4. New Business
 - a. GE Writing Requirements Revision: MSC to approve with the recommendation that graduate teaching assistants coordinate with the WAC coordinator to be trained to respond to writing.
 - b. Future Directions: The committee discussed ways that we could make some positive changes to support writing across campus. Our brainstorm focused on these areas / ideas:
 - i. Check with our WAC coordinator and Writing Center Director for inventory of concerns
 - ii. More W courses for students: Crim: being told that they have to cut back on courses, can't offer a W course; Anthro 105: students can't get in until they are a spring semester senior
 - iii. Increased class sizes in GE and dealing with students who need a lot of support with writing: talk with GE teachers to find out what challenges they are facing with teaching writing on campus
 - iv. Differences between the colleges and resources for teaching assistants to help with responding to writing
 - v. Writing summit: We could use this opportunity to take inventory of what people want by focusing on getting key folks,

- teachers and students, to get to understand how to support writing on campus
- vi. Survey Students through ASI about their experiences with writing on campus

MSC to adjourn at 3:15pm

Next meeting: Thursday, April 26th from 2-3 in HML 4172. Each committee member should bring a friend who teaches in GE.
