3 LV veterans honored with trip to U.S. capital

By Mavis Richards

Three of our Leisure Village veterans left for Washington, D.C., on Sept. 30 on the Honor Flight. Virginia Sims, Josette Wingo and Kenney Nelson are on the flight, which was started by a group of businessmen and companies to honor our veterans of World War II.

The group is flying to D.C.

at no cost and is being given the royal treatment. They are getting a tour of the World War II memorial, the Korean War memorial and the Vietnam War memorial, as well as the Tomb of the Unknowns and the Women's Memorial in Arlington Cemetery.

They may also have lunch

What's cookin' with Larry?

By Patty Ecker

When Larry Swartz moved into Leisure Village nearly two years ago, he was not retiring.

"I just wanted to get away from L.A. I was looking for some place quiet and safe," he explains with a smile. "I found it."

At first, he had no thoughts about getting involved in activities.

"But you see people doing things – no matter their age or hair color – and I realized that I didn't want to sit on the sidelines," he says.

He's been stirring things up ever since, literally.

Welcome to the Leisure Village Cooking Show, a monthly culinary broadcast which Larry created, produces and hosts on LVTV. This is not Iron Chef or Hell's Kitchen. This is about eating well, sharing recipes, and learning that healthy food can taste good.

OPINION

Disturbing trend in LV

By Stan Reshes
ILV editor

Something that should never be taken for granted is the time and effort required of those who volunteer to serve on our Leisure Village Board of Directors. These five homeowners must deal with daily issues and make decisions that affect the welfare of our community, as well as serve as liaison to the many committees whose volunteer members likewise serve in our best interests.

What has been an openness and transparency of decisions made by our recent past Board of Directors has suddenly and inexplicably been negated by the present BOD and General Manager, who have turned controversial decisions into issues of arguable Attorney-

The holidays are approaching, and with them come many activities in Leisure Village.

First up is Halloween, and this year, the LV Musicians Club is throwing a party featuring the Big Band. It's from 7 to 10 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 25. See Page 3 for details.

The Festival of the Arts, featuring creations from many Village clubs, is set for Nov. 6. For details, see Page 3.

Many clubs are throwing end-of-the-year buffets and holiday dinners. Be sure to check the many listings that start on Page 14.

The Pet Parade on Aug. 27 was a howling success. Read all about it on Page 11.

The Village held a remembrance for the events of Sept. 11, 2001. Details, Page 16.

And this month's Club Profile, which appears on Page 17, is the Women's Club, which holds a Tuesday workshop that results in many bargains for local shoppers.

LETTERS

Last month a white car hit the right front bumper of my red Mercury Mystique parked in the East lot. A hit and run! So, if you have seen a white car with red paint on it, you have seen the culprit.

— Maxine Fritz, V. 20

This is to commend and thank the LV New York Club for the most worthy observance of 9/11 with a memorial service held in the East Parking Lot.

I found the ceremony to be compassionate, emotional and completely satisfying and a very enjoyable experience. Thank you.

— Della Carmona, V. 31

I want to publicly thank all the "Bone Builder" instructors who volunteer their services so conscientiously and diligently. Thank you, ladies. I am almost ready to leap tall buildings in a single bound.

— Carol Goodkin, V. 7

Art Show set for Nov. 6

By Rita Linsey

Artistic talent flourishes here in Leisure Village.

You are invited to enjoy one of the most popular annual events held in Leisure Village, the Art Show, featuring creations from many of our clubs. The Festival of the Arts is on Sunday, Nov. 6, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the AR.

Adding to the festivities this year is free wine-tasting and appetizers and jazz music interspersed with the piano-playing of Irene Olson.

Clubs displaying their talents are: Village Arts, Quilters, Needle Works, Wood Working, Origami, Lapidary, Stoners, Writers, Women's Club, Camera Club, China Painting, Ceramics Plus and Ceramic Mold.

In addition to the displays in the AR, the Stoners' Jewelry Club and the Ceramic Plus Club are selling their items in the Garden Room and Gazebo Gardens.

Visitors mill around last year's Leisure Village Festival of the Arts.

Putting on the Art Show would not be possible without the support of people who volunteer their time and provide donations to help make it a success. Thank you.

For more information about the show, please contact Rita Linsey at 484-8653 or rdlinsey@gmail.com.

Dance this Halloween

By Stan Vansant

Do you have an idea for a unique Halloween costume? Well, this year make sure it includes a pair of dancing shoes.

The Leisure Village Big Band, part of the LV Musicians Club, is throwing a Halloween party in the AR on Tuesday, Oct. 25, from 7 to 10 p.m. All Leisure Village residents and their guests are welcome to attend.

Special guest Nancy Osborne, the featured vocalist at the Big Band's Valentine's Dance last February, will again join the band for this special occasion.

There will be prizes for the best costumes as well as raffle prizes. All you need is a ticket. Refreshments, sodas and coffee will be provided, or you can bring your own choice of beverage.

Tickets are $7 and will go on sale in mid-October in the Rec Center lobby. Watch LVTV for details.

Questions? Call Stan Vansant at 482-6735 or Anne Steigerwald at 987-4603.

Come and enjoy the sounds of a 17-piece dance band. Socialize, dance and perhaps win a prize at The Great Pumpkin Ball on Oct. 25. Costumes are optional.

Bible Study group meets

By Carol Cannell

We are off to a great start, having studied from the Psalms and from Genesis. The next two classes are from the Gospel of Mark and the Book of Isaiah.

Our pastors are great! Each of them has taught us for multiple years.

Our group is a great bunch of Leisure Village ladies. We are very friendly. Come give us a tryout. We meet each Tuesday morning at 10 a.m. at the retirement facility called Emeritus.

For more information, call Carol at 987-7570.

Last AARP Safe Driver Refresher Course scheduled for this year

By Claudia Roberts

With an AARP Safe Driver Refresher Course, you will develop a greater appreciation of driving challenges and how you can avoid potential collisions and injuries to yourself or others.

The last class for 2011 will be on Thursday, Nov. 17, from 1 to 5 p.m. in the MPR. Enrollment is available. If needed, a list of eight-hour classes given locally is available.

Each participant will receive a certificate that, when presented to your insurance agency, should provide you with a discount.

Cost is $12 per person with an AARP membership and $14 for non-members. You must provide your AARP membership number on your check to qualify for the $12 fee. Pre-registration is required. Your check will not be deposited until after the class.

Please contact Claudia Roberts at 482-9904 if you have questions or want to register.

REALTORS CORNER

Mortgage rates, foreclosures make this the time to invest

By Sharron Parker
Troop Real Estate, Inc.

Mortgage rates are the lowest in at least four decades! The average rate for a 30-year fixed loan for a primary residence or refinance is at approximately 4 percent.

The rate to purchase an investment property could be as low as 4.5 percent. The mortgage rate for other than a primary residence is always somewhat higher than a primary residence purchase or refinance.

This provides an opportunity for those homeowners who still have a mortgage on their home to possibly significantly lower their payments with a refinance. Lenders will, of course, look at the borrower's FICO credit score, appraisal, etc., to determine a monthly payment.

If you've been thinking about the potential of putting some money into an investment property, there are some good ones available, including short sales and foreclosures. The Federal Housing Administration will loan up to 96.5 percent of the purchase price, and 100 percent of the down payment can be a gift. Multiple co-borrowers are allowed and qualifying is liberal.

The Veterans Administration allows for 100 percent financing (no down payment required), and gift funds are allowed with liberal qualifying.

Your Realtor can refer you to competent loan officers should these amazing low mortgage rates be of interest to you.

VILLAGE HAPPENINGS

After 50 years, Howard Kramer hits hole-in-one

By Joseph Benti

In nearly half a century in journalism, I've seen a few "historical" events, but one recent Tuesday morning I was in Howard Kramer's foursome when he achieved that elusive, 12,500-to-1 shot, his first "hole-in-one."

It was also the first one I ever saw that wasn't on TV.

Never mind that Nicklaus and Player each have 20, and Tiger and Arnie 18 apiece, as the Mrs. (Carolyn) will attest, none matches the one that eluded "Howie" for nearly 50 years.

And, as I've heard, it is true that when Howie hit it, he didn't see the ball go in, and he didn't believe it until he walked up to the pin and recovered his ball.

LETTERS

The Village Arts garden show was delightful. There were, however, a couple of surprises.

The first was walking up to the exhibits and finding huge signs that read, "May contain sexually explicit materials."

I walked through the exhibits and found none. I did meet some folks who heard about the signs and came looking for the above-mentioned sexually explicit material. They groaned a bit and walked away disappointed.

A very talented Leisure Village artist exhibited five paintings, two of which were nudes. An unknown art critic put notes on them that read, "Not a pretty picture." I saw the hurt expression on the artist's face and thought that the Board must feel pretty good about themselves.

And so I try to laugh and pretend that what happened here is kind of funny. But it isn't. Our elected representatives turned a dangerous element loose.

— Marge Lorraine, V. 41

Open Letter to "The Wry Eye:"
I have just read Joseph Benti's column, "The Wry Eye" in the September issue of ILV and cannot believe that the opinions expressed therein in this day and age are serious.

I am new to the Village and do not know Mr.

The Wry Eye

By Joseph Benti

"Absolutely disgusting!"

"Such things call for police intervention!"

Not the words of a few residents
Confusing nude drawings with intention.

That critic's outrage

Was prompted in eighteen ninety six

By a twenty-two second film of...

(turn away if you are easily offended)

Yes, a fully clothed man and woman

Engaging in, good gravy, a kiss!*

*We can't show it in the library but you can see it on the Internet: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mTHzr8_wfK0

Benti personally, but I am sure he is an honorable man. However, his remark about burning books was an idea tried 75 years ago with tragic consequences. We pride ourselves in championing free speech as it does not create a dangerous situation. The idea of censorship should be abhorred by every American. One is not forced to read or watch things he does not like, and there is no reason to impose those beliefs or feelings on others. If we don't like something we have a choice not to participate. Come on, join the 21st century.

— Martin S. Wiener, V. 9

Response to Martin Weiner:

Historically and psychologically, small and close-minded people have been trying to destroy differing ideas and free expression long before the Third Reich, "...the destruction of the Library of Alexandria, the obliteration of the Library of Baghdad, the burning of books and burying of scholars under China's Qin Dynasty, the destruction of Aztec codices by Spanish conquistadors and priests....(Even after Germany's defeat) the Allied occupation authorities drew up a list of over 30,000 titles, ranging from school books to poetry....Millions of copies of these books were confiscated and destroyed. The representative of the Military Directorate admitted that the order in principle was no different from the Nazi book burnings...." (Wikipedia.com)

My "Wry Eye" focuses on the absurdity of our behavior with the hope of challenging closed minds to reason and think critically.

I agree with Mr. Weiner about the "danger." But, echoing my friend Ray Bradbury in his masterpiece, "Fahrenheit 451," "I just want someone to hear what I have to say. And maybe if I talk long enough, it'll make sense."

— Joseph Benti, V. 1

Client Privilege, thereby allowing these decisions to stand with no explanations to the members of the Association, nor has homeowner access been granted to the documents (or process) that purportedly influenced these decisions.

Specifically, the removal of drawings of nudes by a member of the Village Arts Club in our library was allegedly due to an employee, or employees, complaining that they found these drawings offensive. Given an explanation that our legal representative advised that allowing the drawings to remain on view would constitute a "hostile work environment" or even "sexual harassment" is trampling on our First Amendment rights, and is compounded by classifying it as privileged, thereby allowing no public discussion of a legal opinion. A small group of employees (number unknown) can dictate what 3,000-plus residents may view in their library?

The second issue is of golf carts being allowed on our course. This is contrary to our Rules and Regulations, but the explanation has been that this considers ADA (American with Disabilities Act) rules. We are also advised that this decision is to be on a six-month trial basis. Does this mean that an ADA regulation could be ignored if the BOD determines that it is dissatisfied after the trial period? Does it also mean the Board can ignore the Rules as they are written, forbidding carts?

The third issue is that the Board members, without any prior warning or input from either homeowners or committee members, and with little discussion, unanimously voted to eliminate the Purchase Research Committee, a volunteer group of homeowners that has during the past couple of years saved the Association money.

This kind of behavior tends to create an uneasiness about what has happened to the openness and trust we expect from those we elected to represent us. Our confidence needs to be restored.

With 37 dogs and 4 cats, Pet Parade is a howling success

By Jeanne White

The LV Mavericks Club and LV Pet Club joined together to host the 2011 Pet Parade on Aug. 27 along the Walk of Celebration.

The dogs, as usual, way outnumbered the cats, with 37 dog entries and four cat entries. Several other dogs joined the fun as part of the presentations by Mindy Sharp with Guide Dogs of America and Clarissa Black with Pets for Vets, both great organizations worthy of our continued support.

More than 125 Villagers were in attendance, and hot dogs, sodas, bottled water and coffee were real favorites with the crowd.

The three judges, Rick Secia of Village 4, Barbara Thorne of Village 37 and local veterinarian Dr. Deena

Jessie, a Sheltie owned by Deborah Woodard, took Best of Show and Best of Medium.

Case-Paul, were tasked with choosing 11 winners and accomplished their assignment with great enthusiasm.

The winners were:

Best of Small – Sam, a Shih Tzu (Rena Mitchell).

Small 2nd Place – Peanut, a Dachshund Mix (Susan Maddox).

Small 3rd Place – Cami, a mini Poodle mix (Bev Alderson).

Best of Medium – Jessie, a Sheltie (Deborah Woodard).

Medium 2nd Place – Wolfe, a Miniature Husky (Dale Roos).

Medium 3rd Place – Rocky, a Miniature Poodle (Paul Coffman).

Best of Large – Max, a Collie (Janice Melling).

Best Cat – Willy, an American Shorthair Silver Tip (Maryanne McInerney).

Best Tail Wagger – Doc, a Golden Retriever (Barbara Krohta). Cutest – Nugget, Shih Tzu Chihuahua mix (Jody Taylor).

Best of Show – Jessie, also the Best of Medium winner. Congratulations to you all!

These proud winners took home prizes donated by the following local vendors: Cucina Isabella, Eggs-n-Things, Lure Fish House, Petropolulis, Souplantation and Trader Joe's. A job well done by Mary Ann Robnett, president of the LV Pet Club, in rounding up so many great prizes and speakers.

A huge thank you to all who came out for the event and to all the volunteers who made this happen.

Our pets bring us great joy and love. This was a wonderful event celebrating how special each one is.

Please watch for the airing on LTV of the video taken by Ken Walker, Village 28. It is a beautiful piece of work.

COOKING

"We've done a show on three ways to make chicken breast that is delicious not dull," he says. "Last month, we did a meatloaf competition. This summer Villager Ann Wolfson joined me to show us how to make matzo ball soup."

He looks forward to more feedback, questions and suggestions for the show.

Larry's love of cooking began when he became a single parent. His son, Brian — now with a Ph.D. from UC Berkeley — was 10, and Dad quickly realized how important eating healthy foods was for a growing child.

"Teenage boy equals junk food, if we're not careful. So I learned real fast how to make fresh food tempting, but not without a bit of complaining from the kid, 'Is this that fake cheese again?'" he recalls.

That commitment to changing young eating habits also led him to volunteer at Casa Pacifica, Camarillo's residential center for abused children. He called them one day and asked if he could teach a cooking class to the youngsters. Of course, they said yes.

For eight weeks, Larry was chef and mentor to two groups of kids, youngsters under age 11, and a teenage class — who were much more skeptical at first, Larry recalls. He prepared green, locally grown veggies that they liked! The kids took a blind hot dog test — sampling soy, turkey, chicken, and beef wieners — and surprised themselves when they loved the turkey version. At the end of class, the kids created a giant thank you poster for their chef and filled it with loving messages.

"The experience was heart-wrenching, but great," says Larry.

The world of work sometimes interrupts Larry Swartz's busy LV schedule. He owns a corporate event planning company, which can divert him to prepare glamorous banquets and awards ceremonies.

But more and more, his heart and energy is focused on Camarillo, Leisure Village and good food.

"I love to cook and share ideas on how people can eat healthy. This is a great place to do that. The community feeling feeds my soul."

with their congressman.

A medical doctor and three nurses will attend to assist the needs of the veterans.

Virginia worked in a defense plant before she joined the Navy in 1943 and became a WAVE. She said she joined the Navy because she looked better in blue than in khaki. In February 1956, while working in other fields, she started racing automobiles. Then, in 1957, she and a friend, Mary Davis, were picked to be the first women to drive in the Economy Run. They drove a V8 Plymouth from Los Angeles to Sun Valley, Ind., and they won in their class. In 1959, she received a trophy as the fastest woman of the year, 163.34 mph, at Riverside Raceway. She drove Economy Runs for 12 years and in 1968, the last year of the Economy Runs, she won her class.

So guess what Virginia did on her 90th birthday? She jumped out of an airplane.

Josette Wingo, at 20 years of age, full of patriotis and bravado, joined the WAVES during World War II.

Eleanor Roosevelt was their heroine for insisting that women should be allowed to volunteer for the Navy. On Treasure Island in the San Francisco Bay, Josette taught men how to shoot an ACK gun and how to hit real planes using a new ring site. The sailors were not thrilled to find women as their teachers.

Kenney Nelson, in 1938 at the age of 16, joined the California National Guard. He served in the Army Air Force in World War II, and was trained as a gunner instructor and photo interpreter. He flew as a member of the first deployed B-29 overseas. Kenney served in North Africa, India, China and Tinian Island. He completed nine combat missions.

After the war, Kenney served seven years in Japan as a Joint Criminal investigator and counterintelligence agent for northern Japan. He was the only American engaged in the Ethiopian/Somalia War to receive their highest award, the Golden Medallion. Kenney also received a medal from the Chinese government for his service in China, along with a medal given by the United Nations for his service during the Korean War.

The New York Club meets on the first Thursday of each month in the AR at 7:30 p.m. You need not have lived in New York to join. Dues are $7 per year.

On Nov. 3, Dan Tullis Jr. will make an encore performance. He recently starred as the Man of La Mancha in a local theater.

Harry Rosenberg has also planned a special program for our December meeting. A young multitalented group from Camarillo, called Gamed, will entertain.

Showtyme

By Phil Kamens

For Showtyme for Friday, Oct. 14, at 7:30 p.m. in the AR, I am happy to present that singing sensation, Bill

Jones. He has done it all — singing, acting, radio and TV. His voice has been used for many commercials.

He has been on Fox TV's "Glee" many times, as well as "Everybody Hates Chris," "Las Vegas," "King Of Queens," "Just Shoot Me" and "The Drew Carey Show." He is very good. Plan on seeing this one!

As a matter of fact, plan on seeing all Showtyme shows. I promise they will all be good.

All nine shows are free to members. Non-members are welcome with a $3 charge at the door.

Cathy Friedman and I want to thank everyone for their warm and wonderful support and kind words for the circus workshop we did last month. We had a great time putting it on, and you the audience made it that much more special to us. Without an audience, our efforts don't mean much. Thank you again.

Saturday Nite Dance Party

By Andrea Moran

Once again we had a great time at our Saturday Nite Dances. We had a terrific lineup of bands and fun for all. Here's the October lineup:

Oct. 8: Dick Parent.

Oct. 15: Moore Music.

Oct. 22: A new rock and roll group, The Bushwhackers. We are calling our dance The Rockafest. Come, all you mavericks, let's have some fun.

Oct. 29: Rhythm Kings.

For all who wish to put on dancing clothes and shoes, I guarantee a good time. A $7 admission includes punch and popcorn. BYOB. Happy feet to all.

LV Bowling

By Marty Simons

We have 17 teams in this, our 36th season, and Week One got off to a flying start. Leonard Belcher started off with a 247 and followed it up with a 204. Dennis Durand bowled a 214 and Alan Singer a 203. Side Pot winners were Leonard Belcher, Alan Singer and Dennis Durand for the men, and Cathy Friedman, Jackie Hassett (new bowler) and a tie between Barbara Leigh and Vivian Hurst for the ladies.

A near impossible split was picked up by Ernie Slabotsky, our 96-year-old Super Senior. Atta boy, Ernie.

We had spots for all of our subs and can use more, so come on guys and gals, join up.

For more information, call Marty Simons at 987-9295 or e-mail martys36@roadrunner.com.

LV Musicians

By Anne Wolfson

The LV Musicians are a group of Villagers who entertain other Villagers. Libby Pierce played "It's Been a Long, Long, Time," "Cielito Lindo" and "The Alley Cat" on the piano. Don Stevens, on trombone, accompanied by Art Akkerman on piano, played "When I Fall In Love" and "Mona Lisa." Joyce Schiparelli, on piano, played a medley of show tunes, including "Exodus" and songs from "Fiddler On The Roof." Sam Arousty on sax and Art Akkerman

Remembering Sept. 11, 2001

Commemorating the 10th anniversary of the attack of 9-11, the New York Club held a ceremony on the east parking lot on Sept. 11 that attracted more than 150 residents.

Leatrice Posner recited a poem, "I Am a New Yorker," which expressed the feelings of most citizens throughout the United States following the attack.

A wreath was laid on the plaque by the oak tree that was planted on the first anniversary of Sept. 11.

Marc Stone, who was the driving force for the 10th anniversary event, related a heart-wrenching story of his experience being in New York at the time of the attack.

His thoughts today, in his own words: "The tragedy that claimed nearly 3,000 lives remains indelible, defying the generation of Americans who bore witness. Ten years later, memories of the smoky devastation remain vivid for many of us, and thoughts of other people's losses and what might have been are still raw. New York has patched up its hole, but the memory lingers on. People can begin to see that this is no longer a hole in the middle of New York."

We here in the Village see a 50-foot oak tree which, in 2002, was a 10-foot seedling. How fortunate we are to grow healthy and prosper in this wonderful Leisure Village we live in."

Photos by Jerry Spector

Clockwise from upper left: New York Club President Mannie Abbate presents a wreath at the oak tree that was planted by the New York Club on Sept. 11, 2002. Dozens attend the opening ceremony of the remembrance event. Rabbi Mike Lotker gives the invocation. U.S. Rep. Elton Gallegly, R-Simi Valley, whose district includes Leisure Village, addresses the crowd. Singing the National Anthem are Sally Yale, left, and Carol Miller.

CLUB PROFILE

As holidays approach, Women's Club workshop stays busy

By Bob McQuivey

Anyone considering the purchase of a gift for any reason need look no further than the Women's Club workshop, a group that assembles in the MPR on any given Tuesday from 9 to 11 a.m.

Therein you will find 25 to 30 of Leisure Village's finest and busiest craftsmen (women if you like) plying their trade in the art of crochet, needlework, origami, jewelry making and other such activities.

They also have for sale a wide variety of aprons, hot pads, blankets, booties, earrings and other such knickknacks, doodads and gizmos like you've never seen before, and it's all inexpensive — not cheap, but inexpensive.

Best of all, it's homemade.

The weekly event is the perfect place for grandmothers to meet the needs of their grandkids, and most particularly for those few men that spend too much time on the golf course and subsequently need help in selecting a gift for their wife, relative or friend with the likes of Clay Starr and other busy bees ready and able to assist those in need.

By way of brief background, the Women's Club and attendant workshop was one of the first clubs organized in Leisure Village in 1974, with none other than Piff DeSimone installed as the very first president (she may still be seen from time to time line dancing at various venues).

The club now boasts of a membership totaling about 330. Joyce Baker presides over the monthly general meeting, held on the first Thursday of the month, that not only hosts first-class entertainment, but also provides good refreshments (Leisure Village motto: Serve cookies and they will come), and coordinates many other activities throughout the year, including the always-popular annual fashion show.

According to the Women's Club bylaws, the purpose of the organization is "to be a social organization that will develop and maintain a spirit of good will among the women of Leisure Village and to contribute to in-house activities and charities when funding permits."

Speaking of donations, the Women's Club over the past 10 or so years has contributed an average of over $11,000 per year for charities outside the community (American Cancer Society, Camarillo hospital, library, hospice, etc.) in addition to purchasing a large number of items needed within the Village (automatic doors, ice machine, photocopier, etc). The more you spend the greater the benefit to our community, inside and out.

Of particular note is the annual Holiday Bazaar that is currently scheduled for Monday, Nov. 7, from 3 to 7 p.m. and again on Tuesday, Nov.

8, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the MPR, where the gals will have an assortment of holiday gifts and decorations for sale, items generally not displayed at other times of the year.

The Women's Club Workshop welcomes all visitors, so if you are in need a cup of coffee, desire companionship, seek a special gift for a loved one, or just want to stop by and say hello, the MPR on Tuesday morning is the "happening place."

Give it a try, as the experience is guaranteed to put a smile on your face.

By Anne Wolfson

The Sing-A-Long group will be meeting in the AR on Monday, Oct. 10 and Oct. 31, from 7 to 8:30 p.m.

We have songbooks, and either Irene Olson or Stan Vansant plays the piano while we vocalize. It's lots of fun and very relaxing. It doesn't matter if you can't carry a tune. Just come and enjoy!

The Big Band

By Anne Wolfson

The Big Band will be playing on Tuesday nights in the AR on Oct. 11 and 18 from 7 to 9 p.m.

On Tuesday, Oct. 25, the Big Band will be playing for The Great Pumpkin Ball in the AR from 7 to 10 p.m. This is being sponsored by the LV Musicians. Tickets are $7 per person and will be on sale in the Lobby. They can also be purchased from Roy Badger at 388-9335 or Anne Steigerwald at 987-4603. Tables of 10 can be reserved.

There will be prizes for best costumes as well as raffle prizes. Costumes are optional.

All Leisure Villagers are invited to come and enjoy the sounds of a 17-piece band and vocalist, socialize, dance or just relax.

The Booster Club

By Lin Grant

Good news! The Boosters are again sponsoring the Veterans Day Canteen. This free event will be held Nov. 10, on Thursday, in the AR beginning at 2 p.m. Donuts and drinks will be served, with music and dancing plus a few patriotic vignettes. Please come and celebrate our veterans and their service.

October is our election month, so we are in need of folks who would like to be an officer. It's not a lot of work, and you'll get plenty of help, so please give it some thought.

The Boosters are hosting the Fall Sale on Oct. 15 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Come join us, for you may find the find of your life. Free hot dogs will be served by our Ed & Rec Committee. Thank you for your support.

We have new bricks donated by Bill Foeller for the Walk of Celebration. Get yours from Marilyn Riveles at 383-5706. The $200 gets you the brick, the engraving and installation. Visit the walk on the west side of the Rec Center; we know you'll want to be a part of it. A commemorating brick is a great holiday gift.

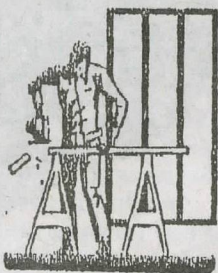

We hope you'll bring a friend and attend our next meeting, Oct. 11 at 7 p.m. in the Garden Room. We need ideas for projects and suggestions on how to spend the money. All clubs are invited to write their request to President Marilyn Riveles.

Veterans Club

By Paul Herring

The October Veterans Club meeting will be the last for this year before we go on furlough until January.

On Oct. 27, we will start the night with our annual dinner. This year it will be pizza, salad, sodas and ice cream, all for just $6. Only those who have paid in advance will get to eat.

So if you have not signed up and paid, call Paul Herring at 445-9272 before Oct. 20. Remember, any extra money from our yearly dinner is used for snacks at all the meetings throughout the year.

Dinner will be in the MPR at 6:30 p.m. That will be followed at 7:30 p.m. by the end-of-year general meeting, which will include a slide show review of our 2011 meetings.

Susan Jackson gave us an agility trial demonstration with her King Charles Cavalier Spaniel, Spencer, at our September meeting. Everyone was very impressed with the athletic ability and obedience training necessary for this event.

Our next meeting will be Oct. 9 at 7 p.m. in the MPR. Our speaker will be Beatrice Battier, DVM, who will be addressing pet food and allergies and other issues. She will talk about both dogs and cats.

Please clean out your closets and bring unused pet and household items to the meeting for our table in the Fall Sale Oct. 15.

Susan Maddox, at 390-1525, is still collecting bedding and towels and rolled newspaper for the Camarillo shelter. Bring items to the meeting or call her.

Dr. Deena Case-Pall will be starting another four-week dog training session Oct. 21. Please call Barbara Krohta at 445-4809 for details.

In the Open category, Margaret Petersen won first, Hemu Kalle won second and third place was won by Al Sarnelle. Honorable Mentions were awarded to Charlie Hartman and Jack Caldwell.

In the Creative category, the ribbon for first place was given to Marlene Votion, ribbon for second place went to Jean Kohut and third-place ribbon went to Don Treadwell.

Those residents with Facebook can view these on Leisure Village's Camera Club Facebook page.

The Camera Club is proud to be participating in the upcoming Festival of Arts show on Sunday, Nov. 6, between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. in the AR.

We encourage all residents to join us for our meetings on the first and third Wednesday of each month in the MPR at 7 p.m.

Photography tip: Keep your camera with you all the time.

Photo ops often come when you least expect it. If you can keep your equipment relatively simple – just a small camera bag and a tripod (they do have mini-tripods that fold) you might be able to take advantage of some of those unexpected opportunities. Or, if your phone has a camera, use it to take "notes" on scenes you'd like to return to with your regular camera.

LV Men's Golf Association

By Mannie Abbate

Monthly meetings are held on the second Tuesday of each month in the MPR at 2 p.m. Pre-meeting refreshments are served at 1:30 p.m. Come early, have bagels, cookies, coffee wine or punch and chat with the members. Get 50/50 tickets for a drawing at end of the meeting.

We will play at Westlake Golf

Course on Oct. 27 and at Mountain View Golf Course on Nov. 17. The last 2011 tournament will be at Sterling Hills Golf Course on Dec. 15. Check the bulletin board at the course and your e-mail for fees for all the future tournament dates.

Vice President John Hislar ran another wonderful Harvest Picnic for the LV Men and LV Women's Clubs and their families on Sept. 27. There was breakfast and a putting contest in the morning with a Picnic in the Park in the afternoon. This was a real treat with hamburgers, hot dogs, accoutrements, beer, wine and soft drinks. John needs volunteers to help with the social events.

Match Play Tournaments, to be played along with the regular Tuesday tournament at our LV course, are being planned. A fee will be charged to make prize pots. There will be two brackets, one bracket for "9ers" and another bracket for "18ers." E-mails will be sent and notices will be posted at the course. Call John Hislar if you have questions.

Every male resident is eligible for membership in the LVMGA. By joining our club he can play in our home course tournaments, attend our social functions, attend our monthly meetings, participate in our handicap system and play in our regulation course tournaments at many of the public courses in an area from one to 30 miles around Leisure Village. Do some recruiting to get new members!

Watch for the signs at the course and LVTV (Channels 25 or 995). Be sure to be included in the e-mail roster so Ernie Ohmstedt can keep you up to date from time to time as good things happen.

Classified ads

Please follow these instructions when submitting an ad for Inside Leisure Village:

1. Use an 8.5-by-11-inch sheet of paper.
2. Write or type your ad legibly.
3. Give your full name, address, and telephone number. These are for ILV records and will not be published unless requested.

5. Cost is $5 for a maximum five-line ad. Enclose cash, check or money order payable to ILV.

6. Place an envelope with the ad and payment in the ILV box next to the sewing room in the Rec Center before deadline. Each month's deadline is listed on Page 2.

ILV will accept ads from LV residents for properties they own personally, or ads of a non-commercial nature that offer jobs or services to Villagers. There is no charge for items or services offered free of charge. ILV does not investigate the ads and makes no endorsement of them.
