137 Riverside Drive,
New York City, N.Y.

Dear Mr. Hearst:

Enclosed are two sketches covering the general arrangement of spaces below B and the butterfly area.

A large slice of the bank caved on to the road this winter below B so that it seems better to keep the "motif" nearer the tree than in the first schemes. Secondary rockery paths are not shown.

I will send tomorrow a larger scale drawing of the lower B motif. Have also sketches of the English House--and Garage and Kitchen nearly ready.

Yours very truly,
