

College budget cut $500,000

By TONY MIKSAK

More than half a million dollars has been sliced from the proposed 1965-66 state support budget for SF State, President Paul Dodd revealed yesterday.

The President called the slice 'exceedingly serious' in its consequences for the college. The cut if adopted by the legislature would represent a 4.27 per cent drop from SF State's present net support budget.

Dodd discovered the startling slice in a galley proof of SF State's section of Governor Edmund Brown's proposed "bare bones" budget.

"The cut has taken place in spite of previous assurances given by the State Department of Finance that full consultation and deliberation would occur first," Dodd stated.

Little time remains to rectify the budget cut by discussion with Governor Brown. He plans to submit his entire budget to the legislature within the next few days.

Other state colleges will be affected in varying degrees, Dodd said.

Late last week Chancellor of the State Colleges Glenn S. Dumke met with all 18 state college presidents and discussed a possible budget cut. All expressed "grave concern," Dodd stated.

"We are united in our desire to secure proper reinvestment of our fair measure of support," Dodd said. Dodd believes the Board of Trustees may make a public announcement on the Governor's budget at its meeting this week in Los Angeles.

"Our lifeblood is affected by this cut," Dodd said. The support budget determines the size of classes, course offerings, and through faculty salaries the quality of new appointments.

"We simply can't continue to provide a high quality program," Dodd said, "without the year by year support which we need and expect to receive."

The slice came in the wake of a charge of "gross mismanagement" by the state college administration alleged by state assemblyman William F. Stanton.

In a statement released Friday, Stanton charged a "financial crisis" exists in the state college system caused by the "incredible failure of the administration to co-ordinate the budget and audit procedures," "lax" supervision by the Board of Trustees, and by recent poorly planned faculty salary increases.

Assemblyman Stanton said the State Department of Finance has warned Chancellor Dumke and the trustees that they are now expending money provided by bond issues.

"The deficit is a direct violation of the legislative limitation," Stanton said, in a provision of this year's budget which limits expenditures.

However, no figures on state college administrations expenditures accompany Stanton's statement.

No escapes - final schedule for last class

Students with classes at 12:30 to 2 p.m. will be sorry to hear there is a time scheduled for them to take a final.

Last week it came to the attention of Richard E. Bratset, director of general education in the school of humanities that someone had forgotten to schedule a time to take a final for the above class time.

Bratset sent a memo to all instructors informing them of the situation so they might find a time or other solution such as a take home final.

But yesterday the office of the Assistant to the vice president of Academic affairs announced a time was available.

Classes meeting at 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. will have their final on January 28 at 11:30 to 1:30 p.m.

FLAMENCO DANCER IN LOUNGE

The tattoo of stamping heels, snapping fingers, castanets and clapping filled the Gallery Lounge yesterday.

"Los Flamencos del la Bodega," a flamenco guitar and dance brought the rhythm of Spain to an overflow crowd in a program sponsored by the Associated Students.

Between the stomping, twirling dances, the group sang and played guitar solos. The audience attempted to clap in time with the flamenco rhythms and occasionally someone shouted in Spanish.

McClatchy explains ACSCP pay feud

Battle lines are being drawn in the salary war between State College professors and Governor Edmund G. Brown's proposed "bare bones" budget.

The opening shot of the battle was made by the Executive Committee of the Association of California State College Professors.

Cal Tjader jazz group performs at 12:30 today

Popular jazz artist Cal Tjader appears today in concert in the Main Auditorium at 12:30.

The Tjader Quintet is presently on vacation in San Francisco following a three week engagement at the El Matador on Broadway.

Tickets for the performance by the former SF State musician are still available in Hut T-1.

Admission is 50 cents for students, $1.50 for the general public.

It called upon "the State Colleges to limit courses and enrollment to levels which have adequate financial support, to refuse to fill positions with unqualified persons, and to cut back some graduate and teacher credential programs which are inadequately financed."

This statement by the Association of California State College Professors (ACSCP) was released to the Gater by Leo McClatchy, chairman of the SF State Academic Senate.

McClatchy was in Sacramento last week attending the meeting of the Statewide Academic Senate which heard the ACSCP's proposals. He is also a member of the Executive Committee of ACSCP which drew up the proposals.

The ACSCP's proposals constitute a plan of action "to maintain the quality of the educational program in the California State Colleges in the face of Governor Brown's failure to recommend adequate budgetary support for these institutions," the statement said.

"We want to be sure that we maintain the quality of education of a first class system," McClatchy said.

McClatchy said the quality of professors and of instruction "will go down" if the State Legislature continues to refuse a pay raise.

Governor Brown did propose a pay raise for State legislators in his "bare bones"

The sit-in that never happened -- it was a hoax

Nicholas Spagnoli did not show up to sit-in at the Advising Office yesterday noon.

The story was a hoax and the student non-existent.

"We just wanted to prove that students are not anxious to sit-in without a reason," Geoffrey Link, Gater editor said.

"I am sorry about any inconvenience to the administration," Link said. "They took it very well. They just didn't think it was very funny."

budget which received immediate support from the lawmakers.

The ACSCP proposals call on State College professors to refuse:

- To offer numbers and kinds of courses or class sizes for which qualified instructors are not available.

- To refuse to fill new positions with faculty members who, in the judgment of department faculties, are not qualified.

- To staff courses with part time faculty who do not meet qualifications.

- To offer any new programs.

- To continue programs which are inadequately staffed and financed, especially joint-doctorates, master's degrees, teacher training and other credential programs.

- To offer community services which detract from the ability of the faculty to meet its on-campus needs.

- To continue planning for the conversion to the quarter system until given adequate financial support.

McClatchy said the Statewide Academic Senate voted to refer these proposals to the Executive Committee for study.

He said he hopes the study will be completed by the February meeting of the Statewide Academic Senate.

From this study the Statewide Academic Senate will take a position which McClatchy said will be the "official position" of all State College professors.

If the Statewide Academic Senate approves the ACSCP proposals the individual State College Academic Senates will be recommended to implement the proposals.

In Adam Or In Christ?

Regardless of your theory or views concerning the origin of man, there is no escaping our universal brotherhood one with another. If you'll give thought and prayer to the subject of the family tree of man you'll soon discover that the Biblical view is diametrically opposed to the hypothesis of an ascending evolution of man which skirts around the all-important issue of sin and death. The Bible says we sin because we are "in Adam," descended from our fallen first parents. Death is in the world because of sin, that is, because man has been cut off from his relationship with the Author of life, Jesus Christ. The New Testament extends freely to all of us today God's offer of reconciliation and restoration to Him. In a single sentence the problem and the solution can be summed up: "The wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord" (Romans 6:23).

As Adam is the federal head of a fallen race, so Jesus Christ, by virtue of His death and resurrection, has become the federal head of a New Creation. Becoming a Christian removes an individual from his relationship "in Adam" and transfers him into a new relationship "in Christ." Study the following passage from Romans chapter 5, and then, if you have not yet done so let God place you "in Christ" today.

"When Adam sinned the entire human race was declared guilty. His sin brought death into the world, and so everything began to grow old and die. (We know that it was Adam's sin that caused this—and not each person dying because of his own sins—because although of course people are sinning from the time of Adam until Moses, God did not in those days judge them guilty of death for breaking His laws—because He had not yet given His laws to them, nor told them what He wanted them to do. So when they died it was not for these sins of their own; and since they themselves had never disobeyed God's special laws against eating the forbidden fruit, as Adam had, their dying was not because of that. It was because, when Adam sinned, all of us were declared guilty with him and began to die because of his sin). What a contrast between Adam and Christ Who was yet to come. And what a difference between man's sin and God's forgiveness. For this one man, Adam, brought death to man through his sin. But this one man Jesus Christ, brought forgiveness to many through God's mercy. Adam's one sin brought the penalty of death to many, while Christ freely takes away many sins and gives glorious life instead.

"The sin of this one man, Adam, caused death to be king over all, but all who will take God's gift of forgiveness and approval are kings of life because of this one man, Jesus Christ. Yes, Adam's sin brought punishment to all, but Christ's act of goodness makes men right with God, so that they can live. Adam caused many to be sinners because he disobeyed God, and Christ caused many to be made acceptable to God because he obeyed. The Ten Commandments were given so that all could see the extent of their failure to obey God's laws. But the more we see our sinfulness, the more we see God's abounding grace forgiving us. And so sin ruled over all men and brought them to death, but now God's kindness rules instead, giving us right standing with God and resulting in eternal life through Jesus Christ, our Lord" (Romans 5:12-21 Living Letters)

Harlem riot viewer speaks today on NY '64 rebellion'

An eye-witness to last summer's Harlem riots will speak today from the Speakers Platform at 1 p.m. on "Harlem Rebellion, July 1964."

Bill McAdoo, 27, is in the Bay Area to tell the "shocking truth" of the "police pogrom in Harlem."

The former publishing house worker and now a member of the Harlem Defense Council is being sponsored in the area by the Progressive Labor Movement, a communist group according to the FBI and New York police.

The American Communist Party last July denied any connection with the Progressive Labor Movement, labeling its activities as "irresponsible" and "hare-brained."

The SF State Forensics Union is sponsoring today's speech.

At a San Francisco press conference last Thursday, McAdoo said he viewed the violence in Harlem last summer not as a "race riot" but as evidence of a "class struggle" against police, political bosses and slum landlords.

If the oppressions continue and constructive peaceful proposals to end the blight of Harlem fail, he said, then the Negro people would have no choice but to organize their self-defense.

"Non-violence is always for us . . . never the whites," he said.

"The Negroes should shoot to defend their homes and shoot to kill," he said.

McAdoo has worked in organizing the Harlem Defense Council since April, 1964.

Gin flowed, title bestowed

Eugene Grundt, instructor of English at SF State, was recently voted Poet Laureate of the California Federation of Teachers (AFL-CIO) at a convention in Fresno.

The honor was bestowed during a weekend of "resolutions and gin," according to Grundt, in recognition of his poem "The Subversive's Lament," which is about the Free Speech Movement.

Grundt recalled that during a speech by Jesse Unruh, the "conservative" speaker of the state assembly, copies of the poem were passed around the convention.

The resolution proposing Grundt as Poet Laureate was made by a CFT member of another local. The resolution as stated was: "We would like to honor Eugene Grundt with the title of Poet Laureate for his poem 'The Subversive's Lament,' which was written in response to the Free Speech Movement and in anticipation of the impending arrival of the House Un-American Activities Committee (HUAC) in the Bay Area."

An easy 80-48 win

Gators humble Humboldt

By JERRY LITTRELL
Gator Sports Editor

Not many games this season have been or will be as easy for the Gators as their win over Humboldt State last Saturday.

The Golden Gator basketball team easily swamped the visiting Lumberjacks, 80-48, and ran their Far Western Conference record to 2-1.

AROUND AND UNDER — Guard Denny Lewis drives under the basket and scores with a layin against Chico Friday night.

Humboldt made a game of it for the first ten minutes but in the final ten minutes of the first half the Staters, ahead 20-18, outscored the Lumberjacks, 28-4, and it was a laughter from then on.

The 'Jacks were so befuddled by the Gator defense that they didn't score at all in the final seven minutes of that half.

The Gators started off the second half right where they left off in the first. They opened up their 48-22 halftime lead until their advantage was 67-28, a 39-point lead.

SF substitutes played out the rest of the contest but even they were too much for Humboldt.

HUMBOLDT STALE

Two things can be said in defense of Humboldt, however. The torrential rains that have plagued the northern part of California the past month isolated the Lumberjack team from almost all competition.

This and the fact that the Humboldt budget could only afford to send nine players by airplane to the Bay Area also might have contributed to their poor showing.

It is doubtful, however, that even a full complement of Lumberjack players could have staved off the fierce Gator attack.

So outclassed were the visitors that the game got a little boring in the final half.

SHOVING MATCH

About the only thing that made the second half a little entertaining was the fairly rugged shoving match between Gator forward Lee Marona and 'Jack forward Paul Bush.

It became so rugged at one point that the officials threatened to remove Bush from the game unless he mended his 'Bush-ways'.

The Gators started playing fairly respectable defense against Chico Friday night and continued it against the Lumberjacks.

However, it still was their offensive game that was the high point of the contest.

Everett 'Goose' Adams, the squad's leading scorer, tallied 19 points although he barely played more than half the game.

Jon Crawford, who took the starting center role away from Bob O'Donnell last week and is playing like he never intends to give it back, scored 14 points and grabbed seven rebounds.

Starting guard Denny Lewis lasted only about 10 minutes before a stiff neck forced him to the showers.

STOGNER SCORES

But the most surprising offensive effort of all was turned in by little forward Terry Stogner.

Stogner, who in the past has been a hustling defensive player, suddenly turned tiger as a scorer as he tallied 13 points against the Lumberjacks after he had scored 18 the night before against Chico.

About the only sour note of the evening's activities was the play of forward Joe Galbo, who appeared listless and uninterested. He sat out the final 30 minutes of play.

Coach Paul Rundell got a real good look at some of his substitutes against the Lumberjacks and he should have liked what he saw.

SF forward Bill Smith, a 6-2 still-growing sophomore, has shown more promise with each outing. He scored four points and grabbed three rebounds and showed a good deal of court-knowledge for a sophomore.

"He knows how to position himself on the floor and what to do with the ball when he gets it better than any sophomore I've seen here in a long time," Rundell stated.

'NOOCH' A WIZARD

One of the better performances of the night was given by Bill Nocetti, a pass-happy wizard who scored eight points.

Nocetti had the stands buzzing with several of his patented trick passes and on one particular play he drove right through three 'Jack defenders for a twisting backhanded layup.

All-in-all the Golden Gators look like they have jelled as a team, especially since Crawford has taken over the post.

They get their next test Wednesday night here at the Men's Gym when Cal State Hayward (1-1) comes in for an FWC encounter.

Gator JV cagers split weekend tilts

By BILL NUNES

For three quarters Friday night the SF State JV basketball squad held their counterparts from Chico State in check and led by eight to twelve points.

But just when the Baby Gators appeared to have their fifth victory of the season put away, center Rich Simmons led Chico State in a rally that swept them to an 80-76 win.

In the first half the Baby

Gator fast-break was primarily responsible for their 42-32 half-time lead.

With 5:16 remaining in the game and SF State up by eight, the Baby Gators appeared to tire and it was here that Chico State started their winning rally.

Simmons, who was high point man for the game with 28, put in three straight field goals and after that there was no stopping the Wildcats.

All five Baby Gator starters hit in double columns, led by John Kelly with 16. Center Mike Paille followed with 12, Kelleher scored 11, and Bob Thompson and John Woodmansee each hit 10.

Due to inadequate transportation facilities from Arcata, Humboldt was unable to bring their JV's for the scheduled game with the Baby Gators Saturday night.

Instead the SF State JV's were placed against the reserves from the varsity squad. The Baby Gators made the best of the situation and defeated the older players, 66-57.

Thompson and Kelly led the winning attack by scoring 16 points each.

Grapplers hear bell tonight

SF State's wrestling crew competes against the Stanford Indians in the Men's Gym tonight at 7:30 p.m.

The Gators met Stanford once already last month in the Northern California Invitational at San Jose. SF State captured a fourth place finish to Stanford's seventh.

Jim Reed climaxed the showing by trouncing a previously unbeaten Indian sophomore in the 167 lb. sophomore in the 167 lb. division match.
