Recorded teleconference with Dr. Joseph Castro now available

A captioned audio recording of a teleconference with Fresno State President-designate Dr. Joseph I. Castro is now posted on YouTube.

The teleconference was held May 22, hours after the announcement of Castro's appointment as the eighth President of Fresno State. During the teleconference, reporters from several media outlets spoke with Castro about his childhood in Hanford, professional experience and expectations for Fresno State.

Castro is currently the vice chancellor, student academic affairs at University of California at San Francisco. He will begin his new position at Fresno State on August 1, 2013.
