

CUP of

OUTRIRE

For more information, please call Cross Cultural Programs at (323) 343-5247.

Cup of Culture is a brand new weekly series featuring writers from LA and beyond. Every Tuesday, check out emerging and established voices of writers who will share their stories and experiences through the moving medium of spoken word.

Tuesdays at 4 p.m. in Café LA.

January 19

MICHELE SERROS

Author of Chicana Falsa and How to Be a Chicano Role Model.

January 26

WRITING SLANT

Writers from the Los Angeles Asian American Literary Project.

February 2

INCOMMUNICADO PRESS

Writers from Incomunicado Press, including Jervey Tervalon, author of Understand This and Living for the City.

February 9

MICHAEL DATCHER AND JENOYNE ADAMS

A Black History Month event featuring two acclaimed writers.

February 16

JOSE CRUZ GONZÁLEZ

Director, playwright, and Professor of Theatre Arts at CSLA.

February 23

AN OPEN READING OF POETRY AND PROSE

March 2

WOMEN AT WORK

Group reading of talented women, led by Terry Wolverton, author of Bailey's Beads.

CUP of

CULTURE

Student Resource Center, Pan African Student Resource Center, Women's Resource Center, and S.U.P.E.R.

Co-sponsored by the Asian Pacific American Student Resource Center, Chicana/o Latina/o