

Daniel Walker
619 West Chicago Avenue
Chicago, Illinois

February 12, 1969

Mrs. Jane Tolmach
Southern Women's Chairman
Democratic State Central Committee
3440 West Eighth Street
Los Angeles, California 90005

Dear Mrs. Tolmach:

I thoroughly enjoyed meeting you and participating in the conference which you worked so hard to make a success.

I believe you asked for a copy of my speech, and I am glad to enclose one.

California is still "my state" in many respects and I know that with the kind of talent I saw at the conference, the Democrats are bound to take over the state at the next opportunity.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Dan Walker". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large, sweeping initial "D" and "W".