John Brock Community Service Award Dinner and Scholarships

Ben Stinson III, CSUB alumnus ('79) and president of Stinson Stationers, is this year's recipient of the John Brock Community Service Award. Ben will be recognized at the John Brock Awards dinner on September 5, 2013 at the Seven Oaks Country Club. Honorees are selected for distinguished community service, business ethics, and personal integrity by members of the School of Business and Public Administration's (BPA) Executive Advisory Council.

In addition to being a long-serving member and former chair of the CSUB Foundation Board of Directors, Ben also has served as chair of the Greater Bakersfield Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary Club, and board member of the American Cancer Society, Boys and Girls Club, and Kern County Homeless Coalition Task Force. He has been inducted to the CSUB Alumni Hall of Fame and the Bakersfield City School District Hall of Fame, and is a recipient of the Jim Burke Light and Liberty Award.

Proceeds from the awards dinner benefit the John Brock Endowment scholarships, awarded to BPA students for their academic achievement, community service, and leadership. Four students will receive $2,500 scholarships for their academic achievement, outstanding community service, and leadership: Ricky Esparza, Janet Espinoza, and Paisley Sitham, all senior business administration majors; and Derek Stotler, a junior business and economics double major. Tickets for the event are $150 per person. For more information, please call 654-2157.

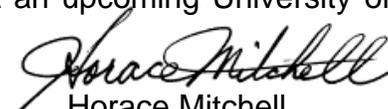

Appointment of Assistant to the President for Equity, Inclusion, and Compliance

I am pleased to announce the appointment of Claudia Catota, J.D. as Special Assistant to the President for Equity, Inclusion, and Compliance. Claudia comes to CSUB from CSU Long Beach where she served as the Equity and Diversity Specialist. Prior to that, she was an equal employment specialist at the U.S. Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, and a bilingual investigator/conciliator for the City of Madison Department of Civil Rights. Claudia earned her juris doctorate from the University of Wisconsin Law School, a bachelor's degree in African American Studies from UCLA, and expects to complete a master's degree in Latin American Studies from Cal State L.A. in June 2014. Please join me in welcoming Claudia to campus on September 9th.

University Council

The first University Council meeting of the academic year will be held Friday, October 25 at 10:00 a.m. in the Albertson Room. University Council is an open forum for members of the campus community to voice concerns or make suggestions for continued improvement. All faculty, staff, and students are welcome to attend.

I look forward to seeing you around campus or at an upcoming University or community event. Take care.

Horace Mitchell
President
