Fresno State is committed to creating and maintaining a safe learning, living, and working environment where sexual violence, relationship violence, stalking and harassment are impermissible and healthy, respectful behavior represents the campus norm. At Fresno State, primary prevention is our highest goal when addressing sexual violence, relationship violence, and stalking.

We recognize that survivors are experts in their own lives and we will respond and advocate in a compassionate and supportive manner according to the interests and needs of the victim/survivor.

Advocacy Services include:

- Confidential crisis Intervention
- Medical care/forensics exam accompaniment
- Law enforcement accompaniment
- Court accompaniment (restraining order assistance)
- Reporting options and assistance
- Academic and housing accommodations
- On- and off-campus resources and referrals
- Filing victim compensation applications

You are Not Alone!

You are Never to Blame!
