

00:00:13:21 - 00:01:34:23

Speaker 1

Thank you.

00:01:34:25 - 00:02:05:04

Speaker 2

Behind. We cannot guarantee what time they'll be here. But the man of his word and he will be here. So we're just asking for your patience. So we're going to go ahead and start the program and then wait until he's ready to be here so that he can talk to you. If I didn't find or take pictures of many of you, I would just say, given that professional courtesy that he came to final say, let me tell you why he made a commitment to come to California and a number one market in California is the millions of people in L.A. do my part.

00:02:05:06 - 00:02:28:09

Speaker 2

But I want to visit the people, that whole thing. So just by having him here was really a stroke of luck. So I'm telling people when he comes here, please listen to what he says. And he, by chance, does not sign an autograph or take a picture. Understand? It's not going well and that he's running behind to so many other interviews that have to go on this, which is running late.

00:02:28:12 - 00:02:47:25

Speaker 2

So without any more of this discussion, I just want to start the program by first welcoming all of you for taking time to come out here and see that living, that living legend. We're very proud that he's our spokesperson for literacy. But before I get into the program, I'd like to introduce the key persons that made this thing happen.

00:02:47:27 - 00:02:50:06

Speaker 2

I already mentioned Mr. Victor Garza.

00:02:50:12 - 00:03:05:17

Unknown

Because I'm putting this out right.

00:03:05:20 - 00:03:55:17

Speaker 2

Front of the board of CTP. Mr. Richard Rios, the executive director of CTC, Ron CAVANAUGH First person in my company out here. I was Doris from before when he was John. Okay. And Rick Perez from Telemundo and a couple of people that have a few words to say here. And I would like to bring our Mexican conflict counselor, Arturo Friday night to say a few words.

00:03:55:19 - 00:04:02:07

Speaker 2

Okay.

00:04:02:10 - 00:04:18:06

Speaker 2

I just want to thank the coyote somebody. And thanks for all of those people that made possible working day, because I think we both very proud of Mexico to have a people like this.

00:04:18:09 - 00:04:20:14

Speaker 1

I think it's important for all all the.

00:04:20:17 - 00:04:23:09

Speaker 4

People work for both.

00:04:23:09 - 00:04:27:02

Speaker 2

People right from the start with.

00:04:27:02 - 00:04:33:14

Unknown

Their own information. And I thank you again for having me. And I know.

00:04:33:16 - 00:04:35:01

Speaker 2

That will be hard for.

00:04:35:01 - 00:04:41:02

Unknown

All the people. I know that because people are very scared and you have to be.

00:04:41:05 - 00:04:42:00

Speaker 2

Careful.

00:04:42:03 - 00:04:50:17

Unknown

What you know, that you.

00:04:50:20 - 00:05:09:09

Speaker 2

You know, when we were in Fresno yesterday, there were just so many people that, of course, like I said, admire this person. And there was this great artist who 12 years ago when he first of all put a wire in his image, he drew this beautiful artwork because in his mind, he said, one day, I'm going to meet this man.

00:05:09:11 - 00:05:33:10

Speaker 2

And he had this beautiful art piece work for the portfolio. But when he found out it was there, he came up and he made a presentation to him. He went to something like Destiny. And today I met this wonderful lady named Martha, and she asked me to write a letter, Chavez, that, you know, he wrote. So I said, Well, you know what, Carlos?

00:05:33:10 - 00:05:46:22

Speaker 2

I'd be happy to. The situation would be changing. I would like to welcome her to present to what he wrote. Very beautiful.

00:05:46:25 - 00:06:11:19

Speaker 4

I'll read it to you. I read it in English first, and then I will read the finest version Just Beneath the Travesty, which very gave. And there are very many. There are three distinguished people in the Mexican community for that name. One is a boxer, the other is another. Do the composer and the other one is our union leaders.

00:06:11:21 - 00:06:45:26

Speaker 4

And and they are. They're all great men. Very well in the community. And this poem is is precisely a tribute to those three be that name of great distinction of a tiger, I guess and an eagle in the the three men three Rose Julio, Cesar Chavez and Tiger champion of our guys.

00:06:45:28 - 00:06:49:12

Unknown

And it's hard to.

00:06:49:15 - 00:07:21:22

Speaker 4

Be a champion of music and master of composition symphonies and melody that Chavez the champion of social justice, leader of defender of their rights, men of bay and splendor, three celebrities, three illustrious men walking along with without.

00:07:21:24 - 00:07:24:20

Speaker 2

Master.

00:07:24:22 - 00:07:41:05

Speaker 2

The purpose of this reception was going out to make a very special announcement. And to do a better job isn't just going to help us make it so. We're here for one reason, and that's literacy.

00:07:41:08 - 00:08:32:11

Speaker 2

It is estimated that one in five people in the USA can agree and write Because of this. It costs the United States over $445 billion in lost productivity, of course, was very much concerned about this five years ago. So of course, company many come in, many that we will try to provide literacy services to over 500,000 people because of organizations, national and local organizations such as CTC give in, like I said, organizations like CTC and other literacy groups.

00:08:32:13 - 00:09:22:00

Speaker 2

The Cold Brewing Company in December of 1994 accomplish that goal, and we did help over 500,000 without shirt and read and write, I believe, cause to who knows that the Chavez effort certainly deserves a round of applause because we were so successful in this endeavor. We felt that because Julio Cesar Chavez expressed some concerns for the people of Mexico as well as in the United States, that he also wanted to be part of this literacy campaign and because of that course, was able to contract with him.

00:09:22:02 - 00:09:52:15

Speaker 2

So what I would like to say right now is that CTC, the Center for Training and Career, has developed a partnership with them then for the month of September of August and September. So from the proceeds of all of the course product that we sell, a certain percentage of that is going to go to the Center for Training and Careers.

00:09:52:15 - 00:10:24:09

Speaker 2

To Amador in October when we telling ourselves and so on, we will be making an official presentation to Ruth Amador. We're very proud to make this partnership with them. They're doing a great job, as many of you know, so I would like to have them going to come here and say a few words about our agency.

Speaker 4

Thank you on behalf of the Board of directors and the staff of the Secretary in Peru. We wish to thank and congratulate course on your outstanding effort in the fight against illiteracy. And thank the approach of this 20th anniversary. It is a pleasure to have you here. Corporate partners such as Reform Brewing Company Seeds, we strives to improve the quality of life for economically disadvantaged individuals and providing unique educational and quality employment training opportunities that will lead to rewarding and productive lives.

00:11:01:28 - 00:11:24:07

Speaker 4

We are very proud of the staff and the work that we are doing through basically the successful program that it is today. Many students have passed through our doors over the 20 years. Students such as Vanessa. When Vanessa came to CTC, she was a single mother raising her four children on her meager welfare benefits. She was a high school dropout.

Speaker 4

After a lot of hard work and perseverance, Vanessa obtained her J.D. at CTC. She went on to have six more months to graduate from our word processing folk. Vanessa is now gainfully employed. It is no longer dependent on the welfare system. When things got wrapped in her life, the Nicole didn't run from the problems. She created opportunity. Like Julio, Vanessa was a fighter.

00:11:53:05 - 00:12:20:09

Speaker 4

Julio Cesar Chavez is a world champion boxer, and now he is a champion for literacy. He has touched the hearts of millions of people. Now he will open the doors to millions more. Even the power of reading, a former partnership between Coors Brewing Company and Julio Cesar Chavez to promote the program and the community as a benefactor. This is your basic knockout punch to eliminate illiteracy.

00:12:20:12 - 00:12:30:21

Speaker 4

Thank you. Course. And thank you, all of you, for being here with us today.

00:12:30:24 - 00:12:39:27

Speaker 2
