

Approved Off-Campus Housing for Women

The Student Housing Office maintains a list of approved rooming and boarding houses which have been inspected and meet the college housing standards for women. Women living in approved housing will be required to observe the residence rules of the Associated Women Students. Arrangements for living accommodations should be made well in advance of registration. If women secure housing not on the approved list, the parent or guardian will be asked to assume full responsibility.

Off-Campus Housing

The Student Housing Office maintains a file of available student housing as a service to students seeking living accommodations. Students are advised to make arrangements for housing as early as possible before registration. Off-campus living accommodations are provided by private homes in the area, with a limited number offering room and board. A large number of apartments are available in the area adjacent to the campus. The Housing Office will also attempt to help students interested in sharing apartments to get in touch with other students interested in similar living accommodations.

Although the college does not supervise off-campus housing, Fresno State College students living in private homes, apartments, and other types of student housing are expected to conduct themselves in a manner which will enable them to maintain desirable relations with their landlords and their neighbors.

Housing for Married Students

The college does not maintain housing facilities for married students and their families. However, some low-cost housing is available to married students and their families through application to the Housing Authorities of the City and County of Fresno, 2520 E. Clinton Avenue, Fresno 3, California.
