Dear Mr. Hearst:

On the Hill Tuesday I found the Celestial ceiling really advanced, and handsome. Mr. Solon's design is being carried out by Mr. Gyorgy's men.

Another full crew (six men) has been put on the Roman pool and I left Mr. Solon with very well arighted ideas so that I do not think he will have the impulse to undo anything this week.

Mr. Loorz is pouring the concrete in-door stairs on the east side and will continue on with the concrete walls of the shower rooms on this side.

Your suggestion as to ceiling panel led to a small inspiration that may make the lower North Duplex much pleasanter, and as it involved little expense, have ventured on it.

The new mantels have given a fine solution for the South Lower Duplex, - they give us lots to work with. I've been quite overwhelmed with the possibilities of these last carloads.

Personally, am still a turbaned Turk for some obscure reason, but have lots more strength, and energy.

Yours truly,

JM:F

I am not but Mr. Solon's fulcrum -
