Dear michele,

Thank you for coming and taking the time to share your poems. They were very interesting especially the one of Chicharones. That one made me laugh. You're a very creative poet because no one ever made poems like that one I heard. I like the title and the cover of the book. I think that the cover was great. I also like the slides for the 15 nera. You came out very pretty that was a very good idea. I really enjoyed your poems. Write back when you have time.

Sincerely,
Rosario
