

New York American

March 16, 1921.

Dear Miss Morgan :

Am I right in assuming that the contents of the envelopes surreptitiously opened were intact? Could you state just what was received in either case, and oblige,

Sincerely yours,

In this way I hope to be able to check up and make certain that nothing was lost or stolen.

J. J. Willicomby

RECEIVED
BOND