

Randolphs Lake Ice
July 6, 1891

Dear Dad -

There is a rumor that the Noble departs on his homeward journey after lunch. If it is so, he will pass Highland Springs and can mail his - He must have had a very stupid time here - as the girl he came to see has conducted herself as usual. He is really a very good quiet fellow with settled religious principles, though he don't intrude them, and keeps his temper under very fair control for the present day youth. William Bell intends going to see you - but is too proud to let you see him on crutches - nevertheless he hopes soon to accomplish his wish.

Emma has a sore throat today. I think its a stomache throat - Tomorrow is Kitties birthday and Emma want a picknick to an old mill to celebrate the day. Mr Blom and his party have returned from Soda Bay - he brought Sam a new knife and Sam is very pleased - I decided to remain longer to please Emma - There is a cool wind to day and its not hot - When I return I may tell you some amusing things - Try to get your teeth and eyes done - so you can go away and have a change of scene and surroundings - During your vacation I want you to get rested - and also to see something of this state - Emma sends her heartfelt love to you - I send our love to Ann and Papa - with - much for yourself I am your loving Mamma

Miss Julia Morgan.

No 754 14th Street,

Oakland,

Cal.