FILM "OPERATION ABOLITION" UNDER FIRE

Seldom has any film made such a deep impression on the American people as the film "Operation Abolition" which shows the rioting and the events in the hearing room which led up to the rioting when the House Committee on Un-American Activities conducted hearings in San Francisco last May. This film proves beyond a shadow of a doubt the Communist participation in these events.

This film is under vitriolic attack from many quarters. There is a constant stream of editorials in newspapers and sermons from pulpits attacking it. Many fine people have become confused and would like to know the truth. I will endeavor to summarize the events that lead up to the riots, the significance of the riots, and the source of the attacks on the film.

The House Un-American Activities Committee is one of the primary targets of the Communist Party. It has set aside one of its outstanding members, Frank Wilkinson, to organize protests wherever the Committee conducts hearings. Since student groups are volatile and easy to arouse, his efforts are directed largely towards the students.

The F.B.I. Director, J. Edgar Hoover, has declared that the Communist Party in San Francisco specifically planned to organize mass demonstrations during the committee hearings and that Archie Brown planned to behave in such a manner that it would be necessary to forcibly eject him from the hearing room in the hope that this would stimulate excitement and mass action.

History records what actually took place when the Committee conducted its hearings. Agitators on the campuses of some of the colleges and universities in the San Francisco area stirred up the students and depicted the House Committee as a kangaroo court and the hearings as a witch hunt and persuaded them to attend and endeavor to degrade the hearings in every way. It is unquestioned that the majority of these students had no desire to serve the cause of Communism and were quite unaware that they were so doing, yet the situation conceived and planned by the Communists came to pass.

In the hearing room there was bedlam. A group of Communists staged a display scarcely conceivable because of its viciousness. They were cheered and encouraged by many of the students within the chamber. These events were captured for posterity by the cameras and microphones of the news reel and television photographers and radio commentators.

At the consumation of the hearings noise outside the hearing room became so great that a judge, who was totally unassociated with the Committee, ordered the police to clear the corridors. With contempt for the law, the students refused to obey and it was the duty of the police to obey the command of the judge. Rioting broke out and the evidence indicates that the police acted with remarkable moderation in the fulfillment of their duty.

The House Un-American Activities Committee subpoenaed the films and the tape recordings and produced from them the film "Operation Abolition." Sequences are interspersed with commentary by members of the Committee.

Almost everyone, who views the film with an open mind, is most profoundly aroused and disturbed by it. It suggests the vulnerability of the student to the

EDUCATION AGAINST COMMUNISM

The anti-communism school movement continues to make great progress and an awareness of the necessity to teach the school children of America the specific doctrines and methods of Communism is growing by leaps and bounds. Americanism must be taught but Americanism is not enough. Christianity must be taught but Christianity is not enough. No policeman can be truly effective without a knowledge of crime and criminals; no doctor would be worth his salt who had not studied disease; only a knowledge of Communism itself can protect us from its deceitful snares. Many school systems are desirous of introducing a course on Communism. On Sunday morning, December 4, the Dallas Times Herald appeared with great front page headlines "Dallas' Schools To Teach How To Fight Red Threat." This lead should be followed right across the country.

clever Communist agitator. It carries a warning of what could happen here.

There are many whose minds are made up in advance of the evidence and to them the House Un-American Activities Committee must be evil and opposition to it must be good. They are prepared to ignore the evidence of their senses in the interest of the maintenance of their convictions. This attitude has been common through history as illustrated by the following story:

Aristotle was the accepted authority on all things anatomical for centuries. What he said was the "truth." He declared that the veins in the brain of the dog followed a certain path. In due course an inquiring mind, called Galen, operated upon a dog and found that Aristotle was incorrect. With great courage he took this heretical discovery to the authorities. In an effort to convince them, he produced the brain of the dog and showed them the course of the veins. The authorities met in solemn conclave and after due consideration produced the verdict, "The dog was wrong."

The Washington Post and its cohorts have produced the verdict that the cameras and microphones were wrong. In an editorial the Washington Post attacks the film and finishes with the statement "This film makes a dirty joke of the Congressional power."

The attack on the film has been spearheaded by certain chapters of the American Civil Liberties Union. This attack features certain points. Some of them are as follows:

1. The film is edited.

2. Sequences shown in the film are out of order.
3. The film does not depict the actual brutality they alleged the police displayed.
4. The film does not emphasize the role played by the passes issued by the Committee to individuals from groups sympathetic to the Committee.

An objective analysis shows that these objections are either largely irrelevant or false. Let us consider them in order:

The editing of the film. Of course the film was edited. It would have been impossible to produce it otherwise. If this constitutes a serious objection to it, every news reel film shown is evil and every newspaper report is subject to condemnation. All these are edited and the processes of editorship involves selection of the most significant events for presentation to the public.

The sequence of the events. Every lover of law and order must be appalled by the events that took place both inside and outside the hearing chamber in whatever sequence they are displayed. It is difficult to observe the arrogant boorishness of Communist Archie Brown or the malignant hatred of William Mandel without nausea.

Police brutality. The allegation of police brutality is contradicted by the events. Brutality on the scale alleged would have been impossible without injuries. The absence of serious injury among the rioters labels these allegations as defamatory. The majority of the injuries were suffered by the police. One of the objectives of the Communist organizers was to create a brutal image of the police. Fortunately the film record has been preserved or by this time the oft repeated lie would have been accepted as the truth by great groups of people.

Special passes to the hearing. Passes were certainly issued to sympathetic individuals, but a viewing of the film will clearly show where the sympathies of many of those those present inside the chamber lay.

It is not suggested that this film is perfect or completely devoid of mistakes. Very few things which are human can meet this standard. If the mind is committed in advance and determined to find some fault with it as a pretext to discredit the entire film and its message, this can always be done. It is an old adage that says "There are none so blind as those who won't see."

This film has a vitally important message to every American who desires to defeat the plans of Communism for the conquest of this land. We urge that you make every effort to see it and to show it to others.

It is encouraging to note that support for the House Un-American Activities Committee has been great. The leader of the attack on the Committee in Congress has been Representative James Roosevelt. It was anticipated that he would introduce a bill to abolish the Committee this year as he did last year.

According to an article which appeared in the Washington Post on January 1, 1961, Representative Roosevelt wrote a letter to his fellow Congressmen urging them to clip the wings of the Committee by reducing its spending money. In his letter to his colleagues Roosevelt said that he would not put them on the spot at this time with a test vote to kill off the Committee. He said it was "politically dangerous for many members of Congress to express by means of direct vote their innermost feelings about the Committee."

The average citizen is alarmed at the ever-increasing Communist peril. They appreciate the searchlight of truth being focused on the Communist enemy. The House Un-American Activities Committee brings to light the truth of many of the activities of the Communists. This is why they hate it so.

The Congress of the United States is entrusted with legislation in the interests of this great Republic. To legislate adequately it requires knowledge concerning new dangers and the adequacy of existing laws. For this purpose committees are established. The House Un-American Activities Committee is an instrument of constitutional government. Those who do not like the Committee have no more right to defy it than to defy the judgment of the Supreme Court. The rule of law must be maintained.

Dr. and Mrs. Ellis Carver, Chairman of the Los Angeles School of Anti-Communism, and Mr. Ed Ettinger, Financial Chairman, listen attentively. Mrs. Carver is the well known singer, Lee Childs.

ANTI-COMMUNISM SCHOOLS

A wonderful but exhausting program of anti-Communist schools stretches ahead. Those in the immediate future are the Greater Phoenix Anti-Communism School to be held at the Westward Ho Hotel, Phoenix, Arizona, February 27, through March 3; The Orange County Anti-Communism School to be held at the Disneyland Hotel, March 7, through March 11; and the East Texas Freedom Forum to be held at Tyler, Texas, March 14, through March 18. Later schools are to be held in St. Louis, Missouri, April 24, through April 28; and Miami, Florida, June 12, through June 16. It is not too late to register for these schools. You will find them an experience that would change your life.

A most important new venture awaits us. It is hoped in late March and early April to hold anti-Communism schools in Jamaica and British Guiana. These will be pioneering ventures of breath-taking potential. We need the interest, prayer and practical support of every American. The Caribbean must not become a Communist sea.

The situation in Latin America is stressed in a letter forwarded to me from a University Professor returning from a sojourn in Argentina. He writes:

Esteemed Friend:

Ever since my return from Argentina (where I enjoyed a fellowship for research in literature) I have been saving some remarks and materials for your attention. It is true that I did travel to some extent in Chile, Bolivia and Uruguay; however, the observations contained herein stem largely from my Argentine experience. Now, Argentina, as you are aware, is one of the staunchest supporters of the Western Democracies and, officially, the most outspoken of the Latin American nations in opposition to the Fidel Castro phenomenon. However, I was more than a little appalled at the extent to which youth, and particularly at the University level, is being indoctrinated by Soviet propaganda. In my estimate, we are already losing the ideological war in Latin America. If something positive is not done now, we may resign ourselves to the inevitable creation of an entire generation of hard-core party-liners who will be the ultimate undoing of democracy in this Hemisphere.

I am sending to you by separate mail a number of vicious tracts of the kind which can be bought in any bookstore in the vicinity of the Universidad de Buenos Aires (enrollment, 70,000!) for a matter of a few pesos. I purchased these works specifically so that you would have some tangible evidence to corroborate the assertions made in this letter. All of these constitute scurrilous, unvarnished attacks on the U. S. Now if there were on the same shelves similar equally attractive and equally cheap books defending the U. S. position or disclosing truths about the Communists I would not be overly concerned, since the reading public would at least have exposure to two sides of the question. Lamentably for us this is absolutely not the case.

The problem cannot be overstated. The Russian Embassy in the tiny republic of Uruguay (once traditionally a friend of the U. S.) has a staff of almost one hundred employees largely engaged in turning out propaganda for the southern end of the continent. One only has to count the number of Castro supporters in that country to see how effectively the Russians have done their work!

This letter stresses a situation we have pointed out time and time again. He suggests that a team of translators be created to translate books outlining the glories of America in sensational style and that these books be subsidized south of the border. This is a project worthy of great support by American business men. Will you rise to the challenge?

A Little Child Shall Lead Them

The urgency of this need for education concerning Communism is shown by this appealing letter from a 14-year old boy:

Dear Dr. Schwarz,

I would like for you to send more information on the subject of Communism and what it is doing to the world. I have been particularly interested in this problem and what it is doing for some time. I am a 14-year old boy in the eighth grade and hoping to be in the ninth by the end of May. I have asked many people what Communism really is. I was surprised at so little they did know. I feel that this is a subject that every Christian should know about, and what it is doing to religion. I have read one booklet that was entitled "Communism — Diagnosis and Treatment" which is very startling. If God will only make us realize the stark truth before it's too late.

Sincerely yours,
Ricky Hall

Break Through In The Arab World

Peter Shadid, a brilliant student from the Middle East writes: "I received a letter yesterday that my brother-in-law, who is a preacher in Beirut, has been granted permission from the Lebanese Government to print and distribute pamphlets or any literature about Communism. I am sending next week the pamphlet "What Is Communism" to Lebanon for printing and distribution. We pray that God will use the printing matter for opening the eyes of the readers to fight and seek the real truth. Will you send me new material? Yours in Him, Peter Shadid."

The message, "The Disease of Communism," is already translated and circulating in the Arab world.

DALLAS' SCHOOLS TO TEACH HOW TO FIGHT RED THREAT

FREEDOM FORUM OFFERS MATERIAL

By AL HESTER, Staff Writer

The Dallas Independent School District will launch a thorough course of study on ways to fight communism and its threat, School Board President Franklin Spafford said Saturday.

This week the big school district will begin a program which will include instruction in the evils of communism. The Dallas Freedom Forum will play a major part in furnishing materials, books, booklets and other information to inform students of the Communist problem, a school spokesman said.

No specific courses to emphasize anti-communism will be offered, but the study will be worked in with existing courses in social studies and possibly language arts and others, Dr. Frank Williams, assistant superintendent in charge of instruction, said Saturday.

"We are definitely concerned about the dangers of communism," Dr. Williams said. "We feel if the students do not know about its dangers, one day the Communists may conquer us."

CLOSE SCREENING

Dr. Williams said materials to be used for sources on the dangers of communism will be closely screened to see that they are acceptable.

"Then we will distribute the materials," he said. "Any teacher, with permission from her principal, can use these materials. The Freedom Forum has offered several pieces which will be used in quantity," Dr. Williams said.

Mr. Spafford said the board and administration have given much study to the problem of informing students about the communist problem.

"After a long period of thinking about this, we believe it is a good thing," he said.

To begin the ambitious study program, the district will sponsor a speech Thursday morning at Justin F. Kimball High School, 3606 S. Westmoreland, by Dr. Fred Schwarz, who coordinated the recent Freedom Forum in Dallas.

Dr. Schwarz will make a public address in the Baker Hotel Crystal Ballroom at 8 p.m. Wednesday, with Highland Park School Supt. Frank Monroe acting as master of ceremonies.

Another public speech by Dr. Schwarz will be delivered at 8 p.m. Thursday at Thomas Jefferson High School, 4001 Walnut Hill. Dr. W. T. White, Dallas school superintendent, will be master of ceremonies at the Thursday night speech. The Dallas PTA Council is also backing the appearance of Dr. Schwarz.

Freedom Forum is honoring outstanding groups of students at the Thursday night speech. An appearance by Dr. Schwarz is also to be scheduled on KERA-TV, the educational television station.

CONTEST PLANNED

The Dallas Freedom Forum is also planning an essay contest for students on "American Freedom vs. Communist Enslavement," an official said. The prize for the winning essay will be a full-year scholarship at the school of the winner's choice.

Literature the district plans to use in its study of the menace of communism includes "Communist Target—Youth," a booklet by the FBI "Expose of Soviet Espionage," by J. Edgar Hoover; "Communist Illusion and Democratic Reality," by J. Edgar Hoover; and "Communism—A Disease," by Dr. Fred Schwarz.

Other materials to be used include "Masters of Deceit," by J. Edgar Hoover, and "What Can I Do To Combat Communism," a compilation of material.

Support of Key Clubs (good citizenship organizations) will also be enlisted in the study program, a source said.

School officials see the program as a long-range one which will be fitted into regular studies.

INDIA

The great land of India must not be forgotten. One of the thinkers of that country is Prakash C. Jain, who attended the University of Minnesota in 1952 and was later with the Indian Government Information Service in Washington. He wrote a splendid article for The U. S. News and World Report of October 19, 1959, entitled "How Materialism Has Failed In The Foreign Aid Program." He reveals a deep insight into the true nature of Communism. The following letter speaks for itself:

Dear Mr. Schwarz:

I received some of your booklets from your office at Houston, Texas, and their persusal has convinced me that today you are perhaps the only thinker in the West who understands Communism in all its dreadful implications.

I particularly endorse your two points that Communism has nothing to do with the economic conditions of the people and that nothing much can be done unless the education system of the free world is re-oriented.

As a matter of fact, I think the first point merges into the second because the current identification of Communism with poverty and democracy with economic progress and a higher standard of living are the direct corollaries of what is taught in our schools and colleges.

At any rate, depending on one's choice, the modern scientific knowledge can be used to illustrate both the spritual or the materialistic hypotheses.

I think that Communism is the logical culmination of the Renaissance movement — which made man the measure of all things. It follows that unless, once again, you make God and Truth the measures of all things, you cannot, and you deserve not, escape the catastrophe which seems to be so near.

What is needed is a total philosophical revolution and a reinterpretation of most of our scientific discoveries and formulas.

The peculiar thing is that this materialistic outlook has completely distorted the vision of America and of the free world — so much so that today your enemies look to you like your friends and your friends look like your enemies. For example, the U. S. had a 300-man establishment in Cuba, but with all their research and study, they didn't know the ideas impelling Fidel Castro and actually helped him capture power. The same thing is happening in a number of other countries today.

Indeed, the disease has taken such deep roots that practically all the American-financed programs in our country are actively, though inadvertently, working for the propagation of Communism.

No wonder, America is having trouble everywhere — including its own backyard — South and Latin American countries and even Canada. But even this doesn't seem enough to open the American eyes. As a matter of fact, I have met a number of Americans who think that they are winning in this Cold War.

While the U. S. gives billions of dollars in aid to help development of poor countries, the Soviets draw for them their economic plans, which whether they succeed or fail can only end up in Communism.

While the U. S. concentrates on sending arms to strengthen its allies, the Soviets indoctrinate the youth who eventually form their armies.

While the U. S. invites carloads of students from foreign countries for higher but neutral studies, the Soviets try to win their spiritual and moral loyalties to the Communist viewpoint.

Here in India, the battle looks like completely lost. But still I and a couple more of my friends would like to try. Unfortunately, lack of resources — and I regret to say — non-cooperation from your USIS people and the American firms and foundations — deters us from doing anything.

If you or your friends can provide us with some resources, we would try to present the real spiritual point of view before the people and bring out the fallacies and dangers of Communism.

It looks tragic that while America can donate billions for the success of what are purely Communist programs, not even a few thousand can be spared for the people who are sincerely dedicated for freedom and whose work, in the last recourse, will only go to save America's own billions. At any rate, in a struggle between purposive Russian materialism, and purposeless, discursive American hedonism, the former is bound to emerge victorious.

Kindly return the enclosed clipping with your reply and, if you can send me a few copies of "Will the Kremlin Conquer America By 1973?", I shall be happy to pass them on to some of my friends here.

Sincerely,

Prakash C. Jain

Seldom have I read a finer analysis, and men of this caliber throughout the world must be supported. We are grateful for what we have already done in India, but much more remains to be done. We are hoping to have good news any day now concerning the rotary press for Kerala. There are difficulties which need your earnest prayer.

An Australian Baptist minister, Keith Wilson, visited India including both Kerala and Andhra in January. He writes: "For me this is the most significant and fascinating experience of my life. I cannot put down on paper my impressions of this wonderful, yet strange and heart-breaking country. I have seen things which I can never forget. I have had experiences already which have been life changing, spiritually enriching, and which have evoked every emotional response possible. Since arriving at Kottayam, I have been kept very busy speaking and surveying the work here. It is an abundantly worthwhile work. Every morning I give a Bible study to 60 of the finest men I have ever met. Most of them are full time Christian workers living in abject poverty but with such zeal and dedication to the Lord that it shames our western Christians including myself. It is a very humbling yet heart warming experience to have this fellowship with them. Last night I spoke to about 1,000 people and it is expected the crowd will swell to about 5,000 by Sunday.

"George Thomas is one of the most significant men I have ever met. I have a profound respect for him for he is obviously a very formidable figure here in Kerala and is greatly feared by the Communists. His newspaper is of the highest order, produced under difficult circumstances. There is no question of the inadequacy of the present plant."

ANDHRA

Concerning Andhra State, he writes: "I arrived at Secunderabad on Monday afternoon last and was given the usual tumultuous welcome. Of one thing I am certain, these Indian Nationals can reach people no missionary could ever reach and live under conditions which would kill a Westerner. On Tuesday we traveled north about thirty miles, then walked ten miles into an isolated village of about 200 or so homes. Most had never seen a white person before, and I was an object of attention and amusement. They stared at me all day long and, when I put on my short pajamas at night, the crowd simply roared with laughter. I was impressed with the quality of the men Rao has gathered around him. Wednesday evening we trekked out to another village some three miles away. The Communists aim to visit every village systematically in Andhra before the next election. With warm Christian greetings. Keith Wilson."

The Congregation at Garapadu Village who welcomed Rev. K. W. Wilson

Those of you who have supported this work so sacrificially can take heart. God is moving.

A Supporter Speaks

One of the warm and generous supporters of the Christian Anti-Communism Crusade is Norman Vander Veen of Modesto, California. He appreciates America because he has lived under totalitarian terror. When he told me his story, I was so impressed, I asked him to write it for publication. How lightly we take our glorious privileges.

My dear fellow Americans:

It has not been very long since I can call you by this name for I became an American citizen myself less than one year ago.

I was born in Holland, and I will always be proud of my little native country, but I'm also very happy to live here now.

During the last world war we went through the terror of five years of occupation by the forces of Hitler. Five long years of Nazi tyranny. We have seen national socialism in action and we know, by our own experience, what it means to lose just about all freedom.

It is a terrible thing, when the press, the radio, the right of speech, of assembly, etc., are controlled by a dictatorship.

Can you imagine what it means, when you cannot speak or act freely? That if you would express any opinion, contrary to the party line, you could expect the knock at the door, at midnight? That meant that you would be arrested, thrown into a concentration camp waiting for an almost certain death in the greatest misery.

Perhaps you can imagine a little of our joy, when we saw the Canadian and American troops move in to liberate us from the yoke of slavery. We admired those men who gave their life for the freedom of mankind, and we should always be thankful for the great sacrifices they made.

After living here for seven years, I must say, that this great country has the highest standard of living in the world, that, in general, its people are the finest I've ever met. It is amazing what a tremendous task has been fulfilled in building this country for what it is today; in less than two centuries.

However, I am very disappointed in one respect. Although we enjoy a measure of freedom almost unequaled on earth; although we live in an abundance not to be found in any other country; although we have a splendid constitution based on Christian principles; hardly anybody seems to be concerned about preserving this freedom and those God-given privileges. We are still living in the land of the free, but is it still the home of the brave?

Why is it, that a people that sends out its men to the battlefields of the world to die for the cause of freedom, can now tolerate the forces of evil to infiltrate deeply into its society, with the sole purpose of destroying all of this freedom? Is it not clear to all of us that our liberties are in great danger?

My dear fellow citizens! We don't have to be afraid for another world war. We are fully engaged in a war at present, a spiritual war to the bitter end. The parties are the forces of good under Christ's command, and the forces of evil with Satan. The weapons are not principally missiles, satellites, submarines and hydrogen bombs but far more — the printed page, communications, economic warfare.

Everyone honest enough to face the facts will come to the conclusion that the situation is very critical. All the evidence is there to prove that Communism advances very rapidly.

The Communists say that they are ordained to conquer this world, and they plan to bring this to pass within a very short time.

After we have examined the facts, we could say that this is a hopeless situation and sit down in great despair. This certainly would not be a stand to take for a Christian, and it would serve the Communist cause very effectively.

There is no place for the complacency of people who say, "After all, God rules the world, and He will make all things right." I fully agree that He will, but don't you think that you could form an active part in His plan? Didn't Jesus order us to pray and work?

There is only one position we can take. We are either FOR or AGAINST Christ. If we are for Christ, we will have to go all the way. The future does not depend on the Communists. If freedom should perish from the earth, it would be because of our sin, our complacency, our lack of faith and courage.

If a Communist is willing to give everything, even his life, for the cause of his false ideals, should we not be ready to dedicate ourselves completely to the cause of freedom? Don't we have enough to stand for? I think we certainly have.

So often we hear the question, "What can we do?" Don't only ask this question and blame others for what they do wrong. Remember, we can only survive by complete personal sacrifice.

If your child was critically ill, wouldn't you give everything to save his life? Right now the life of our children, our own lives, and the very existence of our church, school, and our country is at stake.

We will have to study the facts and have the honesty to face them, to study the true nature of our godless enemy, and rededicate ourselves to the cause of freedom, and then, motivated by the love of Christ, our Redeemer, and equipped with knowledge, we can fulfill our God-given task in our own place in any situation.

The struggle is going to be hard and will become harder.

There is no easy way out. There is no place for despair. Our battle is not hopeless for, if we are on God's side, we cannot help but win. We as Christians and as a nation have to put our trust in God alone and completely surrender our lives to Christ.

Let us be ready to die for the truth so that we may live in freedom by God's grace.

ECCLESIASTICAL VERACITY

One of those mentioned in the film "Operation Abolition" as addressing the students gathered to protest the hearings of the Committee was the Rev. Canon Richard Byfield, Executive Assistant to Bishop James A. Pike of the Episcopal Diocese of California. He also writes letters. In an indirect way a slanderous letter concerning the Christian Anti-Communism Crusade attributed to him has been brought to our notice. The Oceanside Beacon of Oceanside, New York, has a columnist, Bruce W. Marcus. On January 26, 1961, in his column he writes, "I can only quote from a letter I received from the Rev. Canon Richard Byfield, Executive Assistant to Bishop James A. Pike of the Episcopal Diocese of California. He had seen a column I had written in report on a speech in which cybernetics, a mathematical science, was referred to as the secret language of the Communists." He says, "Recently someone sent me a copy of the curriculum provided by the Christian Anti-Communism Crusade. All the evidence seems to indicate that this is a totally irresponsible group which is simply in the 'anti-communism crusade' business for the money that is in it."

To the best of my knowledge, Canon Byfield has had no association with the Crusade whatever. I have written him the following letter:

Rev. Canon Richard Byfield
Executive Assistant to Bishop James A. Pike
Episcopal Diocese of California
San Francisco, California

Dear Canon Byfield:

Bruce W. Marcus, Columnist for the Oceanside Beacon, Oceanside, New York, writes in his column of Thursday, January 26, that in a letter to him you state, "Recently someone sent me a copy of the curriculum provided by the Christian Anti-Communism Crusade. All the evidence seems to indicate that this is a totally irresponsible group which is simply in the 'anti-communism crusade' business for the money that is in it."

As President of the Christian Anti-Communism Crusade, may I ask you to state the evidence that led to this conclusion. I invite you to visit our offices in Long Beach, California, Houston, Texas, or San Francisco, and examine our books, inspect our audited statements and ask any questions you desire of the personnel.

May I draw to your attention the easily provable facts that the Christian Anti-Communism Crusade is supporting thousands of individuals throughout the world who are in dire poverty but devoted to freedom and Christ. May I indicate that our representative in your city works long hours and gives unsparingly of his time and energy without receiving one cent in salary. Is this evidence on which you base your conclusion?

May I ask that you refrain from making defamatory statements in the future and suggest that an apology may be in order.

Yours very sincerely,

Fred Schwarz, President
Christian Anti-Communism Crusade

Available Materials

The question is frequently raised whether the materials are available for an effective course on Communism. The answer is a definite "yes." The Government Printing Office has available a great number of very thorough books describing the operation of Communism. Many fine books have been written by experts in many fields. The book "You Can Trust the Communists" which I have authored, is receiving exceedingly favorable mention. The following letter is from a very respected high school educational authority:

"Dear Dr. Schwarz:

Recently I have had the opportunity to read your new book You Can Trust the Communists. I believe it to be the best summation of Communist ideology, philosophy, tactics, and objectives, stated in language that laymen can understand that I have thus far seen. You have made a most difficult and complex subject clear and understandable, and at the same time challenged the reader to take positive action to stop this powerful and tyrannical force which threatens to destroy us.

As an educator, I feel strongly that our schools through their offerings in history, social studies, economics, and related subjects, should give their students deeper knowledge and understanding of the evil nature of Communism which threatens the spiritual and political foundations upon which our nation rests. For several years, I have attempted in schools where I have served as principal to assist students, teachers, and librarians to secure appropriate resource materials geared to the interest and language levels of high school students, but with no success. Your book very amply serves this purpose, and I highly recommend it to high school groups engaged in a study of Communism. The language level is not beyond that of the typical high school student. The complex philosophy of Communism is made clear to the average reader.

It is my hope that this outstanding book which has so forcefully developed the supreme issue of our time — our survival, and the survival of free men everywhere — will be widely read throughout this great nation of ours.

With warmest regards, and best wishes.

Sincerely yours,
Gordon L. Smith"

This book continues to progress and it is hoped that it will soon be available in a number of languages. Such authentic information on Communism is desperately needed in many lands. From Zurich, Switzerland comes this letter:

"Dear Doctor Schwarz,

I have now read your marvellous book "You Can Trust the Communists" and find it in its contents as I expected it, but to your honor it must be said that it is written with genuine European thoroughness! I find it of utmost value for those who did not know that Communism was "just that way." For most people have regarded Communism in its own description and because the USA were allies of all communist states in the last war and celebrated the act of "liberation" as the Communist wanted to have them celebrate it — it took many years before the people of the USA awoke to see that it was all different!

Your book will make millions deadly uneasy — and bless God if they do become uneasy — and may it be millions, not only hundreds of thousands. The most uneasy part of the book is to my estimate the part where brain washing is described. This revelation of the world's most hellish invention ought to arouse the people to action.

Let us fight as never before. All efforts must be doubled! I shall try to place your book on sale at the Methodist Book Concern here.

WORK IN HAITI

In the heart of the Caribbean, near Cuba and the Dominican Republic, is the land of Haiti. The language spoken there is French. George Westcott, Surgeon of Ypsilanti, Michigan, and Vice President of the Christian Anti-Communism Crusade, was formerly a missionary in the Congo where French was the language spoken. He recently visited Haiti and has now gone there for an extended period. While in Haiti he found a great hunger for knowledge concerning Communism and prepared a simple tract which was published in French. Tracts of this nature could be multiplied in Spanish, Portuguese and flooded everywhere. Here is the report from George and the English translation of the tract:

During a survey trip into Haiti in October 1960, I soon discovered that many of the people were deeply concerned about the extent of Communist subversion prevalent there. Those alert to the situation and the threat it presents were eager for help in combatting this great evil. As a result, a number of addresses were given to large and attentive audiences. In addition, a brochure was formulated and 10,000 copies made for a trial run. The supply was soon exhausted and now requests are at hand for 75,000 more copies.

Dr. Westcott

Dr. Westcott plans to return to Haiti at the end of January for more speaking engagements.

If Communism Comes To Haiti -- What?

(An English translation of the brochure is hereby provided))

1. You will lose your freedom. In China, under communism, the people are not allowed to travel or visit friends. They cannot choose their kind of work or place of residence. The government tells them what they must do and how long they must work. They cannot change jobs or move to another place.

2. You will lose your family. Under the commune system of China, all the men live in barracks together. Some distance away the wives live in other barracks. The children, even babies, are taken away and put in nurseries (homes) in another place. A man may see his wife once a week for two hours, but he must report all that was said and done. Parents may see their children for a short time, once a week, but may show no affection. Childrens names are taken away and they are given numbers instead.

3. You will lose your church. Reverend Peter Chu Pong, from China, says, "The churches now in existence are not Christian churches; they are propaganda churches allowed to operate by the Communists — None of the pastors are Christians; they are all Communists — picked by the government to indoctrinate the people in communism. The young people are not allowed to attend services, even in the Communist-controlled churches. The young people are all the property of the Communist Party."

4. Many of you will lose your lives. When the Communists conquered Lithuania, they destroyed nearly a fourth of the people. In China, tens of millions were killed during the first five years. In Russia itself, many millions were put to death. You will receive the same kind of treatment.

The Communists win your support by wonderful promises of peace, prosperity and happiness. They promise a better way of life and at first many believe them. Yet millions who have lived for years under Communism are trying to escape out of the Communist-dominated countries, knowing that if they are caught by the border guards they will be killed. If Communism is good, why do they flee at the risk of their lives? One should demand a satisfactory reply to this important question. Thus far the Communists have never given a reasonable answer.

WHAT CAN WE DO?

Every Christian should pray constantly to Almighty God that the red tide of Communism will be turned back. The Communist says, "There is no God." They don't know God should so witness by word and conduct that others will desire to know Him.

But this is not enough. We must inform others that Communism is a godless, atheistic, materialistic program that will destroy civilization unless it is turned back. The Communists are aggressive against God. We must be equally aggressive and faithful to Him.

FINANCIAL NEEDS

Our enemies and the enemies of freedom may snarl and sneer and accuse us of sordid mercenary motives, but our friends and the friends of freedom know better. You know that this majestic program we are preaching and practicing costs money. You know our workers around the world must eat. You know that as the fight becomes fiercer our needs become greater. If we are to do what must be done this year, millions of dollars will be needed. Will you believe and work and give to this end?

Conclusion

The Communists meet together and arrogantly announce their plans for the culmination and the conquest of the world. Their agents throughout the world become more brazen in their activities. The time at our disposal grows ever smaller. May we dedicate every minute of it to the service of freedom and Christ.
