

Where they are now?

Do they ever remember moments or events that happened at Fresno?

How their lives were affected or influenced?

Have they ever talked to their children about their experiences at Fresno?

Where are the children that were born there?

How many of the Fresno internees are now alive?

What a pleasure it would be to sit down and talk with a room full of former internees.

How many left this country after the war?

How many met their future wife or husband at Center?

How many returned after the war to their pre-war residence community?

How many have forgotten most of the evacuation?

How many Japanese now live in the U.S.?

How many Japanese internees have become elected officials in the U.S.?

How much property the Japanese descent people now own in the U.S.?

How many Japanese descent people are now on welfare?

How many even remember the name of one person that was in charge of any center department