Hi, my name's Joe Castellano. I'm with that guy for him. And your. Your name.

01:19:36:24 - 01:19:41:13

Speaker 4

Please. My name is once Emmanuel. What is it again? One ceremonial.

01:19:41:16 - 01:19:45:02

Speaker 3

One. What's your purpose here today?

01:19:45:04 - 01:19:52:07

Speaker 4

Well, mainly I came to celebrate September the 16th, but at the same time, I'm here to register people to vote.

01:19:52:09 - 01:19:55:11

Speaker 3

How has the registration been going?

01:19:55:13 - 01:19:59:03

Speaker 4

Only got here about an hour ago. Seems to be okay.

01:19:59:05 - 01:20:04:02

Speaker 3

I see. Well, how did you get this? Both set up in.

01:20:04:04 - 01:20:08:24

Speaker 4

The coordinator for the project. Set it up. I'm really not sure I was set on.

01:20:08:27 - 01:20:25:26

Speaker 3

I say, Well, I'm real glad to. See you here. I, I was one of the big promoters, too, having a registration both here, but I wasn't too successful. But I'm glad that you managed somehow. You managed to get somebody here. I think that's really great.

01:20:25:26 - 01:20:48:04

Speaker 4

Yeah, I know. It's important for us. What? Only 20% of eligible Chicano voters are registered, and that's. That's pretty low. So we really got to be getting people to register to vote. We can make a big difference in a lot of upcoming elections and different issues that concern our community today. That's why you're here. It's pretty cool.

Speaker 3

What about the fact that you're here, gringo, talking about the Hispanic power growing in California by the year 1990 and what have you? Don't you think something like this kind of inserts some fear in there to that effect, that a political takeover or something? What what's your opinion on that? Or do you have an opinion on it?

Speaker 4

I have no opinion on that. I think that's one. The more important, they're now developing different propositions that are going to curb any kind of power we can have in the future that pretty much see the writing on the wall. They see there are going to be a significant number in the future, and they're developing propositions like Proposition 63, where it makes English only official languages.

Speaker 4

Okay. But in that policy, it's so vague that it can be determined any way they want and they can actually begin to eliminate bilingual education, which is actually going to be a hindrance to our ability to have some political power in the future. So they already foresee that and already want to set the trend for those years to come when they actually have things in the law that are going to curb our are those growing numbers that we're going to have.

01:22:00:11 - 01:22:04:01

Speaker 4

So they're already had a pretty much aware of that.

01:22:04:04 - 01:22:23:26

Speaker 3

Well, I'm glad that you're pretty well aware of this, and I'm pretty sure most of the people you are are associated with are also aware of it. And I think that's great. I think awareness is our biggest one of our biggest weapons in having some political success in this area. So I'm glad to hear that. Well, I won't want to say anything else.

01:22:23:29 - 01:22:33:11

Speaker 4

No, no, I just that I'm originally from Los Angeles. I've always subreddit celebrated September 16th and I continue it in 74.

01:22:33:11 - 01:22:41:04

Speaker 3

Great. I hope by Cinco de Mayo you're here again with some similar set up and for as we'll have a bigger crowd and more registrations.

01:22:41:04 - 01:22:44:10

Speaker 4

Okay now we're going to be running our own candidates.

01:22:44:13 - 01:22:46:13

Speaker 3

Okay, That's super.

01:22:46:15 - 01:22:48:00
