

SWEENEY QUILTS POST, BLASTS ATAC, McGANN

Mike Sweeney, veteran campus cause-leader, resigned his position on the Visiting Professors Program committee last Thursday protesting a recommendation to turn $7000 back to the AS treasury.

Sweeney charged this was done "through the ATAC machine" at AS President Terry McGann's orders.

The Visiting Professors Program was financed by the AS Legislature with $14,000 for its first year, but the first professor, Paul Goodman, will not come until the Spring semester.

This means only half the sum allocated will be spent. There had been suggestions to hire a second visiting professor for the Spring semester with the remaining funds.

McGann offered this suggestion to the Committee, but it was turned down so the committee "could concentrate on doing a good job for Goodman."

"Just because we had the $7000 didn't mean we had to spend it," McGann said, adding, "It was $7000 or nothing as far as Sweeney was concerned—and he said that — and Sweeney left in the middle of the vote . . . and screamed 'I resign' and dashed out the door."

Sweeney's opinion differed from McGann's. "McGann deliberately sabotaged the expansion, or not only the expansion, but the realization of the present Visiting Professors Program."

Sweeney charged although McGann "paid great lip service" to the program he "decided it would be better to add the $7000 to the unallocated reserves to satisfy the complaints of Livie Garcia (AS Treasurer) and Harold Harroun (AS Business Manager)" about over spending by student government.

"I have no idea what that's about," McGann replied to Sweeney's charge, adding that Harroun has advised at least $15,000 be kept in reserve. Presently the AS has over $13,000 in unallocated reserves.

TERRY McGANN

'Sweeney dashed out . . .'

"The Chancellor's Office has indicated its displeasure with the Visiting Professors program in so far as it fears that . . . unorthodox or academically 'unqualified' — in quotes — personnel" might be hired, Sweeney said McGann told him.

McGann, obviously angry

MIKE SWEENEY

'McGann sabotaged Program . . .'

Sweeney had said this, answered, "I consider it none of their (Chancellor's Office) business who our visiting professors are."

He did admit the Chancellor's Office has inquired about visiting professor selection standards.

"I'm sorry to see him resign" McGann said about Sweeney.

But Sweeney had other charges. He said the faculty members on the committee "are essentially 30 years behind the time. The people they are interested in have 'crumbled into legitimate history' he said quoting Leroy Jones.

As an example Sweeney said the faculty recommended hiring poet Archibald McLiesh and Actress Viveca Lindfors instead of poet Alan Ginsberg or composer Pauline Oliveros.

"One of the reasons that we got Goodman," Sweeney said, "is that probably the faculty is unaware that Goodman is an anarchist and avant garde writer."

READING HOUR

Jonathan Swift's satires — and their inherent variety — will be the main focus of today's "Noon Reading Hour." Patrick Gleeson, assistant professor of English, will illustrate the variety of satirical voices Swift used in the Gallery Lounge program.

ACADEMIC VACANCY

A vacancy in an Academic Senate Committee, to be filled by a qualified student, still exists.

The Instructional Materials Committee, formed to consider problems concerning materials and services in the Library and Audio-Visual Center, needs a student member.

Any student with a 2.25 GPA who has completed one year of college and has been attending SF State for at least one semester is eligible.

Interested applicants should leave their names with Rick Halpern in the Legislature Office, or with the campus communications center in the Executive Hut.

Cathi Davi crowned Homecoming Queen '65

In a two-day election marred by one day of heavy rain, pert Cathi Davi, a 20-year-old art major, became SF State's new Homecoming Queen.

Miss Davi was crowned last Saturday at the Coronation Ball at Jack Tar Hotel.

President of Kappa Theta sorority and a student adviser at the Fashion Center on campus, Miss Davi was sponsored by Sigma Pi Sigma.

Turnout for the voting, from among five finalists, was the lightest in recent years. Only 700 students cast ballots. Friday's rain closed up one polling place and, apparently, dampened voting spirits.

Biology head: no discontent

A report of discontent in a summer session of Biology 140 has been answered.

John S. Hensill, chairman of the Biology Department, refuted claims that last summer's Nature Study course involved too much work for only two units.

Biology is a departmental course; its content and requirements are specifically designated by the department, not the instructor, he said.

Hensill noted that the curricula for the summer session course is no different than curricula for a regular semester except for the fact that during the summer the course is tremendously accelerated.

A petition had been allegedly circulated at the time, accusing Russel J. Gabel, instructor of the course, of imposing unfair requirements on the students.

Hensill denied that either he or Robert Thornton, Dean of the School of Natural Sciences, or Gabel had ever seen the petition.

Regarding the appearance of the article, Hensill indicated that he was both pleased and disappointed.

"It was a fine article; it accused the Biology Department of having standards and following through with them." He added that the Department is doing the job it's here for, and for that reason, "I'm glad it appeared."

On the other hand, he noted that the treatment of a complaint as news is in error because such complaints are offhandedly voiced every day and are not news by any stretch of the imagination.

More pertinently Hensill pointed out that when news of the petition reached the ears of other students in the same class, some showed up in his office with totally different opinions.

One student described the curricula as "interesting material" and the instructor as being "eminently fair."

Scooter-looters busy: seven cycles swiped

Members of the SF State Scooter and Cycle Set have recently been experiencing great inconvenience around the campus. Their hardy Harleys and vitriolic Vespas have been mysteriously disappearing from where they have been crammed, leaned, or otherwise parked.

Wayne Berry, campus security officer, reports that seven bikes have been stolen within the past two weeks. What makes their disappearance so mysterious is that some of the bikes have been locked.

"We don't know if somebody has been picking them up and putting them in a truck or if someone has a key that fits the locks," Berry said.

A special eye is being kept on any suspicious people fooling around with the scooters and cycles, he said.

Forest planted in Israel as memorial to Kennedy

On the dusty, wind-swept mountains of Israel, a new, man-made forest is being nurtured from the rock-studded clay.

On this ground, the John F. Kennedy Peace Forest will rise.

Dedicated to the peace and bonds of friendship which link America and Israel, this grove will consist of several million trees that will encircle a Memorial Building flanked by fifty pylons representing each state of the union.

The trees will also serve as a tribute to former President Kennedy who died almost exactly two years ago.

This week, from 11-2 p.m. daily, donations will be accepted in front of the Commons to support the project which is a joint American-Israelian effort. Sponsoring the collection is the Hillel Foundation, an organization of the Jewish community.

Peace Corps 'school' here

Destined to teach in the elementary schools of Liberia, 110 Peace Corps volunteers will begin their six-week training program on campus today.

Members of the college Peace Corps staff will accompany the trainees.

The college training staff includes: Project Director George Hallowitz, Chairman of the department of interdisciplinary studies in education; Deputy Project Director Dale McKeen, associate professor of accounting; Coordinator of Social Science Studies Devere Pentony, associate professor of international relations; Coordinator of Professional Education, Raymond Simpson, associate professor of education, and Coordinator of Assessment, Theodore Kroeber, Associate Professor of Psychology.

Others are coordinator of Physical Education and Recreation Victor Rowen, Professor of Physical Education; Coordinator of Health Education and Medical Officer, Rouben Akka, M.D., Student Health Service; and Psychiatrist Consultant Spottswood, M.D.

Code Book of Life

Computer people have a saying, "garbage in, garbage out," for nonsense equations fed into electronic brains bring nonsense out. The mind is like a computer, we humans "feed," through our sensory inputs the eyes and ears, on good and evil. The man who reads pornography without a filter circuit in his mind will soon find his moral standards crumbling and his behavior uncontrolled. Fine music, literature and art do uplift the soul—the computer must be programmed and the input data monitored if life, not death, is to be the result.

The Holy Bible, God's Word to man, might well be called the code book of life, the master plan, the flawless program, the hidden key. To those who have responded to its constant invitation into life, it is a mirror which shows them who we are. Here for anyone who wills to see, are hidden secrets many men would die to know. "... among the mature we do impart wisdom although it is not a wisdom of this age, or of this age or the rulers of this age, who are doomed to pass away. But we impart a secret and hidden wisdom of God ... as it is written, "What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the heart of man conceived, what God has prepared for those who love him, God has revealed to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God ... we have the mind of Christ" (I Corinthians 2).

To those who never read the Bible, relying on the advice of "experts," the Word reminds us, "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word which proceeds out of the mouth of God." Jesus Christ said, "It is the Spirit that gives life, the flesh is of no avail; the words that I have spoken to you are Spirit and Life. But there are some of you who do not believe" (John 6:63, 64).

In an age when men dispute the authority of the Word of God, you ought to make up your own mind by reading this Best Seller of all time, a Book which claims for itself divine inspiration throughout (2 Timothy 3:13-17). Addressed to you, an individual beloved by God, it says, "Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the Word of God" (Romans 10:17) and "These things are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in his name" (John 20:31).

The self-consistent Holy Bible speaks for itself, and its words are backed in life and experience by an all-wise God whose greatest concern is your immortal soul and your eternal destiny. The God who wrote it cared enough to die for you, why not find out Who He is and what He has to say?

CAN YOU STUDY

AT THE RATE OF

1000 WORDS PER MINUTE

Many UC law students can. More than 150 of them have completed the course in rapid and perceptive reading given by the internationally famous Evelyn Wood Reading Dynamics Institute. Some are reading faster than 1,500 words per minute.

- You will see a Reading Dynamics graduate read at amazing speeds from a book he has never seen before and then tell in detail what he has read.
- You will see a documented film that includes actual interviews with Washington Congressmen who have taken the course.
- You will learn how we can help you to faster reading, improved comprehension, greater recall.

HOW IS THIS POSSIBLE?

Eighteen years ago Evelyn Wood, a Utah schoolteacher, made a startling discovery that led to the founding of Reading Dynamics. While working toward a master's degree, she handed a term paper to a professor and watched him read the 80 pages at 6,000 words per minute—with outstanding recall and comprehension. Determined to find the secret behind such rapid reading, she spent the next two years tracking down 50 people who could read faster than 1,500 words per minute. She studied their techniques, taught herself to read at these faster rates. Now, after years of experience in public schools and universities, she has made it possible for you to benefit from this great discovery.

IS IT SIMPLY A PROMOTION STUNT?

Over the past eleven years more than 200,000 graduates have been convinced that Reading Dynamics is a proven method. About Reading Dynamics' impact on our nation's legislators, Time Magazine said "Washington has seen nothing like it since the days when Teddy Roosevelt read three books a day and ran the country at the same time."

SENATOR PROXMIRE
 Wisconsin

"I must say that this is one of the most useful education experiences I have ever had. It certainly compares favorably with the experience I've had at Yale and Harvard."

SENATOR TALMADGE
 Georgia

"It is my opinion that if these techniques were instituted in the public and private schools of our country, it would be the greatest single step which we could take in educational progress."

Conventional rapid reading courses aspire to 450-600 words per minute. Most Reading Dynamics graduates can read between 1,500 and 3,000 words per minute, and many go even higher.

MONEY BACK GUARANTEE

We guarantee to increase the reading efficiency of each student AT LEAST 3 times with good comprehension. We will refund the entire tuition to any student who, after completing minimum class and study requirements, does not at least triple his reading efficiency as measured by our beginning and ending tests.

Gater's critics charge new bias

The Golden Gater has come under increasingly sharp criticism from student government members for biased, unfair reporting of AS government activities.

AS President Terry McGann, in a written statement, said campus coverage "is seriously limited by the personal negative bias of the reporters writing the articles."

"Standards of responsibility and integrity," he continued, "are sometimes by-passed in favor of hasty judgments and considerable bias."

The remedy for Gater bias and misinterpretation, according to McGann and other student leaders, would be access to the Gater itself as an outlet for opinion.

Mike Vosick, AS government consultant, said he favors twice-weekly columns written by student government members published in the Gater.

Gater news value judgments have also been criticized. Russell Bass, AS speaker, said the Gater picks stories which are critical of student government and ATAC.

Ira Schoenwald, rep at large, criticized the Gater for editorial comment in what are supposed to be news stories.

He said if a story is going to be used like an editorial, "I would like it to say 'editorial.'"

McGann pointed out the Gater is financed from AS funds. "However, I as one student do not believe that this generosity should be confused with an absolute and non-debatable vote of confidence to the tiny number of students who are involved on the staff from year to year.

"The inevitable consequence, it seems to me, would be the creation of a student-supported function which owes a responsibility only to their personal and often esoteric bias.

"This situation is unhealthy for not only the staff but for the entire college community."

—R. J. Dutra

Kerby Ruff of the third floor of Merced Hall (Seacliff House) is the Iron Man of SF State.

The SF State student won this title in recent intramural competition in seven events. The runner-up was Peter Gruber.

Gruber and Ruff accounted for first and second place in every event except two. Rick Kramer won the pushups contest with 46, as Ruff and Gruber tied for second, and Ruff, Kramer and Gruber tied for first with 29 situps apiece.

In the other five events, Ruff was first and Gruber second.

Ruff's winning time in the obstacle run was 16.0. He did 23 pullups, 50 back raises (a new record), flew eight feet, six inches in the standing broad jump, and reached 29 inches in the jump and reach (another new record).

Sac downs wetballs

A fluke goal by forward Pat Monohan with five seconds left in the game enabled Sacramento State to defeat SF State, 10-9, in a water polo contest last Tuesday at Sacramento.

Monohan's score came on a 40-foot shot that deflected off the top of the goal, hit goalie Mike Mullen in the back of the head, and fell into the cage.

Coach Walt Hanson's Gators trailed from the outset, until Rusty Mills tied the game, 9-9, with his fifth goal of the game.

Sac State led 5-2 at half-time, and 9-4 after three quarters, but the Gators fought back by scoring five consecutive goals before Monohan's game-winning effort.

Rusty Mills led the Gator attack with five goals, while Jim Dunn added three and Mike Dower one.

The loss was the Gators' worst defensive performance of the season, and marked a complete turn-about from the two games played in the Far Western Conference tournament, when the Gators yielded only three goals.

The loss gave the Gators a six win-eight loss record for the season with only two regularly scheduled games and the State College Tournament remaining.

SF State plays San Jose State in a road game tonight at 7:00 p.m., and returns home for the final home game tomorrow at 10:30 a.m., against Cal Poly.
